

Celebrity Interview: Hollywood's Most Sought-After Hair Colorist Michael Canale Talks Tips for At-Home Hair Care and His New Hair Line

By Hope Ankney

Michael Canale is an American hairstylist, colorist, and the creator of Canale Hair Care Products. Yet, he's mainly famous for being the most sought-after hair specialist in Hollywood.

Being a part of the entertainment industry for years, his hands have worked magic on the likes of Reese Witherspoon, Jennifer Aniston, and Kate Hudson. In fact, Canané is responsible for “The Rachel” look on Aniston that dominated the widely successful, early 2000s sitcom Friends. But, he’s recently decided to branch out and start his own line of hair care products to further help others outside of his grasp. On top of that, he has spoken out about the importance of self-care and how to maintain your color during this time of quarantine.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat Michael on his rise in the industry, advice over safe hair coloring tips, tricks to try at home, and his new hair line Canané.

How did all of this start for you? Was there a specific moment you remember that caused you to want to become a hair colorist?

I was a biology minor and have always been on the chemical side of the industry. Early in my career, the colorist where I worked did not show up to the salon. The makeup artist asked me if I wanted to learn how to color hair with him. So, he taught me how to identify the right color for each type of complexion. He also showed me 3 techniques that I have expanded over time, making my own numerous techniques while retaining those 3 main concepts.

You’ve worked with very well-known clientele over the years. Jennifer Aniston... Kate Hudson... Are there any stories you can tell us about your favorite experiences with some of them?

I am a colorist, and I work by myself. It was amazing to see

Jennifer blow-dry her own hair as well as any stylist! Heidi Klum was the only person that ever made me blush just by her looking at me. I am honored to work with a lot of my actresses, trusting me to color their hair during their pregnancies, like Kate Hudson!

You've been voted 14 years in a row by Allure Magazine as being the "best of the best" and even received praise from Vogue. You have such a prolific career. What advice do you have for young children or even young stylists who want to get into the field?

Learn from the best, work with the best, and never let them down. Make the master stylist proud. Remember to keep the health of the hair, use what the client naturally has to achieve – what they desire. Work with their natural base color and their hair consistency to enhance their overall look.

With the state of the world right now and everyone being at home due to quarantine, what are some at-home hair coloring tips for our audience?

Between seeing your colorist and seeing them again, do not do anything that will ruin your hair. While quarantined, you can use concealers like spray and powders that cover grey. This lasts until you wash it out. Another option is demi or semi-permanent. Demi will last up to 2 weeks while semi can last up to 6 weeks when using the right hair products. Both will keep your hair color intact while waiting to see your hairdresser again. If you choose to dye your hair, remember hairlines grab darker, so try to stay lighter around the hairline. You will have to purchase 2 different boxes of color. For example, if you are doing your base medium brown use light brown around your hairline. Also for brunettes, try a color bath with the remainder of the hair color! Use a base color, you can add water and shampoo to the remaining color in the bottle and lather it into the ends of the hair to refresh it for the last 5 minutes of the process.

From your perspective, what are the hair color trends at the moment?

Roots are in! Try to preserve or prolong your hair color. I recommend using a color and shine-boosting gloss. All of my New SIGNATURE GLOSSES, can really refresh and enhance color for both highlights and base colors. The SUNKISSED GOLD for warmer skin tones and COOL BLUE for cooler skin tones will brighten up your blonde while MIDNIGHT BLUE cools down any brassy tones on blondes or brunettes. They last up to 2 weeks, the results are amazing! I am currently providing samples to my clients in my Canalé At Home Personalized Color Kits. The glosses will be made available in June for the Summer and can currently be pre-ordered on my website www.colorbycanale.com.

Self-care in any way can be something that makes someone feel great about how they look or feel inside. How important do you feel it is to practice self-care on your hair while being isolated during this pandemic?

Take care of yourself and your hair! Get up in the morning, take a shower, wash, and style your hair. Use boar bristles, not metal for your brushes, and avoid hot tools. Add oils to your conditioner. My new REPAIRING Hair Oil restores natural luster, hydrates, and deeply conditions dry, damaged, and color-treated hair. Just add 3-5 drops of oil to a tablespoon of Canalé SOFTEN or SOFTEN PLUS Conditioner for a deep conditioning treatment. I am also providing these samples to my clients in my Canalé At Home Personalized Color Kits. They will be made available in June and can currently be pre-ordered on my website www.colorbycanale.com.

