Celebrity Exes Katy Perry and John Mayer Spark Latest Celebrity Gossip By Spending Super Bowl Together

By Rebecca White

We are never ever getting back together! Or, maybe we are. According to UsMagazine.com, the latest celebrity gossip surrounds celebrity exes Katy Perry and John Mayer as the pair was seen partying together after the Super Bowl. The celebrity couple was also seen in LA together, sparking rumors about a supposed reunion.

The latest celebrity gossip is that celebrity exes Katy Perry and John Mayer may be our favorite celebrity couple again. How do you know whether or not to rekindle things with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Have you ever been in an on again off again relationship? If so, then you know what celebrity exes Perry and Mayer are going through right now. If you don't know if it's time to rekindle the flame, here's some dating advice to help you figure it out:

1. Either one or both of you has changed: Whether he's finally decided to commit or you learned how to handle your inner control freak, the circumstances that led to the break-up can no longer exist in order for it to work out. There's no point in entering the same relationship only for it to end again, so make sure that if you do reconnect with your ex, your issues from the past are gone.

2. You can talk about what went wrong: It's very important in relationships and love to be able to communicate about what's working and what's not. If you get back together with an ex, discuss what led to the break up so you can avoid it the next time around.

3. You're willing to go slow: Don't pick up right where you left off. Take it slow, and treat the relationship with the same respect you would a new one. For example, date like you just met and share the same sweet gestures you would if you had never known one another before. Starting fresh is key to making things last the second time around.

Russell Brand Says 'I Loved' Being Married to Katy Perry

By Amanda Boyer

Russell Brand is finally opening up about his prior marriage to singer Katy Perry. While Brand was promoting his new book on the Today Show on Monday, Oct. 13, he said something that caught some attention. According to UsMagazine.com, the comedian claimed he “loved” being married to Perry and said she “is an amazing person.” The ex-duo were together for 14 months.

How do you set realistic expectations for your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

To ensure you are going to have a successful marriage with realistic expectations, Cupid has some tips:

1. Compromise: Sometimes, you need to agree to disagree in certain situations. In order to make your relationship work, make sure there's give and take.

10 Favorite Celebrity Weddings

By Courtney Omernick

The designer wedding dress, the insane guest list, the mile high wedding cake, and more! Celebrity weddings, what's not to love, right? Even if we can't throw as big of a wedding bash as Kim and Kanye, it can be fun to imagine what our own lavish wedding would look like. Below are 10 of our favorite celebrity weddings.

1. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: Of course they're number one; they're wedding was plastered everywhere, and the pictures from it were some of the highest viewed photos on Instagram...ever! The party started a week before the actual wedding date (Saturday, May 24) in Paris where Kim, Kanye, and a few of their family members relaxed before the big day. Their "I do's" were exchanged outside in Italy next to a giant wall of flowers. Guests such as LaLa Anthony, Joyce Bonelli, Monica Rose, and more were in attendance.

2. Emily Blunt and John Krasinski: Another Italian wedding!

The two actors tied the knot back in 2010 and used George Clooney's Italian villa on Lake Como to do so. It was an outdoor ceremony and the guest list included George Clooney (obviously), Matt Damon, Meryl Streep, David Schwimmer, and more.

3. Kendra Wilkinson and Hank Baskett: The former Playboy Playmate and NFL star were married on the front lawn of the Playboy Mansion in June 2009. Wilkinson wore a $20,000 duchesse-silk gown (that she co-designed) that had more than 55 yards of fabric and was covered in 1,2000 crystals with R-Mine Bridal's Armine Ohanessian. Talk about glitz and glamour! Their guest list included Hank's teammates from the Philadelphia Eagles, Hugh Hefner, Holly Madison, Bridget Marquardt, Jon Lovitz, and more famous faces.

4. Katie Holmes and Tom Cruise: In November 2006, seven months after the birth of their daughter, Suri, the two actors were married at the 15th-Century Odescalchi Castle outside of Rome. The bride and groom both wore Armani, and their guest list included Victoria Beckham, Jennifer Lopez, Mark Ronson, and others.

