1. Don’t stress: Worrying about what others think will only put more pressure on you and on the relationship. Then, if the romance falls flat it will be an even bigger let down. Just take a deep breathe and realize that what’s meant to be, will be.

2. Everyone is different: Keep in mind that not all relationships can fit into the cookie cutter. It may take some a long time to develop into anything more than friends, whereas others may take that turn quickly.

Khloe Kardashian Rants on Twitter Amid Divorce Rumors

By Kerri Sheehan

Rumors have been swirling recently that reality star Khloe Kardashian and her NBA husband Lamar Odom are heading for splitsville. Kardashian took to Twitter this past Sunday to fight back against the rumor mill. She Tweeted, “Really hard to sit here and listen to people talk sh-t about my family! F-ck you and shame on you! I’m too protective for this sh-t!” according to UsMagazine.com. It was reported as recently as August 24th that 33-year-old Odom is struggling with substance abuse as well.

What are some ways to keep rumors from hurting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors are no one's best friend. Cupid has some advice on how to keep them from ruining your relationship:

1. Don't listen: A rumor is only as powerful as your will to believe it. Unless you see something with your own eyes, you can't always take another person's word for it. Letting words ruin your relationship will only give the rumor-spreader what they want.

2. Go to the source: Find out who is spreading the rumor at hand and snub it before it gets too overblown. Knowing why the gossiper is saying these things will help you feel that the rumor is really not true.

3. Communicate with your partner: Honesty is the best answer; so don't be afraid to confront your partner about whatever you may hear. They'll understand why you're upset about the situation at hand and ensure you that it's not true. This will strengthen your relationship and also open lines for future similar communications.

Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Reveal Gender of Baby-to-Be

By Kerri Sheehan

On the Sunday premiere of the new season of Keeping Up with the Kardashians, reality television star Kim Kardashian announced that her baby bump is housing a little girl. Her and baby daddy Kanye West will be expecting their bundle of pink joy sometime in July. While out shopping for baby clothes the two have employed stealthy moves to keep the baby's gender a secret. According to People, Kardashian said, "We buy all white, or we'll go and buy both [girl and boy clothing], and then no one will know!”

What are some ways to prepare for a daughter versus a son?

Cupid’s Advice:

Preparing for a baby is often an overwhelming task. Cupid has some advice about how to stay on top of things:

1. General supplies: For the first 12 or so weeks you probably won’t be able to tell the gender of your baby. This is the perfect time to gather the bare essentials that you would need gender regardless. Some gender-neutral furniture for the baby’s room can be purchased as well as a changing table. You can also take this time to read up about the general birthing process as this will help understand what you will be in for in a few months’ time.

2. Getting specific: After the three month mark is generally when you will be able to find out the sex of your child. This is when you can go crazy picking out all sorts of outfits for your baby girl. Clothes in the pink and purple color family will save you from having to answer the question of whether or not your child is a boy or a girl. Also think about purchasing some cute and comfortable headbands for your baby. Who doesn’t love a baby with a bow?!

3. Finishing touches: The third trimester is really when you should start making sure you’ve done everything you meant to up to this point. Your partner can assemble the crib while you make sure you have sheets for the crib as well as a mobile for above the crib. Patterns with butterflies and flowers are perfect for any baby girl.

Kourtney Kardashian Announces She's Pregnant

Keeping up with the Kardashians just got a little more interesting as Kourtney recently announced that she and her boyfriend of five years, Scott Disick, are expecting their second child. Kardashian took a pregnancy test about five weeks ago and didn't hesitate to wake Disick with the positive results. "Now I'm nine weeks along," she told UsMagazine. "You're supposed to wait 12 weeks to tell people, but I feel confident.” The couples first son, Mason, almost 2 now, came as a surprise, but this pregnancy had more planning involved. “It wasn’t like we weren’t trying,” Disick said. “We kind of just said, ‘If it’s meant to be, it’ll be.’”

