Cupid's Advice:

Long distance relationships can be difficult to navigate, no matter how prepared you may feel to take on the challenge of living in different places. However, with some hard work, long distance relationships can be successful. If you are looking for ways to make a long distance relationship work, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Have a communication plan: When you are not physically near someone, it can feel more tempting to want to talk to them more often. However, if you're expecting to talk to your partner all day when it is not realistic for either of your schedules, you may find yourself getting disappointed. Selecting methods of communication and times to talk early-on in a long distance relationship can help manage expectations and avoid conflict.

3. Focus on the end-goal: Every long distance relationship is going to experience hardships relating to the difference of location, which makes it especially important to focus on your end goal. 1. Make a big statement: Sometimes the best apology isn't just to your partner, but on a big platform for a lot of people to see. Holidays are a great time to be with the people that you love most, and for a lot of people that means being with their partner, but not everyone feels the same way. If you are debating if you should spend holidays with your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Share the intimate moments: Since there is no work or school on national holidays, there's nothing else for you to do besides enjoy the holiday and be with the people you love. Instead of running around like you would on a regular day, you can not only be with your partner, but be present with your partner. You can cherish those long lasting memories that you make on holidays together.

By Alycia Williams

According to UsMagazine.com these celebrity exes have been through so many ups and downs since the beginning of their relationship, but after their celebrity break-up, they seem to get along much better, especially when it comes to co-parenting. Recently, Disick and Sofia Richie called their relationship quits after three years. Many wonder if Kardashian is the reason they broke up, so that she and Disick can get back together.

These celebrity exes are keeping things way above and beyond friendly. How do you know if you're still hung up on your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After a long relationship ends, it's incredibly easy to get held up on the idea that you guys might get back together. If you think you are still hung up on your ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Do you stalk them on social media?: If you constantly find yourself going to your ex's social media pages a few times a day, then you are definitely still hung up on them. Trying to look on their pages to see what they're doing, who they're hanging out with, and if they're seeing anyone else, just isn't healthy. Try deleting the apps from your phone to stop yourself from going to their pages. The longer you go without thinking about them, the better.

2. Do you still refer to them as your partner?: When you're talking to someone else about your ex partner and you refer to them as your boyfriend, girlfriend, husband, or wife accidentally, then you are still not over them. This can be really hard to correct, especially when you're fresh out of a relationship, but after a few months you should be looking to correct yourself. Have your friends and family point it out to you every time you say it. Or, you can use the swear jar method, expect only put a dollar in the jar when you refer to your ex as your partner.

3. You're not interested in dating again: If you find yourself not finding anyone attractive or not wanting to get back out there and go on dates, then you are still holding on to your past relationship. You don't want to go on dates because you're still in a "relationship" kind of head space, when you should be in a single state of mind. Try to get back out there in the dating world and go a little out of your comfort zone; consider someone completely different than your ex.

According to EOnline.com, the Keeping Up With the Kardashians star was recently spotted at a Philadelphia 76ers game supporting her alleged man and celebrity ex. “They took a break because it was difficult to sustain a relationship with their schedules. But they have stayed in touch and there was never a messy breakup or hard feelings,” a source shared with E! News. “Kendall has spent a lot of time with Ben over the last few weeks in Philadelphia. She’s been flying in to see him whenever she can.”

In celebrity news, Kendall and Ben may be giving their romance another chance. What are some factors to consider before giving your ex a second chance?

Cupid's Advice:

When you break up with someone, it's meant to be a final decision. That said, sometimes things change and there are good reasons to consider giving your ex a second chance. It's important to make sure you're doing it for the right reasons, however. Cupid has factors to consider:

1. Why you broke up in the first place: There's a wild difference between breaking up because your partner cheated on you to splitting because you were both busy with your careers. If a trust issue was at the heart of your issues, it may not make sense to jump back into things. If it was simply a lack of time that led to your break-up, you two could very well be in a different place now, making it okay to give things a second chance.

Related Link: Celebrity Parents: Kendall Jenner Jokes on Social Media About Starting a Family

2. What page you're both on now: It's crucial to have an open and honest conversation about where you both are in your lives right now. If the issues that led to your break-up before are still very real, there's no point in giving it a second shot, hoping for a different outcome. If some key things have changed that will make things easier this time around, that's great!