Can you tell us a little bit more about your product line, Canale?

People would come to me and ask, "How can I keep my hair looking fresh until I see you again?" So, I created a product line that is proven to maintain and restore the integrity of treated hair from the inside out and the outside in! Canale CLEANSE Shampoo for all types of hair is the mildest shampoo that fully cleans the hair without fading color. SOFTEN Conditioner for finer hair, rebuilds the hair shaft and brings back the luster of the hair. SOFTEN PLUS Conditioner, rebuilds the hair shaft plus adds moisture, perfect for thick, unmanageable hair. Canale hair products have two supplements, one topical and one ingestible. NOURISH topical vitamin foam is applied to the root of the hair and feeds the hair follicle with key nutrients. It is applied after Cleanse shampoo and expands the hair shaft adding volume. It is the most technologically advanced product in the line. The ingestible vitamin REPLENISH feeds the hair, skin, and nails all-natural, vegan, superfood, blue-green algae, and other key nutrients that help stimulate the hair with a patent on cellular absorption by Targeted Medical Pharma.

Healthy, shiny hair that is what everyone wants!

How did the idea come about to create the products for Canalé? Was there a specific amount of time you waited before pursuing it?

In the past, I represented brands like Kerastase and Shu Uemura. Although I loved these products, I still felt something was missing. I made it my personal goal to develop the most holistic healthy hair care system. I partnered with Dr. David Silver and worked together to scientifically formulate a product line focusing on getting and keeping hair healthy while maintaining and extending hair color, improving the fullness of hair, and bringing out the natural shine.

What do you think is the greatest opportunity you've had while having the platform you do as such a renowned hair colorist?

I truly enjoy making people happy. Creating the trend, while working to bring out my client's personal best. The right color is an accessory, use it to your advantage. People can always tell my work, enhancing a person's natural complexion and eye color, this trend never goes out of style. I have appreciated the opportunity to share my work over the years with multiple generations of the most powerful woman, true icons, and inspirations.

The hairstyles we have can be so empowering. The way one plays with theirs can be such a creative outlet. Why do you think that is?

Hair is personal. It is an expression and extension of ourselves and our personality. It is who we are and who we inspire to be. With the latest hair color trends, individuals are empowered and encouraged to take risks. Using temporary dye or hair makeup is so fun!

Voted "Best-of-the-Best" by Allure Magazine 14 years in a row and touted by Vogue as "not only really good, he's really fast," Canalé personally travels between locations in Rancho Santa Fe, San Francisco, Dallas, New York, Washington DC and Beverly Hills, making sure that each of his clients gets the hands-on attention they need to look and feel their very best. With over 30 years' experience, Michael Canalé is a rare talent and truly among the best in the industry; his work has been published in Allure, Vogue, Vanity Fair, Women's Health, Elle, Marie Claire, Redbook, Glamour, and New Beauty, to name a few.

Fitness Tips: Prepare for a Day of Hiking

By Mara Miller

Celebrities like Kate Hudson, Jessica Biel, and Kendall Jenner say hiking helps them stay crazy-fit, so why not think about taking a hike yourself with this fitness tip? Pack up your gear, grab your sweetie or your dog, and go for a nice long walk. Taking a hike is a good way to reduce stress levels, it makes you unplug from electronics, and it helps you lose weight!

In this fitness tip, we'll explore what you need in order to have a safe hike for a mini getaway from life.

It's important to be prepared for your hike. If you're not used to hiking and decide to do it spur of the moment, it can have some disastrous consequences like dehydration or injury. If you follow these tips, you'll have fun on your hike and won't have to worry about any of the negatives:

1. Make sure you have a buddy: Depending on the trail you take, it can be dangerous to hike alone. It's best to plan your hike with your partner or a friend in case anything happens on your hike. Remember, you've probably chosen a day of hiking to be closer to nature, but nature (and snakes and other wildlife) will be closer to you!

2. Research the trail you've chosen: Finding a map of the place you plan to hike is important. You don't want to get lost and it's a good idea to know where it comes out so you don't end up hiking for days.