Why do women wait 12 weeks before announcing their pregnancy?

Cupid’s Advice:

1. Risks: The first 12-16 weeks are the most dangerous for the possibility of a miscarriage. Don’t risk making the announcement too soon, and shortly after having to explain that you’re no longer pregnant.

2. Emotions: You’re going to feel a lot of different emotions upon finding out you’re going to be a mother, so it’s important that you take time to sort out your feelings.

3. Time to settle: You and your partner are going to want time to yourselves so you can agree on important concerns that come along with having a baby. This way you’ll be more prepared to face the bombardment of questions from friends and family.

According to People, Disick has been a great help in giving Humphries tips on how to win over the Kardashians. Their bromance became even stronger when the two spent quality time together in New York. "Scott and I are becoming closer because we're hanging out a lot in New York. We're just all about living life," said Humphries.

Khloe's husband, Lamar Odom, is also full of advice on how the newlywed can find his place within the Kardashian family. As Humphries works to impress one of America's most famous families, it seems that he's found a close friend with his almost brother-in-law while living in the Big Apple.

What are some ways to bond with your partner's family?

Cupid's Advice:

When you commit to someone, you're also committing to being a part of the family. It's always a good sign if you find yourself spending time with their family when your partner isn't around. Here are some ways to bond:

1. Get social on social media: Before you even meet the family, don't be afraid to find them on Facebook and Twitter. They'll really appreciate your friend request and/or tweet. Not only is it a great way to break the ice for when you meet in person, you'll also be less nervous.

2. Play a game: Playing sports or a board game with the family can be a lot of fun. It's a good way to relax the mood into one of lightheartedness.

3. Ask questions: People love to talk about themselves. Also, if you feel like you need advice on the family dynamic, sometimes, all you need to do is ask.

Khloe Kardashian: Please Excuse My Nip Slip...

Looks like one of the Kardashian sisters are again at the center of attention. Khloe Kardashian had a wardrobe malfunction on Fox and Friends while promoting the upcoming season of Keeping Up with the Kardashians. Going bra-less and wearing a sheer top, the reality TV star showed a bit more skin than she intended to during the interview. Oops!

The View co-host Sherri Shepherd spoke with HollywoodLife.com hours after Khloe's nip slip and said, "When Khloe came on The View their nipples were so hard I was like girl you want to cover them? And she was like, 'no'. I think Lamar Odom tells his wife 'I want to see you ... I want to see a little headlights.' Six minutes and nobody told her?"

If that's true, we definitely wonder what her hubby had to say about her on-screen embarrassment. Although she doesn't regret the incident, she did apologize to those who were offended in a statement she released on her site yesterday, highlighting the fact that she admires the freeness of European women when it comes to their bodies.

Take a look at what Khloe had to say:

“As I’m sure you’ve all heard (or seen), I had a bit of a nip slip this morning on Fox & Friends! Whoops!!! My stylist Monica Rose DID tell me to wear a bra with that sheer top but being the naughty girl that I am I disobeyed and went bra-less. I have a nipple obsession and personally love when women show their nipples – perhaps I was a member of a nudist colony in my last life.

“On a more serious note though, to those who I offended, I am very sorry. It truly was an accident, but I would be lying if I said I thought this was a big deal. I love how free European women are when it comes to nudity – they embrace their bodies and are proud of what God gave them. I love that mindset and way of life, which is why I am not embarrassed about what happened this morning. We ALL have nipples!

“Monica of course had a little something to say about this... head over to monicarose.blogspot.com to hear her thoughts. I’ve also included more pics from outside of Fox & Friends – click through the gallery to see ☺ xoxoxo

“P.S. I am wearing a Givenchy Top, a Herve Leger skirt, Christian Louboutin shoes, a Givenchy bag and Loren Jewels.”

