

Travel Tips: Health Benefits of Luxury Travel

By Katie Sotack

Can luxury travel be self-care? In 2017, CNN published the article “Travel Makes Us Happy”, but as it turns out, the ignition of our senses by new experiences makes us happy. Recent wellness luxury travel has entered the market as a health trend for those who want to increase their sense of well-being. These luxury vacations aim to go beyond experiential travel, instead of immersing the traveler in the transformational experience of travel and leading to personal fulfillment.

Here are some travel tips to ensure the longevity of your growth from # luxury travel.

With our culture moving toward environmentally positive retreats and service trips as ways to seek personal enlightenment, is there still room for luxury vacations to bring us happiness? Fear not, there's still plenty of reason to enjoy the spa and beaches at a five-star hotel. Here are the perks to wellness traveling.

1. Adventure: Self-actualization sits on top of our hierarchy of psychological needs. The idea is that when we reach our true potential we leave our ego in the dust. This allows us to live more mindful lives. Luxury wellness vacations may ask you to emerge yourself in theater, hiking, or gaming in order to ignite emotions. This results in a personal transformation towards self-actualization.

2. Storytelling: For all our bibliophiles out there, luxury travel rips a page right out of your book (but not literally). Wellness locations immerse the traveler in epic storytelling. Like a chapter in a book, the adversity brought on to reach the end goal will inspire personal development.

3. Activity: The reason behind branding these retreats as stories where you're the protagonist is our culture's craving for choice. In the old days, vacationers desired itineraries and classes aiming to guide their journey. Now, we've moved onto mixtures of fitness, nature, cultural immersion, and health foods. These options in activities allow a sense of purposefulness and a full experience within your vacation destination.

4. Digital detox: Many luxury wellness vacations will not allow electronics into their vicinity. The idea of giving up our phones for a week produces sweat beads of anxiety on our upper lips as we realize this vacation isn't for Instagram. However, the long term benefits of disconnecting far outweigh the day of mild discomfort. Embark on your spa adventure with total serenity, knowing no one can disturb you.

5. Women only: If your a woman warrior looking to relax and grow in an area uninhabited by men look no further. Certain luxury wellness vacations cater exclusively to female empowerment. With physically, mentally, and spiritually guided activities for growth, these sessions focus on moving past trauma (like divorce, assault, etc.) and inspiring growth.

Cupid's Advice:

At the end of the relationship, there are steps to be taken to ease the painful process. Instead of wondering “what if?” find ways to deal with your feelings and move on. Here are relationship tips to find closure:

1. Wallow: In the wake of your devastating breakup give yourself permission to wallow for an allotted time period. Take Friday off and watch your favorite movies while binging on ice cream. Or, call up your mom and talk about what happened. Allow yourself to feel all the confusing and painful emotions that come with ending a relationship so that you can make peace inside your head.

2. Seek socialization: After your weekend of wallowing, call your friends and go outside. 3. Talk to your ex: When the time comes, speak to your ex to find closure. This step should only be taken after you’ve processed the bulk of your emotions and can be trusted to converse calmly without blame or aggression. Meet for coffee or somewhere else public to discuss the demise of your situation. Go in knowing that the goal is not to get your relationship back but rather to hear out the other person and grow from their experience with you.

In celebrity break-up news, it's splitsville for these Riverdale co-stars. What are some ways to continue working with your partner after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Working with a ex? Yikes, that's some tricky territory. But, fear not! Cupid's got some sneaky ways to make the situation work out:

1. Purge: The number one way to rid yourself of negative feelings is to purge them out. Grab your friends and some drinks, or see a professional therapist. Any way that you can process both the bad and the good will be better for you in the long run. Once you've felt all the feels, it'll be easier to face your ex without pining or resentment.

2. Respect: You're at work, so keep it professional! We've all had to work with someone we're not a fan of before, so use your professional coping skills. to put your mental health on the back burner. Don't. Give yourself as much room and time to heal as you need. Seeing an ex every day is difficult. Admit that to yourself. Most of us like to click "unfollow" and forget their face. So, give yourself props for dealing with this hardship, and pamper yourself a little.

Health Trend: Natural Deodorant

By Katie Sotack

Have you ever wondered about the ingredients in the little antiperspirant you use on your underarms? You wouldn't be the first. The publicity over the last year between mental mindfulness and physical health has spiked a health trend in natural products like deodorants that don't contain chemicals. But switching to an all-natural deodorant can take some getting used to.

