

Dating Advice: 3 Ways to Master the Art of the First Impression

By Josh Ringle

You know, there is an obvious thing about first impressions: You only have one shot at them. A first impression can create one of the newest celebrity couples, or it can ruin your chance love. Many times, we hear of movie stars falling in love on the set, while we also hear about those who just didn't make the most of their premier opportunity. If you're looking to be the next Picasso of the first impression art collection, follow our pieces of dating advice below. With time and some practice, you can easily master the skills necessary to make a killer first impression!

These pieces of dating advice will help you master date nights and make the best first impression possible!

1. Make the situation comfortable: If you want to make a good first impression, you need to first choose the right time and place. If you met the person online and they already know something about you, this could be easy right off the bat. If you suddenly find yourself in conversation at the bar or smooth sailing on a date night, you'll be fine. However, a good piece of dating advice is to keep the conversation comfortable and high level at first. Talking about politics, marriage, or children is probably not the best start right out of the gate. Celebrity couples are great at making their first dates comfortable, even though they have the paparazzi following them around constantly. Take their lead!

2. Use body language: Consider using your body to your advantage. We're not talking about the R rated kind of way, either. Show you're interested in the conversation by keeping eye contact. Simply giving one slight touch may show your prospective partner that you're interested. You want to look like you are open to a conversation, and not too shy or reserved. Be sure to loosen up before the date night, and be prepared to start talking with confidence. Use your body, facial expressions, and emotional instincts to your benefit to start things off right.

3. Be genuine: Don't be afraid to be yourself! That should be the first thing on your mind. If you weren't the starting quarterback, a national champion dancer, or an academic stud, he/she probably won't mind. Try to have a good sense of humor, and make light of the things you may not be comfortable with. The other person will appreciate an honest and open person over someone who lies about who they are. "Honesty is the best policy" is not just a thing parents say to their children; it is an important step to making a great first impression.

Dating Advice: 5 Ways to Stop Fighting Over Minor Things – Like the Dishes!

By Josh Ringle

When you're involved in a long-term relationship, you may realize that the relationship has problems which stem from minor things. The small things, like the dishes, cooking, and other household chores, , may turn into big problems that can jeopardize the happiness of your love life overall. The following pieces of dating advice will help you turn over a new leaf and become like a new and seemingly perfect celebrity couples. But, don't worry, there won't be a celebrity divorce, or any breakup for that matter, if you follow these tips to smooth it all out!

These pieces of dating advice will keep the fighting over minor things to a minimum. Use this love advice to keep your relationship strong!

1. Ignore it: At first, simply trying to let the little things go may be one of your best options. In the media, we all see the little problems that happen in celebrity relationships, but those are usually sorted out quickly! A great piece of dating advice is to just keep things the way they are and see if they go away before taking drastic actions.

2. Find peace, and then talk: Usually, talking about something in the heat of the moment is not a good idea. Remember, a great piece of love advice is to know how and when to communicate the most effectively. Celebrity breakups happen all the time, because little problems, like whose turn it is to do the dishes, escalate and turn into a major problem for no reason. Finding peace and letting the situation calm down before a discussion is crucial. Reflect on the issue, and if it really is minor, address it as such. Don't escalate it into a bigger problem than it really is.

3. Don't fight: This is obviously easier said than done, but if the problem is actually minor, you shouldn't be fighting about it. While minor issues can be problematic in the short-term, it is important to remember that your relationship should be more valuable to you than who does the laundry, for example.

4. Make a schedule: If small daily tasks are of the source of your relationship problems, then the best thing to do may be to make a schedule of tasks. For example, if your partner cooks one day, you clean, or vice versa. The dishes can be alternated every other day, and the same goes for making the bed. A really important piece of dating advice is to help each other out, instead of tearing each other down.

5. Compromise: Another idea to consider is compromising and determining what to do collectively as a team. Those awesome celebrity relationships have their fair share of compromising, so why can't you jump on board, too? If you like to make the bed more than cleaning dishes, then maybe the two of you can trade that off for a day, or even a week. If the two of you are truly in love, compromising is a great piece of dating advice that will keep the relationship stable and the two of you happy for years to come!

These pieces of dating advice will help you keep the minor things from affecting the health of your relationship. What are some of your experiences? Comment below.