Travel Tips: Three Historical Colonial Towns You Need to Visit

3. Make sure you're physically prepared: Hiking is just like any other workout. You want to make sure you're prepared so you don't injure yourself. Yoga is a good way to prepare because you're stretching out your muscles before you do any intense walking.

4. Dress smart: Cotton dries slowly, which can cause chafing, and loses its thermal properties when wet. Try modern backpacking clothes, which do away with all the problems cotton can cause. And don't forget a good pair of hiking boots—the more lightweight, the better—either.

5. Water, water, water: Make sure you bring enough water to support you while you're hiking. The last thing you want to do is get so dehydrated that you have a migraine for two days after you are finished with the hike, especially if you choose to do it on a hot day. Dehydration is dangerous, and it can be more dangerous when you are cut off from the world if your cell phone loses signal on the hike.

Are there any other essential things you need for a day of hiking? Let us know in the comments below!

1. What's the reason for turning down the heat?: Is it something minuscule or something worth a break up, like lack of trust? Sometimes an on and off relationship will be just that, on and off all the time. Make sure neither of you are quick to end it, just to get back together right away without fixing a thing – this will make the break-ups seem less serious and will probably make them occur often.

Fitness Secrets: Slim Down in Time for Valentine's Day Date Night

By Rachel Sparks

Valentine's Day is almost here, and we know you want to look your hottest for the perfect date night! Your New Year's resolutions may have included a workout plan (and you may have even stuck with it), but all those holiday treats are still sticking to your hips. Here are Cupid's fitness tips to get you in sexy shape for your dream Valentine's Day date night:

Cupid's fitness tips will help make your Valentine's Day date night the sexiest!

1. Juice detox: If you're trying to make a change really quick, a detox is the way to start. You can lose weight on a detox, but you want to use this as a starting point and not the only technique for losing weight. You need to clean your body of all that junk leftover from the holidays in order to feel better, eat healthier, and kick-start a work-out routine.

Related Link: Look Like a Victoria's Secret Model with These Celebrity Workouts

2. Stay hydrated: And we mean all the time. Drinking enough water will give you more energy, replace water you lost during a work-out, keep you feeling full so you don't overindulge at meal time, and it keeps your skin taut and glowing. So really, there's no reason to not drink water.

3. Cut unnecessary calories: Drinking, white bread, and junk food are some of the biggest culprits of wasted food. Our bodies need calories to function, and especially while working out, but make sure you're ingesting the right kind of calories. Fruits are high in the good kind of carbs to give you a burst of energy. Proteins like chicken or fish are light and easy to digest while still giving you the heavy feeling of having eaten. If sticking to a diet for too long seems daunting, just remind yourself you're doing this for Valentine's Day. A month is easy, right? Well according to IdealFit you can get lean in as short as 15 days.

Related Link: Fitness Tips: 5 Fit Celebrities That Lost Weight and How They Did It

4. Don't starve yourself: You think weight loss and you think cutting back on eating, but that's retroactive to your goals. Starving yourself triggers your body into survival mode, which means it will actually run slower and store even more calories. When you don't enough, you're telling your body food isn't common. Eat regularly, have healthy snacks often, and you'll actually lose more weight from eating more often.

5. HIIT workout: This is one of the latest fitness trends. HIIT stands for high-intensity interval training. Basically, you give everything you can for a short amount of time, rest, and come back. You're pushing your body to the max. It's a lot like heavy-lifting training; you're doing high intensity for shorter reps to gain muscle and burn more fat. This is definitely a hard workout, but it's a quick ticket to that sexy bod.

6. Find fun workouts: Ok, so working out usually sucks. Weight training and timed miles remind us of gym class in high school, and no one wants to go back there. Take cues from Kate Hudson and other celebrity workout plans and find something fun. Whether you follow Kate Hudson's passions for pole dance or you've fallen in love with Zumba, anything that gets you to jump off the couch and burn those calories is a win.

This celebrity news is certainly the next step in Kate Hudson’s relationship. What are some ways to know you’re ready for the next step in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Cupid is here with some top tips on how to know when you and your partner are ready to take the next big step in your relationship:

1. When you both know what you want: Make sure that before you take your relationship public or put any kind of labels on what you’re doing, sit down and talk about what you’re both ultimately looking for. Are you interested in a long-term commitment? Are you just looking for something casual? Do you want to get married? Will you ever want to? In casual dating these questions aren’t really a concern, but when it comes to a relationship getting serious, it’s vital to know where your partner stands on where you’re going as a couple, so sit down and talk it out before things go any further.