Kourtney Kardashian's Interior Design Choices

However, according to People, Disick is a little creeped out by his other half's over the top design choices and her uncanny love for checkered patterns. How do you compromise on design choices as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Though a couple may be very much in love, they may also have very different tastes when it comes to interior decorating. Considering how much time we spend at home, this could become a serious issue in your relationship. Cupid has some tips:

1. Go with it: In every relationship you have to pick your battles. If in the end, the decor really isn't that big a deal to you or is something you could get used to, it may not be worth it to pick a fight, especially if designing makes your partner happy.

2. Compromise: If one person chooses the sofa and the other picks out the coffee table, both of you can be happy.

3. Get a man/woman cave: Establishing a part of the house that is all your own can actually strengthen your relationship and satisfy your decorating needs.

Kim Kardashian is embracing her new role in life – the single life, reports People. The reality star says it was difficult to see both her sisters settle down while she chose a more career-oriented path. Kim Kardashian admits, “I have always been the one in a relationship. I like that role, I want that best friend partnership.” Today, Kim feels more comfortable being single and has stopped jumping from relationship to relationship. What can you do to embrace the single life while waiting for Mr. Right?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having time to enjoy and nurture your relationship with yourself is just as important as doing so with a partner:

- 1. Embrace life: Being single is a great time to focus on other aspects in your life, such as school or your career. You can throw your heart into new projects without the need to feel guilty.

2. Date yourself: It can be scary to try new things when you're single, but eating alone at a restaurant (sans cell phone) or going to a movie solo can be very empowering to the single soul.

Kim Kardashian Blames TV for Lack of Love Life

Kim Kardashian's not too happy with sharing the spotlight, but it's not her sisters she's worried about – it's her boyfriends. The reality star is planning on staying single for awhile, and blames the constant camera attention for complicating her love life. Kardashian told US Magazine that being single “is a lot easier” than trying to “figure out who likes me for really me (and) who wants to be on a show.”

The star's ex, Dallas Cowboys' player Miles Austin, reportedly loved the attention he got from Kardashian's show. As she prepares to begin shooting Kim and Kourtney Take New York, in which Kim and her sister will open a new boutique in the Big Apple, she looks forward to remaining single. “This was like, for me, the perfect time to come to New York, because I'm single,” she says. “I just felt like I kind of wanted a fresh start.”

What are some things that get in the way of love?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships can be a lot of work, and there tends to be obstacles nearly every couple has to overcome. Cupid has some ideas on how to work around these issues:

1. Time: Like most things in life, relationships require a lot of time in order to flourish. While it may be difficult to balance all the aspects of your life, try to take at least 15 minutes a day to show your partner that you care about him or her.

2. Distance: Particularly in new relationships, distance can cause some issues. If you're not living together, try to make sure you communicate in some small way daily, even if it's just a text that says "hi" – that way, you'll stay on each others' minds.

3. Harmony: Variety can add depth and health to any relationship, but balancing opposing viewpoints or interests can make things tough. Stay open-minded about what your partner likes, believes and wants, but make sure you also stay true to yourself. Make sure to communicate about conflicts when the need arises.

Lamar Odom Plans Anniversary Surprise for Khloe Kardashian

Lamar Odom has something special planned for wife Khloe Kardashian on their one-year-anniversary; he's just not sharing. "I kind of got to keep it a secret," explained Odom to Us Weekly. Kardashian was also tight-lipped. "I don't know. I found out that there's a surprise happening, but I have no idea – and I don't want to know." The couple, who married after a quick one-month courtship, have faced scrutiny about the depth of their marriage. "I've never faulted people for [that]," says Kardashian. "I totally get it. I've always said from day one that it's real love, and it is, but I've never, ever was angry with anyone for thinking anything that way. I was only upset when people said we had a fake wedding." Despite criticism, the couple are standing strong and hope to have a child in the near future.

What are some creative ways to celebrate your anniversary?