Relationship Advice: 10 Strategies to Make Your Good Relationship GREAT

By Josh Ringle

Being in a healthy relationship is a really good thing. Having a GREAT relationship is an even greater thing! Below are 10 pieces of relationship advice that will help you and your loved one go from good to great, and hopefully even better than that. These tips are easy, fun, and will surely enhance the strength of your relationship. Sometimes a relationship will hit that make-it-or-break-it point, and if yours is one that you think will make it, check out the tips below to really make your love life grow.

Check out these pieces of relationship advice to skyrocket the greatness of your relationship:

1. Don't get stale: Becoming the greatest can take some time whether you're focused on yourself or your relationship as a whole. But if you want to turn your relationship from good to great, a crucial key to that will be keeping things fresh and preventing “old” or “tired” feelings. Date nights with creative date ideas should only help improve your love life and keep things growing.

2. Surprises: Along the same lines, an important piece of relationship advice is to keep the surprises coming. One a week is probably too many, but even little things to change up your routine will help. If you and your partner are trying to keep things exciting, surprises are a great way to accomplish that.

3. Inside jokes: Laughter is a great way to sooth the soul and to make your relationship shine. Whether it is a funny word or a funny facial expression that only you and your loved one understand, it will keep your relationship lighthearted and easy, instead of serious and difficult.

4. Work out any problems that arise: Problems in a relationship are unfortunately likely to happen now and then. If you have your heart set on working it all out, keep it that way. A great relationship doesn't allow the little waves to sink it. It's important to work out whatever issues arise, and to fight for those you love!

5. 'Make communication great again': The level of communication you and your partner have is a great way to determine the level of success of your love life. If your communication is getting stronger, your relationship will, too. If there are talking problems, you may be experiencing some relationship problems, too. So, take this essential piece of relationship advice to heart and work on communicating better.

6. Keep working on it: If you want to make your relationship great, you have to work on it. Just sitting around letting things happen may not work to really get your relationship to where you want to be! Put some effort, time, and care into your relationship and it will definitely become great.

7. Vacations: Day-cations or vacations are an effective way to change up the scenery while adding awesome memories to your relationship's collection. Consider going to an amusement park, water park, or even a fun day in Central Park. Find a mountain to go hiking in to get out in the fresh air! Vacations are awesome ways to spend a lot of time together while also indulging in new experiences together.

8. Spice it up: If some of the sparks in your relationship are going out, or if there are aspects that have gotten too pre-determined, changing things up behind closed doors, or in the way those moments are done can really help to improve the relationship. If the sparks are many, the relationship will be beyond great.

9. Family time: Spending time with the loved ones of your beloved is really a great way to show that you sincerely love and care about their family. Whether it is playing with their younger cousins/siblings, or having an extended family dinner with their parents, family time is a nice way to enhance how the two of you feel about each other.

10. Gifts from the heart: Feelings are sometimes best shown and not talked about. A hand-drawn card, a bouquet of flowers, or maybe their favorite candy that is hard to find is a way to show that you care. Gifts that come from your heart show her/him that you are really thinking about them and that you want to make them smile! Smiles go a long way in turning your relationship into a great one.

Dating Advice: 10 Ways to Use Social Media to Snag Your Crush

By: Josh Ringle

Social media is becoming one of the best ways to snag your crush. The following pieces of relationship advice will not only help your love life, but will also help you woo your love interest! Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and Snapchat can be useful tools in improving your friendship and turning that crush into a relationship! They aren't just mediums for celebrity relationships or for celebrities to show off.

Check out the following dating advice, and get ready for romance!

These pieces of dating advice will help you turn your crush into a relationship. If you want your chances at love to improve, read Cupid's tips below!

1. Show off your talents: Social media is a great way for your mom to show you off to the world, but it does not have to be just for those annoying family members (Sorry, Mom!). Social media is usually the first thing a person will do to find out information about you, and you want to make sure your profile is full of good photos or posts that show off your smarts, skills, and good looks. Photos that show off what you can do can really help to make them realize what a catch you could be. An important dating tip is to realize that what's online is the first indication of what others may think of you, so make sure it fosters the right impression!

2. Flirting: Flirting is usually the first step in solidifying a relationship and making a friendship simply more than two people talking. Whether it is just by posting cute tweets, or putting nice things on Facebook, your crush will definitely appreciate the public compliments. That being said, make sure to minimize the amount of "cuteness" you put out publicly, especially if you're unsure of how she/he feels about you.

