Relationship Advice: What If Your Family Doesn't Approve Of Your Partner?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Choosing a partner for life is a big deal under any circumstances. There's enough pressure on yourself to ensure that you're making the right decision and meeting all your needs. So what happens when you come up against a thumbs down from a parent, sibling, or friend who has been weighing in on your choices all your life? Why is it that the people you love take a contrary position and see your partner completely unsuitable for you? Why can't they just welcome the people you care about with open arms? If this sounds like a familiar situation, you are not alone. This is a very common experience for many people, and it happens for a lot of reasons. It speaks to declaring your independence, freedom of choice, autonomy, and, most importantly, trusting your own judgement to know what is best for you, rather than what others think is best.

Here are some key pieces of relationship advice as you work to stay true to yourself and your commitment, without allowing conflict to tear apart your family:

It has been reported that Selena Gomez's mother is not happy about her rekindled celebrity relationship with pop star Justin Bieber. Considering how distraught Selena was in the aftermath of their much-publicized breakup, it makes sense that her loved ones would worry about her this time around. Whatever the reasons may be, Selena's mom has assured the public that she just wants her daughter to be safe, healthy, and happy. While the approval of your parents is always a plus in any relationship, is it crucial to the success of your union? What can you do, then, if you find yourself in a similar situation?

It is important to begin with an open conversation with the person criticizing your partner. Ask them to spell out their concerns and explain why they feel the person is not right for you. This isn't always easy to do. You might start from a defensive position, (especially if this is a continuous pattern) but it is worth hearing what's on their mind because their thinking is valid and you might be missing something. Keep an open mind while you are talking and consider what they have to say. If, for example, your romantic partner exhibited bad behavior in the past and your parents call that out, think about what has changed and what is different now. You have likely allowed yourself to fully trust that person and move forward with them. Explain the changes and describe why the previous behaviors are no longer something to worry about.

If, on the other hand, your family members or friends raise issues about a difference in race or religion, this may be a fork in the road where you choose to go your own way. It becomes a step toward independence, and a move away from the ideals of the family you grew up in. It is a time when you can take responsibility and voice your own values, even though they may differ from your parents, siblings, or friends. It can serve as an emotional emancipation and where you start to embrace what is important to you. When this happens, you acknowledge that they have criticisms, while asserting that they are not your personal beliefs.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: When Is the Old New Again?

Whatever the case, if you continue to meet disapproval tell your loved ones that you would like them to “agree to disagree” and accept that you have clear differences of opinion in order to stay together as a family. This is also a time to put boundaries in place. Note that you are aware they don’t like your choice, but you do not want to hear anything more from them unless you specifically ask for an opinion. You can even warn that if they broach the subject, you will simply end the conversation. This will help you keep some control and prevent being blindsided.

The ultimate goal is to avoid getting into a power struggle that could make you feel controlled and judged by a parent or other loved one. It’ll also avoid lots of arguments, too! Try not to become defensive or feel you have to justify your choice. The only thing that matters is that you are happy, excited, and comfortable as you move forward with your partner with your eyes on the future. Hopefully Selena and Justin will be able to do this and find peace even with the family discord. And, in time, Selena’s mother will also come around and embrace her daughter’s rekindled romance.

Celebrity News: Justin Bieber's Mom Defends Him Amid Selena Gomez Romance

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Selena Gomez's mom is not too fond of Justin Bieber. Celebrity couple Gomez and Bieber have been stirring on and off celebrity gossip for a couple years now. Right now in latest celebrity news, they seem to be on. According to EOnline.com, Bieber's mom posted an Instagram with a caption that praised how proud she is of her son and how beautifully he is maturing. With all of this talk of Gomez's mom not approving of Bieber, Bieber's mom had to show the world that no one is perfect so we need to have patience with one another.

This celebrity news has us clapping. What are some ways to get support when your partner's parents don't approve of you?

