By Lauren Burczyk

In celebrity news, Josh Murray, who appeared on The Bachelorette in 2014, blatantly compared his ex-fiancée, Andi Dorfman, to the Devil, in a recent Instagram post. According to EOnline.com, the contemptuous photo of the celebrity exes showed Murray down on one knee proposing to Dorfman, whose face is covered up by a devil emoji. These celebrity exes are not exactly on good terms. What are some ways to keep things civil with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not always easy to stay on good terms with your ex. However, sometimes it's best to be civil to avoid hurtful confrontations years down the line. Cupid has some ideas for an amicable relationship with your ex:

1. Forgive your ex, and forget about the past: Forgiveness and looking past your problems together as a couple will allow you both to enter into a new kind of relationship. Both parties need to let go of resentment and see each other in a new way.

2. Take it slow: It can be difficult to rush right into forgiveness with your ex, considering the negativity surrounding a split. Remember to give yourself some time to forgive your ex and try to stay optimistic.

Celebrity Exes: Josh Murray Is 'Thankful' Ex Amanda Stanton Is Dating Robby Hayes

By Melissa Lee

In Bachelor Nation news, Josh Murray claims that he's unbothered by his ex Amanda Stanton's current romance with Bachelor In Paradise co-star Robby Hayes. Stanton and Murray were engaged before their celebrity break-up in December 2016 after a string of events that caused the relationship to become toxic and unhealthy. According to UsMagazine.com, Murray moved on awhile ago. "I'm dating, I'm doing a lot of things, and I wish them nothing but the best."

Josh Murray isn't jealous his celebrity ex is dating someone new; quite the opposite! What are some ways to deal with your ex moving on with someone new?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups are already tough enough, but things can get even harder when your ex has officially moved on. If you have found yourself in a similar situation, check out some of Cupid's advice to get you through it:

1. Accept it: It's harsh, but the first thing you have to do is accept the fact that your former lover has moved on. Understand that this is most likely for the best so you can do the exact same thing. Use this as an opportunity to rid yourself of any lingering feelings, and move forward with your own life.

2. Focus on yourself: While it may be difficult to ignore the thoughts surrounding your ex's new relationship, use it as fuel to work on yourself. Give yourself a makeover, change your hair, or do something you've always wanted to do. Tasks like this can slowly contribute to better self esteem, and you'll feel great about all the things you've done for yourself instead of focusing on the negative.

It's often tempting to give your ex a second chance. After all, you feel comfortable together, know each other well, and know that you can make each other happy. If you, like this celebrity couple, are thinking about reconciling with a past love, consider this dating advice:

1. You want the same things: It's not every day that you meet someone who you share passionate feelings, values, and longterm goals with. If you still can picture a life together – one that makes both of you happy – even after your breakup, you should sit down and discuss what went wrong and what you can change to make sure things go right this time.

That slap looked like it hurt haha I could definitely think of someone more deserving of that... #thebachelor." In celebrity news, this pair is still experiencing some fall-out from their break-up. What are some ways to keep the fall-out after a break-up to a minimum?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is never easy, and there are always at least some residual effects. That being said, you don't have to experience major negative fall-out. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make sure there's closure: Sometimes when break-ups happen, there's no closure. Whoever has done the breaking up simply runs away without an explanation. This isn't good when it comes to fall-out afterward, as the other person is no doubt going to want some answers. Make sure you leave everything on the table when you're going through a split.

2. Keep the gossip to a minimum: It can be tempting to gossip about your ex to your friends and family right after a break-up, but try to refrain from doing that. It will no doubt get back to your ex, and may cause him or her to retaliate.

3. Tell your friends and family to play it cool: Your close friends and family are no doubt on your side after your split, and they may want to stir things up with your ex on your behalf. Make sure to communicate with your friends and family and let them know that you’d simply like everyone to move on instead of causing any issues.

Celebrity Exes Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray Flaunt their Search for Love Online

"I never say never," she shared, "I've learned that for a really long time, to never say never, but I think I'm really happy with the life I'm living right now and all I can say is I hope for happiness with him too."