5. Celine Dion and Rene Angelil: Back in December 1994, the singer married her manager at the Notre Dame Basilica in Montreal, Canada. Dion wore a Mirella and Steven Gentile gown that included a 20-foot train and took over 1,000 hours to complete. Oh, we almost forgot to mention Dion's seven-pound tiara that was made of 2,000 Australian crystals...

6. Nicole Kidman and Keith Urban: The couple was married on June 25, 2006 in an all-candlelight ceremony that took place just after sundown in Sydney, Australia's Cardinal Cerretti Memorial Chapel on St. Patrick's Estate at Manly. Kidman wore a dress by Nicolas Ghesquiere for Balenciaga. The black-tie event included friends such as Russell Crowe, Hugh Jackman, Naomi Watts, and Rupert Murdoch.

7. Gwen Stefani and Gavin Rossdale: These two rockers had not one, but two weddings back in 2002! First, they were married in London and then had their second ceremony two weeks later at a private home in L.A. Stefani wore a dip-dyed silk faille gown that was created specifically for her so she could show off her girly, yet punk, personality. Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston were among the many stars in attendance.

8. Khloe Kardashian and Lamar Odom: Who could forget Kim's sister Khloe's crazy nuptials to LA Laker, Lamar Odom? The couple tied the knot just one month after they started dating! The ceremony took place at a private residence in Beverly Hills, and the couple said their vows in front of triple arches of white roses created by celebrity florist, Mark's Garden. The bride wore a Vera Wang gown and was walked down the aisle by her step-father, Bruce Jenner.

9. Katy Perry and Russell Brand: When the singer and actor wed back in 2010, it was nothing short of magical. Perry wore an Elie Saab Haute Couture gown and $7,000 Casadei heels to their ceremony at Rajasthan, India's Amani-i-Khas resort. And, don't forget! The two entered their ceremony by riding on top of an elephant! How's that for extravagant?

10. Ellen DeGeneres and Portia De Rossi: The talk show host and model/actress wed in 2008 at their home in L.A. among their closest family and friends. Although the couple didn't have their wedding in an elaborate location, certain items included on their special day sure made for an elaborate event! Both brides wore designs by Zac Posen and Mark's Garden provided the candles and flowers. Later that evening, all guests dined on an all-vegan menu prepared by the couple's personal chef, David Silberkleit.

When should you start dating again?

Cupid's Advice:

Dating after a breakup is complicated. When is it OK to test out the waters again? How do you know when you're ready to get back out there? Cupid is here to help:

1. Time: Don't rush into your next relationship just because you're afraid of being on your own for awhile. Take the time to get over your ex, and figure out what you really want out of a romance. You want to get things right the next time you fall in love. Repeating all of your old habits and mistakes won't do you any good.

2. Trust: If you can't trust the next person you're seeing, there's no reason for you to try to spark up a relationship with him/her. The ability to trust again doesn't come easy, and it might take you awhile to get there. If your potential love interest is willing to be patient with you, you might have a keeper on your hands.

Katy Perry And John Mayer Call It Quits

By Sanetra Richards

Just when we thought things were going well for the two, Katy Perry and John Mayer have landed in Splitsville. Despite ending their on-again-off-again relationship, the two shared a mutually agreed to part ways and are remaining close friends. According to UsMagazine.com, a source previously said Perry's tour schedule played a part in the breakup and the former couple "made the mature decision that it was the right time."

How do you know when it's time to call it quits on your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

The end of a relationship is a bittersweet feeling, to say the least. You go back and forth with yourself wondering if the right decision will be/was made (most of the time it was). The signs are always there and it is up to you to pay close attention. Cupid has some advice for you to see the signs:

1. Tones and attitudes: Do not ignore the tension in the room that is thick enough you could cut it with a knife. If you begin to notice more aggression between you and your partner, address it. If the problem repeatedly continues, consider calling it quits.

2. No evolving: As a couple, you both should grow individually and together. Be able to recognize and commend your partner's steps of growth. Remember, it is about progression. If one is constantly gaining and the other is constantly losing, consider calling it quits.

3. Disappearing emotions: There should always be some sort of heartfelt emotion involved in your relationship. A glance at your love gives you butterflies, or maybe even you see stars – whatever the feeling, it should remain. Let your significant other know of the issues you are having. If the butterflies are stuck as caterpillars or the stars are not glowing, consider calling it quits.

