

Kanye West Says Celebrity Love Kim Kardashian and Daughter North Have Taught Him to 'Shut Up'

By Katie Gray

Cupid has the latest celebrity relationship news about celebrity couple Kanye West and Kim Kardashian. The rapper and mogul, West, recently spoke out on The Ellen DeGeneres Show, saying, "I've definitely learned how to compromise more. Which is something you have to understand when you partner with people in business." He believes that he is a better person because of his celebrity love, Kardashian, and baby daughter, North West. According to UsMagazine.com, he continued, saying,

“And I’ve learned how to shut up more. Yeah, I think I’m a better human being because of her, and because of my daughter.”

Kanye’s celebrity love affair has definitely taught him a lesson or two. What lessons can we all learn from our relationships and love life?

Cupid’s Advice:

When it comes to celebrity love, it’s in the public eye for us all to see and learn from. Cupid has some love lessons to take note of:

1. Talking helps: Communication is key for every relationship in our lives. Whether it’s an interpersonal romantic relationship or the relationship we have with our family and friends, conflict is inevitable and is a part of life. In fact, it can be healthy. If you don’t care enough to sometimes argue with your partner, maybe you’re settling with being content instead of having a passionate relationship. Life isn’t all diamonds and roses, and working through conflict with your partner makes you both grow stronger together. Talking always helps, so no matter what you and your partner are experiencing – talk it out!

2. If it isn’t broke don’t fix it: Why try fixing something that isn’t broken? When you’re in a relationship, you and your partner should always work on evolving together to be the best people that you can be. It’s great to learn from each other, get one another to try new things and achieve mutual goals.

That being said, don't start causing problems when there isn't an issue. If something is bothering you, address it with your partner right away. Don't dwell on things that are fine. Instead explore your happiness in your relationship!

3. What goes around comes around: It's obvious that when you show love, you often receive it in return. Use this to your advantage by being the best partner that you can be. Treat your partner like a king/queen, and they will reciprocate. It all starts with loving yourself as an individual first, and then you can truly love someone else fully.!

Kim Kardashian Takes Fashion Advice from Husband Kanye West

By Sarah Batcheller

In today's celebrity news, UsMagazine.com reveals that reality star Kim Kardashian is enlisting the help of husband Kanye West to revamp her wardrobe for 2015. The famous couple stayed "up all night" to refine looks ready for the new year. The middle sister cites her Givenchy gown that she wore at Paris Fashion Week as her favorite 2014 get-up. Being that the ensemble was slinky and fierce to boot, fans can't wait to see what fashion advice West gave his wife for the new year!

How can you share fashion advice with your partner without being pushy?

Cupid's Advice:

Even if we say we don't, we all have an opinion on what our partner wears. Take a cue from this celebrity relationship, and learn how to influence your partner's style without being overbearing:

1. Change your style, too: Make it a team effort – something fun for the both of you to explore and create. That way, it won't come off as you telling them what they can and cannot wear. Maybe you want to channel a glamorous famous couple like Kardashian and West, or perhaps a more laid-back wardrobe is better suited for your lifestyle.

2. Tell them when they look good: Everyone loves a compliment! Saying something nice about your partner's go-to date night dress will help you come off as supportive instead of bossy. It'll show your partner that you're genuinely interested in their style and love seeing them rock their look. Offer genuine, helpful tips like, "This accentuates your waistline," or "Indigo brings out your eye color."

3. Share constructive fashion advice: Don't just tell them that what they've picked out is tacky. Explain why you feel the way you do about that old sweater or those distressed blue jeans. Help them stay up-to-date on trends while maintaining who they are. It's all about creating a look that speaks to their personality!

Kim Kardashian Denies Having

Marriage Problems and Claims She's Not Pregnant

By Katie Gray

Everybody's favorite reality star addressed some rumors before ringing in the new year. According to UsMagazine.com, Kim Kardashian took to Twitter on New Year's Eve and wrote, "Lets clear up some rumors before the new year.... I'm bored looking online and seriously don't know where they come up with this stuff!" She went on to share, "No I'm not pregnant. Kanye & I are not having marriage problems. Were literally obsessed with each other!" She also mentioned her favorite Kanye West song with her followers: "Only One." The rapper released it on January 1st as a tribute to their daughter, North West. Kardashian explained, "I cry every time I hear this song."

How do you handle rumors when you're in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors can destroy your relationship if you don't rid yourselves of them soon after they arrive. Cupid has some tips:

1. Address it: When there are rumors surrounding your relationship, it can be very frustrating. The key is to address them straight on. Whether you're in the public eye or not, saying things like "no comment" just adds fuel to the fire. You and your partner can make a statement about what is being said. On the other hand, you don't owe anybody an explanation if you don't want to give one. That being said, it's good to discuss it with your partner so you are both on the same page.

2. Bond with your partner: When things are being said about your relationship, they can certainly take their toll. Don't allow that to happen. All that matters is what you and your partner believe and feel. This is why it's important to connect with your partner and bond more than ever during tough times. Remind each other how committed you are and realize that it doesn't matter what other people say.

3. Shake it off: Just like Taylor Swift sings in her hit song, shake it off! Ignore whatever negative things are being said about your relationship. Rumors are irrelevant, and you shouldn't let them affect your life. If people are talking about you, it's because they have nothing better to do. Only surround yourself with positive and uplifting individuals!

Anna Wintour Suggests Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Are Not ‘Deeply Tasteful’

By Maggie Manfredi

What are two words to describe Kim K? According to People.com, Anna Wintour says “deeply tasteful” would not be two of them. However, we are not sure if this is a compliment or an insult to the celebrity couple because, according to Wintour, if it were only deeply tasteful people on the cover of Vogue, it would be “rather boring.” “I hope another Kim Kardashian comes along this year!” said Wintour. We aren’t sure if the internet can handle this notion, but here’s to hoping for another Kim!

How do you keep your relationship from being criticized by the public?

Cupid’s Advice:

For most of us we aren’t Kim and Kanye and have the world watching, but sometimes we can still feel judged by our peers. Here is some advice on how to keep your relationship from being criticized:

1. Social media: This is where you open up the can of worms as far as criticism. Be very aware of what you are saying and posting here because internet trolls are not always kind.

Kanye West Sends a Public Message for Kim Kardashian's Birthday

By Maggie Manfredi

Happy belated Kim! According to Usmagazine.com, Kanye West sent out two tweets in honor of the reality star's 34th birthday on Oct. 21. The rapper stated, "Happy Birthday baby! Thank you for being the dopest wife & mom!" He followed it up with, "Sometimes I feel like just saying I love you isn't strong enough to express how much I love you..." This birthday was low maintenance compared to last year's baseball field with fireworks proposal. But the little family seems to happy and very much in love.

How do you make your partner feel special on his/her birthday?

Cupid's Pulse:

Can't think of how to send the love to your partner on their birthday? Cupid has some ideas for how to make it a birthday to remember:

1. A year ago today: This one takes a year of planning, so you will have plenty of time. On your partner's birthday write a letter about what they mean to you and what this letter will symbolize a year from now. All you have to do is keep it safe and hidden. You could frame it if you like and it will be a gift that reminds each of you of your life together and how you've grown as a couple.

2. Just like the movies: Want to get corny and romantic? All you need is your lover's favorite rom-com, take a moment or idea from the flick and recreate it. Whether it be a butterfly tattoo/telescope like A Walk To Remember, or a shopping spree/chocolate strawberries like Pretty Woman...you have lots of cheesy to chose from.

3. Let the world know: Take a note from Kanye's book and share the love. This seems obvious but a loving instagram pic or some nice words on twitter are an easy way to make your special someone feel great on their special day. It will mean something to them that you want to tell them you love them...and also that you want to tell everybody else!

Kim Kardashian Says She Wants 'Three or Four' Kids with Kanye West

By Amanda Boyer

After babysitting for her pregnant sister, Kim Kardashian wants another baby ... or maybe two, she told Ellen DeGeneres on the season premiere of Ellen's talk show, according to UsMagazine.com. Kardashian stated on air that she took care of her niece, nephew, and daughter and also admitted, "It was so hard, three kids. I don't know how my mom did it with six." Even with the work, she still dreams of having a big family.

How do you decide how many children to have with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding to start a family? Cupid has some advice:

1. Personal experience: Were you an only child? Talk about how you felt with your siblings and/or how you felt as an only child.

Related: Is George Clooney's Fiance Amal Alamuddin Pregnant?

2. Jobs and money: Look at your income and the future of your careers. Weigh factors like whether someone is going to need to stop working, or if both parties need to take more on at work. These things are important because you want to be economically stable in order to raise your future child.

1. Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt: It's no secret that the life of two A-listers calls for a lot of time on the road. Brangelina both have movies to film and promote while simultaneously caring for their six kids, which means very little time to relax. The famous couple are often separated from each other, as one must fill the role of care taker while the other works. But when they are seen together, whether on the red carpet or enjoying a family day at the zoo, they never stay in one place for too long. They don't even have a permanent home, owning estates in France, California, and New Orleans, among other places.

A Celebrity Love That Started at Work

2. Emma Stone and Andrew Garfield: This adorable Hollywood couple met on the set of The Amazing Spiderman and has been spotted jetting around the world ever since. Most recently, the promotional tour for The Amazing Spiderman 2 had these costars hopping from country to country. Even now that the tour is over, they can never stay still. They've been giving us a glimpse of celebrity love on the red carpet, while walking hand in hand on the streets of NYC, and during their fun-filled celebrity vacations in Disneyland and on the beaches of Malibu.

3. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: The lovebirds have certainly stayed busy this summer. The reality TV star is always traveling for appearances and product promotions, while the rapper has an equally demanding schedule with his hot music career. Additionally, the had a grand celebrity wedding in Italy in May and spent quite a bit of time in Paris as well. The paparazzi catches nearly every step this famous couple takes, but if that's not enough, the proud wife and mama often shows off her celebrity relationship and family on social media as well.

Kim Kardashian Reveals Why Brother Rob Bailed on Her Wedding

By Laura Seaman

Months after the Kim Kardashian and Kanye West wedding, the bride speaks out about the one guest who wasn't there: her brother Rob. There was plenty of press speculation as to why the Kardashian brother left Europe on such short notice, but on an interview with Andy Cohen on Watch What Happens Live, Kim said, "He sent me a long email the morning of that he was going to leave. There was no fight." She then said, "I just thought, 'You know what, this is my day, I'm not even going to worry about it.'" UsMagazine.com states that Kim insisted she loves her brother very much and admitted she could get frustrated with him at times.

What are some ways to settle family drama surrounding your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Wedding are beautiful occasions where a family gathers to celebrate love and a new addition to the group. However, this can also be a dramatic event, as certain family members may not be too excited to be in the same room as each other. Some people forget that this is a day for the happy couple to be celebrated, not for them to dig up old fights and feuds. Things can get out of hand, and one unruly family member can ruin an otherwise happy occasion. Here are some ways to prevent this mess at your wedding:

1. Find out what is going on. Some people might not want to tell the soon-to-be newlyweds about family drama because they don't want to add to the stress of a big day. But this just leaves them in the dark and makes it even worse when the drama rears its ugly head. It's your job to get to the bottom of things and prepare yourself for any issues that might come up. The more you know, the better off you'll be.

Related: Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Have a 'Fun and Busy' Wedding

2. Think of who you're inviting. Of course you want your whole family there to celebrate your wedding, but sometimes it might be smarter to leave certain troublemakers off the guest list. There's no shame in wanting a nice, peaceful celebration and doing all you can to ensure that it stays that way. Just make sure these uninvited guests don't find out and crash the party.

Related: Kim Kardashian Hopes Rain Doesn't Ruin Her Wedding

3. Sit people down and talk about the problem. If you expect one of your family members might be planning to stir up trouble, sit them down and sternly tell them that you won't be tolerating any drama and that you won't hesitate to throw them out if they start something. It's not easy, but it could be the difference between a fun reception and a disaster of a party.

Kim Kardashian Legally Changes Name to Kim West

By Laura Seaman

It's not Kim Kardashian anymore, it's Kim West! This reality TV star has officially changed her surname from that of her famous family's to her famous rapper husband's. With a new passport photo to go with her new name, she recently took to Twitter to announce her new name with the hashtag #Mrs.West. According to People, the former Kardashian has been a West on the social media site for a few months, and it was only a matter of time until she made it official.

How do you know whether to change your name post-marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

It's tradition for the bride to change her surname to that of her new husband's, but recently more and more women have been keeping their own names instead. It's a decision that takes a lot of thought, as changing your name is like changing part of who you are. It's a commitment that fits the importance of marriage, and if your marriage doesn't make it, your name will have to change yet again. It's a very public way of announcing that you're hitched, so there are a few things to think about before you make the choice:

1. Think of which name you will be using in your career. Many women might keep their own last names because it is the name that their clients and coworkers know them by. It would take a while for everyone in the workplace to get used to the new name, and you'd have to change things like your business cards, signature lines, and maybe even your email address if they contain your last name.

Related: Kim Kardashian Says She and Kanye Will 'Always Be in the Honeymoon Phase'

2. Consider how important it is to the groom. True, it's your name that's changing, but it's his name you're changing it to. Some grooms might not care whether or not you take their name, but others may feel strongly about the issue. It's something you should probably talk about before getting married, but something you should definitely discuss if you're not sure either way.

Related: Kanye West Shows Off His Wedding Ring

3. Ask yourself why you wouldn't. Yes, changing your name is a huge step, but it's a step you should be willing to take if you're serious about your marriage. If you can't commit to changing your last name, how can you commit to living your life with this person until death do you part? Maybe you have your own personal reasons, but make sure lack of commitment isn't one of them.

How did you make the choice of whether or not to change your last name? Let us know in the comments below!

Report: Kim Kardashian and Brandon Jenner Kissed 'Back in the Day'

By Shannon Seibert

Shots fired! On the latest episode of Keeping Up With the Kardashians, Brody Jenner revealed to viewers that his brother Brandon had done some smooching with Kim Kardashian back in the day. The accusation came out after Brody Jenner had walked in on Kardashian staging a photo shoot in a barely-there outfit for her new husband Kanye West. Kris Jenner had accused Brody Jenner of being turned on by seeing her daughter in provocative clothing, but Brody quickly deflected and turned all eyes to his big brother. According to UsMagazine.com, Kim Kardashian has always had good relationship with both Brody and Brandon Jenner, so this small incident will probably be swept under the rug.

What are some things to consider about revealing your past to your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

The past is supposed to be in the past, but that doesn't mean you can't learn from it. Bringing up your past to your partner can be difficult, and at times, slightly awkward. There is no reason to relive it, but there are some things that have contributed to the person you are today that your man should know about.

1. The people who have shaped you: There are monumental people in everyone's lives that make a difference on how they live it. For example, certain exs may have left you with a couple of battle scars, your man has the right to know what they are. Also, if you have had any family members that have shaped you in either a positive or a negative light, this could be something worth sharing. By opening a channel of honesty you can funnel your deepest feelings to your partner. In return, he should do the same for you.

2. Where you've come from: Over time, circumstances change. Your starting point will never match your end point in your journey of life. You may have started from the bottom of the food chain and have impressively worked your way up. Or maybe you had a difficult home life or trouble in school. Each factor has helped contribute to who you are as a person, and there is no reason to shy away from that.

3. What you have accomplished: The past doesn't have to entail things that you're ashamed of, it can also hold some of your happiest memories. Give your man a peak inside your world and share with him some of your fondest moments from your childhood, your teenage years, and beyond. Show him the world through your eyes, he may find your viewpoint more beautiful than he'd ever imagine.

Kim Kardashian and Kate Middleton Both Trying to Get Pregnant Again

By Sanetra Richards

Two of the most talked about names in pop culture are definitely giving us something else to talk about. Kim Kardashian and Kate Middleton have a babies on their brains. According to UsMagazine.com, the ladies are planning for a baby number two in the near future. Both Kardashian and Middleton were due last July for their first bundles of joy, and from the looks of it, they may be pregnant again around the same time. The 33-year-old reality star gave birth to daughter North West on June 15th of last year, whilst the 32-year-old Duchess followed shortly after, giving birth to Prince George on July 22nd. Now the mommies are ready to add another to their families. "Kanye wants a boy!" says source of the Kardashian clan. Although Kardashian is no stranger to the limelight, she intends on keeping the next pregnancy under wraps for as long as possible (thanks to the criticism and backlash received in the past). "Kim won't tell anyone until she's five months along," the source says. "She doesn't want people scrutinizing her body." The royal on the other hand, has her fingers crossed on being pregnant "by Christmas," the Royals' source told Us. "Will and Kate have siblings similar in age, and they want the same for George. They're ready!"

How do you decide how many children to have?

Cupid's Advice:

Building a family is definitely one of the most common, as well as important, conversations to have with your partner. Whether to have a small or big family, and in some cases no family at all. You may want 3 children, and your partner may only want one. So, how do you exactly decide on the number? Cupid has a few tips:

1. Agree on a good number: As mentioned earlier, if you and your partner are stuck on the size of a family to have, find a good number that you both can agree on. If you want three and they want one, maybe agree on two, instead. A little bit of compromise can go a long way.

Related: Prince William and Kate Middleton Introduce Their Son to the World

2. Think of your finances: Are you both ready to take on your first child or possibly even more? Will you be able to provide, and maybe even go beyond that? Ask each other these questions. Your family size should be based on what you all can afford. If one baby is putting a dent in your pockets, consider waiting until the timing is absolutely right and you are financially ready.

Related: Source Says Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Will Be Ready for Baby #2 Post-Wedding

3. Consider each other's wants: If your partner truly only wants a certain number of kids, take this into deep consideration. Just brushing it off can cause a lot of damage in the relationship. Your partner may even begin to resent you or you may notice an attitude change over time. Talk it out and come to a common ground. If more children are going to be added, set up a timeline. If not, keep it in the back of your mind as a possibility.

5 Celebrity Couples Who Started Off As Friends

By Courtney Omernick

Some argue that men and women CAN be 'just friends' and steer clear of a romantic relationship. However, sometimes friendships with members of the opposite sex can turn into something more. Below, Cupid has five celebrity couples who began their romantic journey in the friend zone.

1. Jordin Sparks and Jason DeRulo: At first, Jordin had a boyfriend and Jason was single. Then, Jason had a girlfriend and Jordin was single. The pair maintained a friendship while they both had different significant others, but once both of their status update's read 'single', they turned their relationship into something more!

2. Kate Middleton and Prince William: The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge met back in 2001 at St. Andrew's University in Fife while studying Art History. At first, they were just friends, but their friendship turned into romance when the pair shared a flat together with two other students during their second and third years.

3. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: It seems as though their relationship moved quickly, but these stars were friends long before their walk down the aisle. Kim and Kanye first met back in 2004 while Kim was married to Damon Thomas. After Kim's divorce to Kris Humphries in 2011, Kanye was there to pick up the pieces, and the rest is history!

4. Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher: They may have been Jackie and Kelso for years on 'That 70's Show,' but according to a source, the pair did not get along while playing each other's love interest. It wasn't until Ashton split from Demi Moore that these stars became friends! Now, Mila is pregnant with Ashton's baby and plans to take a trip down the aisle with him soon.

5. Beyonce and Jay-Z: These A-listers were friends and talked regularly over the phone for 18 months before they went on their first date in 2000. In 2003, the couple finally admitted to the public that they were dating. Five years later, Beyonce became Mrs. Carter.

Celebrity Couples Who Love Fourth of July

By Shannon Seibert

Tis the season to take pride in your homeland and rock the colors of vigilance, perseverance and justice. It's also the day where we sport killer bikinis, chow on barbecue and watch amazing fireworks displays. The best part about the holiday, though, is that it's a day in which our entire country takes pride in their homeland, especially our celebrities. We've pulled together the envy-worthy patriotic plans and traditions of these stars to hopefully inspire a little Independence Day tradition in your own household:

Jessica Simpson and Eric Johnson: Jessica Simpson and Eric Johnson will have two reasons to celebrate this weekend. After being engaged since 2010, the couple has chosen to wed on July 4th. This all-American occasion will definitely be a party worth remembering.

Idea for you: You may not have been married on the Fourth, but that doesn't mean you can't celebrate your love. Have an intimate anniversary party underneath the fireworks with your love. Get silly and stuff American flag cake in each other's faces, wedding style.

Beyonce and Jay Z: Queen B has always been a fan of the holidays. With Blue Ivy around B and Jay Z are bound to have some Fourth of July fun. Last year the singer struck a pose against a vintage car in flag-print denim shorts. Looking forward to this year's photoshoot B!

Idea for you: Have your own star-studded photoshoot! Together with your love dress up in all of the patriotic attire you can find. Then take your man around town and find your most historical sites. Snap some selfies together, or strike your best model poses.

Related: How to Celebrate the Fourth of July With Your Guy

Eddie Cibrian and LeAnn Rimes: Last year the couple attended Rimes' Fourth of July performance with Cibrian's two sons. The family of four gathered around for a quick photo of them decked out in holiday attire. Rimes had tweeted about how happy she was to spend time with her man and the boys.

Idea for you: Nothing says 'America' like a good 'ole country concert. This time of year, tours are in full swing. Hop on Ticketmaster with your man and surf the web for some neat Independence Day deals on your favorites, such as Miranda Lambert.

Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber: The past year has been plenty rocky for Jelena, but this time last year the couple was in full-swing of celebration. Gracing Instagram with an adorable selfie, the pair sent fans screaming about their Fourth of July return.

Idea for you: Connect with old friends while celebrating your freedom. The Fourth is a great day to reach out to your "neighbors" under law and check in to see how they are doing.

Style

Josh Kelly and Katherine Heigl: The Kelley family spent July 4th of 2013 poolside at their home in Utah, making a splash in the holiday's festivities. The former Grey's Anatomy actress posted adorable photos of her two daughters and her hubby on Twitter, wishing the nation a happy birthday.

