In celebrity couple news, JoJo and Jordan experienced some rough patches in the first year of their relationship. How do you decide whether to stay together or split during a rough patch?

Cupid's Advice:

In relationships there will always be good times and there will also be bad ones, but it can be hard to decipher whether the bad times are enough to split. If you are in a relationship and you're not sure whether you should break up or stay together, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Does the good outweigh the bad?: When deciding if you and your partner should stay together, you should take a hard look at your relationship and figure out if the good times outweigh the bad. If they do, then you should try to make it work, but if not, then you may want to take a closer look at things.

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re in a relationship, it can be hard to hear about your partner’s past relationships, but acting as if they don’t exist isn't the way to go. If you find it hard to hear about your partner's exes, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Remind yourself that you're together now: It can be so difficult to hear about partners' past relationships, but you have to remind yourself that this is your partner now and whatever they may have done with someone else is irrelevant to your relationship. Keep your head on straight and be able to separate their past relationship and your new relationship.

The celebrity news was revealed on Rodgers' Instagram on Saturday, featuring a photo of the couple showing off Fletcher's new rock. The caption went on to explain that their first proposal for the show was real and meant the world to both of them. Cupid's Advice:

Wedding bells are in your future, but the road to the chapel is a long one. Fear not! Long engagements are challenging, but there are ways to reassure your partner and reaffirm your love during the process.:

1. Remember the date: Commit to small gestures that remind your partner you are excited for your nuptials, however far down the line they may be. Write the date with doodled hearts on your fridge's whiteboard, or leave your partner a sticky note reading "one year to go!" However you remind your significant other of your excitement, make it a fun, any day surprise.

2. Keep the romance going: Wedding planning can throw your brain into overdrive. While the details may be tempting to take over your life (and all your conversations), share a world with your partner outside of your wedding. Find a balance between excitement for your wedding and commitment to your love life by scheduling date nights where wedding talk is off the table.

3. Take small steps: Do not let your engagement drag without any planning whatsoever. Even if your wedding is set years down the line, make yourself a schedule. Try to settle at least one detail a month so that both you and your partner feel you're moving forward.

Will 'Bachelor' Celebrity Couple Ben Higgins & Lauren Bushnell Split Over JoJo Fletcher Drama?

By

Kayla Garritano

Is it a happily ever after? The new show from Ben Higgins and Lauren Bushnell, Ben & Lauren: Happily Ever After, gave viewers a chance to see the couple post-Bachelor. However, according to UsMagazine.com, psychotherapist and relationship expert Rhonda-Richards Smith dishes about whether she thinks this couple has what it takes to move past tensions, the biggest one being his prior love for runner-up JoJo Fletcher. The premiere of the show, which aired on Tuesday, October 11, started with the drama of going to Fletcher's After The Final Rose ceremony, where Bushnell said she is tired of having her Bachelor season 20 rival associated with the celebrity couple.

This celebrity couple could have some obstacles to overcome when it comes to Ben's ex, JoJo. What are some ways to keep ex drama out of your current relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Leaving an ex behind can sometimes be difficult to overcome, especially if you have a lot of history. But for the sake of a new and healthy relationship, you want to make sure the ex drama stays out. Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Stay away: If you're anything like Lauren Bushnell, you're going to want to stay away from the ex, even if it's for their new happiness with someone else. A friendly congratulations may be enough to help avoid any problems.

Related Link: Celebrity News: 'Bachelor' Ben Higgins Offers Advice to Ex JoJo Fletcher & Fiance

2. Realize you're happier without them: The reason why Ben didn't choose JoJo was because he was happier with Lauren. The reason why it didn't work out with your ex is because you know you're better off without them, and will be happier with someone else. Just make sure you know that before you jump into anything serious. We don't want those past feelings lingering into a new relationship!

3. Confront the problem: If the problem is that serious and you think you can't move on because of past feelings, it may be best to talk the problem out with your ex upfront. It's better to admit your feelings than to deny them. Talking it out makes it easier to move on, and hopefully you'll be able to find some closure.

And they lived happily ever after? It has almost been two months since JoJo Fletcher said “yes” to Jordan Rodgers’ marriage proposal on The Bachelorette. According to EOnline.com, an insider said that the celebrity couple spent last weekend at the iHeart Radio Festival in Las Vegas, where they showed a lot of PDA. However, some people are saying their relationship may not be the real thing. “There are people who know Jordan and JoJo who still don’t know what to make of them,” said another inside source. “On the surface, they act happy and in-sync. But it’s sometimes hard to tell if it’s real or not. If this relationship doesn’t work out, both of them—JoJo especially—would loathe hearing the words, ‘I told you so.’”

In celebrity news, the gossip tree has not been kind to this Bachelorette couple. What are some ways to keep gossip from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Gossip happens everywhere; with your gal pals, your significant other, or from anyone who loves to hear the "latest news." However, it's not fun for your private life. No worries, Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Don't listen to it: Everyone likes gossip. There's something about it that can't keep our ears away. But when it's your personal life, you should stay away from it. Only hearing gossip about you may affect your emotions, and hurt your relationship. Turn your head the other way; you don't need gossip to influence you and your partner.