According to People, John Mayer and Katy Perry posed for professional photos to accompany the release of Mayer's latest album, Paradise Valley. Debuting the cover shot on his Instagram, Mayer captioned the image, "Proud of this song, proud of this artwork, proud of this girl." The couple have been in an on-and-off again relationship since the summer of 2012.

What are some ways to showcase your love?

Cupid's Advice:

You're in love and you want everyone to know it! Showing your love someone doesn't necessarily mean spending all of your money or displaying too much public affection. You can just as easily show your partner you care for them with subtle gestures. Cupid has some tips:

1. Quality time: Show your significant other that they're a priority in your life by spending some much needed time together. You don't ignore the person you love, or make excuses to why you can't see them on a regular basis. If that special someone in your life is important to you, show them by making time for them no matter how busy your schedule is.

2. Say it: You don't need any fancy gimmicks to show your partner you care. All you really have to do is say those three magic words. Some couples forget how good it feels to hear and say "I love you." All the gifts in the world couldn't replace hearing your loved one actually tell you how they feel. So, tell your honey you love and them and do so often.

Katy Perry Says She and John Mayer Had Long 'Courtship' Before Dating

By Gabby Robles

According to UsWeekly.com, Katy Perry and John Mayer took their time before jumping into their blossoming relationship during summer 2012. Katy stated that she and her counterpart exchanged love letters for a long time before taking their relationship public. This couple has been getting quite seriously. An insider spilled that, "it's just a question of when John will propose."

What are some advantages to moving slowly at the beginning of a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you move too fast in a relationship, you miss a lot of key things that couples should go through together. Wondering what some of the advantages are to moving slowly? Cupid has your back:

1. You get to know each other better: Jumping into a relationship means you're just taking the person as your partner without fully knowing who they are. When you go slowly, you get a better understanding of who this person is.

2. You learn what their intentions are: Going too fast leads to getting too intimate too quickly. You won't get to know more of what their true intentions with you are. Moving a bit slower means you get a better chance of insuring a permanent relationship.

3. You get those cute, romantic moments together: When you move slowly, you guys can share those sweet moments and memories together. The quirky, fun, exciting times are what makes lasting impressions which leads to a stronger relationship.

Source Says John Mayer Is Ready to Propose to Katy Perry

By Kristyn Schwiep

A source tells UsMagazine.com that John Mayer is ready to pop the question to girlfriend Katy Perry. “They realize they must be together. They Skype and text all day,” the source added. The couple has been together for 15 months and they are ready to take their relationship to the next step.

How do you know when you’re ready to pop the question?

Cupid’s Advice:

Deciding whether or not to propose to your significant other can cause a whirlwind of emotions. So if you are looking for some guidance, Cupid has some advice to lead you in the right direction:

- 1. You’ve discussed the future: If you’ve taken the time to talk about family vacations or where you two want to end up in 10 years from now, then you are definitely ready to commit to a lifelong adventure with your partner.
- 2. Friends and family: Are you family and friends a fan of your partner? If they are that's a good sign. You've definitely dated one or two people who your friends and family haven't approved of, so if they like you two together it's safe to take the next step.

3. Dropping hints: Has there been mention of which ring she likes, what type of dress she wants, and where her dream wedding would be? If she has her mind is on marriage and is ready to take the next step. So if you are ready to make the next step in your relationship to get engaged.

How did you know when you were ready to propose? Share your stories below.

Katy Perry and John Mayer Look at Engagement Rings Together

by Priyanka Singh

According to Hollyscoop.com, celebrity couple Katy Perry and John Mayer might be tying the knot in the near future. A source close to Perry revealed to Hollyscoop that the musical duo have been looking at engagement rings, so the prospects of them making it official could be right around the corner!

The source also shared that the pop princess wants a green engagement ring since that happens to be her favorite color. "They want to have a small wedding, one of those you don't hear about until it is all said and done. They live with each other now and are practically already husband and wife."

The couple enjoys the company of each other so much that they tend to keep to themselves and go out very sparingly unless it's necessary for work. As the source explains, "They prefer hanging out at home and just being with each other. They are both kind of over Hollywood and everything that comes with it."

