In celebrity couple news, there's a new Bachelor couple lighting up the gossip columns! What are some ways to announce your relationship to family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Being in a new relationship is a fun and exciting time, although you might not want it announced on The Today Show. Here are a few ways you can announce your new status to family and friends:

- 1. Through a phone call: Texting can be easy, but we so rarely think to make an announcement by calling our family or friends. Make a few phone calls to the people you care about most to let them know you're dating someone!

3. On social media: Becoming "Facebook" or "Instagram" Official is one of the most popular ways to announce you are now dating someone. Take a cute photo together, and let everyone know you're taken! But, wait a while to announce it – some studies show that couples who wait at least three months to announce their relationship online have a better chance of staying together.

In celebrity break-up news, Shawn Booth is speaking out about his split from Kaitlyn Bristowe. What are some ways to handle announcing your break-up to family and friends??

Cupid’s Advice:

Break-ups are never easy, and it’s especially hard when you have to tell your family and friends. Cupid has some ways to handle announcing your break up to family and friends:

1. Be open and honest: Tell your closest family and friends the truth. It is over, and it didn’t work. You and your ex-partner are no longer compatible, and you are both trying to move on.

2. Tell people quickly and publicly: To avoid unnecessary gossip and rumors, share the news in person. While it might feel easier to drop a quick headline on Facebook, you don't want to be overwhelmed with a million questions and reactions all at once. Once you tell a few friends, the news will spread quickly.

3. Reassure family and friends it's for the best: Sit down with family and friends and be open and honest to hearing their concerns. Then, reassure them as best as you can, both during that conversation and through your actions over the following weeks and months, that it's for the best. Your family and friends all love you and want you to be happy, so they should understand your decision.