The health trend of using natural deodorant is more than a one and done process. Learn about the transition before you jump ship to the unprocessed scent blocker.

Switching to natural deodorant is a patient game, but if you succeed the mainstream news says your health will be better in the longer run. Here are the facts and health tips and health advice on switching your odor stopper.

1. Deodorant Detox: The smell, at first, is not pleasant. Your body is used to deodorants with chemicals that block sweat and stink from coming out. Without a traditional deodorant, your body will need to purge itself. Basically, avoid planning a date the first month of the switch to be safe.

2. Sweat Stains: Natural deodorant is not an antiperspirant, meaning it will not stop the sweat. Without the aluminum salts and propylene glycol added in your pores are free to open. This is not a bad thing, considering sweat itself doesn't smell, but rather the bad bacteria on your skin produces the odor. Still, if you tend to run on the moist side underneath, test out a lighter color shirt at home to see if you leave stains. Just like the odor detox, don't be afraid to give your body some time to adjust.

Related Link: Fitness Trend: Reaching New Heights in Aerial Classes

3. Health benefits: The big push to this health trend is avoiding the preservatives in processed deodorant. There's been growing concern that the mainstream products cause Alzheimer's and breast cancers. Though researchers have yet to find enough evidence to definitely prove the correlation, it's enough to terrify some consumers.

Related Link: Top 2019 Fitness & Wellness Trends to Watch

4. Longevity tips: Because of the detox factor, the odor-blocking will not last long in the beginning. On the first few days, it works approximately two hours at a time. That's why it's recommended that during the initial process the user carry to go deodorant wipes with them. These products can be found using natural formula as well and will take care of bad bacteria growth while you're on the move.

5. Funk over time lessens: An ultimate benefit to natural deodorant is the long term scent booster. Aside from the aforementioned possibility of avoiding diagnoses, natural deodorant does not block pores. This means that after your month of smelling, the good bacteria on your skin will take over and reduce odor. This also allows your natural pheromones to shine through, which could, in turn, make you smell more attractive to some individuals.

Beauty Trend: 80's Beauty is # Back

By Katie Sotack

After the deaths of music legends like David Bowie and George Michael in 2016, culture veered toward the '80's aesthetic once more. In 2017, bands like Paramore and 1975 borrowed the 80's glam rock from recently passed icons to honor their memories. In 2019, the beauty industry is following suit with bright colors and big hair. Geometric shapes and metallic glitter hit the Paris runway in an all-out tribute to '80s trends of the past.

80's Beauty Trends are back. So what are ways to make this tribute to the past wearable to school and work in the 21st century?

The '80s glam rock look relies on a larger than life persona.

The Paris runway didn't hold back on this promise. Sadly, most of us don't walk the runway for a living. We require more subtlety to our aesthetic in our beauty tips. Here is fashion advice to get the '80s glam look while still being wearable every day:

1. Geometric shapes: Don't be afraid of geometric patterns and shapes for your makeup. Rock a pointed cupid's bow or a shapely eyeliner. Your wardrobe can take after this makeup look, too. A bold colored and sharpened shaped blouse is a perfect 'wear-to-the-office-'80s' statement piece. For everyday wear, pick up a pair of geometric sunglasses. Not only are they essential to the '80s trend, but thanks to Audrey Hepburn, big sunnies are also timeless. So invest wisely into this pair.

Related Link: Beauty Trend: Glitters, Shimmers, and Pastel Eyeshadow

2. Neon colors: The '80s are marked with loud colors and makeup. When picking out an outfit or makeup, go bold! To make this look wearable in an office setting try to limit the bold to one statement per fashion and makeup each. An example is a neon pink blouse with gray trousers and a bold lip with subdued eyes. Play around with what you feel comfortable in and what your office will allow.

3. Leggings are pants: The '80s are back, so let's end this debate right here. In celebrating the decade that brought us upbeat music and neon leg warmers, we cannot ignore its staple leg style. A pair of basic black leggings will take you far in life, whether they're worn for Saturday errands or Tuesday's spin class. Grab yourself a pair and flaunt it.

Related Link: Fashion Trend: Print Mashups

4. Downplayed '80s makeup: As stated before, balance is essential to a modern 80's appearance. Choose one product to amp up (eye shadow, lips, blush, etc) and let that feature rejoice in the color while keeping the rest of your face natural. Take a hint from makeup artist Peter Philips who recently styled the models for Viktor & Rolf. Philips drew immense metallic spider eyes on his models but left the face and lips a natural pale.

