Fashion Trend: Khaki & Beige, Plain No More!

By

Katie Sotack

Say “goodbye” to the flashy, logo-driven wardrobes you’ve seen over the past few years. According to harpersbazaar.com, this Fall’s 2019 fashion trend will be beige on beige. While you might be tempted after the glitz of sequins, feathers, and neons (oh my!) to accuse beige of being boring, think again. Classically cut neutrals have historically stood the test of time from Audrey Hepburn to Taylor Swift. This fall there's plenty of reason to dive into the beige trend that look timeless in photos for decades to come.

Beige will be making its way to the fashion runway this fall. To follow this fashion trend, what are some ways to incorporate neutrals into your wardrobe?

Beige's comeback reminds us that fashion is fluid. What's trendy must always be measured against what works for our personal style. Here are some fashion tips for incorporating neutrals with your own personal flare:

1. Work with what you've got: If you're a fan of color and cringe at the thought of giving up your hard earned colorful closet, incorporate what you own with the beige trend. Neutrals often make a great base for colorful accents and expressions throughout the rest of the outfit.

2. Remember the statement piece: Just because we're not demanding funky fashion from these silhouettes doesn't mean you can't be playful. Add charm to your classic cuts and beige on beige with statement earrings or a dazzling necklace.

3. Go for classic cuts: Street wear has become popular in recent years, but we're circling back to timeless cuts. This isn't a call to end comfort. Instead of tight leggings try a straight legged slack which will give your legs breathing room.

4. Mixing and matching: The task of finding clothes that work together becomes much easier when you've opted for simple cuts and beige or khaki bases. The entirety of your wardrobe will match and you'll never be known as the person whose outfits clash.

5. Color block your beige tones: the beige look doesn't require the wearer to be completely mono toned. Pair different shades of beige together to create a dynamic and fluid look which will add to the dimensional quality of your look.

Celebrity Diet: Does Going Vegan Hurt Your Health?

By

Katie Sotack

Reducing meat intake is becoming hugely popular in celebrity diets. According to Foodnavigator-usa.com companies like Beyond Meat are skyrocketing in sales because their branding has increased food options for vegan and vegetarian diets. This, coupled with people's growing concern over climate change, has added to the desire to reduce meat intake. However, celebrities like actress Anne Hathaway and food blogger Virpi Mikkonen on a vegan and vegetarian diet have expressed their concerns with a completely raw, plant-based diet. Mikkonen experienced early menopause. Hathaway lacks energy. Check out our fitness advice and food advice on how to remain healthy on a vegan or vegetarian diet!

Here's some food advice on how to follow this celebrity diet trend but also stay healthy at the same time!

Adding raw, plant-based foods to meals have been all the rage for dieting tip articles, but to maintain a strictly vegan or vegetarian diet requires a lot of knowledge on how nutrition affects the body. Here are the facts to consider when switching up your diet:

1. Up your protein intake: If you're cutting out animal products, you could be cutting out the majority of your protein source. At the start of a plant-based diet, it's important to find other protein sources in nuts and lentils. Tofu is fine but be careful not to overeat soy-based products, which contain isoflavones, and can have ill effects on the body.

2. There are different types of vegetarian diets: Be sure to research different kinds of diets before you make any major changes for yourself. Some eliminate foods high in fat, like avocados, and others encourage minimal cooking. Find which diet works for you.

3. Consult a nutritionist: Not everyone can afford it, but if your insurance will cover it, contact a nutritionist. Whenever you drastically alter your diet it's best to speak with a professional to make sure all your bases are covered. If you can't afford a nutritionist or doctor's visit, make sure to do your research by checking out books on the diet you're seeking to emulate.

Related Link: Fitness Advice: How to Get Your Best Booty

4. Mix and match: Lacto-Ovo vegetarians, for example, eat only eggs and dairy produce. Pescatarians include fish. Beegans are vegans who eat honey only. There's no need to follow a by-the-book diet. If you want to enjoy a vegan lifestyle, but need to incorporate seafood to increase your energy go ahead!

5. Listen to your body: Above all be aware of your body. Listen to your natural instincts, if you're hungry, tired, and off-kilter in any way, adapt your diet to fit you and your needs. Everybody is different and there are no one-size-fits-all for a diet.

As the heat rises, we are set to shed our cool temperature clothes and the fashion trends that inspired them. So, send your outdated wardrobe to the thrift store, and pick up that credit card. It's time to splurge on a new trendy summer wardrobe.

Summer style this year is based off of recent decades and exciting colors. Think 90s cuts with 60s accessories and color palette. Here are some ways to incorporate the trends into your wardrobe:

1. Straight legged jeans: in recent years the style has been all about the skinny pant, but dig out your comfy boyfriend jeans because roomy jeans are all the rage. Not only will you look super trendy in the 90s boy band bottoms but you won't be afraid to treat yourself to an ice cream cone with that new wiggle room.

2. Oversized sunnies: Dig out those Audrey Hepburn sunglasses. Huge, geometric shapes are meant to sit on the bridge on your nose this summer with the added benefit of more sun protection.

Parenting is hard enough as it is. If partners aren't on the same page publicly, it leaves room for all the nosy nobodies who claim to know better for your baby. A unified front is essential to a clear message for both your child and others. Here are some ways to hone that message:

1. Back your baby mama/daddy: It's important to demonstrate agreement in front of others and have each other's backs. Even if you're not 100% sold on their decision leave that discussion for a more private time.

By

Katie Sotack

In celebrity news, basketball wasn't the only competition at the NBA Finals this year. According to UsMagazine.com, Beyoncé was caught giving a death stare to Nicole Lacob, the Golden State Warriors majority owner's wife. Lacob invaded Yoncé's personal space by closely chatting with Bey's husband, Jay-Z. The Beyhive rushed to defend Beyoncé, particularly sensitive to the subject matter after her 2016 album Lemonade, which narrated Beyoncé's struggle after Jay-Z cheated.

In celebrity news, even Beyoncé isn't immune to jealousy. What are some ways to deal with jealousy in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It's natural to feel territorial in a relationship, but if you can't keep it in check, it becomes a problem. Turning your jealousy into a productive catalyst in your relationship is entirely possible. Here's some way to turn your jealousy into a strength:

1. Communicate your concerns: talking to your partner about what's been bothering you, without accusing them, can strength the relationship.