Celebrity exes Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray aren't shy about publicly displaying their search for love. What are three reasons exes should not openly flaunt their dating life in front of one another?

Cupid's Advice:

There's always the question of how long you should wait from the break-up to going back out and looking for love. Once you do start a new romantic relationship, are you suppose to let your ex know? Here are three reasons why it's better to keep your dating life away from a past lover:

1. It could look like competition: If it seems like you're purposely bragging about your new love life just to make your ex jealous, it may be difficult to start a real and true new relationship. Both your new guy and your ex will think the relationship is only for attention.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Did Josh Murray Split with Former 'Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman for More Reality TV Fame?

2. Maintaining a friendship: Although some break-ups make it impossible for any form of friendship to last, that's not always the case. If you still want to have your ex in your life, it's better not to bring up the subject of dating and new mates. It's uncomfortable and can put a strain on the new friendship.

Related Link: 'The Bachelor' Host Chris Harrison Says He "Had No Clue" Andi Dorfman & Josh Murray Would Break-Up

3. Picking a side: If you two have dated for a long it is likely that you have mutual friends. If you're flaunting all over Facebook or Twitter about your new partner, your ex may get curious and try to get the details from one of those mutual friends, placing them in an awkward situation. Rather than making your friends feel like they have to chose a side in the break-up or play the messenger between the two, it's better to just keep that part of your life private.

New Celebrity Couple? Reality TV Stars Josh Murray and Ashley Iaconetti Party Together in NYC

By Emma L. Wells

Last Monday, The Bachelorette season 10 winner Josh Murray and The Bachelor season 19 contestant Ashley Iaconetti were seen with a large group partying in New York City, prompting rumors that these reality TV stars are a new celebrity couple. Murray posted a picture of the mostly gal group on his Instagram, saying, "Had a great time, NYC, it's always nice meeting new friends." Only Iaconetti and one other woman were tagged in the shot of 13 party-goers. People.com reported that Murray was in New York working for fitness and nutrition brand AdvoCare. Despite sitting close and looking like a cute famous couple, both Murray and Iaconetti insist they aren't dating.

These two reality TV stars have denied being a celebrity couple, but given their similar experiences, we think they'd be a good pair! Find out how a common background can help your relationship and love be a success.

Cupid's Advice:

We've all heard that opposites attract. While a little disparity in a relationship can add some spice, being with someone who shares a similar history is a strong foundation for a new relationship and love. Cupid explains why below:

1. You have a better understanding: People are a product of their experiences. Understanding someone's experiences firsthand will help you better understand them and their intentions. Being on a reality TV dating show is not something a lot of people can relate to, which is one reason why Murray and Iaconetti could potentially match well as a celebrity couple.

Related Link: 'The Bachelorette' Winner Josh Murray Says He Doesn't Miss Celebrity Ex Andi Dorfman

2. You share a common perspective: In most cases, having a similar background means that you will also have a similar perspective on certain issues. Whether it be politics, religion, finances, or family, when you share the same opinions, you'll be able to communicate better. These types of discussions can be difficult to have, but if you're of the same mind, you'll come to an agreement much easier.

Related Link: ‘The Bachelor’ Season 19 Contestants Treat a Relationship and Love with Chris Soules Like a Game

3. There’s an easier learning curve: If you are from different ways of life (religiously, culturally, socio-economically, etc.), it doesn’t mean your relationship and love won’t succeed, but it does mean that you’ll have to take more time and effort to learn about your beau’s background. When you date someone who has shared experiences, you get to skip that step.

You won't find anyone pining away in this celebrity ex duo! What are some ways to move on quickly after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups are a part of life if you are looking for a soul mate. You are going to have to navigate your way through potentials to find your partner. Cupid has some tips on moving on:

1. Invest in yourself: With the closing of this chapter, you open yourself up to independent growth and change. Don't be afraid to take time for you and make some personal plans for the future.

2. Understand what it is: A break up is an ending. It is usually as simple as that. You can find your self in a web of drama, unresolved feelings and chaos...try to stay clear of this mess. There are reasons the relationship didn't work, digest these and work through any issues you have with them. Moving forward is much easier if you internalize first.