2. Shut it down: Gossiping can mean rumors, too. You don't like what they're saying about you and your partner? Tell them. You don't need to prove yourself to anyone, but if you really want to show them that the gossip is wrong, let them know. They have to believe what you prove to them.

Cupid's Advice:

Exes can cause great pain that takes time to move on from. Hurting is common when dealing with a break-up and coping isn't always easy. Cupid is here to help:

1. A new relationship: The best way to get over somebody, is to get under somebody else. While this isn't always the case, sometimes it takes another person to distract you from your ex. Once you can accept the break-up and feel for somebody else, you'll be able to move on.

2. A new hobby: Distractions come in all forms and focusing on something new can keep you from dwelling on the past. Cheating happens, unfortunately it isn't always taken seriously and people's feelings aren't always considered. Keep in mind that once a cheater, always a cheater. Cupid is here to help:

1. Faithfulness: If you want to be the only girl in his life, you have to keep in mind his past. Don't settle for less than what you deserve and if he won't commit, keep your dignity and get out. If your friends are skeptical of him, keep that in mind too.

By

Stephanie Sacco

Jordan Rodgers has been all anyone's been talking about since he was first introduced on The Bachelorette. With a famous brother and the celebrity news in the tabloids focused on him and his family, Rodgers hasn't had the easiest journey. According to UsMagazine.com, since The Bachelorette finale aired and their relationship went public, he's speaking out. He said, "There's been a lot of really harsh and very untrue allegations along the way." The celebrity gossip following him came from his ex-girlfriend Brittany Farrar who claimed he cheated on her. what I'm focusing on." We're rooting for the new celebrity couple and hoping they can make it work.

Apparently the rumors in celebrity news around Jordan Rodgers simply weren't true. What are some ways to rise above rumors to form a healthy relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors have been around since the beginning of time. Somebody's always spreading word about someone else. When it comes to gossip, you have to find a way around them. Cupid is here to help:

1. Laugh them off: Rumors can get pretty ridiculous and unbelievable. Everyone's had rumors spread about them and sometimes you just have to blow them off. Laugh at the fact that somebody thinks it's worth their time to talk smack about you or your relationship. It's challenging but doable.

According to UsMagazine.com, Higgins gave advice saying, "If you're getting criticism, you're doing something. And you're trying to make your relationship work...Just support each other, love each other, and a couple months out of it, you're going to look back and smile."

This celebrity news has us grinning a bit! What are some ways to give advice to a friend having relationship questions?

Cupid's Advice:

Friends give friends relationship advice. Knowing you have someone to help you navigate relationship issues is one of the best parts of a friendship, but it's also a lot of pressure. You don't want to steer your friend wrong:

1. Know your friend: When giving your friend relationship advice, it is important to remember key things about them. Your job is to serve as their conscience when they're being swayed by emotions. Try to lead them to a decision they'd make on their own.

It's a celebrity couple Bachelorette engagement! What are some ways to propose in the most romantic way possible?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity engagement was not only heartfelt, but also extremely beautiful. Even if your proposal doesn't have a set designer, there are so many ways to have it be a memorable and romantic moment. Think outside the box to create a memory that will last a lifetime:

1. Just you two: Proposing in front of a lot of people may seem like a romantic move, but nine times out of 10, a one-on-one moment will be much sweeter. You'll have plenty of opportunity for attention after you announce the engagement, so consider proposing in a private setting or with just close friends and family in your audience. Plan a couples' vacation and propose at some point during the trip, or make a meal at home, set the room with flowers, and propose there. Let the moment be just for the two of you.

2. Speak from the heart: Nothing can make a proposal more romantic than letting your true feelings out. Think about what you want to say beforehand. It doesn't have to be written out, but you should know what point you want to make. Talk about your favorite memories, and why you love each other. No matter what setting you're in sweet words will make your proposal romantic, for sure.

3. Keepsake: Whether it's a video or photo documenting the engagement or a memento you used to propose, incorporate a lasting element into your proposal plans. Create a photo album of things you've done together, make a short storybook about your relationship, or simply have someone there to take a picture when you pop the question. Showing that you put a lot of thought into the proposal is super romantic, and having something to look back on after the moment has passed will preserve the romance forever.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guy Cut by JoJo Fletcher in Fantasy Suite

By

Nicole Caico

At the beginning of this week's episode of The Bachelorette it seemed like all three guys still had a fair shot at a celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher, but by the end, one of them was sent packing. Jordan, Robby, and Chase were the three lucky men who made it to the fantasy suite. It turns out that Chase was the one unlucky man to be sent home. UsMagazine.com reports that Chase proclaimed his love for JoJo, and she responded with, "When you said that to me, in my heart and in my gut, I don't think I felt what I thought I was gonna feel. I don't know if I'm in the same place as you. I don't know if spending this night together would change that feeling, and I almost feel like it would be unfair." Chase, rightly upset, left the show. JoJo made it clear that she is not interested in becoming a celebrity couple with Chase.

