By Maria Darbenzio

First-time parents Kevin and Danielle Jonas welcomed their daughter, Alena Rose, on February 2nd. With a month of parenting now under her belt, the new mommy talked to Celebrity Baby Scoop about natural childbirth, breastfeeding, and her newborn, who she says is “such a good baby.”

Luckily, we were all able to follow along with the couple’s journey into parenthood through Kevin’s tweets. “I don’t know when he was able to tweet because it seemed he was helping me the whole time. I was very lucky. We went into the hospital at midnight the night before and thought we were going to have her then. Once we got there, they said it would probably be tomorrow evening, so we went home. Three hours later, we were back at the hospital and ready to start the process.”

CBS: Are you breastfeeding? If so, how is that going?

DJ: “Breastfeeding is a daily challenge. We’re still finding a rhythm.”

CBS: How are you navigating these early days of motherhood? Do you have help? Family support? Are you doing all the midnight feeds?

DJ: “Lots of family support! Everyone has been amazing, but it is tough. I have my moments of wondering if I’m doing something wrong if she won’t stop crying. Those moments are tough, but then she eventually calms down and is a happy baby again. Midnight feedings are mostly me, but Kevin has been taking early mornings so I can sleep. He’s better in the morning – I don’t drink coffee, but I think I may need to start.”

CBS: Do you have any tips for parents-to-be in coming up with a playroom/nursery design?

DJ: “Make everything short and small. We have a couch for her that is smaller, so she won’t have issues getting up on it when she’s older. Also, if she is playing and falls, it’s low to the ground so she’ll be less likely to get hurt.”

CBS: What’s up next for the three of you?

DJ: “I think we’re going to spend as much time together as a family as we can. Kevin is going to get really busy again soon, so it’s nice to have him home as much as possible right now.”

Danielle Jonas Debuts Tiny Baby Bump at 2013 Teen Choice Awards

By Kerri Sheehan

The Jonas Brothers will soon be adding another member to their pop group as Danielle Jonas is expecting! The wife to the Married with Jonas reality star Kevin Jonas debuted her mini baby bump at the Teen Choice Awards this past Sunday. Clad in a short yellow flowered frock, the 25-year-old mom to be was glowing. The couple announced the pregnancy in July when the excited future father tweeted, "It's true – Danielle is pregnant! Can't even imagine how excited we are. I can't wait to share this with my best friend. I love you baby," according to UsMagazine.com.

How do you show off a baby bump in a tasteful manner?

Cupid's Advice:

What better way to show you're going to be a proud mama than to tastefully dress your baby bump? Cupid has some advice about what to wear during those 9 months:

1. Cover up: It's important to remember not to show too much skin when you're with child. Super short shorts are a no-no as are deep v-necks. You're going to be a mom, so dress like it!

2. Dress the bump: If you're looking for examples of what not to do then you can look at how Kim Kardashian dressed during her pregnancy. She was often caught in too tight clothes that weren't maternity friendly, which ended up making her look uncomfortable and uptight. Stores have a maternity section for a reason, be sure to check them out.

3. Show it off: As soon as you try to hide the bump, that's when your clothing becomes a problem. You're carry a child in there so don't be afraid for others to see the bump and know that you're expecting.

Danielle Jonas Shares Baby Sonogram

By April Littleton

Danielle Jonas shared her sonogram with all of her fans via Instagram Tuesday, August 6. "I can't believe this is ours @kevinjonas and I are so blessed," she wrote. "Look at that cute nose!!!" The "Poms Poms" singer spoke to UsMagazine.com about his wife's pregnancy, "The first trimester is always an interesting one. She's been feeling up and down a lot. But she's doing a lot better now. We're in good spirits. We're excited."

What are some ways to to include family/friends in your pre-baby excitement?

Cupid's Advice:

Finding out that you and your partner are going to have a baby is very exciting news. Sometimes, it may be hard to share the excitement with your loved ones because you're so wrapped up in your own crazy emotions. Cupid is here to help:

1. Shopping for baby: Instead of taking your significant other baby shopping with you, think about taking some of your family members and friends. Shopping for clothes, toys and any other accessory you think your baby will need will be fun and exciting for you and for the people who don't feel as included in the pregnancy. If this is your first pregnancy, ask some of your friends who already have kids for their advice on diaper brands, bottles and baby formula. They'll be happy that you're trying to get them involved in all of the baby chaos.