1. Everything happens for a reason: Murray is more equipped to move on from his celebrity ex because he understands why their relationship and love didn't last. Celebrity Break-Up: Did Josh Murray Split with Former ‘Bachelorette’ Andi Dorfman for More Reality TV Fame?

By Emma L. Wells

Fans of The Bachelorette have been wondering why Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray called off their engagement. According to HollywoodLife.com, these celebrity exes were more interested in reality TV fame than in each other. Apparently, Murray never even wanted to win The Bachelorette season 10! “During the filming of the show, the producers kept telling Josh that if Andi didn’t pick him, he would be the next Bachelor,” a source said. “So he has been resentful towards Andi because he knows he could have been in the limelight as The Bachelor, so now [that he’s single] he is going to make a play to try to be the next Bachelor. Even though they are telling their friends [their split] was mutual, he ended it.” The source went on to say that there was an attraction between the reality TV stars, but in the end, they were more interested in being famous than being with each other.

Celebrity exes Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray may have put their reality TV fame first, costing them their relationship and love. How can you keep your career goals from getting in the way of your personal life?

Cupid’s Advice:

A fulfilling career doesn't mean you have to give up a relationship and love, and similarly, a healthy relationship doesn't mean you have to sacrifice your career. Cupid has some dating advice on how to achieve this balance so your love life doesn't turn out like this celebrity break-up:

1. Include your partner: If your career is a big part of your life, then you shouldn't hide it from your significant other. Tell them about your job and invite them to work functions. Your partner should be part of your support system.

2. Be present: Neither of you want your entire relationship and love to revolve around your job. When you're with each other, it's important to be in the moment. At the end of January, Murray tweeted, "Having to change all my passwords because someone keeps logging into my social media accounts SMH." This left us wondering: Is former Bachelorette Dorfman cyber stalking her celebrity ex? Her response came very quickly – only 9 minutes later according to thestir.cafemom.com. She replied, "Join the club ... Got better things to do with my life #blessed." While we can't say for certain who these tweets are directed at or what they really mean, we can assume that there's some tension following this celebrity break-up.

These reality TV stars seemed friendly after their celebrity break-up, but it looks like their claws are coming out now! How can you move on after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

It's common to still be emotionally attached your ex after your relationship has ended, making it hard to move on. Moving forward is a process and won't happen overnight, but Cupid has some dating advice that will (hopefully) make it easier:

1. Remember that no one wins: These Bachelorette exes may feel a little competition at this point in their celebrity break-up. While it's natural to want to "win" by looking better, dating someone new first, and making sure the news of your success gets back to your ex, there's really no point. Focus on making yourself happy instead of making your ex jealous.

2. End all contact: It's hard to let go of your connections to your ex, whether they be in real life or digital. If you've had a meaningful and serious relationship, you probably don't want to lose those memories. Still, moving on means looking forward, not backward, and constant reminders about your former beau will only make it difficult. While it may be difficult, cut your ties on social media and in real life too. You can consider a possible friendship after you've had some time apart.

3. Learn something from it: You may feel like you wasted your time with your ex or that it was all a big mistake, but you probably have a few good memories too, even if the relationship ended badly. Give your past relationship purpose by learning from it and allowing the experience to make you a better person. It'll be easier to feel happier if you don't regret your decisions.

Chris Harrison: Things Were “Awkward and Weird” Between ‘The Bachelorette’ Andi Dorfman & Josh Murray

By Maggie Manfredi

This man knows a celebrity break-up when he sees one! According to UsMagazine.com, Chris Harrison, the newly single host of The Bachelor and The Bachelorette series, knew something was up with former The Bachelorette star Andi Dorfman and fiancé Josh Murray before they split. Harrison said, “I knew things were a little off. They were being a little awkward and weird. But you know, they’re from Georgia. You know those people.” The celebrity exes announced their break-up just after they attended The Bachelor season 19 premiere together.

Celebrity exes Josh Murray and The Bachelorette star Andi Dorfman gave nothing away the day before their celebrity break-up announcement. How do you remain civil with an ex in the midst of turmoil?

