

Celebrity News: Scott Speedman Was a 'Disaster of a Boyfriend' to Keri Russell During 'Felicity'

By Cortney Moore

Former celebrity couple and co-stars Scott Speedman and Keri Russell made celebrity news once more during their appearance on Jimmy Kimmel Live! this week. While guest starring, Speedman and Russell joked about their past relationship. The pair had dated during their time on the hit show Felicity, which aired from 1998 to 2002. Speedman and Russell reminisced about the time Russell chopped her hair off for the sake of the show's storyline, which Speedman didn't take well. "We were actually dating at the time and I had been such a disaster of a boyfriend up until then and I knew I had to put on a good show. I knew I was going to see her new haircut and I was like, 'Come on man, you got to bring it home. You gotta do it,'" Speedman admitted, "And I got to work and she turned around the corner and my face sort of froze in a half panic, half smile sort of situation. I just didn't pull it off and she called me out." Russell chimed in saying they were able to endure the situation although her haircut at the time was reminiscent of a Chia Pet. "It grew into something great," Speedman added reassuringly. Despite making it through the haircut phase, this celebrity couple parted ways shortly after, but they've remained close friends.

This celebrity news has us laughing at the amicable exes. What are some ways to keep your relationship with your ex civil?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because your relationship has ended doesn't mean you have to hate your ex. As a matter of fact, if you're able to remain friends with an ex, you're more likely to avoid unnecessary drama. Let Cupid help you figure out how to remain civil with your ex:

1. Have your own stuff going on: Whether it be a hobby, a career or volunteer work- you need to have things that keep you busy. Having your own activities will not only bring you enjoyment, but it will also distract you from any lingering thoughts of your ex. It's important that you make moving on as easy as possible, and keeping busy is the best way to do just that.

2. Don't be tense in their presence: No one likes being in the line of fire of hostile exes. If you were friendly before your relationship, try to bring those positive vibes with you post-breakup. If friendship is something new for you and your ex, then take things slow and stick to discussing lighthearted topics if you're ever in the same room again.

3. Keep details to yourself: Even if you and your ex parted ways a long time ago, you need to be careful with the things you say. In trying times you may want to vent to your ex, but you need to ask yourself if this would be the best thing to do. You don't want to put yourself in an awkward situation where your ex can use information against you.

'Austenland': Whimsical World of Fantasy Shows the Beginnings of Love

 By April Littleton

A 30-something-year-old woman's lifelong obsession with Jane Austen leads her to to a theme park based on the writer's stories and there she meets a handsome suitor. Although she is unable to enjoy the same luxury perks as the wealthier bachelorettes who are currently staying at Austenland, she decides to make the most of the trip anyway. During her stay, she falls in love with a servant and all of her dreams begin to come true.

Should you see it:

Keri Russell, Jane Seymour and Jennifer Coolidge are just a few of the A-list stars who are signed up to play a part in this film. If you're a fan of rom-com movies, Austenland will be the perfect flick for you to see before summer ends.

Who to take:

This movie would be great to see with a bunch a friends or if you know someone who is interested in any of Jane Austen's works, they might find Austenland interesting as well. It is a romantic film, so taking a date who doesn't mind your choice of genre wouldn't be a bad idea either.

How do you know when someone is "The One?"

Cupid's Advice:

You might be in love for the first time or you've simply just never had strong feelings for anyone before until you met your current partner. Either way, you're wondering if he/she may be the love of your life. Nowadays, it's hard to peg out the sincere boyfriends/girlfriends from the illegitimate ones. Don't worry, Cupid has your back:

1. Communication: How well do the two of you communicate with each other? Is your significant other a good listener? If the answer is yes, your partner may be thinking about a long-term relationship. Only those who are really invested in a solid relationship will be attentive, so keep that in mind the next time you start to notice your love dozing off in the middle of your conversation.

2. Respect: If your honey really is The One, he/she will treat you like a queen. Does your partner cater to your every want and need? Are you able to fully express your opinions and thoughts? Does your love keep all promises? You should be able to say yes to all of these questions without hesitation. You might have a keeper on your hands, but if you have any doubts about his/her feelings for you, you need to rethink the status of your relationship.

‘Felicity’ Actress Keri Russell and Husband Welcome Baby Daughter

 Former Felicity star Keri Russell and husband Shane Dreary brought their second child into the world this past December. The couple's first child, River, has taken on the role of big brother to his new baby sister Willa Lou Dreary. According to Celebrity Baby Scoop, the actress mentioned that becoming a mother has transformed her. She also said that there's "just a whole new set of feelings that aren't as accessible to you before you have kids."

How does having a child change your priorities?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you have a child the world you once knew will no longer exist, and life will never be the same because you'll have different priorities. Cupid has some tips to help you prepare:

1. Focus: Remember when the world revolved around you? Well, those days are over. The majority of your energy and concentration will be about raising your child.

2. Flexibility: You can't just get up and go anymore. Going out and family trips have to be thoughtfully planned, and your wallet is going to tighten up as well. You're not going to have money to blow like you might have before.

3. Family: If you're already close with your family, you're in luck because everyone is going to want to take their turns babysitting and you'll have a great support system for advice. If you're not close with your family, a newborn in the family might be just the thing you needed to regain that connection.