Their relationship certainly seems to be on a deeper level. "Katy knows that John is her soul mate and everything she has been through has led her to him. And John has said he will never love another woman like he loves her. She has redefined his definition of love."

Katy Perry Opens Up About Divorce from Russell Brand

By Kerri Sheehan

Barbara Walters should never be kept waiting. Pop princess

Katy Perry learned that the hard way when she was running late for their December 2011 interview. At the time the 'Roar' singer was going through an extremely rough time in her life. UsMagazine.com reported that the 'Firework' star dished to Billboard in a new interview, "I shouldn't have done the interview: I was playing Madison Square Garden that same night, and I knew that the end of my marriage (to comedian Russell Brand) was coming." After the divorce Perry found herself depressed and fighting off suicidal thoughts. Perry is now worlds away from where she was two years ago. She has been enjoying her life with boyfriend and singer John Mayer. Perry gushed over her new beau saying, ""He literally is a genius, as is evident from his songwriting!"

What are some ways to cope with a fresh breakup or divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups suck! Let Cupid help guide you through the rough waters:

- 1. Girl's night: Nothing makes a girl feel as good as a night spent with her closest friends. They can help you make sense of all the emotions you're feeling post breakup and be your rock when you feel weak. Invite your girlies over for a fun night and don't forget the ice cream and chick flicks!
- 2. Clear out: Get a big shoebox and fill it with anything that reminds you of your ex. Not having these items in plain view will keep your mind from wandering back to your former fling.
- 3. Move on: This point may take a while to get to, but it's so important to get back into the dating game as soon as you feel ready. Seeing what other guys are out there won't keep your longing for your ex.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Katy Perry, Kate Middleton and Fergie

By Shoshi

For today's expert post, I want to look at the energy of three celebrity couples who are celebrating exciting times in their relationships: Katy Perry and John Mayer, who are back together and recently released their first duet; Kate Middleton and Prince William, who welcomed their son, Prince George, in July; and Fergie and Josh Duhamel, who are expecting their first child very soon.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Jennifer Aniston, Julianne Hough and Kim Kardashian

Katy Perry and John Mayer: This musically-talented duo is on again – at least for now. It's becoming difficult to define their love since it tends to change so quickly. Mayer has actually managed to keep his mouth shut about this relationship, unlike his behavior in the past. (Did we really need to know that sex with Jessica Simpson was like a drug?)

When looking at the energy around the couple, it seems like they're having fun. While they do enjoy each other's company, what keeps them getting back together is their ability to relate to one another. It's a level of comfort that they both need at this time.

There's been buzz about their new duet – and for good reason! Mayer sings that he can see himself growing old with her. How adorable is that? The only thing is that gushy love eventually ends. The soulful singer has a habit of quickly becoming attached to the woman he's dating, so only time will tell if they survive past the honeymoon stage.

In their duet, he also wrote that he couldn't run anymore. He's finally starting to show signs of getting serious about his love life. During his relationship with Perry, she will help him grow up a bit. Even so, Mayer will become bored and soon move on to the next lady.

Kate Middleton and Prince William: Ever since Kate Middleton and Prince William announced their engagement, the world has been enchanted with the lovely couple. When Kate announced she was pregnant with a royal bundle of joy, we couldn't wait for the baby to arrive!

We can all finally relax: Prince George is here and has been presented to the world. The Duke and Duchess's marriage appears to be going strong; in fact, they've never been better. Surrounding their relationship is the energy of Princess Diana, as if she watches over them and guides her son. Without a doubt, these two are best friends. They want to keep a low profile and simply enjoy their lives together.

There is another baby energy circling Kate. They want to wait a bit before their next child, but they may not have a choice. Don't be surprised if she's soon pregnant with baby number two, which will bring them a daughter.

Related Link: Will Harry and Pippa Be Named Godparents for Prince George?

Fergie and Josh Duhamel: Fergie and Josh Duhamel cannot wait until the arrival of their son. The energy in their relationship has shifted for the better since Fergie got pregnant. Rumors had been circling about Josh's activities with other women, but now, he's a bit more centered and focused on family.

Fergie has just legally changed her name from Stacy Ann Ferguson to Fergie Duhamel. It is said that, when you change your name, you change your destiny, so the newly-annointed Mrs. Duhamel has shifted her energy on many levels.

Josh is going to be really close to his son – it'll be hard to find him in a photo without him. It will cause him to want to work less, while Fergie will be inspired with material for a new album dedicated to the two men in her life and the love she has for them. It's a very happy time in the Duhamel household. All the best to them!

Celebrities Who Dated Out of Their League

By April Littleton

Everyone has heard the saying “opposites attract,” but we still can’t help but wonder how certain celebrities end up with some of the people they date. Is it their personality? Or maybe it’s because of their outlandish style. Whatever the case may be, some of the most average-looking celebrities end up with the most stunning beauties in America. Here’s a list of celebrities Cupid thinks date out of their league:

Jermaine Dupri and Janet Jackson: Everyone was stunned when the producer, rapper and songwriter confirmed to the public that he was dating Janet Jackson. The duo dated for eight years until they finally called it quits in 2009.

Related: 5 Celebrity Couples that Waited for Marriage

Jamie Kennedy and Jennifer Love Hewitt: Kennedy dated his Ghost Whisperer co-star from March 2009 to March 2010. However, the relationship wasn't smooth sailing when harsh criticisms about their love affair hit the newsstands. In an interview for People, Kennedy said dating Jennifer Love Hewitt wasn't easy when no one wanted them together in the first place.

Marilyn Manson and Dita Von Teese: This isn't the first time the musician, actor and painter landed such a hottie. Manson was engaged to Rose McGowan from February 1998 to January 19, 2001 before he met Dita Von Teese on the set of one of his music videos. They became a couple on his 32nd birthday. They married in 2005 only for Von Teese to file for divorce a year later due to irreconcilable differences. In an interview with the Sunday Telegraph, she said, "I get the impression he thinks I was unsupportive, but the truth is I wasn't supportive of his lifestyle, and someone else came along who was."

Macaulay Culkin and Mila Kunis: The world never understood the relationship between these two celebrities. Culkin began dating the That '70s Show actress in May 2002. The couple stayed together for nearly 9 years – longer than anyone would have guessed. On January 3, 2011, Kunis' publicist confirmed their breakup. The duo remain friends while Kunis has moved on to Ashton Kutcher.

Kris Humphries and Kim Kardashian: Even though the Keeping Up with the Kardashians star is in a happy relationship with Kanye West and is a new mom to baby North, we can't forget about her brief marriage to Kris Humphries. The basketball player began dating Kardashian in October 2010. They became engaged in May 2011 and married that same year in August. The wedding was highly publicized and even had its own two-part TV special. However, the marriage didn't end in bliss. Just 72 days later, Kardashian filed for divorce.

Russell Brand and Katy Perry: To this day, we still don't know what the Teenage Dream singer saw in Russell Brand. The couple began dating after meeting for the second time at the 2009 MTV VMAs. The pair became engaged in December of that year and married in a traditional Hindu ceremony in October 2010. Just 14 months into the marriage, Brand filed for divorce via text message and never spoke to Perry again.

Russell Brand Makes Jokes at Katy Perry's Expense

By Kristyn Schwiep

Russell Brand and ex-wife Katy Perry have been divorced for over a year, but the 38-year-old British comedian is still including Perry, 28, in his stand-up routine. According to UsMagazine.com, Brand made joked about his sex life with Perry during a gig at London's Soho Theatre on Wednesday, July 31. "When I got divorced, I considered becoming a monk. When you're a monk, you're not allowed to have sex with anyone. When you're married, it's one person. That's one more than a monk," he allegedly joked. "It's not that different. I'd be having sex thinking, 'Think of anyone, anyone else.'"

What are some risks of too much humor in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you decide to add humor into your relationship you should consider the consequences. Using too much humor in a relationship can lead to harsh feelings, confused emotions, and might lead to a break-up.

1. Confused: Using humor in a relationship can sometimes ease an uncomfortable situation, but sometimes you might take it too far. Cracking jokes at your partner could leave them seriously confused on how you actually feel about them and your relationship.

2. Feelings: Feelings can get hurt when you use too much humor in a relationship. Even if you think you are being funny you need to consider your partners feelings. You partner might not find the humor that you do and you need to consider his/her feelings before making fun of them, even if it is all in good fun.