Cupid’s Advice:

Keeping the drama to a minimum is tough when you’re in the midst of a break-up and feeling tense. Cupid has some tips on how to stay calm:

1. Stay off social media: The last thing you want to do during a break-up is cause even more tension and turmoil, which is exactly what spreading your feelings all over social media will do. Keep your thoughts to yourself. If you need an outlet, try writing down your thoughts in a personal diary or writing a letter to your ex (without the intention of sending it).

2. Respect your ex’s privacy: A relationship means intimacy, admiration, and love. Even when the other elements fade, make sure that you continue to show respect, like these celebrity exes did. Don’t share your former partner’s secrets or betray the trust bestowed upon you during your relationship.

3. Talk about it: If things get bad and messy post-relationship, sit down and talk about it. Otherwise, your feelings will only fester, and you’ll lose perspective on the situation. Maturity is an important factor in having a relationship, so continue that trait even after your break-up.

Recently, the latest celebrity news and gossip centered on the sudden celebrity break-up of The Bachelorette couple Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray. According to UsMagazine.com, Chris Harrison, the host of The Bachelor, said he had no idea that the celebrity couple was about to split. When Harrison saw the soon-to-be celebrity exes, he asked about their wedding plans in an interview. "By no means did I know they were broken up and did that interview, because honestly, having been through a crappy breakup, I would've protected it more and stayed away from wedding talk and I wouldn't have put them on the spot," Harrison told TV Guide. Although Harrison usually knows the drama between The Bachelor contestants, he seemed out of the loop on this one!

Life isn't filled with as much drama as you see on 'The Bachelor,' but what are some ways to keep it out of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There are some relationships and love affairs where drama seems to take over and is almost unavoidable. Here are steps that you can take to minimize the amount of drama that you let into each conversation or fight.

1. Recognize when you might be creating drama: By recognizing that you might be creating some of the theatrics in your relationship, you allow yourself to scale back and understand that maybe everything doesn't need to be so over the top. Try to analyze why you might be creating drama in your own love life, and aim to find different solutions for the attention and adventure you might be seeking.

2. Change your perspective: It is also important to realize that maybe some of the issues are just happening in your head. Have a conversation with your partner in order to see where these problems are coming from and how they interpret the situation.

3. Don't feed other people's drama: When your partner starts to create unnecessary drama, don't fight back just yet. Let them cool down and have a breather. After they settle down, you two can discuss the true problem without getting into a fight. While our lives may not be as dramatic as celebrity exes, Dorfman and Murray, we can still minimize drama whenever possible!

'The Bachelorette' Winner Josh Murray Gets Out of Town with His Mom Following Split

By Emma L. Wells

The Bachelorette winner Josh Murray knows there's nothing like a mother's love to help you heal. In a tweet on Jan. 12, he told followers he was headed to his hometown of Tampa, Florida with his mother after his celebrity breakup from Andi Dorfman. The couple, who met during season 10 of the popular reality TV show, announced their split in a joint statement earlier this month. Murray had been living in Atlanta, Georgia with Dorfman. According to UsMagazine.com, his mother, Lauren Goodhart Murray, flew to see her son after the news went public, and now, the two are driving south together. Dorfman's final pick also expressed excitement about seeing his beloved dog Sabel again.

Taking a cue from this celebrity breakup, what are some ways to cope with broken heart after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups can be painful no matter the circumstances. It's important to give yourself enough time to grieve but not so much time that you start to wallow. You need to move on but not so quickly that you haven't fully healed yet. Cupid has some advice on how to handle a broken heart:

- 1. Surround yourself with people who care: There is nothing strange about wanting your mama when you are hurting, no matter how old you are. It's natural to feel lonely after a split. Being around people who see how wonderful you really are will help you see it too. Follow Murray's lead after his celebrity breakup and don't shut yourself off from the world! Take a weekend trip to see family or friends. Even though your significant other may no longer be in your life, you are not alone.

2. Be active: You know what they say: Out with the old, in with the new! Use this time of change to better yourself by starting a new hobby or interest. Try taking a cooking or dance class or learning a new language. Exercise classes can be especially beneficial because of the endorphins your body releases when you workout. Get your mind off your hurt by setting a goal and hitting the gym.

