small or secretive wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

There are benefits to a small or secretive wedding you may not have considered before. So, if you and your partner are feeling overwhelmed with wedding plans, Cupid has some reasons why ditching those plans might be a good idea:

1. You and your partner are private: The idea of a big wedding irks you. Your wedding day is about you. Why not have a smaller ceremony in the courthouse with you, your partner, and two of your closest friends?

2. The ceremony later: Maybe you and your partner just need time to adjust as a married couple before you go through a traditional wedding ceremony. You'll have less to worry about and everyone can relax!

3. Tighter budget: You won't need to worry about spending money on a ridiculously expensive wedding. If it makes more sense to you and your partner to spend the extra money on a romantic getaway for your honeymoon rather than to wait a full year for your wedding venue, getting married in a small or secretive wedding might be ideal. This way, you'll be able to focus more on your love for each other rather than stressing out about the cost of your wedding dress or tux.