3. Break-up: Using too much humor in a relationship can ultimately lead to a break-up. You partner might not be able to handle all the jokes thrown their way and it might take an emotional toll on them. Constantly using humor in your relationship can lead to frustration, which can ultimately lead to you being alone.

John Mayer Dedicates Love Song to Katy Perry

By Kerri Sheehan

John Mayer and Katy Perry haven't called it quits just yet! The two have recently rekindled their romance and Mayer made the audience melt when he dedicated a song to Perry on the opening night of his tour. The song, "A Face to Call Home," is a serene love song from his Born and Raised album. According to People, Mayer said the song was for, "Katy, who is my face to call home."

What are some ways to use music to show your love?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone identifies with music in some way. Use it to show your love. Here's some advice:

1. Dedication: If you and your partner have a night out then make a song request and have it dedicated to your significant other. Music can often say the things that we can't put into words.

2. Radio: You can also call in to a radio station and have them play a request for your lover. This idea is good for if the two of you aren't in the same place. This will show your partner that you're thinking of them even if they're far away.

3. Write: Whether you're a good singer or a bad singer your significant other will still appreciate the effort and thought put into the song. You can even make it short and sweet if you have trouble finding the words.

Celebrity News: Katy Perry Admits Russell Brand Said He Was Divorcing Her Via Text

By April Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, Katy Perry told Vogue in an interview how her ex-husband, Russell Brand brought up his plans for divorce, “He’s a smart man, and I was in love with him when I married him. Let’s just say I haven’t heard from him since he texted me saying he was divorcing me December 31, 2011.” The “Wide Awake” singer, 28 and Brand, 38 married in October 2010 after meeting at the 2009 MTV VMAs. Since their breakup, Perry has had an on-again, off-again relationship with John Mayer.

What are some things you should not use social media for in a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Nowadays, a relationship isn’t truly official until it’s “Facebook official.” Spilling the beans on your latest crush to your virtual friends may seem cute at the time, but if things get serious between you and the new boo, you might be setting yourself up for failure. Some things should be left completely private and left off of your Twitter updates. Cupid has some advice:

1. Cyber fighting: Many couples use social media sites like Twitter and Facebook to vent about their latest relationship problems. This would be OK if it weren't for the negative public commentary you'll be bound to receive. Putting your private business out there is never a good look for you or your partner. Plus, nasty comments left on your site could lead to bigger problems in your relationship.

2. Talking to the ex: If your ex sends you an "innocent" friend request, decline it. It's more than likely he/she will just stir the pot and cause a rift between you and your new love. If your ex is already apart of your social networking community, keep the conversations to a minimum. Your beau doesn't want to see you getting friendly with your ex for the whole world to see, and stay away from that dreaded "Like" button if you're dealing with an insecure partner. Commenting, or showing your appreciation for an old flame's picture or status will lead to an argument.

3. PDA: A few pictures of you and your boo kissing is OK, but don't overdo it. Your network of friends don't need to see what you and your partner do behind closed doors. Besides, taking too many inappropriate pictures will be a cause for your site to be blocked or permanently suspended if enough people complain about it. Keep it PG-13 when you feel like sharing the love on the World Wide Web.

Katy Perry and John Mayer were spotted with friends at a nightclub on June 7. According to People, the two singers spent their Friday night together at West Hollywood's Chateau Marmont along with around 15 other friends. It seems that Perry and Mayer are still on platonic terms, as the two sat apart all night. "I'm on the same journey as everyone else," Mayer told Ellen Degeneres when he appeared on her show in March. "Coupling is a tricky thing."

How do you know whether to get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

“To date or not to date.” That is, indeed, the question that many people ask themselves about their exes, especially if they are on friendly terms with them. But how do you know if it’s the right choice? Cupid is here to help:

1. Are you better as a couple: Just because you and your ex are best friends does not mean that romance is the next logical step. Platonic compatibility and romantic compatibility are not the same thing. Before you make a move on your ex, think carefully about how you two would get along as lovers, again.

2. Are problems resolved: Think back to what caused the break up in the first place. Are those issues resolved? If not, then there is no reason to give this relationship another shot.

3. Do you have the right motives: Do you want to get back together just to be in a relationship, again? Remind yourself that it’s better to be single than to be miserable.