3. Invest in yourself: You've just gone from being part of a twosome to being single again; you need time to adjust to that kind of change. Remember your awesomeness comes from within, not from your partner. Take yourself out for a day of you! Do the things you love, things that you couldn't do when you were in a relationship.

‘Bachelorette’ Season 10 Couple Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray Call it Quits

By Emma L. Wells

Another one bites the dust! Earlier this week, reality TV couple Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray announced that they have ended their engagement. In a joint statement published by People.com, the pair, who met and fell in love during The Bachelorette season 10, said, “After several months of being engaged and working on our relationship, we have decided that it’s best for both of us to go our separate ways. We are very sad that it has to come to this point, but this is what’s best for both of us individually.” The news of this celebrity breakup was a shock to many, as the couple appeared happy during their red carpet interview prior to Monday night’s premiere of The Bachelor.

In light of this surprising celebrity breakup, how can you handle questions about your sudden split?

Cupid’s Advice:

The trickiness and difficulty of a breakup doesn’t necessarily end as soon as you and your significant other call it quits. After you admit that it’s over, you then have to tell your loved ones. So how do you stay diplomatic when your friends want to hear about the drama? Cupid has some tips:

- 1. Just say “no comment”: Breakups are private and potentially very painful for the parties involved, so there’s nothing wrong with telling a questioner that it's none of their business. However, it's usually best to put it as nicely as possible. Thank the person for their concern and then simply say that it's a private affair and that you'd rather not talk about it.

2. Avoid pointing fingers: In most situations, a split is not the fault of just one person. Take a cue from this celebrity breakup and do your best not to place blame on your ex. After all, listing the faults of your former partner post-breakup isn't going to make you look any better.

3. Be on the same page: Right after your split, this may seem near impossible, but in the coming months, it will help the situation if you remain amicable. You can avoid drama by making sure your stories match and your facts are true. Have a quick conversation and answer the question, “What are we going to tell people?” This will eliminate a lot of the confusion friends and family may have about what happened and hopefully help dodge any hurt feelings by sharing something too private.

What are three ways to stay calm during wedding planning?

Cupid's Advice:

No one wants to turn into bridezilla, so it's important to stay calm during your wedding preparations. This can be hard with all of the craziness going on around you, so Cupid has some tips for you:

1. Stay organized: Focus on what is actually important for you and your partner on your big day. Take deep breaths throughout the hectic process because everything will be okay! Remember: Bridezillas are made, not born.

Andi Dorfman Says Juan Pablo Needs to Propose to Nikki

Ferrell

By Laura Seaman

With Bachelorette Andi Dorfman accepting Josh Murray's proposal, talk of a wedding isn't far behind. "We have not really started making [plans]," says Dorfman. "I think I'm gonna enjoy being engaged for a little while..." According to UsMagazine.com, the newly engaged bachelorette was then asked if she would invite old flame Juan Pablo Galavis to the wedding. "Um, yeah—just gonna be a soft 'No' for now," she responded, later adding, "If he marries Nikki, he gets an invite." The newly engaged couple is talking about a spring wedding, but nothing is for sure quite yet!

What are some reasons to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a huge step to take in a relationship. That's why a proposal is so important! Some couples date for years and never end up married, while others are engaged in a matter of weeks. How do you know when it's time to finally pop the question and take your relationship to the next level? Here is some advice to help you figure it out:

1. You've talked about the future in depth. Marriage is a (hopefully) permanent future together, so all parties involved should know about future plans such as moving, career goals, or anything else that would affect your lives together. Don't leave anything hidden from your partner! Your future plans don't just involve you anymore.

2. You're ready to join the family. Maybe it's been easy to avoid your partner's family so far, but once you're married, you are officially part of the family whether you like it or not. Depending on your partner's family situation, this might mean going to visit them on holidays or joining them on vacations. Make sure you like this family before you become a part of it!

3. You are prepared in every way. This means emotionally, mentally, and financially. If you don't have the money to buy a house, pay for a wedding, or even get a ring, maybe you shouldn't be proposing. Yes, a marriage is a sign of never ending love, but it's also a very legally and financially binding agreement. Make sure you have this figured out before you dive in headfirst!
