How many kids you have is a personal choice between you and your significant other. Some couples choose to have one child, and others choose to have many more. Cupid has some things you may need to do differently if you plan on having a big family:

1. Bigger cars: For a family of three, you can take your pick of automobile. If there are over five in your family, you may need to invest in a larger car, or possibly even two modes of transportation.

2. Time limits: With a lot of children, budgeting time limits is essential. At certain points of the day, you may need to set up a certain amount of time for the bathroom, the television and maybe even specific homework schedules. You need to make sure to support each child equally.

3. Budgeting: We all know how pricy children can be, and the bigger the family, the more expensive it gets. You're going to need to plan ahead for various expenses for each child, which involves major money planning.

What should you do if you love two people at once?

Cupid's Advice:

Cheating is one thing, but what if you really love two people at the same time? Cupid has some things to consider:

1. Alternative lifestyles: Whether it's for religious reasons or other moral considerations, there will always be people out there who have alternative love lives. As long as those people are happy and not hurting anyone around them, there's no reason we shouldn't accept relationships which differ from our own.

2. Making equal time: If for some reason you do end up in a consenting relationship with two or more people, the top priority must be to give equal attention to all the parties involved. If one person believes they aren't loved as much as another, it can lead to drama or depression.

3. Multiple commitments: If you don't believe in polygamy, but are in love with two people at the same time, it's time to start analyzing each relationship separately. Focus on factors outside of the love. With which mate are you most compatible? Which relationship can truly go the distance?