Celebrity News: Exes John Mayer and Katy Perry Are Spotted Flirting at Memorial Day Party

By Kerri Sheehan

Ex flames and singers John Mayer and Katy Perry were spotted canoodling at a Memorial Day Party two months after their second breakup. UsMagazine.com confirms that Mayer was in attendance of the barbeque held at Perry's home in the Hollywood Hills. One fellow attendee said, "They seem to be back together – or back together-ish, they were very flirty and having a really good time together. They have good chemistry."

How do you decide whether to get back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes the guy that you count as down in out can turn out to be your Prince Charming. Cupid has some advice on how to tell if you dud has transformed into a keeper:

1. Make it your decision: A lot of women can fall into the trap of following what other think as opposed to listening to their own hearts. If you're really going to reunite with an ex it has to be your decision and no one else's. There's a difference between people giving you advice and full on telling you what to do.

2. Forgiving is easier than forgetting: If the reason for the original breakup was a transgression committed by your ex you have to acknowledge that it may not be as easy to forget as you think. If you still store pent-up hate for an ex's wrongdoing then there's no way you can move beyond that and reconcile in a healthy manner.

3. Do a Mental Rewind: Go back to the beginning of your relationship and figure out what originally attracted you to your partner. Are those traits still present in your ex? If he has changed for the worse then it may not be worth it to take your ex from the bench to the field.

Katy Perry Calls Divorce From Russell Brand a 'Very Tiny Elephant'

By Meghan Fitzgerald

UsMagazine.com reports that a year after her divorce, the 28 year-old singer, Katy Perry is now more comfortable talking about her past relationship. According to Hollywood Reporter, Perry stated, "It's a very tiny elephant . . . It's like a little Tchotchke now," referring to her divorce. "The Big D – you can say it." Since her split with Brand, Perry has been in an on-and-off again relationship with John Mayer.

How do you cope with the aftermath of a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Coping with the aftermath of a split is not always the most graceful or welcoming thing to do in life. Although it is not an ideal situation, it is best to pick yourself up and move on. Of course moving on is one of the hardest aspects of life. But you can make it work, and eventually you will. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Get rid of belongings: So you just had a split from your partner, what is the next step you might ask. Get rid of everything they ever gave to you. You will never be able to even begin the coping process if you are frequently seeing him all over your room, and your house. Either give their belongings back, or be a dramatic rom-com and burn it all. The burning part releases some repressed emotions so if that's you, go purge.

2. Stay busy: Make sure you keep yourself busy with anything besides thinking of your split. Call your parents. Call your friends. Make lunch plans and follow them. Don't stay inside day and night. Get there and experience life. Even if your life may seem like it's over, it is not. Do not be a hermit, go and be with other people. Always try to be with other people after a breakup.

3. Rebound: You just went through a breakup, go and rebound it up. Of course it is not really healthy, and you may feel crappy about yourself afterwards. But you will get your mind off of your ex. This rebound relationship is a distraction from your life and thoughts about your past relationship. It's a quick fix, and something fun to do while your heart is trying to mend together.

Dating Advice: 3 Ways to Use the Psychic Edge to Find Mr. Right

By Louise Helene

Celebrities face the same challenges in love as everyone else, only their mistakes and heartbreaks are made public. Many of them seem to be repeating the same mistakes. If they would just listen to their inner intuition, or their “psychic edge,” their love lives would be much happier. Here are a few exercises that can help them and you:

1. Visualize Your Dream Man

Visualization is a powerful tool not only to draw to us what we want, but to exercise our psychic muscles. When we focus on something, we help the universe send it to us. I psychically feel Kim Kardashian longs for her soulmate. Because of her numerous failed relationships, many people wonder if it will last with Kanye West. Kim should lie down in a quiet place and get comfortable, closing her eyes and taking a few deep breaths. When she is totally relaxed, she should visualize the man of her dreams, being as detailed as possible. Once she has a clear image, she needs to say out loud, "Darling, I will know you when I meet you," repeating this five times. Kim's main problem is not recognizing her dream man when he comes along; this exercise will help her – and you – to do just that.

2. Command Him into Your Life

Never underestimate the power of sound, especially your own voice. Sound vibrations are very powerful in the universe and help us focus intuitively, helping us make the right decisions. Taylor Swift is one celebrity who's famous for singing about her Mr. Wrongs. She could use a psychic nudge to attract Mr. Right.