5. Volumize Hair: If you tease it you will look dated. Instead, opt for a volumizing shampoo set and gel to pump up the crown of your luscious locks. Playing with your part will help to amp up the volume on top of your head as well by not letting it wilt into place. The natural volume of curly hair is a great way to increase the appearance of hair mass and embrace the '80s trend.

Celebrity News: Ben Higgins Says 'Bachelorette' Hannah Brown's Sex Confessions Are 'Confusing'

By Katie Sotack

In Bachelorette news, former Bachelor Ben Higgins is confused by Hannah Brown's sex confessions in the most recent episode of her season. On a podcast interview with Bachelor Nation, Higgins admitted that Brown's statements on whether having sex on the show was a wise decision seem contradictory. According to UsMagazine.com, this news comes right after Brown and contestant Parker participated in a raging fight on screen and social media war off screen on the issue of sex with multiple partners.

In celebrity news, Ben Higgins is confused about Hannah's seemingly conflicting sex admissions. How do you know when it's the right time to get physical with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Have you ever been dating someone and wondered, "When's the right time to hookup?" What's too soon, and what will they think of me if we wait a long time? Here is relationship advice on getting intimate:

1. Are you turned on?: The number one requirement to figuring out the right time to be intimate is being aroused. If you're feeling your partner, the environment, and the contraceptive measures are at your minimum requirements at least, you might be ready to get physical. There is still some question on whether this is the right time for you emotionally, but desire is the number one box to be checked off.

Related Link: Celebrity Engagement: Sarah Hyland and Wells Adams Are Engaged!

2. Don't be pressured: Just because your friend slept with their partner on the first date and your other friend waits until the 10th to get it on, doesn't mean these timelines are right for you. Only you and your sexual partner can decide on the who, what, when, where, and why of your sex life.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Tyler C.'s Fantasy Suite Speech Made Him a 'Bachelorette' Fan Favorite

3. Ignore all advice: Physical intimacy is different for everyone. Sexuality is like a snowflake – everybody's special and there's no one size fits all. Instead of feeling worried about outside context, be mindful. Consider yourself, what you want, and what you are comfortable with. Then, proceed from there.

In celebrity couple news, Scott

Disick enjoys having the support of Kylie Jenner when it comes to his relationship. What are some ways to support your ex's new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

With all the complicated feelings that even thinking about your ex brings, having them bring their next S.O. into the family is tricky to say the least. Jenner is supporting Disick and Richie's relationship like a mature and respectful ally. Here are relationship tips to root for your ex's new love:

1. Keep your distance: You see your ex repeating similar patterns, you don't think their new lover is treating them right, etc. It's so tempting to pinch the lovebirds on the shoulder and straighten them out. Don't do it. When you get the temptation to meddle, take a deep breath and walk away. By commenting on their current situation, you are adding your baggage with ex-bae to their new love. It's better to keep your distance here.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Duchess Meghan Comments On Her Relationship with Prince Harry to Pharrell

2. Accept their new partner: Possibly the biggest thing you can do to support their relationship is accepting their new partner. It doesn't have to be as a close confidant, though friendship is a great way to start this process. Welcome the partner into your family space and accept them as a potential life long member.

3. Show social media support: If your friends and family can see you liking and commenting on your ex's new relationship status, they're more likely to show support as well. If you're acting bitter, it's only natural they'd want to have your back and criticize the couple. Be the bigger person and show no negative will toward your ex.

Parenting Advice: Collaborative Parenting

By Katie Sotack

Past parenting advice has sought to punish bad behaviors and reward the good. Collaborative parenting takes a new and innovative approach to parenting that involves treating your children like people. The parenting trend focuses on working with our children rather than against them to solve problems.

Collaborative parenting involves working with your children and treating them like people in this parenting advice.

The beauty of collaborative parenting is the understanding and well-thought-out approach you must take in guiding your child. If they don't want to clean their room, ask them why, and then come up with a solution together. They might only need to pick up their room for fifteen minutes a day, for example. Here are some collaborative parenting tips to help you and your child get on the same page:

1. Hear your child out: Instead of becoming angry and grounding your child the moment you find out they haven't done their homework, hear your child out. The collaborative parenting approach encourages you to breathe and think before you dole out punishment. Maybe they have too many after school activities or they don't understand the homework. Communicating with your child and understanding them is an important key factor in being a strong role model for your child.

