In celebrity news, Scott and Sofia are definitely on the outs right now. What are some ways to keep your partner from being jealous of your ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s normal to sometimes feel jealous of your partner’s ex, even in the happiest relationships. But obsessing over that jealousy can cause serious harm. If you need help getting your partner past their jealousy, Cupid has some advice for you.

1. Reassure them: Remind your partner that you and your ex broke up for a reason. Remind them that you chose to be with them, not your ex. It’s easy to get lost in overthinking, so reassure your partner of your feelings. Ask if there’s more you can be doing to help them feel comfortable.

Holidays are a great time to be with the people that you love most, and for a lot of people that means being with their partner, but not everyone feels the same way. If you are debating if you should spend holidays with your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Share the intimate moments: Since there is no work or school on national holidays, there's nothing else for you to do besides enjoy the holiday and be with the people you love. Instead of running around like you would on a regular day, you can not only be with your partner, but be present with your partner. You can cherish those long lasting memories that you make on holidays together.

Celebrity News: Scott Disick Seen Dining With Kourtney Kardashian Amid Sofia Richie Split

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Scott Disick was spotted dining out with ex-Kourtney Kardashian and their kids. The sighting has fans on high alert as Disick and longtime girlfriend Sofia Richie's recent split was said to be because of his former flame. According to UsMagazine.com, Disick's focus was always on Kardashian and their kids rather than Richie. We hope all these celebrity exes can get along!

In celebrity couple news, Scott Disick was seen out with ex-Kourtney Kardashian amid his split from Sofia Richie. How do you know if you're still hung up on an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Missing an ex is a common and sometimes inevitable occurrence. If you're wondering if you may fall into that category, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You're constantly thinking about them: If the one thing that seems to always be on your mind is your ex, then chances are you're not over them. Think about the good and bad within the relationship and why it ended. If you went your separate ways for reasons that were fixable or poorly timed, then maybe reconciliation is in your future. For those whose relationship ended for valid and critical reasons, then you need to remember why the split took place. Nostalgia plays a selective highlight reel through our memory and focuses on the highest of highs, don't let this cloud your judgment.

2. You stalk their socials: Are you glued to your phone and constantly checking in on your ex's profiles? If that sounds like you, then you're probably not over them. This definitely isn't a healthy step in the moving-on process or any for that matter! Once you've split, unfriend and unfollow your partner. Cutting off this visibility is crucial for you to embark on the next stage of your life. Constantly checking in or stalking their pages isn't going to do you any good and may lead to your feelings getting hurt all over again.

3. You're still reaching out: Closure is a crucial part of the breakup process. It's important that the two of you have an open and honest discussion about why things ended so you're both walking away without any lingering questions. Once this has happened, it's important that you move forward with your life and work towards finding your own happiness. Stop trying to rehash the past or continue to ask your ex what went wrong. Accept that it wasn't the right path and focus on yourself.

Celebrity News: Kourtney Kardashian Says She Has
'Responsibility' to Teach

Kids About White Privilege

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity baby news, Kourtney Kardashian shares that she's committed to teaching her children about white privilege. In a recent Instagram post, Kardashian shares the importance of allowing "conversation without judgement" with your kids. In the wake of George Floyd's death and Black Lives Matter protests, it's easy to turn away from these conversations because they're uncomfortable. "As a mother, there is a natural instinct to protect my children from anything that might make them feel sad or unsafe," said Kardashian. However, that's not stopping the reality TV star: "I bare the responsibility to speak with my kids honestly and often about it, even when the truth is uncomfortable." Kardashian set an example for her children by donating to the NAACP and the Bail Project through her lifestyle and wellness brand Poosh.

In celebrity news, Kourtney Kardashian is speaking out about teaching her kids about racism and white privilege. What are ways to come to terms with your partner on which values to instill in your children?

Cupid's Advice:

As much as we love our partners, we won't always see eye to eye. This becomes especially challenging when it comes to raising your children. If you need help deciding what values to teach your kids, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Decide what's important: Have a conversation with your partner. Decide what values are non-negotiable and what's most important to actively teach your kids. Remember that your kids will model their behavior after your own, so not every lesson will be verbal!

Related Link: Celebrity Babies: Kristen Bell Vows to Raise Her and Dax Shepard's Kids to Be 'Anti-Racists'

2. Delegate "teachable moments": While you should both be teaching your children values, one of you might have a stronger connection to a particular issue. If your partner has a personal experience that makes them passionate about a subject, you might want to take the backseat for those conversations.

