In celebrity break-up news, Josh Lucas' ex-wife is airing her grievances publicly. What are some things to consider before going public with relationship disagreements?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a disagreement with your partner can really be difficult, and sometimes you can be airing your dirty laundry without realizing it just because you need to vent. If you tend to go public with your relationship disagreements before considering all of the consequences, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Think of the kids: Relationship disputes can be a really delicate situation, but when there are kids involved, it only makes it more complicated. You don't want your kids to be involved in adult conflict, and when you go public with your relationship drama, it can easily be overheard by your children. So, before you publicize your relationship disagreement, think about your kids. Put them first.

2. What will your family and friends think?: When you tell your family and friends about your relationship feud, it can really paint a negative picture of your partner in their heads. If you decide to work out your differences and forgive your partner, your family and friends might not forgive them so easily, which will make gatherings really awkward. Your complaints can be taken to heart by your family and friends, making your partner seeming like a terrible person.

3. You'll receive everyone's two cents: Having everyone know that you and your partner are having relationship issues can result in everyone giving their unwanted opinions. Hearing their thoughts about your relationship can stress you out. Sometimes unwanted opinions can lead to blowing smaller issues out of proportion, which only results in more conflict. When you deal with your relationship issues internally, you'll focus on your opinion alone, and that's ultimately the only one that matters.

Josh Lucas Says 'Becoming a Father Has Changed Everything'

By April Littleton

According to People, Josh Lucas, who split from his wife Jessica Ciencin Henriquez in January, is only focusing on the well-being of his son Noah, 20 months. “My becoming a father has changed absolutely everything in my life,” he said. “I am more and more wanting to be a part of things that [are] playful and more the things I see my son really responding to and enjoying.” Lucas and his wife became engaged six weeks after meeting. The former couple are now trying to remain amicable with each other.

How do you explain a breakup to your child(ren)?

Cupid’s Advice:

A breakup can be tougher on a child than it is for the adults involved. Don’t just assume your child(ren) understand your situation. When you decide you and your partner are no longer a perfect match, you need to let the rest of your family know what’s going on. Cupid is here to help:

1. Be patient: After you break the news to your child(ren), you need to make sure they know it's OK to express how they feel to you. Be patient with them. Ask them to share any questions or comments with you. Listen to what they have to say. Try to give them some positive responses and reassure them the breakup was for the best.

Josh Lucas Welcomes a Baby Boy

Actor Josh Lucas has just become a first-time father with his wife Jessica. The couple married in a low-key ceremony in New York City's Conservatory Garden in March, where they also stated that they were parents-to-be. People reports that their baby boy, Noah Rev Maurer, was welcomed into the world on Friday, June 29 and weighed 9 lbs., 4 oz. Their first child together was born in New York City, the same city where their nuptials were held.

How do you prepare for a baby boy versus a girl?

Cupid's Advice:

Preparing for a baby can be stressful, but knowing the gender can help narrow down a lot of tough decisions. Here are some ways to gear up for the baby blue over the pink:

1. Color Schemes: From picking out the paint color of the nursery to all of the little clothes, gender is a vital factor. When preparing for a boy, masculine colors like blue and green are more popular, compared to floral colors like pink and orange for girls.

2. Decorations and Toys: As hard as it will be to walk past all of those Barbies and tutus without longing to buy them, you'll have to if you're preparing for a boy. Your house needs to be full of miniature race cars and train sets if you want your baby boy to grow up in a fun environment.

3. Talk to your spouse's parents: You can learn a lot from your in-laws in preparing for a baby boy, whereas if you were having a girl, you'll want to ask your own parents for advice. From the mistakes they made to the special recipes they have, it's in your best interest to learn from those with the most direct experience, even if that means talking to your partner's parents a little more.