Related Link: Parenting Trend: Baby Led Weaning

2. Offer choices with boundaries: Yes, by all means, listen to your child, but you are still the adult. For example, if it's close to bedtime and your five-year-old daughter doesn't want to stop playing with her dolls but you want to read her a book before she falls asleep, give her an option. Keep playing and go straight to bed with no book or you can read the book after you tuck her into bed. It's giving a clear choice and option that makes collaborative parenting work!

3. Keep your head: Try not to lose temper with your child. This is easier said than done, but keeping a calm head while you offer choices and the consequences of not listening will prevent you from turning into a screaming banshee to get things done your way. You may have to employ tremendous patience but both you and your child will have a better relationship in the end.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: Tips to Leave in the Past

4. Seek a CPS expert: If you truly feel you are failing with collaborative parenting, seeking the guidance of a collaborative parenting solving expert is an option. An expert can show you how to work with your child, teach you patience, and ease your concerns.

1. The perfect fall piece: Every fall season you will find plenty of celebrities sporting one of these jackets with a scarf tucked around their necks. The reason? Celebrity stylists know that the leather look is timeless and instantly elevates a casual outfit to woah status. 2. Cruelty-Free: If you want to avoid leather for ethical reasons but still like the look of leather, purchasing vegan leather is an option you can explore when looking for the perfect statement piece to add to your wardrobe.

Related Link: Fashion Trend: Print Mashups

3. Endless shapes: The variety of vegan leather styles means there's a perfect fit for every body type. 5. It's more affordable: Vegan leather is more affordable than traditional leather, even the higher-end options. You may pay $45 dollars as opposed to $328 for a classic biker style jacket with vegan leather, leaving you more cash to find the perfect boots or jeans to pair with your new statement piece!

Health Trend: Intuitive Eating

By Katie Sotack

As sure as Taylor Swift's albums win Grammys, health trends come and go. This time an all the rage celebrity diet might be reasonable enough to stay: intuitive eating. Models like Steph Claire Smith and Gemma Atkinson have embraced a balance, mindful way of consuming food. Rather than counting calories or suffering through another juice cleanse they trust their guts. The premise of intuitive eating is resetting your mind's ideas around food. Your body dictates when you're hungry, full, and satisfied. It's nature's way of letting us know what and when to eat.

The latest health trend indulges your food instincts, but what are # the benefits to intuitive eating?

Resetting your body's natural instinct for food is not a task for the light of heart. No diet comes without its fair share of trials and tribulations. So what makes intuitive eating worth the effort with this food tip? Here is health advice for this way of life:

1. It is natural: Letting yourself live in the moment is far less stressful than weighing out each food choice and counting calories for every snack. If you're hungry, eat: it's that simple. There's no wrong way to embrace this lifestyle because our bodies have a built-in system for managing food. They know when and how much will satisfy us. All it takes is listening to your gut.

Related Link: Fitness Trend: Hire a Certified Professional

2. It is a lifestyle: There's a reluctance to call intuitive eating a diet. That's because years of bombardment from the diet industry teaching us to feel bad about the way we consume food have brought about a negative connotation to the term. Intuitive eating, on the other hand, is much more lifestyle based. Rather than following a set of rules and equations, food is seen as the nutrients you need to function. Eat as much or as little as your body desires.

3. It puts the fun back in food: Similarly to the reason it's a lifestyle and not a diet, intuitive eating is meant to be a joyful experience. If you're craving chocolate, you may eat chocolate until you're satisfied. The lack of strict limitations lets the consumer feast, guilt-free, on their favorite foods.

Related Link: Fitness Trend: Mobile Exercise Apps

4. It is a responsibility: While all this food freedom may sound like a kitchen frenzy, intuitive eating is still a responsibility. The eater is in charge of what they consume and when they eat, meaning they must take listening to their body seriously. If not in touch with their gut, they run the risk of ignoring signals and not seeing positive results from this means of consuming food.

5. It restores your peace of mind: Your relationship with food is in need of a breakup. With so many messages about how we should be eating and how what on our plate is going to kill us, the diet world can seem impossible to navigate. Restore your peace of mind by listening to your body's natural desires and needs. Intuitive eating allows for a mindful experience, that creates peaceful feelings around food and fitness. After all, everybody is different and only yours can tell you what's right for it.

