What are some ways to overtly show your love for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it's nice to openly display your love for your partner. Here are a few ways to make your partner feel loved:

1. Little gestures: Sometimes the smallest gestures can make the biggest difference. Make your partner breakfast in bed or buy them flowers for no particular reason. They'll appreciate your effort.

2. PDA: For the most part, public displays of affection are best kept on the down low. However, small displays of affection, like holding your partner's hand as you walk together, can be very sweet and romantic.

3. Keep in touch: When you and your partner can't be together, due to work or family vacations, let your partner know that you're still thinking of them. Visit him or her at work or send your partner a thoughtful postcard when you're away.

Kelsey Grammer and Wife Expecting Twins

It looks as though Kelsey Grammer has even more to celebrate than his recent win at the Golden Globes. Grammer and his wife, Kayte Walsh, are expecting twins! “I’m really looking forward to meeting these new arrivals,” Grammer announced the news to reporters backstage at the Golden Globes Awards after winning the award for Best Actor in a TV Drama. “Fatherhood’s always different based on the character that comes into your life. They arrive and tell you what you have to do,” he said. The actor, who plays a powerful Chicago mayor on Starz’s Boss, is especially excited to welcome the new additions to the world with the person whom he adores. “[Kayte is] extraordinary,” Grammer said. “She’s one of the most loving, amazing, warm human beings I’ve ever met...and I think she’ll blow [the kids] away.”

How do you prepare for twins versus a single child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having twins can be double the blessing and a wonderful experience, especially when you’re ready for them. Here are a few tips to help make things a bit easier when you’re prepping for two instead of one:

- 1. Get started early: Think of how much time you have to run errands when you have one child- then, divide it by two, Don't procrastinate on putting together the swing sets and setting up the nursery, as you won't have time when the babies are born. Do you want one crib with a divider or two cribs? Planning early allows you time to make changes and gives you the opportunity to do things one at a time without having to frantically rush through the process.

2. Budget for two more: Having twins, especially when they're your first children, can put a major dent in your bank account. You have to buy two car seats, two sets of clothes and two cribs. So, buying in bulk can save you a lot more money and time, causing you to shop less. Also, to save some extra cash, purchase some things your babies will need such as shoes or clothes, at thrift stores and garage sales.

3. Relax. It's easier said than done to relax when you're expecting, but it's so important. It's necessary to get a lot of rest and relaxation during pregnancy because when the due date comes, you won't have nearly as much time as you did before. Read books, go for walks, meditate and do yoga- anything that will calm your mind and give you a little "me" time before the big day.

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to wedding planning, sometimes timing is everything. Cupid has some advice on factors to consider:

- 1. Cost and convenience: It costs less to host a wedding on a Friday than on a Saturday or Sunday. Depending on what day you set the date will reflect on how many RSVP's you'll receive.
- 2. It's your day: It may be nearly impossible to avoid setting the date on someone else's birthday or anniversary, but as long as you don't mind sharing your big day with your Aunt Gertrude's 67th birthday, you should be in the clear.
- 3. Avoid holidays: These days come with higher booking fees. It may sound like a cute idea in theory, but nobody really wants to give up their New Year or Valentine's Day for a wedding.

Cupid's Advice:

A miscarriage can often be one of the most heartbreaking things a couple must endure together. When dealing with this type of tragedy, it's essential that you support each other. Cupid has some advice on how to stay strong together:

1. Be open: In light of such a tragic event, it's often tempting to retreat into solitude in order to grieve. Don't forget that you have a counterpart experiencing the same grief that you are, and it will help the both of you to be open with each other about it.

2. Get away: If you don't feel ready to deal with the world after your loss, it's okay to take some time away from it all. Escape somewhere and try to cope with how you're feeling before jumping back into the bustle of your daily routine.

3. Remember: Find a way to cherish memories of the child that you lost. Trying to forget about what happened can often times bury feelings that will eventually surface later. Start a journal, or hold a memorial service in your child's honor. Though it can't heal all the wounds, these things can help bring a sense of closure to you and your partner.
