By Melissa Lee

In celebrity news, it has been revealed that Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick are no longer speaking to one another. EOnline.com reports that this is a result of Disick's recent trip to Cannes, where he hooked up with numerous new girls. Kardashian is still allowing her celebrity ex to see the three kids they have together, 7-year-old Mason, 4 year-old Penelope, and 2-year-old Reign, but there's no doubt that their relationship is strained. Best of luck to these co-parents!

This celebrity news has drama written all over it. What are some ways to keep drama out of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Kourtney and Scott might have been one of the most dramatic couples Hollywood has ever seen. Here are some tips to keep the drama to a minimum:

1. Keep it private: Constantly posting about your relationship – whether it be the good, the bad, or the ugly – could open the opportunity for other people to get involved. By keeping the social media to a minimum, drama definitely won't be a huge problem, as your relationship will remain between you and your partner.

2. Communicate: Conflicts or arguments tend to get even worse when there's poor communication. If there's something bothering you, be straight forward! Calmly explain to your partner that there is an issue that you'd like to work on, together. This opens the opportunity to have clear communication and a productive conversation to fix the problem. No drama here!

3. Choose to let it go: There are just some arguments that aren't even worth having (like that one about who's turn it is to empty the dishwasher?). Recognize that while conflict can be healthy at times – when it's productive – there doesn't always have to be a fight. Sometimes, you can just validate your partner's feelings, apologize, and move forward.

New Celebrity Couple? Kourtney Kardashian Cuddles with Younes Bendjima in France

By Noelle Downey

Is there a new celebrity couple on the horizon? According to UsMagazine.com, Kourtney Kardashian was recently spotted getting cozy with hot model Younes Bendjima on what appeared to be a romantic getaway at Hotel du Cap-Eden-Roc in Antibes, France. Bendjima wrapped his arms around Kardashian from behind in a sweet embrace on the terrace of the hotel in an adorable photo snapped by press. However, although there are rumors that the pair have been spending time together since December, a source claims that Bendjima and Kardashian are keeping it casual. “Kourtney and Younes are not serious,” the source explained, “they are hooking up.” Whatever the label on their celebrity relationship, however, it’s been enough to stir up some trouble when it comes to Kardashian’s celebrity ex, Scott Disick. When photos of Kardashian and Bendjima surfaced, a source claims Disick felt some real pain. “Scott is jealous of Kourtney’s relationship,” the source affirmed. Before this sweet cuddle in France, Kardashian and Bendjima were most recently spotted enjoying their Hollywood relationship in LA in early May.

This celebrity couple says they aren’t defining their relationship. What are some reasons to wait on labeling your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you’re unsure whether or not you should put a label on your relationship, here are the top three ways to know it may not be time to take that big step:

1. When you’re not looking for a commitment: If you’re more interested in a fun fling than a long term relationship, consider holding off on defining your relationship. Once labels are involved, talks of exclusivity and boundaries in your relationship are inevitable. If you're looking to keep your flirtation fun but free, then don't burden either you or the person you're dating with a label the neither of you want. Keep things casual and tell your friends or any nosy family members that for right now, you two are just hanging out and enjoying each other's company, with no pressure on either side to make it something more.

2. When you want different things: If you ever feel as though your partner is pressuring you into a label that you're not ready for, step back and call a time out on any further talks about your relationship's identity. Don't allow yourself to be pressured into making a choice you're not ready to make, and if your partner is absolutely adamant that you need a label in order to continue your relationship, than it might be time to say goodbye before either one of you gets hurt. You should never have to apologize for not wanting to be in a relationship with someone, so if you're not ready, you're just not ready. Don't force it.

3. When you don't have time: There's no doubt about it, relationships take a lot of work and effort. If you just don't know how you'd fit in the demands of a relationship into the stress and business of your daily life, then it may not be a good idea to try for anything beyond a casual fling. To be in a healthy relationship, both partners need to be giving of themselves equally, and if you're not in a position where you can make room in your life for the needs and desires of another person, then hold off on the labels until you're in the right time of your life for that big step.

In celebrity news, it looks like these two have no hard feelings after their fling. What are some ways to recover quickly after a fling gone bad?

Cupid’s Advice:

Flings are meant to be just that, a fling. Here is how you can recover when a fling has gone wrong:

1. Remember it was a fling: The point of a fling is for it to be short term and something that eventually ends. So when it goes wrong try and remember it was never meant to work.

These two may not be a celebrity couple yet, but things are heating up between them! What are some ways to know you’re ready for the label that comes along with a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because you start seeing someone new, doesn't mean the new relationship is ready for a label. Use this relationship advice to help make that decision:

1. Exclusive: When you start seeing someone new and you both decide it is time to start seeing other people, this can be a good indicator that the relationship is ready for a label.

While it doesn't seem that any woman from the Kardashian/Jenner family is currently dating French Montana, never say never. Falling for the ex-flame or current crush of a friend or sibling tends cause issues, but in some cases can't be helped. Before you go falling for the same person as a friend or sibling, think about it:

1. This relationship will hurt your friend/sibling: Even when a friend or sibling plays it cool about you crushing on the same person they are or have in the past, they're most likely not okay with it. If you're crushing on the same person, chances are your jealous and competitive sides will be on full display. Think about the importance of your relationship with your friend or sibling, and realize that pursuing this romantic relationship will hurt the relationship you already have with your them. Chances are the crush isn't worth it.

Celebrity News: Kylie Jenner & Kourtney Kardashian Hang with Rob's Ex

By Jessica DeRubbo

Apparently there are no hard feelings in the mix with this scenario! According to UsMagazine.com, Kylie Jenner and Kourtney Kardashian were recently spotted hanging with Rob Kardashian's ex girlfriend, Adrienne Bailon. This celebrity news comes on the heels of Kylie's Instagram post picturing the three girls, with the caption, "Cause we are sistersss." Celebrity exes Rob Kardashian and Bailon dated for two years, from 2007 to 2009, when their celebrity relationship ended. In a 2010 episode of Keeping Up with the Kardashians, Kardashian admitted he was unfaithful to Bailon. Apparently Bailon doesn't have hold that against Rob's two sisters!

This celebrity news comes amidst a lot of Rob Kardashian happenings lately. How do you know whether you can be friends with your family member's ex or not?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a dicey situation when it comes to your family and their exes. If you're on the fence about whether it's okay for you to keep a connection with your family member's ex, Cupid has some tips:

1. Time since the split: If it's been a long time since the break-up occurred, your family member has probably had plenty of a chance to cope. The best way to find out if that coping period is over is to simply ask. You probably know your family member well enough to detect if there's any hesitation in his or her answer whatsoever. If they seem okay about it, then go for it.

Related Link: Kendall and Kylie Jenner Make Celebrity Gossip Headlines Cozying Up to Chris Brown and Trey Songz at Party

2. The reason for the break-up: If the reason for the break-up is that the relationship simply ran its course and it was a mutual parting, you're probably more okay keeping contact with your family member's ex than if something horrific happened at the end of the relationship, like a cheating scandal. Definitely consider the facts before making a decision.

3. How “over it” your family member is: It’s not necessarily all about time. Your family member may have good reason to be completely and utterly over the relationship he or she was in. It may have only been a month, but your brother or sister has already moved on to greener pastures. If they’re over it, they shouldn’t have an issue with you continuing to remain friends with their ex.
