Celebrity News: Rob Kardashian's Ex Adrienne Bailon Says 'He's a Great Guy'

By Mackenzie Scibetta

At an event for Latina magazine, Adrienne Bailon kept the tabloids on their toes when she didn't technically deny recent celebrity news that she was back with her past love Rob Kardashian. According to UsMagazine.com, when confronted with fans asking about their rekindled romance, Bailon replied, "It is what it is". The celebrity dating rumors continue as she added, "He's a great guy and I always wish him well". The famous couple dated for two years in 2007, but had a rough celebrity break-up after Bailon got into a social media fight with his sisters Kim and Khloe Kardashian.

This celebrity news is a good thing in the wake of rumors surrounding Rob Kardashian. What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your self-confidence?

Cupid's Advice:

While gossip can often seem trivial and childlike, it can actually do serious damage to a person's mindset. Once you realize that rumors are simply designed out of boredom, confusion, and jealousy then you can move on and focus on yourself. Overcoming and ignoring rumors is a step towards mental peace. Cupid has developed a few ways to keep your confidence high while dealing with distracting rumors:

1. Get to the heart of why the rumor exists: If you can have a basic understanding of where the rumor came from and how it developed then you will see it is just one big misunderstanding. In our minds rumors are thrown out of proportion to seem like the end of the world. Putting your mind at ease to realize that gossip is nonsense talk will help you disregard its message. A clear head equals a happy mind.

2. Look at the situation positively: Not letting a rumor hurt or degrade you is an accomplishment that should be celebrated. Relish in the fact that you are mightier than a combination of reckless words. You can gain something from every hard situation, especially from conquering, or even destroying, gossip.

3. Smile: The easiest and most over-looked way to achieve self-confidence is to literally fake it until you make it. Psychology shows by smiling more often and thinking positively you can trick your brain into being happier. Not only does smiling reduce stress levels, but it will make you look great too.

Reality Star Kim Kardashian: How Does a Marriage Survive Infertility?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Kim Kardashian recently opened up about her fertility struggles, as she and Kanye West have been trying to have another baby for several months. Kim is even seeing fertility doctors to try to diagnose the issue. However, they've had no luck so far, despite trying "as many times a day" as they can to conceive.

Infertility or struggles to have a child can strongly affect a relationship and love life like reality star Kim Kardashian's, sometimes even leading to divorce.

Rather than sex being simply about pleasure, it is now connected to the goal of getting pregnant. When that doesn't happen right away, couples find themselves feeling disappointed month after month. This can impact the desire to have sex with each other spontaneously, and as a result affect their intimacy.

It's interesting, because making the decision to have a baby feels like a solid taking control of your future, often without even thinking about how hard it might be or what obstacles could get in the way. You have made this life-changing choice, are ready to begin, and expect it to happen. But then, it doesn't happen right away. The first month comes and goes and you get your period, then the second month. As the time passes, uncertainty comes into play, leading to waves of anxiety that this thing you want so much isn't happening.

These feelings build sometimes without your even realizing, and before you know it six or more months have gone by and suddenly what at first felt like taking control of your future feels like anything but. On the contrary, you feel like it is completely out of your hands. That is one of the most distressing parts of living through infertility. You thought a few months ago that you were taking the reins, but really, you have completely handed them over. Now where all the hope and excitement once was is pressure and tension. How, then, can a couple live through this daunting experience without its taking a toll on their marriage?

The challenge is for couples to work together to strategize a plan for navigating their way through the steps, options, and choices that are available to help facilitate and achieve pregnancy. And there are many: fertility drugs, diagnostic procedures, in vitro fertilization, or choosing an egg donor, to name a few. Try to decide as a couple what each of you are willing to do both emotionally and financially to achieve your goal. After that, arrive at a timeline to determine how long you are willing to spend on each phase before moving on to the next. These decisions will bring some sense of control to what otherwise feels like a floating in space experience. In addition, it will allow you to know that if one thing doesn't work, there are still other options to turn to.

The most challenging piece of all of this is to try not to let this consume who you are as a married couple. Do your best to go on with the other parts of your life and do the things you have always liked to do together. Despite the fact that sex now has a functional side to it that it didn't have before you were trying to have a baby, you want to find other ways to keep the fun and joy alive between you. Spend time with friends you both like, schedule a dinner out, enjoy a weekend away, or plan a lazy day just the two of you full of your favorite food and activities. Make time to build in the smaller pleasures so they can be the glue that keeps you together during your difficult journey.

The most important thing is to support each other and go through this as a team, which will keep you close and connected. That appears to be what Kim and Kanye are doing. Kim is still looking towards a second pregnancy, and hopefully she and Kanye will be able to welcome a new addition to their family soon enough.

The HGTV Los Angeles correspondent has toured the houses of many stars, including the home of Hollywood couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West. One of Mandell's favorite parts of their Hidden Hills house was the master bedroom. "The master suite is fabulous and enormous. It's like 3,000 square feet, which is bigger than most of our homes," she reveals. "It has a sitting room, a kitchenette, his-and-her bathrooms, his-and-her closets, and his-and-her dressing rooms." That's not the only impressive room in this 50 million dollar mansion: It also has a spa room, a gym, a courtyard with a fountain, and a backyard that can easily hold 500 people.

Without a doubt, their house is gorgeous, but this famous couple was also guilty of “the worst celebrity purchase” that the founder of At Home In Hollywood has ever seen. The two bought “an absolute rundown shack.” She elaborates, “It was a ranch style home that had fallen into disrepair. Nobody lived there; weeds were growing inside of the house; and everything was dilapidated.” Even with such an unflattering descriptions, the married celebrity couple paid three million dollars for it. The reason for this seemingly outrageous purchase was for security purposes. This “awful shack” overlooked their beautiful new home, so they bought it and “will probably just tear it down and keep the lot so that nobody can peer into their backyard,” the real estate agent shares.

The decision to move into a home in Hidden Hills is not that shocking, especially for a Kardashian. According to Mandell, their new house is really close to momager Kris and sisters Kourtney and Kendall. Celebs tend to buy homes in exclusive neighborhoods like this one because “it’s a great community, especially for families. It’s super private.”

For the most part, stars usually hire professionals to help decorate and make interior design decisions. It makes a lot of sense, considering they are constantly traveling or working and don’t have a lot of down time. However, that’s not always the case. Mandell shares that there are some celebrities who “really have a flare for decoration.” Annie Potts from Designing Women is one of them. “She just put her house on the market a couple of months ago, and it is absolutely gorgeous,” she divulges.

Real Estate and Relationship Advice

Not only is Mandell an expert in all things related to celebrity real estate, she is also familiar in offering relationship advice. As the author of two relationship books How to Snare a Millionaire and its sequel How to Snare a Millionaire Now, she is able to combine both of her areas of expertise and share some great real estate tips for couples.

For couples deciding to move in with each other, “it’s really a good idea to get a new space.” She further explains, “There are things that will remind your new partner of your ex, so I think it’s definitely best to start fresh if possible.” She jokingly adds, “If you can’t afford to move, at least get a new bed!”

When it comes to raising a family, there are a few things a couple should look for in a home. The relationship author believes the school district should be the number one priority. Although she does admit that buying a house in a good school district is going to cost a little bit more, “it ends up being a good investment.” She explains, “If you’re paying to put kids in private school, tuition can be 30,000 dollars or more a year. It’s going to be pricey. The extra money you’re putting in your home, you’ll make up later in school costs.”

She also makes a note of caution regarding the stairs. “If there is a staircase in your home, you’ve got to make sure it can be carpeted if you’re going to have little ones,” she says.

The journalist shares a few tips to offer anyone who is single and house hunting. Reminiscing about her own bachelorette pad, she suggests that it'd be "really great if your home can be within walking distance from nightlife, restaurants, coffee shops, and stores. If you could walk home at night without having to worry, that's always good," she says.

One thing that singles shouldn't stress out about when looking for a new home is the size. Mandell explains that "square footage is less important than location." If you do end up entering into a new relationship and love, living in a smaller house makes it more convenient for you. "The fewer possessions you have, the easier a move is and the freer and less encumbered you can be," she shares.

Famous Couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Show PDA After Brit Awards

By Maggie Manfredi

“No Kanye; you’re awesome!” According to UsMagazine.com, famous couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West were not shy when it came to public displays of affection at the Brit Awards on Wednesday. Mrs. West posted a picture with her hubby on Twitter the night of the awards showing her licking Kanye’s face! This was one of many posts from the celebrity couple. The Keeping Up With The Kardashians starlet introduced Kanye’s performance at the awards and thoroughly enjoyed herself with other A-listers throughout the night. The Hollywood couple was seen in photos with Taylor Swift and Sam Smith during the event, and had nothing but love for each other.

Famous couples can’t show PDA without the whole world knowing, but that’s the point, right? What are some ways to show your partner you care in public?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA: Public display of affection. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West do it, so why can't you? Cupid says you can, but there are some guidelines to showing your lover you care in public:

1. Keep it simple: Kim Kardashian made a bold move with the tongue to cheek PDA action. If you want to show your partner you care in public, it's probably best to keep it simpler than Kimye's celebrity love, and there are plenty of ways to do so. Holding hands, hugs, or a hand on the knee are all options. Cupid advises you keep your tongue out of it when it comes to public affection.

2. Be comfortable: Opinions are all over the board when it comes to PDA, so don't be afraid to talk about it with your partner. Some people are bold, like celebrity couple Kim and Kanye, while others don't even want to touch in public. Make sure you are both comfortable with how you display affection in public so that it is mutually enjoyable.

3. Feel the room: Not every place is appropriate for affection. A bench to yourselves in a public park is okay for a little light canoodling, whereas a packed public train would be inappropriate and most likely inconsiderate. Cupid is happy you cannot keep your hands off of each other, but affection is usually best shared in private.

5 Celebrity Couples Who Celebrate Valentine's Day in Style

By Brittany Stubbs and Molly Jacob

While flowers and chocolates are nice, in Hollywood, Valentine's Day is usually done a little different. Although there are many ways to show your love, check out how some of our favorite celebrity couples are doing it! Celebrity love is definitely in the air this season, and there's no better way to show it than with extravagant gestures. If you need some romance inspiration, check out the five famous couples below:

Celebrity Couples Who Celebrate the Day of Love in Style

1. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: Kimye has gone overboard with V-Day celebrations in the past few years. Last Valentine's Day, Kim received 1,000 roses from Kanye, which she showed off on her Instagram account. West also has shown his love to Kardashian with some serious bling. In 2013, the rapper gave his sweetheart a $73,000 bracelet from Cartier's Panthere Collection. The stunning bracelet featured a diamond-encrusted panther motif with emerald eyes and an onyx nose, completed with a black cuff and a white-gold trim.

Although Kardashian loves her bling, she admits that Valentine's Day presents don't have to include a huge price tag to be special. In a interview with Gotham, Kardashian said, "Valentine's Day is all about showing the people around you how much you love them, so the gifts that come from the heart are always the most special. One year, Mason [Kourtney Kardashian's son] gave me the most adorable Valentine's Day card that he made himself, and it is still one of the best gifts I've ever received."

2. Lauren Conrad and William Tell: Conrad and Tell, one of our favorite celebrity love stories, will be celebrating their third anniversary this Valentine's Day. The celebrity couple were introduced to each other by mutual friends on the day of love in 2012 and have been lovey-dovey ever since. Last year, Conrad showed her love to her then-fiancé on Instagram by posting an adorable engagement photo with the caption, "Happy Anniversary to my favorite Valentine. I love you dearly xo." This is their first Valentine's Day as a married couple, so we're excited to see what this day of love and joy brings them!

3. Kate Middleton and Prince William: Valentine's Day isn't always about spending the time with your lover. In 2013, Kate Middleton and Prince William celebrated the day of love in style by doing something they love: helping others! The Duchess Of Cambridge visited Northolt High School, a London high school, and officially opened the school's ICAP Art Room after receiving a lovely floral arrangement. Middleton has been a patron of the art room since 2012. William spent Valentine's Day morning in Datchet, Berkshire with Prince Harry, delivering sandbags to communities affected by flooding

This wasn't the first Valentine's Day the royal couple has spent apart! In 2012, William was on a tour of duty in the Falklands during the 14th of February, but he still managed to send her a card and flowers despite his being 7,000 miles away.

4. Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie: This power couple has shown their celebrity love on Valentine's Day by celebrating with some laughter. In 2013, Pitt gave his lover vegan, gluten-free, sugar-free mints for Valentine's Day, a loving joke since he's always teasing Jolie that she has bad breath. Although he could easily buy her something fancy (which we assume he did along with the gag gift), this gift shows the couple's unique, playful side, which is always in style!

The couple doesn't always make a joke about the holiday, though! In 2010, Jolie gifted Pitt with a 200-year-old olive tree worth $30,000. The tree was planted at their French home, the Chateau Miraval, where it joined an olive grove, vineyard, and more.

5. Jay-Z and Beyonce: Is anyone surprised that this "Drunk in Love" couple would celebrate the Day of Love in anything less than amazing style? Last Valentine's Day, Jay-Z bought his wife a $2,300 Tacori bracelet. The bracelet's intertwined gold and silver design is said to represent their union, and it can only be unlocked by a private key. Jay-Z reportedly gave Bey her gift a few days earlier than the 14th because she was so eager to receive it.

Last year wasn't the only year the rapper surprised his wife with an extravagant gift. In 2009, Jay-Z bought Beyoncé a platinum cell phone worth $24,000 for Valentine's Day. We can't wait to see how this superstar celebrity couple celebrates V-Day this year.
