In celebrity divorce news, these Bachelorette stars are calling it quits after months of separation. What are some ways to know your relationship is unfixable?

Cupid's Advice:

Ending a relationship, especially a marriage can be a tough decision to make. It's difficult to know if you should keep trying to work on it, or if it is time to call it quits. If you're having trouble in a relationship and need some signs that your relationship is unfixable, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You don't trust each other anymore: One of the most difficult issues to resolve in a relationship is a lack of trust. Although trust and loyalty can be regained sometimes, once they are lost over and over again, it becomes even more difficult to replace. If you and your partner have tried regaining trust, and it is just not working, it may be a sign of irreversible damage.

2. You make each other unhappy more than you make each other happy: Another tell-tale sign of an unfixable relationship is unhappiness. If you and your partner usually make each other unhappy or upset more often than you make each other happy, this may be a sign that the good parts of the relationship are long gone. Although you can try things to fix this problem, if negative feelings and unhappiness are persistent in your relationship, it may be difficult to change that.

3. You've tried everything: The most telling sign that your relationship is unfixable is when you both feel a sense of exhaustion because you have tried everything, and nothing has worked. Before giving up on the relationship, make sure you have tried every possible solution to work through your problems. Once you have tried everything without seeing progress, it may be time to call it quits.

Cupid’s Advice:

There are many things that set celebrity couples apart from normal couples, but parenthood is one aspect that does not discriminate. Whether you’re famous or not, welcoming a baby is life changing and, not to mention, a little difficult:

1. Should have, could have, would have: Make a list of any items you wish you had had with baby number one, and make sure to go out and get them. With your first child, you're following advice from other mothers and baby books, but no one knows your baby experience better than you do. Now, awaiting the arrival of your second bundle of joy, it's your opportunity to perfect your mom-skills—or at least stock up on diapers.

2. Hand-me-downs: Sift through all the baby items you were given or had bought for your first baby, and see if anything is salvageable for baby number two. This might save you and your significant other time and money in the way of baby-prep. Anything from bibs to furniture can be considered fair game for reuse. This will be especially easy if your are expecting a baby of the same gender.

3. Communicate: This is the golden rule for any change in a relationship. Welcoming one baby is life changing, and welcoming a second even more. The routine you've adjusted to as parents of one may have to change a lot depending on the age of your first born. To really prepare your relationship for a second child, it is important to share fears and excitement. Go in with a game plan that fits your family dynamic, and baby number 2 will be a breeze.
