David Arquette Says He Doubts He’ll Attend Ex Courteney Cox’s Celebrity Wedding

By Courtney Omernick

Even though David Arquette has remained close with his celebrity ex Courteney Cox, he doubts that he will be attending her upcoming celebrity wedding to Snow Patrol band member, Johnny McDaid. According to UsMagazine.com, Arquette said about his relationship with Cox and her fiancé, “We are all very tight and very close and very supportive of everyone.” These two celebrity romances have proven that, even among the stars, friendship with exes is possible!

Celebrity romances don't always end in drama! What are some ways you can also remain supportive of your ex post-split?

Cupid's Advice

It can be challenging to remain close or develop a friendship with your ex post-split, but if you're looking to remain supportive of them, Cupid has you covered! Check out our love advice below:

1. Focus on yourself first: If you want to go back to just being “friends” with your ex, the first thing you need to do is focus on yourself and lose your “couple” identity. Take some time to be away from the person and work on you as an individual. Deal with the break-up in your own way before connecting with the other person again.

2. Support their milestones: After you've spent time away from the relationship and understand yourself as an individual, you can show the other person your support through simple texts, e-mails, and phone calls. For example, if your ex just finished their first marathon, extending your thoughts through a “congratulations” text can show them that you're still a part of their support system. We're sure that Arquette expressed his happiness about Cox's upcoming celebrity wedding!

Courtney Cox's Fiance Johnny McDaid's Mom "Loves" Her

By Shannon Seibert

Impressing the parents is quite the feat, but Courtney Cox has certainly mastered the art of making a lasting impression. Cox's fiancé Johnny McDaid's mother Pauline McDaid gushed about her daughter-in-law to be. Pauline shared that the Cougar Town star is extremely empathetic and that she feels like a part of the family. According to UsMagazine.com Pauline said the pair are happily in love, and can't wait to be married.

What are some ways to impress your partner's parents?

Cupid's Advice:

Meeting the family is a huge deal. First impressions say a lot about people, but you do want to make a lasting impression. The best way to impress his parents is to not try to be overly impressive. Just be yourself and take these subtle suggestions into consideration for when you're with his family:

1. Remember stuff about them: It sounds simple enough, right? Remembering her favorite recipes, their hobbies, his favorite place to go fishing. All of the little things accumulate over time. His parents will feel appreciated that you would take the time to get to know them and want to learn about them. Ask them questions about how they met, funny memories, and what your partner was like growing up. They'll enjoy the conversation and you'll get to know them through the way they talk about him.

2. Not being afraid to be yourself: Your partner's parents are going to be looking for a good match for their son. They will value your honesty over everything else. Don't shy away from talking about your goals, plans, and what has made you who you are. If they can't appreciate you, then it's a good thing you're dating your partner and not his parents.

3. Be inclusive: There is nothing more exciting to parents than being included in their children's life. Be the one to reach out and invite them over for a barbecue, get your nails done with his mother, play a family game of poker, anything to interact with them. This way you won't just be the woman steering their son away, you'll be a part of their family too.

How do you remain civil with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Maintaining a positive relationship with an ex can be hard. Sometimes, you have to remain friends for the sake of children, or any other loved ones who may be involved. Cupid is here to help:

1. Communicate when necessary: You and your ex don't need to communicate with each other everyday. You shouldn't know what's going on in their love life unless they disclose that information to you themselves. If you have children together, let meeting together be strictly about your family.

3. Move on: In order to remain a civil, platonic relationship with your ex, you'll need to let go of all of your old feelings from them. All of the anger, hurt, pain, etc you felt toward your former flame needs to be put in the past. You'll never be able to move on and find someone new if you're still hung up on your ex.

New Couple? Courteney Cox Takes Snow Patrol's Johnny McDaid to Jennifer Aniston's Party

By April Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, Courteney Cox was photographed attending Jennifer Aniston's party with a date Sunday, Dec. 8. Snow Patrol rocker and the former Friends actress were spotted driving up to the party together. Cox was previously linked to Cougar Town costar Brian Van Holt in June.

How do you introduce your new partner to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your new boyfriend/girlfriend is a big step in your relationship. Having the person you're dating meet all of your loved ones can be stressful and nerve-racking, especially if you don't set up the meeting in the right way. Don't worry, Cupid is here to help:

1. Baby steps: Don't overwhelm your significant other by introducing them to all of your friends and family at one time. Take it slow. Your new honey will already be pretty nervous as it is. Start off by meeting up with one or two of your closest friends for a nice lunch or dinner. If your partner gets along well with them, introduce him/her to a few of your family members.

2. Heads up: Before you set up any meetings between your partner and your loved ones, give both parties a heads up first. Make sure your family and friends are aware of your new relationship. Give them a little bit of information about the person you're dating so they'll have some topics to talk about when they do see each other for the first time. Also, keep your partner's feelings in mind. Give them time to adjust to the idea of meeting your family and friends.