Beauty Trend: Make Your Skin Glow

By Katie Sotack

The beauty community is trading out the matte look for a dewy finished glow. This beauty trend pairs with rosy nude lips and bronzed eyes to create that sun-kissed-summer aesthetic. The idea behind the glow is going back to basics and certainly plays into the neutral palate seen on the fashion runway these days. The trend is easily achievable, as it's meant to be a grab-and-go look, and tending to your skin's health is essential. Check out our new beauty advice!

A natural glow is the beauty trend of the season, but is your skin healthy enough to pull off this radiance?

Depending on your skin's regular state, you may have to do more work to achieve this style. If your skin is naturally oily, you're already primed and prepped for a natural glow with the swipe of an oil blotting sheet. If your skin runs on the dry side, there are ways to achieve that desired glow that also aides your health. Here are beauty tips to glow like the star you are:

1. Drink water: It's been said again and again, but water is essential to your organs' health. Considering that the skin is your body's largest organ, it's wise to start drinking lots of H<sub>2</sub>O. Keep a bottle filled next to you throughout the day, and you'll find yourself reaching for sips naturally. Added hydration can be found in fruits and vegetables. Of course, you'll also need to use the restroom just as often as you're sipping, but no one will notice since your skin will look great.

Related Link: Product Review: Wink Brow Bar for Independence Day!

2. BB cream: This one's essential for the makeup wearers out there. If you want a full face and radiant skin, opt for a BB cream. The lightweight formula will pick up the high points of your natural skin and create an effortless effervescence. It's important to make sure the cream is of a dewy or regular finish though. Steer clear of any matte formulas.

3. Exfoliate and clean: It's so important to develop a cleansing routine. The best makeup and health in the world can not outlast a face full of grime. Pick out a cleanser that suits your skin (don't be afraid of trial and error here) and a scrub to exfoliate once in a while. You'll want to partake in the scrub more often if you have dry skin. Last but not in any way least, remove your makeup before bed. All that foundation will creep into your pores and produces acne, bumps, and blackheads if you don't remove it.

Related Link: Product Review: Treat Yourself to Beauty and Comfort This Summer

4. Highlight: Beauty gurus of any status rejoice. The glowing skin trend sees that you get to keep your highlighters and in fact embrace them all the more. It's called glow for a reason, right? Pop that gold, pink, or silver highlight on your cheekbones, cupid's bow, and the tip of your nose. That glowing goddess is going to shine.

5. Moisturize: Depending on your age and skin type, you may want to do more or less of this. But whether your 20 and oily or 99 and dry, everyone needs a moisturizer. A good face lotion will prevent wrinkles and aide in a beautiful glow. Find one with SPF in it (no matter what your skin tone is) to rock as a bare-faced beauty outside.

Related Link: Beauty Tips: Essential Primers

6. Exercise: Oh the wonders of fitness. It's difficult to work into your life, but a good workout will change it. Exercise is your body's best friend and the skin is no exception. Working out will reduce pore size and help to regulate hormones so that the body will produce the correct amount of oils. Even a short walk will do the trick and have the added results of a calmer mind. There are many ways to imitate a natural glow, but exercise is a foolproof way to own one.

7. Sleep: Along with the endless benefits to sleep, the skin will become healthier if you get your full eight hours. Just like you, your skin grows weary of endless days and work. Give it a rest by getting all your Zzz's. Sleep will prevent eye bags and wrinkles, giving a smoother, youthful appearance to your face.

Cupid's Advice:

Maintaining your privacy goes a long way for a happy relationship. Here is relationship advice for hiding away from peeping eyes:

1. Keep it off social media: There's plenty of reasons to keep your relationship away from social media and not all of them are as pessimistic as 'what if it doesn't work out'? The issue with posting about your love is that it opens the gate for questions and rumors about your situation. This doesn't mean you and your boo can never post. ## Beauty Trend: Nude Lips

By Katie Sotack

The beauty community's biggest beauty trend this season has been a natural look. Celebrity stylists like NikkeTutorials and red carpet stars like Zendaya have been showing off their shining beauty with dewy foundations and shadow sculpting eye shadow. No natural beauty look is complete without a brilliant nude lip. No longer are the trendsetters sporting beige and brown liquid lipsticks. Rather, they've switched to soft colors that scream radiance and enhance the graceful features that lie within us all.

Long gone are the days of bold makeup palates. It is time we welcome 50 shades of rosy tan into our makeup bags with this beauty trend.