Sure, there are the obvious routes: romantic dinner, picnic at the park or a night in an expensive hotel. Try branching out because your thoughtfulness will be appreciated. Here are just a few suggestions:

Cupid's Advice:

1. Hot air balloon ride: While finding a hot air balloon service may be difficult depending on where you live, the spectacular views and exhilarating experience will be extremely worthwhile.

2. Play hooky: Skip work for a day, and drive to the nearest city. Have fun looking around in shops and eating at interesting restaurants.

3. Go to a florist/garden: Instead of sending your partner flowers, take them to a florist or a garden and pick out your own flowers. Then, go searching for a vase to put them in.

"When she broke up with Reggie, she went to Mexico and now after her break with Myles she went to Europe."

Is it healthy to go on vacation right after a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

After calling it quits, you often need time to yourself to think things over, and sometimes a vacation is the best bet.

Cupid has some reasons it may be okay to take a break after a break-up:

1. Vacate your life: Separating yourself from your life back home gives you the time and space you need to mull things over and figure out what went wrong. Leaving your everyday routine can give you a fresh perspective on what you want out of a relationship.

2. Spend time alone: Going away by yourself can help you avoid jumping into another relationship right away. Being alone will remind you how self-sufficient and independent you can be.

3. Have fun: After you've spent a considerable amount of time thinking about your relationship, forget it! Enjoy your break, and go all out doing things your ex never wanted to do with you.

Kourtney Kardashian & Beau Get Therapy

Reality diva Kourtney Kardashian and boyfriend Scott Disick have had their share of relationship problems, but they insist rumors about the couple's split are completely untrue, according to People. "It's ridiculous," Kardashian said. "All the [rumors] you just have to laugh at." The pair, who have an 8-month-old son together, have taken to counseling to strengthen their relationship. "I think [counseling] is really important, and we always love going and feel so much better after," Kardashian said.

How can counseling sessions help your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Therapy and counseling can be intimidating, but if you and your partner are having issues you don't seem to be able to solve on your own, it may be the best thing you can do.

1. Keep an open mind: If you go into your counseling sessions with the idea that it's not going to help, then it won't. One of the biggest barriers to successful relationship building is being closed off . Take a leap of faith, and counseling could help you open up.

2. Be completely honest: Your therapist is not there to judge, and you don't have to make yourself look good during your meetings. The most beneficial thing you can learn during your sessions is that it's okay to be honest. You can't fix the problems in your relationship without being truthful about your feelings.

3. Believe in change: Kardashian and Disick have been working on their relationship for a number of months now, and Kardashian has said in the past that she sees a big change in her beau. Counseling can help you realize that you and your mate can change and become both better people and partners together.

Kim Kardashian Denies Bieber Dating Rumors

Kim Kardashian has finally responded to the stream of rumors suggesting that she is interested in dating 16-year-old Justin Bieber. The rumors started after Kardashian told George Lopez that, after pairing up with Bieber in a suggestive photo shoot for Elle Magazine, she would “definitely” date the pop star if he were 18. But Kardashian wants to make it clear that she’s not interested in the teen, Starpulse reports. “I’m almost 30, this is illegal, this is disgusting. He’s a cute kid and that’s it. But for the record, I am not dating Justin Bieber and I would not date Justin Bieber.” Should you date someone older or younger than you?

Cupid’s Advice:

For the most part, you shouldn’t let age difference keep you from getting involved with someone. Cupid has some tips on how to deal with age difference while dating:

1. Listen to yourself: Don't let other people's judgments keep you from dating someone of a different age. Pay attention to how you feel, and tune out the naysayers. Do what makes you comfortable.

2. Age is nothing but a number: Most people date someone who is in or near their same emotional, physical, and professional stage of life. If your partner is ahead of you in one of those areas, you can help him or her grow. It's a win-win. Let him keep you young!

3. There is a limit: In Kim Kardashian's case, dating Justin Bieber is illegal. Breaking the law to date someone doesn't help matters, and it adds a negative element to your relationship that you just don't need. Take a minute to think over your relationship. Can you see a future with a much-older or much-younger partner?