3. Play "tag": We have all been tagged in posts about "three friends who will always be there for you" or in "tag the friend you would want to do this with" posts. These posts are a great way to show that your crush is on your mind. Tagging him or her in a post is a cute way to publicly flirt. They will appreciate that you were thinking about them, and that will make them happy. Happiness is one of the keys to snagging your crush!

4. Use your personality: Another great thing about social media is the ability to talk about what you are passionate about with a community of other people. Whether it is politics, sports, entertainment, or even social issues, there is almost certainly a hashtag that you can use. That being said, it's important to think about who will see what you say. Your future employers, educators, and your crush will definitely be interested in what you have to say, so here's a good piece of dating advice: be careful! Curse-fueled rants about almost anything will not help your chances.

5. Show what you are interested in: Liking a page/photo or re-tweeting a promotional tweet can be tell-tale ways to figuring out what your crush is into. Don't become your crush and like everything they do, but for example, if you notice your crush is really into a specific sports team, ask if they would like to go to a game with you. If they really want to go see a new horror movie, maybe that could be your next date. While you don't want to seem like a stalker, talking about a tweet or post can keep a conversation interesting.

6. Work the camera right: You can, and should, untag yourself in embarrassing photos to make your profile look as good as it can be. Photos are the easiest way to show off your crush, and vice versa, so the better your photos are online, the better your chances.

7. Use the "Like" button: Don't be the one that likes everything your crush posts or likes online, but at the same time, don't be afraid to "like" what he or she posts once in a while! You should care about what they are saying, and if you like what they post, it's important to show it. Be careful about what your actions online, though. For example, if he or she posts a photo with someone who could be competition, hesitate to “like” it because then your crush could get the idea that you want to be friends and not something more. Don’t let the competition get ahead of you!

8. Post things with them: People, whether they admit it or not, love to be on social media with their friends. If you and your crush go somewhere, or even take a fun selfie, don’t be afraid to post it on any of your social media accounts! If you really want to snag them before someone else does, posting photos on Snapchat, Instagram, Facebook, or even Twitter, with them is a great next step. If rumors start spreading that that photo could be something more, it will get in your crush’s head, sparking curiosity.

9. Out with the old & in with the new: Clean up your profile. We all have embarrassing photos and posts from our awkward middle school days and apps like Timehop happily remind us of our past. Cleaning out these photos to not only better represent how you act and look currently, but also to show off the best side of you. You want your profiles to show off your best qualities, and 30 photos of Starbucks coffee may not be the best representation.

10. Snapchat Streak: Odds are if they are your crush, they are also high up on your Snapchat best friends list. Maybe they are even #1, which by the way, is a great way to use social media to get them to be more than a crush. Snapchat streaks are great ways to show others that you are friends and snap each other often, and it is also a cute way to have a reason to snap if you need one. It is a great way to become #1 in their heart by being #1 on their Snap!

Dating Advice: 7 Ways to Subtly Flirt with Your Love Interest

By Josh Ringle

Flirting with your love interest can be one of the hardest things to do. It can sometimes be awkward or uneasy, but it can also make your love life grow. Flirting is one of the best ways to further your relationship and to make it happen. If you are unsure or nervous, subtly flirting is a good way to see if there is potential! Use the pieces of dating advice below to get your flirt on and bring your relationship to the next level.

These pieces of dating advice will help you get your love interest to be yours! Check them out below!

1. Laugh at their jokes: Laughter is the best remedy for happiness, but it is also a key ingredient for subtly flirting with your love interest. Laughing shows you are focused on what they are saying and enjoy spending time with them. Even if the joke or story isn't so funny, giving it a little laugh will surely brighten your potential partner's mood and make them feel appreciated. If they feel comfortable around you and can share funny stories, that is absolutely a positive sign of things to come.

2. Use emojis: Emojis are not just for middle-schoolers or for those Facebook relatives who want to stay hip. They are a great way to enhance a conversation if you use them correctly. An important piece of love advice revolves around the fact that the two of you are communicating well and are spending time with each other to talk. So, if you are, emojis should definitely be part of the conversation over text. It may seem silly, but a heart emoji, a kiss emoji, or a heart eye emoji would be a hint that you want something more!

3. Like and comment: Social media is a great way to subtly flirt with someone. If your crush posts a photo on Instagram, or a tweet on Twitter, don't be afraid to like or comment on it! Your love interest may be looking to see if you liked it, and they may not think you are into them if you didn't like that recent selfie they posted. An important piece of dating advice is to make your potential partner happy. If you do that, your love life will blossom. Social media isn't just for those celebrity couples!