Since Beyonce sang "I woke up like this" in 2014, the beauty standard has been shifting to a "goddess of nature" look. Think sun-soaked and au naturel in a way that amplifies your strong suits. To complete this look there's no better friend to the makeup lover than a rosy natural lip. Here's advice on how to get the look:

1. Sheer lip gloss: The simplest way to archive the perfect nude lip is by applying a clear enhancing gloss to your lips. These glosses can be found almost anywhere, from drug stores to Sephora and Ulta, and are perfect to slip in with your on-the-go makeup essentials. The clear coat will have the added effect of making your lips look voluptuous while playing up the notes of your true color underneath.

Related Link: Hair Beauty Trend: Crystals, Chains, and Studs

2. Tinted balm: Say hello to your middle school days when fun chapsticks made you the coolest kid on the playground. The adult version of this is the tinted balm. The balm will melt into your natural color, letting it highlight your lip beneath. In going this route there's no fear of not having to match your perfect shade. Everything will customize itself to you. Not to mention the health benefits like SPF and moisturizing your lips.

3. Nipple color: Just give this a chance. A while back Buzzfeed's Youtube page released a video on finding your perfect rosy nude lip by matching the lipstick shade to the peaks of your breasts. The idea might sound like a quick gambit to amp up views, but the results spoke for themselves. It makes sense too since your body's natural color palette is a safe road to travel if you want to achieve that rolled out of bed look.

4. Opt out of matte: The matte trend has had its time. Props to mattes for bringing us long-lasting liquid lips, but it's time to put the dry look to rest. If you want the natural look, embrace any and all rosy lip products that give the illusion you've just been to the beach. The sun's rays have graced your lips and you've taken one last dip in the ocean before heading home. In short, think rosy and wet.

1. Be patient: When your significant other is losing their cool it's important to remember this isn't about you. It can be easy to take offense to yelling or hurtful tones, but instead focus on what they're trying to say. Chances are they're truly hurt and not expressing it properly.

Health Trend: The Ins and Outs of CBD

By Katie Sotack

Health trends constantly evolve through branding by popular celebrities. Cannabidiol, or CBD for short, is growing in popularity as a chemical compound found in marijuana because it doesn't cause a high. According to RealSimple.com, the compound is said to cure PMS, anxiety, insomnia, and hangovers.

With CBD available from drugstores to cafes, is this cure-all craze worth the hype?

CBD is available as powders, oils, vapes, and more, but is it really beneficial to aches and pains? The cannabis compound that's a gray area in the eyes of the law and in science. Here are the health tips you need to know before purchasing CBD:

1. Proven treatments: When it comes down to it, the only FDA approved use for CBD is to treat two rare forms of epilepsy. Not to mention that only one form of CBD is approved for such use. Still, studies have shown benefits for patients with multiple sclerosis and arthritis. If it's legal in your state and you're experiencing muscle aches or spasms, rubbing on some CBD on the affected area could be beneficial.

Related Link: Fitness Trend: Mobile Exercise Apps

2. Anxiety and Depression: There's not enough research to back this up. The bulk of the testing has been done on animals with no definitive proof that CBD has any effect on humans aside from epilepsy. However, some report that the use of CBD relieves their social anxiety and in one study with mice the oil has been shown to have antidepressant effects. A disclaimer to using CBD with mental illness is that marijuana has been known to trigger psychosis and specifically schizophrenia in patients with a family history of mental illness. If you have concerns speak with your doctor before testing out CBD.

Related Link: Top 2019 Fitness & Wellness Trends to Watch

3. Relieves cancer-related symptoms: Like marijuana, CBD can alleviate nausea, vomiting, and pain often related to cancer treatments. However, unlike marijuana, CBD will not get the user high because it lacks THC. Some animal tests have shown the CBD has preventative properties in mice as well. Further studies are needed to conclude if this remains true for people.

4. Dosage: Even if CBD is a cure-all, you'd need more of it than what's sold in an average vape pen. For the effects to take place the user would need to ingest hundreds of milligrams. Most over the counter products like vapes, oils, and edibles are sold at around 5 milligrams. Again, speaking to your doctor could be beneficial. They may prescribe something entirely different for your issue or increase your dosage of CBD.

5. Neuroprotective properties: As mentioned above CBD has shown neuroprotective properties for issues like multiple sclerosis and epilepsy. This area is also one of the most studied for a relationship between CBD and human health. An oral spray of CBD and THC has been shown to reduced muscle spasms in patients with MS. Ingesting CBD in a way that works for you might ease MS and epilepsy-related symptoms.