This celebrity news has us cringing a bit! What are some ways to let someone who is interested in you go?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always endearing to know that someone is interested in you. As flattering as it may be, there comes a time when you've got to let the person know that the feeling isn't mutual. No use putting it off. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

1. Remain unavailable: Before jumping into the full on "it's not you, it's me" convo, see if the person crushing on you can take a hint. When they text you, don't answer right away—and sometimes don't answer at all. Answering immediately and consistently usually conveys that you're interested, so doing the opposite may allow the person to catch on to your lukewarm feelings.

2. The other man: If the person pursuing you is someone you're friendly with or talk to regularly, get on the topic of relationships and try to casually mention another guy you're interested in. If you make it seem like you're confiding in this friend for advice on another guy or girl, they'll have to understand that your interest is elsewhere.

3. Be honest: As awkward as the conversation might be, being honest is the best way to go about it. Just telling the person, “Hey, it seems like you’re interested in me, but I’m not looking to date anyone” will clear up the whole situation. Being honest is also the best way to avoid hurting someone. Be honest, and remember—don’t apologize—you’re just not interested.

Celebrity News: ‘Bachelorette’ Contestant Robby Cries About JoJo Fletcher Hearing Rumors About Past Relationship

By

Nicole Caico

Contestant Robby Hayes is one of the last men standing on this season's The Bachelorette. Hometown dates were on the July 18 episode, and according to UsMagazine.com, Hayes' mother informed him while he was home, "Your ex's roommate has made it look like you broke up to go on the show." This isn't the first time Hayes' past relationship with Hope Higginbotham has threatened the possibility of his new celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher. Higginbotham's roommate, Alex, and ex-contestant Chad Johnson have both claimed that Hayes ended the relationship to go on The Bachelorette.

This celebrity news has us indulging in the reality TV drama. What are some ways to keep things that happened in your past relationship out of your new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter how long or short a past relationship lasted, pieces of what happened between you and your ex can bounce around in your mind for a long time after. Don't let side effects from your last relationship spoil something good you have going on now. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Cut ties: If you haven't already, cleanse your life of your ex. Unfollow your ex on social media, block them if necessary, and delete the contact information in your phone. Communicating with your ex, or seeing posts, will keep re-opening your history. In order to keep your past relationship out of your new relationship, follow an "out of sight out of mind" based strategy.

2. No deja vu: Don't bring up the topic of your ex to your new significant other out of the blue. If you're visiting a place you used to go with your ex, try to keep that to yourself. If you're in a fight and your new significant other says or does something that your ex used to do, don't point it out. The moral of the story is, you're in a new relationship with an entirely new person. Your new boo shouldn't have to feel constantly compared to or reminded of the last person you dated.

3. Move on: Focus on what makes your new relationship different or better than your last and dwell on that. You should be looking ahead, and planning new experiences with the person you're involved with now. Remind yourself that what's done is done and move forward without baggage.

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups are rough. At some point you'll get over the split and will go on with your life. Your ex may not be as fortunate and may try to cling onto the past. Let Cupid help you get rid of your obsessive ex:

1. Tell the truth: Be honest with your ex and let them know that you no longer see a future with them. Telling the truth might be hard, but it's unfair to mislead and string them along. Your ex may finally let you go in peace if they understand there's no hope for a relationship.

'Bachelorette' Star JoJo

Fletcher Says Goodbye to Two Suitors Pre-Hometown Dates

By

Nicole Caico

On this week's episode of The Bachelorette, JoJo Fletcher sent home Alex and James. According to UsMagazine.com, while Robby got the rose at the end of this week's group date, Jordan is looking like the front runner in the competition to become the other half of JoJo's celebrity couple. Remaining competitors Chase, Robby, Jordan, and Luke will have to pull out all the stops in the upcoming hometown dates when JoJo will travel with them to meet their families.

In celebrity news, the hometown dates on The Bachelorette are almost upon us! What are some ways to prepare to meet your partner's family?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter who you are, meeting your partner's family is probably one of the most nerve wracking things you'll ever have to do. Even if you know that the family who raised the amazing person you're with must be the nicest people on the planet, being nervous comes naturally. First impressions are important, so it's best to prepare as much as you can before meeting your partner's family:

1. The family tree: Before meeting your partner's family, ask your partner some questions about them, especially if you're meeting extended family and not just Mom, Dad, and siblings. Hearing some names beforehand will help you to feel familiar upon arrival, and some background won't hurt either. Who is on what side of the family? What ages are your partners' siblings? Get some info.

2. Contribute: Most people consider showing up to a first meeting with the family empty handed a mistake. First impressions are important, and it's beneficial to be as polite as possible. Bring your significant other's family flowers or a dessert. What you bring does not have to be extremely personal or a gift wrapped present, just bringing something to show you made an effort can go a long way.

3. Take a deep breath: Above all, just be yourself. It is worth it to prepare, but there is only so much you can do. Put on some nice clothes, grab a small gift, review names of family members, and just breathe.