4. Snapchat: Snapchat, and snap streaks, are really good tools to use when trying to secretly get your crush to fall for you. If you look good in the snaps you send to them, you will certainly pique their interest. Snapping is easy, and by using some filters and facial recognition videos, you can have a fun and cute conversation. While the two of you build up a streak, you can be building a foundation for a relationship, too.

5. Compliments: Being nice is a great way to enhance your love life. Complimenting your love interest will also definitely help your chances! If you don't overdo it and don't make it extremely obvious, compliments are a great way to subtly flirt. There's a fine line between being too nice and just being casual. If you say, "You look good today", you should definitely be prepared for a comeback in case she/he says "Oh, so you're saying I don't look good most days?" It will probably happen the first few times, so be ready for a cute comeback!

6. The little things count: If the two of you are hanging out or going on friendly dates, the little extra things you do can go a long way. Buy smaller things like an ice cream, or a movie snack. Consider making them a nice gift, like a drawing. Don't be afraid about making things weird with something personal, or if you think you may be being too polite. There's no such thing as being too polite, especially if a relationship is in the future.

7. Dress well: The way you dress can say a lot about who you are and how you act. If you and your love interest are going out for a fun night out, a great piece of dating advice is to keep things casual. That being said, sweatpants and a sweatshirt to the movie theater may not be the best idea either. Your best bet would be to consider what the two of you will be doing and dress accordingly. Try to impress them; just don't wear a gown to the movies!

Relationship Advice: 4 Ways to Break Up with Your Partner In the Nicest Way Possible

By: Josh Ringle

Breaking up is not the easiest thing to do. It may hurt your heart to do it, and it will most likely break the heart of your soon-to-be-ex as well. While calling off your relationship and ending your current love life isn't the easiest, it is important to do it in a nice way if at all possible. Almost everyone knows of those celebrity relationships that ended in tears and celebrity divorce, or those celebrity couples who have remained friendly after all their heartache and drama subsides. The same is true for us "normal" people. Use the following relationship advice pointers to make a difficult decision a little easier for both you and your partner.

These pieces of relationship advice will help you to make ending it a little less heartbreaking. If you are considering breaking up with your partner, take a look at how to do it nicely below.

1. Do it in person: A great piece of relationship advice is to do anything that is of importance in person. Whether it is initially getting the relationship going, or ending it, doing so face-to-face will only make the situation better. Look at some former celebrity couples like Jennifer Aniston and John Mayer, or Taylor Swift and Joe Jonas. Those celebrity break-ups were initiated by a text message or a phone call. They did not end well, and if you want yours to end well, do it while you can see them, be there to comfort them and talk through any heartache they may be experiencing.

2. The date and place matters: There are definitely some key dates and places where breakups should never occur. Anniversaries, birthdays, holidays, and times of death in one's family are not times to call things off. If you want to stay friends, or if you just want to be as nice as possible, save it for some other time. If they are on a vacation or doing something important like starting a new job, you should consider waiting if it is possible. Some places should be off the table, too. You shouldn't break their heart in public, if possible, and you should try to do it in a place where the memory won't "haunt" them. Their bedroom, for example, is probably not the best option.

3. Ease into the conversation: Reality TV stars make break-ups look overly dramatic and super painful. Heartbreaking moments are typically over-dramatized, but they don't have to be that way at all. Instead, ease into the conversation about the future of your relationship. Conversations like this will never be easy, but easing into the conversation will make it more bearable. A good piece of relationship advice is to keep the communication open, and that should continue even if things are about to end.

4. Be honest: While this piece of relationship advice goes along with open communication, it truly is important to remain honest and open when deciding to call it quits on a relationship. If you want to break up, but remain friendly and on good terms after, follow this piece of relationship advice and remain honest. That being said, it's important to not take that to an extreme and be brutally honest. Say what you need to, but no need to get into the gory details. While breaking up is difficult to do, the conversation and how it goes is essential to determining the future of your friendship.

Breaking up is never easy, but doing it nicely works best! Did these work for you? Let us know in the comments below!

5 Pieces of Relationship Advice You Can't Live Without

By Josh Ringle

In every relationship, there comes a time when you need someone else's advice or opinion to get things to work again, or to move the relationship along. If that's you, you've come to the right place. There are plenty of tidbits of relationship advice a variety of people can offer you. However, most relationships are unique and not just one piece of advice will do the trick. If your relationship is dying, use some or all of these pieces of advice to heal it.