2. Doctor appointments: You might not feel comfortable bringing your friends to any of your doctor appointments, but having a family member or two there with you won't do any harm. What better way to increase their excitement over the baby than to see him/her on the sonogram screen?

3. Baby names: If you need a little help thinking of names for your little bundle of joy, ask the people closest to you for help. Ask your loved ones their top three name choices for both a boy and a girl and pick the one you and your partner like the most. Don't reveal the name until the baby is born. The suspense of it all will be more than enough to keep everyone's attention on your pregnancy.

5 Celebrity Couples that Waited for Marriage

By April Littleton

The decision to have sex isn't one that should be taken lightly, but it's a personal choice. You may choose to wait until the love of your life comes along or you may not (just make sure you're always safe). In Hollywood, many celebrities are quick to hop into bed with the next star they see standing next to them on the red carpet, but this isn't true for every person who has the spotlight shining down on them. Some celebrities pledge abstinence because of their religious beliefs, while others hold out until marriage out of respect for themselves. Here are five couples who waited until their big day:

1. Kevin Jonas and Danielle Deleasa: Kevin Jonas, the eldest of the Jonas Brothers was very outspoken about his decision to abstain from sex prior to getting married. As a symbol of his beliefs, he wore a punk rock purity ring from Tiffany's on his ring finger. Jonas married his longtime girlfriend and former hairdresser, Danielle Deleasa, on December 19, 2009. The purity ring was replaced with a wedding ring, and now, the happily-married pair is expecting their first baby.

2. Mariah Carey and Nick Cannon: After her marriage with music executive Tommy Mottola came to a halt, Carey decided to remain celibate with Nick Cannon until they exchanged meaningful "I Do's." In a December 2008 interview for Mirror, Carey said, "I definitely don't want to push it on anybody else. But we both have similar beliefs, and I just thought that it would be so much more special if we waited until after we were married." The happy couple have been married for five years now and are parents to twins, Monroe and Moroccan Scott, age two.

3. Tina Fey and Jeff Richmond: The Saturday Night Live alum was a virgin until she met her husband and composer of 30 Rock, Jeff Richmond, at the age of 24. The couple dated for seven years before finally marrying in a Greek Orthodox ceremony June 3, 2001. The famous pair is now parents to two daughters, Alice Zenobia and Penelope Athena.

4. Adriana Lima and Marko JariÄš: In 2006, Lima told GQ Magazine that she had no plans to have sex until after she was married. The pop stars married October 26, 2002, but unfortunately, things ended in divorce only four years later.

Kevin Jonas and Wife Danielle Are Expecting

By April Littleton

A rep for the Married with Jonas stars confirmed to UsMagazine.com that the happy couple are expecting their first child together. During a chat with E! News Tuesday, July 9, the singer said, "I was overjoyed. It's been the most exciting thing in my life so far." The duo met in 2007 while vacationing at the Bahamas and tied the knot two years later at Oheka Castle in New York's Long Island.

What are some ways to prepare your relationship for parenthood?

Cupid's Advice:

Expecting a child for the first time is the most amazing thing you'll ever experience, but it's also one of the scariest. Going through a pregnancy for the first time is full of the unknown. You're not sure what will happen, how it will affect your relationship or if you'll be a good parent to your child when he/she finally comes into the world. The dynamic between you and your partner will definitely change. It won't be just about you and your love anymore. Cupid has some advice:

1. Discuss the essentials: Before the baby comes, you should talk to your partner about how you were raised and how you would like to parent. They should also provide the same information to you. In order to prevent any future arguments on the subject, it's important for the two of you to reach some sort of common ground on parenting techniques before the due date arrives. Talk about religion, dating, traditions, holidays, etc. If you reach a point in the discussion where you don't agree on something, that's where compromise comes in.

2. The money talk: You and your significant other need to be financially ready in order to take care of this baby. As a couple, you will need to figure out how much money you will need to put away for the child. Will you set up a college saving account early? What about insurance before and after the baby is born? You also need to be able to cover everyday expenses like clothing, food and housing for you as well as the baby.

3. Do your research: Take a few first-time parenting classes together. Make sure to leave some time to read a few baby books as well. Learning all you can about the pregnancy and about what's to come once the baby is born will relieve a lot of stress and anxiety.

How do you know when your relationship is ready to have a child?

Cupid's Advice:
