Cupid's Advice:

In relationships there will always be good times and there will also be bad ones, but it can be hard to decipher whether the bad times are enough to split. If you are in a relationship and you're not sure whether you should break up or stay together, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Does the good outweigh the bad?: When deciding if you and your partner should stay together, you should take a hard look at your relationship and figure out if the good times outweigh the bad. If they do, then you should try to make it work, but if not, then you may want to take a closer look at things.

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re in a relationship, it can be hard to hear about your partner’s past relationships, but acting as if they don’t exist isn't the way to go. If you find it hard to hear about your partner's exes, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Remind yourself that you're together now: It can be so difficult to hear about partners' past relationships, but you have to remind yourself that this is your partner now and whatever they may have done with someone else is irrelevant to your relationship. Keep your head on straight and be able to separate their past relationship and your new relationship.

Katie Sotack

Almost a year after his initial proposal on The Bachelorette, Jordan Rodgers proposed to JoJo Fletcher all over again. The celebrity news was revealed on Rodgers' Instagram on Saturday, featuring a photo of the couple showing off Fletcher's new rock. The caption went on to explain that their first proposal for the show was real and meant the world to both of them. Perhaps there will be a celebrity wedding on the horizon finally for this Bachelorette couple. What are some ways to make your partner feel special during a long engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Wedding bells are in your future, but the road to the chapel is a long one. Fear not! Long engagements are challenging, but there are ways to reassure your partner and reaffirm your love during the process.:

1. Remember the date: Commit to small gestures that remind your partner you are excited for your nuptials, however far down the line they may be. Write the date with doodled hearts on your fridge's whiteboard, or leave your partner a sticky note reading "one year to go!" However you remind your significant other of your excitement, make it a fun, any day surprise.

2. Keep the romance going: Wedding planning can throw your brain into overdrive. While the details may be tempting to take over your life (and all your conversations), share a world with your partner outside of your wedding. Find a balance between excitement for your wedding and commitment to your love life by scheduling date nights where wedding talk is off the table.

3. Take small steps: Do not let your engagement drag without any planning whatsoever. Even if your wedding is set years down the line, make yourself a schedule. Try to settle at least one detail a month so that both you and your partner feel you're moving forward.

Gossip happens everywhere; with your gal pals, your significant other, or from anyone who loves to hear the "latest news." However, it's not fun for your private life. No worries, Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Don't listen to it: Everyone likes gossip. There's something about it that can't keep our ears away. But when it's your personal life, you should stay away from it. Cupid's Advice:

Exes can cause great pain that takes time to move on from. Hurting is common when dealing with a break-up and coping isn't always easy. Cupid is here to help:

1. A new relationship: The best way to get over somebody, is to get under somebody else. While this isn't always the case, sometimes it takes another person to distract you from your ex. Once you can accept the break-up and feel for somebody else, you'll be able to move on.

2. A new hobby: Distractions come in all forms and focusing on something new can keep you from dwelling on the past. Channeling your emotions into a painting or creating something can give you a sense of contentment.

3. A new look: Don't ever change for somebody, especially a guy, but doing your hair the way you like or wearing your favorite clothes can make you feel better. A new look can create a new attitude where you are 100% you. Holding back for a guy can cause resentment and being you is the most important thing.

By

Stephanie Sacco

Jordan Rodgers has been the face of celebrity gossip since he was cast on The Bachelorette. The celebrity news involving the reality TV star this time is that he's a cheater and there's proof. Cupid's Advice:

Cheating happens, unfortunately it isn't always taken seriously and people's feelings aren't always considered. Keep in mind that once a cheater, always a cheater. Cupid is here to help:

1. Faithfulness: If you want to be the only girl in his life, you have to keep in mind his past. Don't settle for less than what you deserve and if he won't commit, keep your dignity and get out. If your friends are skeptical of him, keep that in mind too.

Rumors have been around since the beginning of time. Somebody's always spreading word about someone else. When it comes to gossip, you have to find a way around them. Cupid is here to help:

1. Laugh them off: Rumors can get pretty ridiculous and unbelievable. Everyone's had rumors spread about them and sometimes you just have to blow them off. Laugh at the fact that somebody thinks it's worth their time to talk smack about you or your relationship. It's challenging but doable.

It's a celebrity couple Bachelorette engagement! What are some ways to propose in the most romantic way possible?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity engagement was not only heartfelt, but also extremely beautiful. Even if your proposal doesn't have a set designer, there are so many ways to have it be a memorable and romantic moment. Think outside the box to create a memory that will last a lifetime:

1. Just you two: Proposing in front of a lot of people may seem like a romantic move, but nine times out of 10, a one-on-one moment will be much sweeter. You'll have plenty of opportunity for attention after you announce the engagement, so consider proposing in a private setting or with just close friends and family in your audience. Plan a couples' vacation and propose at some point during the trip, or make a meal at home, set the room with flowers, and propose there. Let the moment be just for the two of you.

2. Speak from the heart: Nothing can make a proposal more romantic than letting your true feelings out. Think about what you want to say beforehand. It doesn't have to be written out, but you should know what point you want to make. Talk about your favorite memories, and why you love each other. No matter what setting you're in sweet words will make your proposal romantic, for sure.

3. Keepsake: Whether it's a video or photo documenting the engagement or a memento you used to propose, incorporate a lasting element into your proposal plans. Create a photo album of things you've done together, make a short storybook about your relationship, or simply have someone there to take a picture when you pop the question. Showing that you put a lot of thought into the proposal is super romantic, and having something to look back on after the moment has passed will preserve the romance forever.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Star JoJo Fletcher Says Goodbye to Two Suitors Pre-Hometown Dates

By

Nicole Caico

On this week's episode of The Bachelorette, JoJo Fletcher sent home Alex and James. According to UsMagazine.com, while Robby got the rose at the end of this week's group date, Jordan is looking like the front runner in the competition to become the other half of JoJo's celebrity couple. Remaining competitors Chase, Robby, Jordan, and Luke will have to pull out all the stops in the upcoming hometown dates when JoJo will travel with them to meet their families.

In celebrity news, the hometown dates on The Bachelorette are almost upon us! What are some ways to prepare to meet your partner's family?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter who you are, meeting your partner's family is probably one of the most nerve wracking things you'll ever have to do. Even if you know that the family who raised the amazing person you're with must be the nicest people on the planet, being nervous comes naturally. First impressions are important, so it's best to prepare as much as you can before meeting your partner's family:

1. The family tree: Before meeting your partner's family, ask your partner some questions about them, especially if you're meeting extended family and not just Mom, Dad, and siblings. Hearing some names beforehand will help you to feel familiar upon arrival, and some background won't hurt either. Who is on what side of the family? What ages are your partners' siblings? Get some info.

2. Contribute: Most people consider showing up to a first meeting with the family empty handed a mistake. First impressions are important, and it's beneficial to be as polite as possible. Bring your significant other's family flowers or a dessert. What you bring does not have to be extremely personal or a gift wrapped present, just bringing something to show you made an effort can go a long way.

3. Take a deep breath: Above all, just be yourself. It is worth it to prepare, but there is only so much you can do. Put on some nice clothes, grab a small gift, review names of family members, and just breathe.