These pieces of relationship advice will make your relationship stronger and more successful. Check it out!

1. Communication is Key: In any relationship, it is important to keep a solid line of communication open. If misunderstandings and miscommunications are happening too often, a problem could be in this aspect of your relationship.

When communication is strong, you and your partner will almost always be strong as well. If it is lacking, or if relationship problems persist, the way you and your partner communicate could be the underlying reason for those problems. Even celebrity relationships have their fair share of communication problems, so you're not alone. These types of problems can happen to anyone, but by working out any communication problems and learning how to communicate better with each other, you'll only get stronger.

2. Keep it interesting: If your relationship has been going on for a long time, the biggest fears you may have could be that it is getting too boring, tiring, or just not exciting. One of the most important pieces of relationship advice to remember is to keep things interesting and lively if possible. Whether it's a fun date night or a new restaurant, changing up your dates can only help the relationship grow. You don't have to plan big surprises, or do special things every weekend! Instead, make a list of date ideas like restaurants, Broadway shows, sporting events, or even a different type of movie theater, like a dine-in or drive-in. Creating a to-do list puts forth an exciting challenge for the two of you to complete!

3. Be unique: While remaining unique is an essential piece of dating advice, being unique is also important to the success of your relationship. You don't want to be too normal or typical. Granted, you also don't want to get too unique, but there are many ways to make life more exciting by being a little bit different, in a good way. There should always be a comfort zone, but you shouldn't be afraid to push those boundaries either. Being a little bit different will only help the communication get stronger between you two and will definitely keep things exciting. Of course, be your own person, but being unique in a new way will only enhance the relationship for you and your partner.

4. Be truthful and honest: Along with communication, trust and honesty need to be some of the strongest aspects of a relationship for it to work out. If the relationship remains honest, trust will follow. Part of creating a good relationship is forming a good team, and trust goes along with that. Without trust or honesty, the well-being of your love life could be in jeopardy, especially if you are in a long distance relationship. These traits will allow the relationship to prosper if the conditions are right and if the two of you are ready to become more serious.

5. Put the “friend” in girlfriend/boyfriend: Being a friend to your partner is a great way to keep a relationship from dying. A simple “How are you?” or “How was your day?” not only shows you care, but shows that you are actually interested in the other person’s life and want what is best for your friend. Everyone knows of that one man (or woman) who is just “too cool” for feelings. Sometimes people don’t think that being friends is an important step, but a relationship is just an upgraded friendship, with some extra benefits.

Date Ideas: Be Thankful (And Chefs) Together

By Erika Mionis. Updated by Josh Ringle

It's that time of year again. It's time for family, friends, and slaving over a hot stove. Are you a newlywed or a new couple and are worried about preparing your first Thanksgiving dinner? Don't worry, you're not the only one! Cupid's got you covered.

Check out these Thanksgiving date ideas!

First, you have to determine how many people you'll be entertaining. Here's a great piece of dating advice: Always be prepared! Obviously, the more people, the more work you will have to do. But that doesn't necessarily have to be true. Try checking out some recipes for large groups of people. These recipes will make it very easy to cook for a crowd. For a small, intimate crowd, try some unique appetizers that will fit perfectly on a small side table, like cheese fondue.

Unfortunately, not all recipes can be as easy as cheese fondue. Turkey definitely isn't easy to do! The Meleagris gallopavo was first domesticated by the Aztecs around the year 1100 A.D, and, coincidentally, is extremely hard to cook. Try putting some Rosemary and Thyme under the breast skin, and be sure to check out a few other tips to ensure a delectable main course. And involve your new husband as much as possible.

Don't do all the work yourself. At the very least, take him in as the turkey carver.

Too lazy to cook? Don't worry. Many food stores sell ready-to-go Thanksgiving dishes. If you live in the Manhattan area, be sure to consider these marketplaces. Or, you can choose to see what your favorite celebrity couples made for Turkey Day last year! Get inspired!

After the meal, when all waistbands at the table are comfortably tight, be sure to have a dessert prepared. If you want to stay traditional, be sure to have the all-american pumpkin pie waiting in the oven. For those who don't have a taste for pumpkin pie, try having an assortment of cookies, brownies, and ice cream on standby.