2. When your communication is going great: If you’re going to be in a serious relationship, it’s time to get real about communication. If you two struggle to hold a serious conversation in which you can actually share your thoughts and emotions with one another, it’s time to give some serious thought about whether you’re both ready to be in a serious relationship together. Any good couple has great communication or is working hard towards that goal, so if you always know you can go and talk to your partner, that's a good sign that you're in a good place to begin something more serious.

3. When your friends and family love them: Approval from friends and family doesn't have to mean everything, and let's be honest, sometimes people just don't get along no matter how awesome they are when they're separated. However, it's also really amazing when your friends and family can see the great person you're with as... well, great. Especially if you come from a close-knit family or friend group it can be really important for you to feel like your significant other is accepted. And if every single one of the people you love is telling you that your partner doesn't seem right for you, it may be time to think about why they all seem to be saying the same thing. Relationships where it seems to be you and them against the rest of the world never end very well.

Are you in a relationship that's pretty serious? How did you know it was time to take the plunge from casual dating to something more? Let us know in the comments!

The two remain amicable for their children and continue to run a joint wine company, Hudson Bellamy Wines.

This former celebrity couple isn't letting their differences get in the way! What are some ways to remain civil with your ex for the sake of your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone can remain as friendly as Kate Hudson and Matt Bellamy. Remaining civil with an ex isn't easy. You parted ways for a reason, and it definitely wasn't because you just loved each other too much. Though you may want to run in the other direction every time you see your ex, that won't help your children at all. Here are some basic ways to remain civil with your ex:

1. Take responsibility: Chances are that when you split from your ex, some ground rules were laid out—either on your own or in court. Follow them. Do not deviate from the schedule, and be sure to hold up your end of the deal. This will help avoid additional issues and show that you respect your ex's time with your kids.

2. Mind your business: Whether your ex is telling you about a date he or she went on, or your kids are relaying information, if it doesn't have to do with you or your children, stay out of it. You may feel entitled to weigh in, but don't do it. Staying out of your ex's personal life or love life will keep everyone's lives more simple.

3. Play nice: Maybe you two couldn't stand each other at the time of the split, but now that you've parted ways, tensions should die down. Remain polite when dealing with your ex, especially in front of your kids. If you respect each other, say "thank you" when you can, or do a favor here and there. Co-parenting will work out much more nicely.

Kate Hudson Opens Up About Celebrity Break-Up From Matt Bellamy

By Katie Gray

In celebrity news, Kate Hudson recently opened up about her celebrity break-up from Matt Bellamy, as the two are no longer a celebrity couple. According to UsMagazine.com, Kate Hudson explained the two ended their celebrity engagement due to different visions of what their future would look like together. The previous pair hope to maintain a friendship. Hudson's relationship advice is, "Relationships ending are painful, and you can choose to carry that or you can choose to reframe it."

The details are coming out about this celebrity break-up! What are some ways to know you aren't meant to be for the long-term?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you see a future with somebody and then you realize that what you had envisioned is different from what your partner had in mind. In some cases, this means it's time to go separate ways. Cupid has some advice on how to know if you're not meant for a long-term relationship:

1. Different goals: Sometimes you love a person a lot, but when it comes down to it, you have different goals. If one person really wants to get married and have children, but their partner doesn't ever want that, then they either need to compromise or part ways. It's important for a majority of life goals to be the same!

2. Different paths: Oftentimes people travel different roads in life at different times, and that's okay, because we are all unique. We create our own paths in this beautiful thing called life. If you're not going the same direction as your partner though, it could be a sign that you're not meant to be. You have to be at least headed in the same direction when it comes to life aspirations and routines.

3. Different lifestyles: Opposites do attract, however; birds of a feather flock together too. If your lifestyle is completely opposite from your partner's, then you may run into issues at some point and need to call it quits. If one partner wants to go out and party a lot, but the other partner is a homebody – there will be a clash. The person you spend forever with, needs to have somewhat of a similar lifestyle!