Cupid's Advice:

The only realistic expectations you should have should not be for anyone other than yourself. It is upsetting though if your partner's parents don't approve of you and your relationship. Don't worry- Cupid is here to help with some tips on how to put your best self forward to potentially make a better impression with your partner's parents:

1. Find out activities they like: Talk to your significant other and find out some things that their parents are into. Maybe boating, cooking, going on walks, etc. Then, reach out to them to do one of their favorite activities with them. This will seem like less of a "kiss-up" move since you're not buying them anything, you are just simply creating a comfortable situation for them to truly get to know your amazing self!

2. Be blunt if they are: If your partner's parents really make it clear that they are not a fan of you, be blunt and ask them sincerely what you can do in order to gain their trust. Communication is key. Ask and then make efforts to do what they feel is necessary as long as it is reasonable and does not interfere with changing who you truly are.

3. Show them how much you love their child: If they can't get past who you are, and it is a struggle for you to see the good qualities in your partner's parents as well, there is a genuine force that cannot be denied- the love that you have for your partner. Instead of trying to boost your self-image, make it clear how much you love and care for your partner. Their parents cannot be too upset with the fact that their child is getting the love and care that they deserve.

Cupid's Advice:

1. Start small: If your family is hesitant to accept your partner, it's probably a good idea to start small. Cupid's Advice:

It's not impossible to rebuild a broken relationship. While it may take a lot of work, if you are wanting to move on from past occurrences, Cupid has some tips you can implement into your lives:

1. Act lovingly: Within the tougher times when emotions are high, it will be more challenging to respond kindly. Even in the toughest of times, it is critical to keep love in the forefront. If your partner sets you off, instead of putting your guard up and acting defensively, take a step away from the situation. Then, think of an appropriate way to respond lovingly.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Selena Gomez's Friends Want Her 'To Be Cautious' with Justin Bieber

2. Follow through: Remaining consistent is very important. You must follow through on your word, and your partner must follow suit. An already rocky relationship will be impossible to mend if one person thinks they are more reliable than the other. If life gets in the way of you staying true to your word, make sure you maintain an open line of communication to show that you respect your partner.

Related Link: Celebrity News: It's Official! Selena Gomez & Justin Bieber Are Back Together

3. Maintain patience: Trusting someone is a gradual process. It's certainly more challenging to rebuild trust after a serious situation occurs. Be patient and know that you cannot magically trust someone overnight. If the relationship is worth it, it will happen, though.

Post-celebrity breakup from Selena Gomez, The Weeknd is definitely getting around. What are some ways to recover from a split quickly?

Cupid's Advice:

Post-split is a disorienting feeling. You've lost the person you spent all of your time, likely other friends, and common hobbies. For the sentimental, TV shows, music, video games, etc. that the two of you shared bring back painful memories. Figuring out what to do with yourself after a breakup is hard, but it starts with getting over your ex. Here's our dating advice for all of you who are newly single:

1. Actually feel your feelings: No one wants to feel lonely, guilty, hurt, or betrayed, but pushing all of those feelings aside will only prolong the process of moving on. Grab a friend and bawl your eyes out. Get to the gym and work-out your frustrations. Drink until feel your sorrows, purge them, and move on.

2. Cut them off: The only way to really get over your ex is to ignore them. Sounds harsh? It's worse being that guy who is stuck in the past. Delete all contact information for your ex, get out of your shared group of friends, and find new hobbies if you shared any with your ex. Finding who you are on your own starts with actually being on your own.

3. Get back out there: Ok, so one-night stands, flings, and rebounds can happen if you get back in the saddle before you're ready. Prolonging jumping back into the dating pool is just as harmful, though. Even if feel under confident, start flirting with other people until you're ready to start dating again. The fun of flirting, and how good you feel when you receive it, will help you get over your ex that much quicker.

