Dating Advice: 5 Ways to Keep Boundaries with Your 'Work Spouse'

By Katie Gray

The concept of having a “work spouse” is becoming more and more common in the workplace. In this day and age, people are typically working more hours than they used to. This means that they are also spending more time with their co-workers, which includes the opposite sex. This type of relationship is similar to having a real spouse – it’s someone to support you through life, but without the sexual benefits. Vault.com conducted a survey among a diverse range of industries and found that out of the 693 people surveyed, 32% said they have or have had previously, a “work spouse.” This type of relationship is on the rise!

Cupid has some dating and relationship advice on how you can keep boundaries with your work spouse:

1. Don't share too much personal information: While at work and interacting with your work spouse, don't overshare personal information. It's important to keep the relationship light and happy. If you overshare things from your private life, the relationship won't be strictly professional anymore. Be personable without crossing the line.

2. Don't go out drinking together: Dr. Phil's advice on this subject is, "Don't drink with your work spouse. When you drink, boundaries get blurred." Therefore; keep the relationship professional and no conflicts will arise.

Related Link: 5 Ways To Know Your Partner Is Lying To You

3. Be honest: The most important thing is honesty when it involves this topic. Make sure your work spouse is aware if you have a real spouse or significant other. If you do, be sure to tell your partner about your work spouse as well so there are no secrets. Sources say that it's good to even have them meet, so there is no room for paranoia or tension.

4. Avoid frequently talking about your work spouse at home: Although you love being around your work spouse and have many inside jokes and stories, it's best to avoid talking about them too much at home. There needs to be a distinction between your work life and your home life. It could potentially hurt your partner's feelings if you bring up your work spouse too much. However; it's good to casually mention them and share information.

5. Communicate appropriately: Even if your work spouse is your favorite co-worker by far, make sure that you are still communicating and interacting with other employees. This way it won't seem like you and your work spouse are exclusive and like a clique. Your fellow co-workers and the people in your personal life should all be aware of this strictly platonic relationship in the workplace. With effective communication, everyone will remain on the same page.

By Katie Gray

Celebrity love is in the air, and diamonds are a girl's best friend! Former Girl Next Door, Bridget Marquardt, is engaged! Nick Carpenter gave her a diamond spider celebrity engagement ring, which is fitting because Halloween is her favorite holiday and time of the year. This celebrity couple have been dating for a long time and are ready to tie the knot. According to UsMagazine.com, Marquardt and Carpenter met at the Playboy Mansion. Marquardt said, "I've heard that people want to marry their best friends. I think that should be partially true. You want someone you can sit with in sweats, plus go out with. You want them to have a lot of best friend qualities, but you want to make sure that you have the spice and passion that you wouldn't have with your best friend. You want the relationship to be one step beyond that."

This celebrity couple will soon be walking down the aisle. What are some ways to choose your partner's engagement ring?

Cupid's Advice:

Although the love between you and your significant other is the most important part, the ring does matter. When choosing your partner's engagement ring, it's important to keep in mind their taste, interests and personality. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Taste: You need to select an engagement ring for your partner while taking into account their tastes and interests. If they are into opulence, then make sure to wow them with the size and clarity of the gem stone. If they are more conservative and classic, choose a classic cut and setting.

2. Personality: Personality plays a huge role! If you are going to spend the rest of your life with someone, you clearly know them very well as a person. Perhaps they have a special interest where you can create a ring around that aspect, similar to how Bridget's ring is a spider because she's the Queen of Halloween. If they are into horses you could have a horseshoe shape in the pattern or if they love pearls than add a pearl into the ring and have diamonds circling around it.

3. Quality over quantity: The most important thing to remember is that an engagement ring is an investment. It's something your partner will be wearing everyday and it should be meaningful and special. This is something you will spend a lot of time and money on, but it's worth it. The quality of the diamonds are more important than the amount of them. If you can only afford so much, make sure the main stone is flawless instead of buying lesser quality stones to have a bunch of diamonds everywhere. One beautiful diamond is more pretty than a bunch of stones that are not of good quality. Besides; they will love you regardless!
