In celebrity baby news, Katherine and Chris are proud new parents. What are some tips for working as a team with a newborn?

Cupid's Advice:

Welcoming your new baby is always going to be an exciting moment to remember. However, newborn babies also come with a lot of work and in that case you have to make sure you and your partner work together. If you are just welcoming your bundle of joy and is looking for tips to work as a team with your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Split the work evenly: With a newborn baby there is going to be a lot of things that need to be done on a daily basis. You and your partner should decipher how you can split everything that needs to be done evenly, that way one person isn't doing way more than the other.

Celebrity Couple News: Katherine Schwarzenegger Calls New Husband Chris Pratt a 'Wonderful Husband' on Father's Day

By Katie Sotack

According to UsMagazine.com, Katherine Schwarzenegger wished Chris Pratt a “Happy Father’s Day” on Instagram. Schwarzenegger posted a photo of Pratt watching over his son along with a laundry list of compliments for the father. Katherine claimed, “Watching you be such a hands on and loving father was one of the many reasons I fell in love with you, and continue to each day.” The news comes after the celebrity couple married at a ranch in California about a week ago.

In this celebrity couple news, Katherine may have kids on the mind this Father’s Day! What are some ways to celebrate your partner as a parent year-round?

Cupid’s Advice:

The challenges of parenthood deserve to be rewarded with appreciation. Celebrating your partner's dedication to your children can help to strengthen the whole family's relationship. Here are some ways to acknowledge your partner's work with the kids:

1. A day to themselves: being a care taker is as rewarding as it is exhausting. If you want to show your partner how much you appreciate them consider giving them the day off to rest and practice self care. Send them to a spa or take the kids out so they can relax at home.

Celebrity Couple: Chris Pratt and Katherine Schwarzenegger Move In Together!

By Mara Miller

According to People.com, in the latest celebrity news celebrity couple, Chris Pratt and Katherine Schwarzenegger recently moved in together. Pratt helped his fiancée move out of her home in Santa Monica, California on Friday. He excitedly captioned a short video on Instagram, "I love moving," showing off his new Chevy Silverado, a trash bag, and a cardboard box full of belongings. Moving in together can be lots of fun when you're ready like these two are!

Though it hasn't been long, celebrity couple Chris Pratt and Katherine Schwarzenegger are moving in together! How do you know when you are ready to take that step?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving in together can be a mix of amazing, frustrating, exhausting, and exciting emotions, not to mention expensive, even if you're just moving an hour and a half away from the city to the countryside. How do you know when you're ready?

1. Review your expenses, and then decide how you'll break things up: Are you going to split the bills even, or share them? Consider if you're ready to share the cost for food and gas, and if you're renting and the utilities aren't included, the water and the electric. This can be easily done by creating a budget for your potential new household.

2. You're willing to make a couple sacrifices: 3 AM dance sessions and binge-watching your favorite television show might have to be put on hold while your partner sleeps. You'll need to take time to do chores, and these will go quicker, like helping your partner wash the dishes or walk the dog together. You might also have to put down the social media to spend more time together. If you can see yourself making tiny sacrifices like this, then you both might be ready to live together.

3. You trust they will be great with your pets or children: While this might not be a factor for everyone, it's still an important factor to consider. If you are with someone who doesn't like children or animals, and you adore both your toddler and your pet rabbit and they want nothing to do with either, then you might need to re-evaluate your relationship. Trust in this situation is key because you don't want your human babies or fur babies to get hurt.

It's inspiring to see these exes open to the idea of expanding their family and love!

Chris Pratt and Anna Faris's amicable relationship meant they could talk about his engagement.

What justifies telling your ex about moving on?

Cupid's Advice:

Even though you might feel it's not their business, there may be times you need to let your ex know that you're moving on. What reasons would justify telling your ex about the details of your new relationship?

1. You're still friends: Not all relationships end completely with social media and number-blocking. In some cases, you might decide to stay friends with your ex. Maybe you work together or have the same circle of friends and don't want to cause tension or strife. Letting them know you're moving on before anyone else can soften the blow.

2. You have children: Whether you are just starting to date again or are ready to propose to an amazing new person, you're going to want your ex to know. You will want your child(ren) to meet them, since the person you're in a relationship with is now a big part of your life and theirs. Letting your ex know before anyone else that you're moving on will help prevent any potential arguments and will protect your child's well-being.

3. You want to let them down easy: Maybe you've tried telling your ex that you're moving on, but it's had the opposite effect; they think you actually want to get back with them. It's totally okay to let them know that you're moving on, but make sure you let them down easy. If you want to maintain the friendship with them eventually, they need to know that you have met someone else; potentially leading them on could turn disastrous later.
