Where are some romantic locations to get married?

Cupid's Advice:

So now that he has finally proposed, what next? The wedding of course. If you're still not sure exactly where to have the ceremony, Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Maui, Hawaii: If you've always dreamed of having a wedding on a beach, then consider heading off to Maui, Hawaii. Have a romantic wedding by the ocean with palm trees and the sun setting in the background.

2. Dalhousie Castle – Scotland: If you're searching for a place outside of the states, then make sure to check out this 13th-century castle that's been converted into a luxury hotel. You'll definitely feel like royalty as you tie the knot with your beloved here.

3. Legion of Honor – San Francisco, California: If you're a west coaster, the Palace of the Legion of Honor is the place for you to get married. With amazing views of the Bay and the city of San Francisco, including exhibits featuring the arts, you won't regret your decision.

Fergie and Josh Duhamel Are Ready to Start a Family

Black Eyed Peas singer Fergie has babies on the mind, reports People. When asked about starting a family with her husband Josh Duhamel, the singer replied, " Oh yeah, of course. Not right this second. [I'm] not pregnant, for the record. But, yeah." Fergie, who is taking a break from the Black Eyed Peas as her bandmates work on solo projects, is glad to be "getting more of that personal time. Josh and I have gotten to spend a lot more time together this year than other years, which is great."

How do you know it's time to start building a family with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Starting a family is one of the biggest changes your life will ever face. Here are a few ways to determine if you're ready:

1. Your marriage is in a good place: Make sure that you and your husband are absolutely comfortable together and that your marriage is happy and stable before bringing a baby into the world.

2. Financial stability: Children are expensive. Before having a child, make sure your bank accounts are able to handle the burden. Being financially stable will save you from much frustration down the line.

3. Your feelings: Analyze your own feelings on the subject. If you don't feel 100 percent ready to start a family, then don't. You need to be completely sure of your decision before you commit to such a life-changing experience.

Fergie Wants to Spend More Time with Husband Josh Duhamel

Now that Fergie finally has a break from touring, the first thing on her agenda is spending more time with her husband Josh Duhamel.

According to UsMagazine.com, Fergie says that her and Duhamel's quality time consists primarily of listening to music and going down to North Dakota to visit Duhamel's parents. The singer says, "My husband and I like playing music from our childhood," says Fergie. "Music which makes a difference to us. It's a bonding thing. It's nice to share music from your past with someone you love because you learn a lot more about the person."

How can you carve out more time with your significant other? Cupid's Advice:

Between work and kids, quality time with your partner is pretty hard to come by. Here are some tips on how to create more time with your significant other:

- 1. Date night: Set aside one night a week that you two have committed to each other. For that one night, every other responsibility must fall to the waist side, no matter what.
- 2. Breakfast: No matter what time each of you has work, make a set time to have breakfast with one another. It's the only meal that is guaranteed.
- 3. Take a trip: As hard as it may be to take time off from work, whether its two days or five, make sure that at least once a year you are able to get away together as a couple.

Josh Duhamel Wants To Be a Dad!

In the romantic comedy Life As We Know It, Josh Duhamel plays a new dad, a role he says he'd love to have in real life. According to People, Josh says that getting the chance to play a father is what "initially drew me to" the role. During the New York premiere at the Ziegfeld, he opened up even more saying, that he has "always had a real fondness for kids." In terms of his wife, he says, "She'll be a great mom ... She got to meet [costar Katherine Heigl's daughter] Naleigh on set. It was great." Maybe this is a hint of what's to come for him and Fergie in the very near future!

How do you know if your partner is parent material?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone is as eager to be a parent as Josh Duhamel. Cupid has some ideas on how to find out whether your partner will make a good dad one day:

1. Ask him: The best way to determine if your mate is father material is to talk to him about it. Or, try asking him general questions like how many children he wants and at what age. If he gives you an answer right away, he's probably considered it before and is open to the idea. If he gets a little freaked out, well that should be a clear sign that he's not quite ready.

2. Watch and learn: See how he behaves around your other kids. If being around children comes natural to him he'll most likely make a good daddy to his own. If he seems uncomfortable or indifferent around youngsters, it may be something you should further explore.

3. Meet the parents: Find out if he gets along with his parents. If he's had a bad relationship with his mom or dad, he may need to work out some issues first before he can think about becoming a parent himself.

'Life As We Know It' Starring Katherine Heigl & Josh Duhamel

For a story about romance cropping up in the most unexpected places (with often hilarious results), check out the new comedy Life As We Know It. In the film, two single adults are forced to raise a baby together after their mutual friends die in an accident and leave their daughter in their friends' care. The situation is complicated even more by the fact that Holly (Katherine Heigl) and Eric (Josh Duhamel) don't exactly get along. But for the sake of Sophie, their new baby girl, they must learn to live together. In the end, after going through all the challenges that new parents face together, their relationship goes from outright hostility to mutual respect ... and eventually, maybe even love.

How can having a baby bring you together as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Raising a child is the hardest job in the world, and children often change relationships forever. Cupid has some insight on what to expect after bringing home a baby, and how to make sure the bond between you and your partner stays strong:

1. Take a break: The chaos that a new baby brings leaves little time to focus on your partner (or yourself, for that matter). Make sure to take a night off once in awhile to de-stress. It'll also help you realize that you couldn't do it without your mate.

2. Learn new things: Becoming a parent can bring out a whole new side of a person. You might learn that your partner is more caring and responsible than you'd ever imagined. Don't forget to tell him how much you appreciate his new soft side.

3. Grow stronger: Raising a child presents so many new challenges to a couple that it can't help but strengthen a relationship. Every time you feel so tired and stressed out that you want to give up, remember that you are in this together.

Katherine Heigl & Josh Duhamel Compare Past Dating Disasters

First dates are always hit or miss. At a promotional press conference for their upcoming romantic comedy, Life As We Know It, Katherine Heigl and Josh Duhamel, both married, reminisced about past dating disasters, according to People. Whereas dating in general scared Duhamel, Heigl, married three years to singer Josh Kelley, spoke of an awkward date with a personal trainer.

"He took me to Sizzler and gave me his head shot and asked me if I could get him in my agency," recalled the actress.

Although this was ultimately the deal breaker, she also went on to notice his shaved legs. We can only wonder if she stuck around long enough for dessert!

How can you tactfully escape a bad date?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all love connections will a relationship make. While it can be frustrating to see a potential date go down the drain, it is also important to keep a positive attitude and wait until the night is over to dish your friends the outrageous details:

1. Play it cool: Yes, he may be extremely rude to the waitress, and yes, it was crazy he didn't open the door for you, but keep this in mind: it's a one-time deal. There's no rule that says the relationship has to continue. Try to sit through the dinner. Just make sure he's not planning on leaving you with the bill!

2. Something bad happened: If you have a feeling things may take a turn for the worse on your date, let a friend in on how you feel. Although it can be crass to take personal calls on your date, if it's going poorly, make an exception. Or, text your friend from the bathroom, and let her know it's time to pull the plug. The classic Sex and the City-inspired "something bad happened" will always get you out of a tight jam.

3. Do not pass go: If your date involves two parts, like dinner and a movie for example, leave at intermission. This will be exceptionally easy if you each drove separately. Tell him something has come up and you won't be able to make the movie after all. Then, speed back home to your sweats and a glass of wine. Hold all calls until the next day.

'The Romantics' Starring Katie Holmes, Anna Paquin, Elijah Wood & More

By Jessica DeRubbo

Interested in seeing a love story that transcends the rom com genre by breathing new life into it with a unique plot and A-list actors? Eager to settle into a theater seat with buttery popcorn in your lap and your girlfriends giggling by your side? The Romantics, which premieres today, September 10, may be just what you need. Based on the novel by producer/writer/director Galt Niederhoffer, The Romantics is directed by its original novelist and follows the story of seven close friends, all members of the same college clique, as they get together to watch two of their own get married. Lila (Anna Paquin), the bride, and Laura (Katie Holmes), the maid of honor, have long been coveting for Tom (Josh Duhamel), the groom. In fact, Laura is his former lover. As if this heated love triangle doesn't create enough tension and drama already, the drunken group of friends takes a late-night swim the day before the wedding and return without the groom. Ominous weather is looming overhead, and the night is sure to be eventful.

Want some solid reasons as to why you should start making your way over to the movie theater?

Check out what these reviews had to say:

1. "The Romantics gets much of the female chitchat right, from catty asides to sisterly chase-fights in bare feet," says Time Out New York's Joshua Rothkopf.
2. "Replete with unconventional music choices, hand-held camerawork, and a rather simple, yet dramatic and funny plot, the film balances itself out with its share of hits and misses," says Limité Magazine's Daniel Quitério.
3. "So one enjoys Romantics for the genre trappings – the inebriated toasts, feverish gossiping, unexpected trysts, the de rigueur wedding dress snafu and bright lines that cut through the mood of sentimentality and nostalgia," says the Hollywood Reporter's Kirk Honeycutt.

Other notable actors and actresses in the film include Adam Brody, Malin Akerman, Elijah Wood, Diana Agron, Jeremy Strong, Rebecca Lawrence and Candice Bergen.