Relationship Advice: When Is the Old New Again?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Jelena is back! Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez are officially back together. This is an instance when what was once old and finished can become new again. Rekindling a relationship in this way can sometimes mean a couple was never really over the feelings they shared for each other the first time around, or that with the passage of time they are simply ready to give it another try. Sometimes extenuating circumstances such as illness can play a role and help them realize what is truly important. With this in mind, an end is not always really an end, and you might have an opportunity one day to reconnect with an old love if they're single, too. If that happens, it may give you both a chance to deal with unfinished business, and to move forward the way you may have always hoped you would.

How, then, can you get from Point A – a breakup – to Point B – a revived romance?

So many things can bring a relationship to a grinding halt despite the fact that two people still feel love for each other. Career opportunities that force people to live in different places, or one of you wanting one thing – such as marriage or a family – when the other isn't quite ready. Negative parental pressure can also tear two people apart even if they don't really want to say goodbye. In these cases it isn't the feelings people have for each other that threaten the relationship, it is the life/work balance and other outside forces. This can become especially hard to cope with if one or the other jumps into a new relationship quickly to get over the hurt and disappointment of the loss. Even considering that, there still might be feelings of hope that someday they will find their way back to each other and their connection will resume.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Does Being Wronged Give You The Right To Fight?

Sometimes this can occur with simple good luck – two people find themselves living in the same city again. It can also happen more dramatically, such as when someone becomes ill, as Selena has been with lupus which required a kidney transplant earlier this year. That sort of event can change your perspective and make you question your priorities, turning the small issues that once seemed so important in the past into meaningless details in the present. It may make you more willing to compromise over differences that previously you might have stood your ground on. It might also make you realize that you don't want to waste any more time hoping and waiting, and one or the other might reach out. When one does that, if the other person is receptive and welcomes the contact, it can leave room to pick up where you left off, rebuild, or even lay down new tracks.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Can You Cheat Jealousy?

If you have been in a relationship that ended, and find yourself suddenly single and thinking about a former love, if they are also single, it might be a chance to call or write to them. If that person is sick, you can reach out in the name of friendship and offer caring support in those hard times. By doing so you open the door which might lead to something bountiful for both of you, and give new life to the connection you once shared and cherished.

Whatever happens going forward, it seems clear that Selena and Justin indeed have a bond together that has endured.

This celebrity news is definitely the talk of Hollywood at the moment. What are some things to be careful about if you’re getting back together with an ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

No matter what people say, getting back with an ex isn’t always a bad idea. Like Gomez says – the heart wants what it wants, right? However, it is important to be cautious when you jump back into a relationship with someone. Cupid has the scoop:

1. Think about their motives: While this might be unsettling, you need to consider your ex’s feelings. Are they genuinely wanting to give it another go, or are they just using you to fill a void? You don’t want to get burned again, so be careful and really think this through before you jump back in.

1. Enough time has passed: If it's been awhile since you've gone your separate ways and you've had the chance to grow individually, then you might be ready to give it another shot. New Celebrity Couple? Justin Bieber Is Dating 'Ballers' Actress Paola Paulin

By Ashleigh Underwood

Love is in the air, as a new celebrity couple has been unveiled. According to UsMagazine.com, Justin Bieber and Paola Paulin are officially dating. First spotted together at a church service in late September, the pair have been out on a few intimate dinners since. While their romantic endeavors have been short-lived so far, a source says they are “totally smitten with each other.”

There may be a new celebrity couple in Hollywood, proving Bieber has a thing for brunettes! What are three different ways to be attracted to someone?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone is different, and they have different things that they are attracted to. While one person may be all about one thing, another could feel the exact opposite. Here are a few ways you can be attracted to someone:

1. Looks: Although some people may deny it, the first thing we notice about someone is the way they look. You can be drawn in immediately by their eyes, hair or even their style. If you are intrigued by someones style, what they wear or the way they carry themselves, it is easy to be attracted to the person as a whole. So, if looks are your thing, then flaunt what you got!

2. Intellect: To many people, looks are not everything. They need to feel intellectually stimulated by someone in order to feel attracted to them. If they aren't drawn in right away by the way you look, dazzle them with your incredible mind. Brains over brawn are very true for them and you should not shy away from showing off your nerdy side.