Related Link: Celebrity Workout: Group Classes That'll Have You Sweating With Obsession

3. The reasons you want to be in the relationship: When we break up with someone, it leaves a hole in your heart that your partner used to fill. Not only are you missing the romance, but you're missing that person you told everything to and who you spent the most time with. When you're deciding whether to get back together with someone, you need to make sure you aren't just doing it because you're lonely. The only reason to date someone is because you really see yourself with them romantically and they'll add to your life in a positive way.

Celebrity News: Jordyn Woods Parties with Khloe Kardashian's Ex James Harden

By Katie Sotack

It looks like more Kardashian exes are after Jordyn Woods! Model, Woods was seen partying at a Houston nightclub with NBA player James Harden, according to People.com. Celebrity exes Khloe and Harden ended things three years ago, but after Khloe's baby daddy Tristan Thompson made moves on Woods, the tensions between the superstar family and Jordyn over exes are high. Woods seems to be attracting all the same men as the Kardashian sisters, as she was spotted with Kim's ex Ray J as well. Though Woods claims she's as sorry and apologetic as she can be, Khloe maintains she never wants to see her again.

In celebrity news, Jordyn Woods may be asking for more drama with Khloe Kardashian. What are some basic rules when it comes to friends' exes?

Cupid's Advice:

According to Khloe Kardashian, her friendship with Woods is totally over. Yet with feelings still webbed between the two and their exes, does girl code still apply? Here are the laws of the land when interacting with a friend's ex:

1. Not too friendly: Unless this ex was part of the friend group before your bestie started dating them, it's best to pull back from that budding friendship. Don't go around commenting on their Instagram posts and bar hopping with them. It's better to let your friend know they're your number one. This doesn't mean you have to hit the unfollow button or that you can't be social at parties. Just try not to be their closest confidant.

2. Dating an ex?: You two really clicked and they might be, like, the love of your life. That doesn't make the situation as less tricky. Parse out if you really have feelings for this ex, that go beyond lust. Then if you're sure you need to be with them, go to your friend first. This doesn't mean you'll be free and clear from any negative fall out, but your friend will respect that you didn't go behind their back.

3. Take your friend's side: Even if you don't agree with their bitching they likely need to vent about the relationship. Don't use this time to point out that their ex wasn't all the bad. After the breakup let your friend blow off steam for the first few weeks. After that if they're still bitter, let them know it's not benefiting them to fret over the past.

In celebrity couple news, Scott Disick enjoys having the support of Kylie Jenner when it comes to his relationship. What are some ways to support your ex's new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

With all the complicated feelings that even thinking about your ex brings, having them bring their next S.O. into the family is tricky to say the least. Jenner is supporting Disick and Richie's relationship like a mature and respectful ally. Here are relationship tips to root for your ex's new love:

1. Keep your distance: You see your ex repeating similar patterns, you don't think their new lover is treating them right, etc. It's so tempting to pinch the lovebirds on the shoulder and straighten them out. Don't do it. When you get the temptation to meddle, take a deep breath and walk away. By commenting on their current situation, you are adding your baggage with ex-bae to their new love. It's better to keep your distance here.

2. Accept their new partner: Possibly the biggest thing you can do to support their relationship is accepting their new partner. Cupid's Advice:

Once you have lost trust, forgiveness is hard to give.

However, sometimes finding in your heart a way to be compassionate is the right path to take. The inevitable mistakes that humans make should not always be punished with hatred. Cupid has a few reasons why forgiving an ex just might be the right move for you:

1. It allows you to release difficult emotions: Unless you acknowledge your irritable feelings of blame, guilt and anger then you will never be able to feel better. Forgiving does not mean forgetting and it also doesn't mean you have to let their actions slide. Forgiving does allow you to clear your mind and heal.

What are some things to consider about revealing your past to your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

The past is supposed to be in the past, but that doesn't mean you can't learn from it. Bringing up your past to your partner can be difficult, and at times, slightly awkward. There is no reason to relive it, but there are some things that have contributed to the person you are today that your man should know about.

1. The people who have shaped you: There are monumental people in everyone's lives that make a difference on how they live it. For example, certain exs may have left you with a couple of battle scars, your man has the right to know what they are. Also, if you have had any family members that have shaped you in either a positive or a negative light, this could be something worth sharing. By opening a channel of honesty you can funnel your deepest feelings to your partner. In return, he should do the same for you.

Each factor has helped contribute to who you are as a person, and there is no reason to shy away from that.