Idea for you: Host a pool party with your family- friends. Have a potluck and ask your guests to bring an item along to share. This way there will be plenty of food and fun to go around.

Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: The Kardashian family has never disappointed on the subject of partying. This year there are rumors of a Kardashian family get-together which will include all of the usual prospects. The Wests will be celebrating their daughter North's second Independence Day this year.

Idea for you: Take the day to just be with the family. Set up a barbecue buffet for you and your man's closest family members. This way you can see whether your Uncle Joe's fireworks outshine Grandpa Jim's this year while spending time with your loved ones.

the Honeymoon Phase'

By Sanetra Richards

The flame will never die! Newlyweds Kim Kardashian and Kanye West are on cloud nine and are not coming down anytime soon. According to UsMagazine.com, the 33-year-old reality star had hearts in her eyes as she attended the MailOnline yacht party at the Cannes Lions Festival on Wednesday, June 18th: "I feel as though we'll always be in the honeymoon period," she told MailOnline. "I try to treat him like it's his birthday every single day. I think we'll always be like that." Despite their frequent long distance trips, Mrs. West credited talking constantly as their tool to remaining a happy couple. "We always try to make life as fun and enjoyable as possible," she continued. "We do travel, and work really hard, when we're together – and even when we're apart, we're always on the phone 24/7 – just trying to make that time as memorable as possible.”

What are some ways to keep the spark alive in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Losing that feeling you once had when you looked at your partner? Of course after being together for x amount of time, things begin to change. However, this does not mean they have to change for the worse. In fact, your relationship should be getting better over time. The butterflies should not fly away and that cheesy smile should not turn into a frown. But how do you exactly keep it all of this going when you have been with someone for so long? Cupid has some tips to help keep your relationship flame well-lit:

1. Reenact the first date: Remember that exciting moment when you were about to go on your first date with your significant other? You probably could not stop grinning and gushing about it afterwards. Well, you now have an opportunity to have that special day/night all over again! Turn one of your now regular dates into the moment you both really met.

2. Have goofy conversations: No matter how much your partner may think they know about you (and vice versa), there is always something slightly embarrassing or funny that they do not know. Have a night of sharing silly stories and secrets. Maybe tell them about the time you actually ate a mud pie (for example, of course).

3. Be cool: You are probably wondering what that exactly means. It means . . . do not be the fun police. If your partner wants to watch their all-time favorite movie with you, go along with it. If they want to go to a sporting event with you, go along with it. Although the words may not verbally come out, the message is clear as day – he or she wants to spend time with you, no matter what the activity may be. Remember, just go along with it!

Andre Leon Talley Says Kimye's Wedding Kiss Was 'Extremely Long'

By Courtney Omernick

Just in case you've been living under a rock for the past month, Kim Kardashian and Kanye West were married in Italy in May, and apparently, the first kiss after they said their "I do's" was anything but quick. According to UsMagazine.com, on his June 15 appearance on Watch What Happens Live, Andre Leon Talley told host, Andy Cohen that Kim and Kanye's first kiss as husband and wife was "extremely long."

How do you decide the best course of action for your wedding kiss?

Cupid's Advice

A quick peck or a lasting impression, your first kiss as husband and wife is kind of important. You're officially starting a new chapter in your lives, and that's what seals the deal. So, what do you go for? Ultimately, it's a decision that comes down to you and your partner. Struggling with this topic? Cupid has some advice on how to decide the best course of action:

1. Think about your audience: Yes, your audience is going to be filled with friends and family members that adore you, so why not let loose? But, be sure to consider the actual demographics. Are there more elder individuals, kids, close relatives, friends? Think about how each demographic in the audience is going to feel about your first kiss.

2. Ask around: Know someone that has had a wedding party similar to yours? It may sound silly, but asking a question will get you an answer! Why not ask your friends, close family members, or even your parents what you should do. It can't hurt, right?

3. When all else fails, throw caution to the wind: At the end of the day, you might get too swept up in the moment, or you just might not care. Whatever you do, you have to do you. If in the moment it feels right to go with a longer kiss, go for it! Try your best to keep your audience in mind, but don't hold back so much that it turns into an awkward moment.

10 Favorite Celebrity Weddings

By Courtney Omernick

The designer wedding dress, the insane guest list, the mile high wedding cake, and more! Celebrity weddings, what's not to love, right? Even if we can't throw as big of a wedding bash as Kim and Kanye, it can be fun to imagine what our own lavish wedding would look like. Below are 10 of our favorite celebrity weddings.

1. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: Of course they're number one; they're wedding was plastered everywhere, and the pictures from it were some of the highest viewed photos on Instagram...ever! The party started a week before the actual wedding date (Saturday, May 24) in Paris where Kim, Kanye, and a few of their family members relaxed before the big day. Their "I do's" were exchanged outside in Italy next to a giant wall of flowers. Guests such as LaLa Anthony, Joyce Bonelli, Monica Rose, and more were in attendance.

3. Kendra Wilkinson and Hank Baskett: The former Playboy Playmate and NFL star were married on the front lawn of the Playboy Mansion in June 2009. Wilkinson wore a $20,000 duchesse-silk gown (that she co-designed) that had more than 55 yards of fabric and was covered in 1,2000 crystals with R-Mine Bridal's Armine Ohanessian. Talk about glitz and glamour! Their guest list included Hank's teammates from the Philadelphia Eagles, Hugh Hefner, Holly Madison, Bridget Marquardt, Jon Lovitz, and more famous faces.

4. Katie Holmes and Tom Cruise: In November 2006, seven months after the birth of their daughter, Suri, the two actors were married at the 15th-Century Odescalchi Castle outside of Rome. The bride and groom both wore Armani, and their guest list included Victoria Beckham, Jennifer Lopez, Mark Ronson, and others.

5. Celine Dion and Rene Angelil: Back in December 1994, the singer married her manager at the Notre Dame Basilica in Montreal, Canada. Dion wore a Mirella and Steven Gentile gown that included a 20-foot train and took over 1,000 hours to complete. Oh, we almost forgot to mention Dion's seven-pound tiara that was made of 2,000 Australian crystals...

6. Nicole Kidman and Keith Urban: The couple was married on June 25, 2006 in an all-candlelight ceremony that took place just after sundown in Sydney, Australia's Cardinal Cerretti Memorial Chapel on St. Patrick's Estate at Manly. Kidman wore a dress by Nicolas Ghesquiere for Balenciaga. The black-tie event included friends such as Russell Crowe, Hugh Jackman, Naomi Watts, and Rupert Murdoch.

7. Gwen Stefani and Gavin Rossdale: These two rockers had not one, but two weddings back in 2002! First, they were married in London and then had their second ceremony two weeks later at a private home in L.A. Stefani wore a dip-dyed silk faille gown that was created specifically for her so she could show off her girly, yet punk, personality. Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston were among the many stars in attendance.

8. Khloe Kardashian and Lamar Odom: Who could forget Kim's sister Khloe's crazy nuptials to LA Laker, Lamar Odom? The couple tied the knot just one month after they started dating! The ceremony took place at a private residence in Beverly Hills, and the couple said their vows in front of triple arches of white roses created by celebrity florist, Mark's Garden. The bride wore a Vera Wang gown and was walked down the aisle by her step-father, Bruce Jenner.

9. Katy Perry and Russell Brand: When the singer and actor wed back in 2010, it was nothing short of magical. Perry wore an Elie Saab Haute Couture gown and $7,000 Casadei heels to their ceremony at Rajasthan, India's Amani-i-Khas resort. And, don't forget! The two entered their ceremony by riding on top of an elephant! How's that for extravagant?

10. Ellen DeGeneres and Portia De Rossi: The talk show host and model/actress wed in 2008 at their home in L.A. among their closest family and friends. Although the couple didn't have their wedding in an elaborate location, certain items included on their special day sure made for an elaborate event! Both brides wore designs by Zac Posen and Mark's Garden provided the candles and flowers. Later that evening, all guests dined on an all-vegan menu prepared by the couple's personal chef, David Silberkleit.

Kanye West Shows Off His Wedding Ring

By Laura Seaman

Kanye West, recently married to Kim Kardashian, was spotted leaving the gym with a big smile on his face and showing off his wedding ring on his hand. According to UsMagazine.com, West had just returned from the couple's honeymoon in Europe, where they visited Ireland and the Czech Republic. The couple went bike riding, visited the pubs, and saw a movie together where it was said "they were laughing and smiling together".

What are some ways to show the pride you have in your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're with the special someone, you know just how amazing they are. Sometime it's easy to forget that maybe the whole world doesn't know what you know. Here are some of Cupid's tips on how to show the world how incredible your partner is without having to scream it from the top of a skyscraper:

1. Show little signs of affection in public. Holding someone's hand or giving them a peck on the cheek while you're out on the town is a simple, romantic way to show the world that you're proud to be with your partner. Be careful not to take it too far, because too much PDA can be obnoxious.