3. Personality: In the end, personality reigns supreme over all other forms of attraction. Having a good personality, can make anyone's feelings about you turn a full 180 and make them like you even more. On the flip side, if they were at first attracted to your looks or your brain, having a poor personality can make them want nothing to do with you.

Celebrity News: Hailee Steinfeld Addresses Justin Bieber Dating Rumors

By Noelle Downey

Superstar singer and actress Hailee Steinfeld has officially gone out of her way to debunk some recent celebrity news that has been circulating through the rumor mill; she and Justin Bieber are not dating. According to UsMagazine.com, the rumors were stirred up when photos of Steinfeld and Bieber FaceTiming were noted by fans of the pair. They were recently seen hanging out together, but Steinfeld is firm that this doesn't mean anything about their respective relationship statuses. "I don't know why people make such a big deal," Steinfeld insisted, "We're friends. We've been friends for years." So what's really going on in her love life? Steinfeld and boyfriend Cameron Smoller are still the celebrity couple of the moment, and it seems that rumors of her Hollywood relationship with Bieber haven't phased the pair. In fact, Smoller recently shared a social media post of him and Steinfeld cozying up together, and Steinfeld commented back with a sweet heart emoji.

It looks like this celebrity news comes from a rumor! What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to rumor and gossip, these silly stories can have a really negative effect on your relationship with your significant other. Here are Cupid's top tips for not letting the drama bring you or your relationship down:

1. Talk it out with your partner: Recently heard a crazy rumor about you or your SO that's beginning to bother you? Sit down with your partner and talk it out. Figure out how much truth is behind it, if any, and go from there. If hearing the rumor made you upset or hurt in any way, own up to that, and explain to your partner it's important to you to address these negative feelings before they take over your relationship and breed resentment, when most likely the story is barely even based in truth!

Related Link: Celebrity News: Justin Bieber Was Sad and Single on Valentine's Day

2. Confront the problem: Just like Hailee Steinfeld, it's okay for you to step up and explain that the recent rumors about you or your relationship are totally off-base. If you catch someone in the act of spreading a rumor about you, be kind but firm and explain that that information is incorrect and that it bothers you that false rumors are being spread about you. You can explain what's really going on, but remember that you don't owe anyone a detailed explanation of your personal life. It's enough to simply say, "No, what you've heard isn't true, and I'd appreciate if you'd stop spreading that misinformation.”

3. Ignore it: On the flip side, if the rumor truly is just silly nonsense that isn’t hurting anyone, it’s fine to just ignore the buzz and go on with your happy life and relationship with your significant other. If you and your partner are really secure in your relationship and don’t bat an eye when you hear rumors about each other or yourselves, then why let the gossips see you sweat? If you’re asked about it, laugh it off and tell whatever nosy individual is trying to pry that of course that rumor isn’t true. If you’re capable and willing to rise above the petty mind games of gossips, then do so!

Cupid's Advice:

When we're dating, there are always a few common traits that we gravitate towards. We often look for these traits in a partner and then call them our “type.” For those who are unsure of what their type is, Cupid is here to help you determine which is best for you:

1. Shared interests: A simple and straight forward way to determine your type is by finding interests you both share. If you tend to like people who like the same things you do, then you can determine that your type must be compatible with your hobbies and lifestyle. At the very least, your type should show an interest in the things you do.

2. Similar energy levels: Another important trait in finding your type is knowing how energetic you want them to be. If you like being active then you want someone that will be active with you. If you prefer low energy activities, you'll need someone who likes doing that as well. Dating a person who has an opposing energy level from your own is not the right type for you.

3. Mutual desire: Hopefully if you're trying to get into a serious relationship, you want someone who is attracted to you the same way you are to them. Don't try to force anything that isn't there. If you're not desiring to be in another's presence then they are not your type. A relationship without desire or passion is a friendship, go find someone who can satisfy your romantic needs.