Related Link: Celebrity Exes: Scott Disick is 'Always Flirting' With 'Best Friend' Kourtney Kardashian

3. Adapt your views: As your child (and you and your partner!) ages, what's most important to teach them will change. Outside forces, like experiences at school and current events, might require you and your partner to have discussions you hadn't planned on before. Flexibility is important to best teach your child in a changing world.

Celebrity Exes: Scott Disick is 'Always Flirting' With 'Best Friend' Kourtney Kardashian

By Alycia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Scott Disick and Kourtney Kardashian spent some time in Utah with all three of their kids for Disick's 37th birthday. According to UsMagazine.com these celebrity exes have been through so many ups and downs since the beginning of their relationship, but after their celebrity break-up, they seem to get along much better, especially when it comes to co-parenting. Recently, Disick and Sofia Richie called their relationship quits after three years. Many wonder if Kardashian is the reason they broke up, so that she and Disick can get back together.

These celebrity exes are keeping things way above and beyond friendly. How do you know if you're still hung up on your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After a long relationship ends, it's incredibly easy to get held up on the idea that you guys might get back together. If you think you are still hung up on your ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Do you stalk them on social media?: If you constantly find yourself going to your ex's social media pages a few times a day, then you are definitely still hung up on them. Trying to look on their pages to see what they're doing, who they're hanging out with, and if they're seeing anyone else, just isn't healthy. Try deleting the apps from your phone to stop yourself from going to their pages. The longer you go without thinking about them, the better.

Related Link: Celebrity Exes: Khloe Kardashian & Tristan Thompson Reunite at True's 1st Birthday Party

2. Do you still refer to them as your partner?: When you're talking to someone else about your ex partner and you refer to them as your boyfriend, girlfriend, husband, or wife accidentally, then you are still not over them. This can be really hard to correct, especially when you're fresh out of a relationship, but after a few months you should be looking to correct yourself. Have your friends and family point it out to you every time you say it. Or, you can use the swear jar method, expect only put a dollar in the jar when you refer to your ex as your partner.

3. You're not interested in dating again: If you find yourself not finding anyone attractive or not wanting to get back out there and go on dates, then you are still holding on to your past relationship. You don't want to go on dates because you're still in a "relationship" kind of head space, when you should be in a single state of mind. Try to get back out there in the dating world and go a little out of your comfort zone; consider someone completely different than your ex.

Beauty Tip: Instagram-Worthy Fall Hairstyles

By Hope Ankney

It's Fall. The leaves are falling off the trees. The air is dropping in temperature. The smell of the horizon has officially shifted to burning firewood and... somehow... cinnamon? And Thanksgiving is right around the corner. The changing seasons can inspire a personal change in your own appearance as well, and what better way to do that than with one of the easiest and refreshing beauty switch-ups: Hairstyles!

Changing up your hair this Fall will definitely turn heads. In these beauty tips, what are some of the best new 'dos that you can deem as an Instagram-worthy reveal?

With Thanksgiving coming up, it seems like the perfect time to debut a new hairstyle to your friends and family for the holiday season. But, your hair transformation doesn't have to be anything drastic. In fact, some of the most popular 2019 Fall hairstyles are subtle, yet effective. No need to drain your bank account or take a big risk completely changing your hair if you're looking for a simple switch that'll be just as powerful as bleaching your entire head. Here are five of Cupid's favorite low-effort, Instagram-worthy hairstyles that'll be sure to turn heads:

1. Low-side ponytail: A quick and easy way to change your hairstyle if you are usually a big fan of wearing your hair down is to tie it back in a nice low side ponytail. A favorite of celebrities like Kourtney Kardashian, this simple ponytail can add a touch of difference to your look without much effort. Tie up your hair right above the shoulder on the side of your head, and add some slight wave for texture to change a casual side-pony to a sophisticated style worthy of your Instagram and any Fall get-together.

2. Long shag: A shag is a great way to add a little flair of retro to your appearance. With recent beauty trends taking a page from decades past, it's only natural that a '70s shag would be "in" sooner or later. Easy to achieve, tell your stylist that you want some shattered layers with a long, thick bang. This should get you that fun and casual shag for the season.

3. Blunt lob: If you have thin hair and are forever wishing for a fuller look, the blunt lob could be your saving grace. Very popular this Fall, this hairstyle can be bold and classic while also giving the illusion of a fuller mane. Some stylist experts have even called this look the "statement cut of the season." Having a simple lob that grazes your collarbone can do wonders for transforming your appearance without much effort involved.

4. Intense curls: It's refreshing to see such a celebration of natural hair within the beauty industry, recently. Whether your hair is naturally curly or you want to add some voluminous curls to your hair, anyone can achieve this '70s disco trend that's emerging for the Fall season. If you don't have naturally beautiful curls, using a small curling iron and a teasing comb can give you that fun and timeless look. Keeping it voluminous or pulling the hair back into a semi-updo are both looks out of the several this hairstyle is capable of that can add that change you've been looking for this Fall.

5. Statement headbands: Probably the easiest and yet most effective hairstyle on this list, the headband had its time this summer, but it doesn't seem like it's going anywhere for the Fall. A cute way to switch up your Instagram feed as well as your own personal style, buying some chunkier headbands in fun, Fall patterns or colors can add that Boho spark to your look. Simply slide it on your head, pull the front pieces of your hair forward, and rock the 'do. The best part is that you can stock up on many headbands for cheap at your local retail stores.

In celebrity baby news, Khloe enjoyed a baby shower while also celebrating her partner's birthday. What are some ways to balance celebrations in your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrating two events in a day can create some very busy energy, but that doesn't make it any less fun! Cupid has some ideas on ways to maintain the balance between both family celebrations:

1. Plan ahead and thoroughly: One event takes time to plan, so imagine two. You don't want to stress yourself out. Ask for help planning if needed. There are many things to consider when planning, so make an agenda and get started when possible. When planning both events side by side, you are more likely to keep them balanced as well.

2. Make the events equal in size: Of course this depends on what type of events you are coordinating, but if you want to create two balanced ones on the same day, without one event outshining the other, it could be a good idea to make them the same size. When thinking of size, you should consider guest lists, themes, decorations, amount of food, etc. Again, this depends on the type of events.

3. Schedule properly: Time management is important. One event should be during the day and the other in the evening, ideally. Plan accordingly by scheduling the events at specific times for specific time periods, with enough room to change clothes if necessary and traveling. There should be a reasonable gap in between, so in order to consider this properly, the events should be on a somewhat tight schedule for the best, stress free results.

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby is so exciting! Cupid has a few tips on things to consider when having a baby girl:

1. What color do you want to use?: Do you want to go with pink or go neutral with white or yellow? Consider colors for your baby's clothes and for the nursery. Even for the baby shower. Celebrity Getaway: Scott Disick & Sofia Richie Enjoy PDA on Mexican Vacation

By Jessica Gomez

Kourtney Kardashian's ex Scott Disick and girlfriend Sofia Richie were all lovey dovey during their celebrity vacation in Mexico, according to EOnline.com. The celebrity couple posted photos on Instagram. Both were having fun and a ton of PDA was going on. According to a source, the couple is very happy, always have fun, and were making out and all over one another often during the vacay.

This celebrity getaway is getting steamy. What are some things to consider when it comes to public displays of affection?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA is a controversial topic. Some people are fine with it, and some people are hardcore against it. There are different levels of PDA, from holding hands to make out sessions and butt grabbing – so different levels call for different measures. Cupid has some tips on things you should consider when it comes to public displays of affection:

1. Are there kids around?: This matters depending on the level of PDA of course. Are you just kissing one another innocently or is it to the point of someone telling you to get a room? Children are innocent and you wouldn't want to influence them in a particular way, especially if they aren't your kids.

2. Are you making others uncomfortable?: Generally, we are told to not care about what others think. However, it can be annoying when a group of friends are hanging out, and there's that couple all over each other the whole time. Do as you please, but try to keep in mind whether or not you're overdoing it. Everything in moderation.

3. The place: PDA stands for public displays of affection (as we all know), but certain public places may be more acceptable than others. For example: work, school, a funeral home, children's playgrounds, and hospitals are obvious places where most people would agree couples should stray away from intense PDA. So just keep your eyes open and be aware of your surroundings, and of course pay attention to the level of PDA.

Cupid's Advice:

Breakups can be messy. Breakups with kids can be really messy. While Kardashian and Disick try and remain civil for the sake of their three children, it's clear they face their fair share of problems. If you're having trouble with an ex, Cupid has some tips that you can implement into your life:

1. Kick the emotions to the curb: You must keep your frustrations and all negative feelings about your ex between the two of you. It's easy to jump to conclusions and expect the worst from your ex if you ended on bad terms and continue to have drama. Your child (or children) are the most important commitment you two share, so when they're around, get along as best as you possibly can.

2. Have a clear-cut plan: Early on into your separation or divorce, it is pivotal to have a clear and defined custody agreement. Between the two of you, decide on a visitation schedule and figure out how you will celebrate holidays and their birthdays. It won't be easy by any means, but it will really help you diffuse potential conflicts from arising.