3. Show your partner off to friends and family. These people mean a lot to you, and if your partner is started to really be a part of your life, it's only right to introduce them to those who care about you the most. Meeting the friends and family is a gesture that says "you mean a lot to me and I want everyone to know it."

The Most Publicized Celebrity Pregnancies

By Shannon Seibert

There is nothing more exciting than welcoming little bundles of joy into the world. In the realm of celebrities, baby news is always the best news. Over the years, our beloved starlets have enticed us with their unique maternity wear, adorable pregnancy announcements, and awe-inspiring sentiments about expecting. We've pulled together the best of the best, with some of the most publicized pregnancies over the past few years.

1. Catharine 'Kate' Middleton: Undoubtedly, Kate had one of the most followed pregnancies of all time. With the whole world watching with avid anticipation of the birth of royal baby, the duchess served as a maternity style-icon throughout the duration of her pregnancy. Kate kept her style classy, utilizing simple silhouettes, classic dresses, and comfortable coats as her staple pieces. She and husband Prince William, welcomed a baby boy, George Alexander Louis, on July 22, 2013. We weren't even surprised when her baby-weight seemed to melt away mere weeks after bringing George into the world. Bow down to the Duchess of Cambridge.

2. Kim Kardashian: She and now fiancé, Kanye West, welcomed a baby girl, North West, on June 15, 2013. Kim's pregnancy is most famous for three reasons: A. Her crazy maternity wear. B. Her famous hubby-to-be (#Kimye5eva) and C. 'North West' is the name of her baby. In terms of wardrobe Kim made some daring choices. The reality star has served as a style icon for years, and during her pregnancy she still didn't disappoint. She never shied away from leather pants or killer six-inch heels. Also, with Kanye at her side, the two are obviously a power-couple. But most importantly, the adorable North West is both wide-eyed and beautiful like her mother, and already has a dominant personality like her father.

3. Mila Kunis: Currently, the actress and Ashton Kutcher are expecting their first child. Mila's pregnancy has graced Google's top search list since the news broke. The engaged couple began dating in 2012, four years after they costarred together on That '70s Show. Mila is also a Wonder Woman mommy-to-be, keeping up with yoga, publicly rocking skinny jeans, and emphasizing her pregnancy glow by canoodling with Ashton. With her and Ashton's killer looks and crazy personalities, the baby is bound to be a legend.

4. Gisele Bündchen: Mother of two, both of the Brazilian beauty's pregnancies were for the books. From controversial pregnancy and motherhood comments to bikini baby-belly photos, the former Victoria's Secret supermodel never failed to impress us. An advocate of breast-feeding, healthy eating, and natural birth Gisele has set the standards for women. Benjamin, now four resembles his daddy's spitting image. Vivian is now 14-months-old, and has been seen rocking UGG baby booties and designer jeans to match her glowing mama. Of course with a hubby like Tom Brady, we really aren't shocked that both kiddos adorn the tabloids with their cuteness.

5. Scarlett Johansson: This woman can actually do it all. The renowned actress is expecting her first baby with fiancé, Romain Dauriac and is still currently filming for The Avengers: Age of Ultron. As a mother-to-be and a -bride-to-be, Scarlett seems determined to balance work, love, and family while retaining her own individuality. Not only will she give birth to a stunning child, but will undoubtedly have a glorious wedding as well.

What can you do to keep your wedding exciting?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is possibly one of the most important days of your life. It should be one to remember, not only for you, but all of your guests. Here are a few tips from Cupid to ensure that your wedding is one you and your family will never forget:

1. Do something different. We all have basic expectations of what will happen at a wedding; vows will be said, the couple smashes cake in each other's faces, and the new pair will have a romantic first dance. Try dazzling your guests with something new! Have your wedding party dance down the aisle, or divert from the usual wedding cake for your reception.

2. Make it unique to you. Each couple is different and no two weddings should be the same. Whether it's the colors, a reception theme, or some other addition to your wedding, make sure the guests know that this is your wedding. It's your day as a couple, and it should be clear that you're the ones being celebrated.

3. Choose a special venue. The usual choices of a chapel and reception hall can be charming and unique if done right, but maybe your wedding calls for a different kind of venue. If you are an artistic couple, maybe the reception could be in an art gallery. Some brainy couples have chosen to hold their receptions in museums. If you can handle the cost and extra planning, maybe a more unique venue is right for your wedding.