Every morning when Taylor wakes up, she should look in the mirror, close her eyes and take three deep, relaxing breaths before saying out loud, "Love of my life, come to me." She should say this three times, with confidence and belief, and repeat this mantra before she goes to bed. Done regularly, she might be planning a wedding in the coming year.

3. Write Down the Possibilities

There are many potential conclusions to any romance. Writing down these possibilities gives us a powerful psychic edge. What does your gut say? Just imagine the heartbreak that could have been avoided if Katy Perry, Selena Gomez, or Demi Moore had tried this simple exercise.

Whenever you have a question about a man in your life, write several statements about him down on slips of paper and fold them in half. For example: "he is a cheater," "he loves his ex,” or “he is my soulmate.” Put all the slips of paper in a bowl. Close your eyes and meditate for a moment before randomly choosing one of the slips of paper. What is your immediate reaction to the statement? Many times our conscious mind suppresses our natural insight. This is a wonderful way to feel the subtle sensations of your own intuition.

Romance is very challenging for all women, famous or not; that’s one thing we all have in common. We need to start using our psychic edge to find the happiness we deserve.

What are some ways to keep a positive outlook after a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping a positive outlook on life isn't always the easiest thing to do after a breakup. Especially if it was messy, leaving you an emotional mess crying over laundry softener commercials. Even though you may think the sun will never shine over your now dismal life again, it will. And you can make it happen. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Forgive and forget: Yes, forgiving and forgetting sucks more than getting a flat tire in the middle of rush hour traffic. However, it is possible to do and it will leave you with a brighter view on life. Of course any breakup hurts, but there are ways to mend your heart. It's not as simple to say just forgive and forget because it is not that easy. However, you need to dig deep inside of yourself and find the strength to move on.

2. Exercise: Exercise ladies and gentleman will help you with your breakup! It is proven that hopping on the treadmill or that late night cycle class will make you happy. If your breakup sucked, go get your ass to the gym. Sweat off all the Ben & Jerry's ice cream you have been shoveling down your throat. It is guaranteed that you will feel ten thousand times better. Maybe not ten thousand but you get the gist of it.

3. Keep your chin up: It is always easier said than done for this one. But, you are capable of keeping your head up darling. You can overcome this breakup and shine on. Informing everyone how "fine" you're doing. When you act fierce, you slowly turn fierce. In simpler terms, if you act like you're okay by keeping your head held high, you will soon be more than okay!

Celebrity Couple: John Mayer and Katy Perry Split for the Second Time

By Andrea Surujnauth

It seems as though John Mayer and Katy Perry have hit a bump in the road...AGAIN. The famous couple has broken up for the second time. Is the split permanent? According to UsMagazine.com, it may not be. A source mentioned, "It's sad. It's not over until it's over. You have to see how things play out." Another source added, "She's leaving the window open. They have both been so focused on work." Perry had previously been married to Russell Brand, but their divorce was finalized by February 2012. Perry began flaunting her relationship with Mayer as early as March 2012. Although the two split up for a little while, they were back together by September 2012.

How do you know when an on-again off-again relationship is

Cupid's Advice:

On-again off-again relationships tend to feel like a never ending black hole. You just keep falling deeper and deeper into it and there doesn't seem to be any way out. How can you tell when the time has finally come to just get away from the relationship and never look back? Cupid has some advice:

1. No more satisfaction: When you're in this on-again off-again relationship, every time you and your beau are back on, you do not feel the same happiness and satisfaction that you once felt. You start asking yourself whether you are happier when the relationship is off rather than on.

2. No resolution: If you two are just getting back together without resolving the problem that caused you to break up in the first place, you probably should not be together. If you can not find the solution to a problem that was big enough to cause you to break up, then the relationship will continue being a roller-coaster ride for you and your partner. You both better get off of the ride before one of you throws up.

3. Think of your needs: Think about whether this relationship is healthy for you. Are you happy with the constant bickering, breaking up, crying, and then eventually getting back together knowing that it will happen all over again later on? If this relationship is getting in the way of your school, job, and happiness, then it is time to let it go and move on.
