What are some ways to deal with your partner's criticism?

Cupid's Advice:

When your partner wants to make a change, they may not go about it in the most polite way possible. Here are a few ways to deal with your partner's criticism:

- 1. Take their advice: Often times your partner's criticism is just poorly phrased advice. Tell your partner that their tone is offensive, but take their advice into consideration.
- 2. Ignore them: If you feel your partner's criticism is irrelevant, then ignore it. If the criticism has no effect on you, then your partner may stop trying to make a change.
- 3. Confront them: When criticism becomes frequent, it is time to confront your partner. Tell them that their criticism is hurtful, and ask them to stop.

Why Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries Are Calling It Quits

It was just a few weeks ago when over four million viewers tuned into E! to watch Kim's Fairytale Wedding, but it only took until the end of the month for the couple to split. They may have been newlyweds, but they were already bickering like an old married couple on the set of Kourtney and Kim Take New York. The fighting may have been too much for Kardashian, 31, who filed for divorce from Humphries, 26. After rushing their relationship with a quick engagement and wedding ceremony, along with the added pressures of filming the show, dealing with the media, and attempting to manage their busy conflicting schedules, their 72-day marriage has come to an end. "She rushed into it too fast," a source close to Kardashian told People. "She's holding it together. It's insanely troubling and heartbreaking, but it's a decision she knew had to be made."

How do you know when to call it quits in a marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Has staying true to your vows become a struggle? Here are some signs that it may be over:

- 1. You're beyond annoyed: If everything about your spouse irritates you and just the sight or sound of him makes you want to leave a room, it's not a good sign. If you find that all attraction has been lost emotionally and physically, you have to consider that you're no longer in a healthy relationship.

2. You verbally assault each other: As husband and wife, it is your job to support each other, but it can be difficult when every conversation turns into a fight. If you're frequently being critical and attacking each other's self-esteem with the goal to make your spouse feel dejected, then you've clearly lost respect for one another.

3. You're miserable: If you're unhappy with your spouse, and you feel like your life has hit rock bottom, it's time to move on. Get rid of the negative energy that's dragging you down, and don't let yourself become a prisoner to your own marriage. Regaining your independence may be the key to finding happiness again.

What are some things that get in the way of love?

Cupid’s Advice:

Relationships can be a lot of work, and there tends to be obstacles nearly every couple has to overcome. Cupid has some ideas on how to work around these issues:

1. Time: Like most things in life, relationships require a lot of time in order to flourish. While it may be difficult to balance all the aspects of your life, try to take at least 15 minutes a day to show your partner that you care about him or her.

2. Distance: Particularly in new relationships, distance can cause some issues. If you’re not living together, try to make sure you communicate in some small way daily, even if it’s just a text that says “hi” – that way, you’ll stay on each others’ minds.

3. Harmony: Variety can add depth and health to any relationship, but balancing opposing viewpoints or interests can make things tough. Stay open-minded about what your partner likes, believes and wants, but make sure you also stay true to yourself. Make sure to communicate about conflicts when the need arises.

How do you find love in New York?

Cupid's Advice:

Every year, countless singles bravely leave their small town lives behind in search of love and success in the Big Apple. Unlike Kim Kardashian, however, most newcomers to New York City aren't armed with a high rise apartment or on V.I.P. guest lists. Even with the glitz and glam of the celebrity life, New York is by far the hardest place to find love, but the best place to be in love:

1. Never turn down an invitation: Living in a big metropolis like NYC can be tiring and overwhelming much of the time. Though you may feel like giving up, force yourself to get to even the smallest of events, such as your friend's housewarming party. Though everyone seems to fixate on high-end bars and four-star events for meeting their next lover, some of the biggest connections are made far more casually. Don't miss out!

2. Become self-sufficient: If you don't meet anyone right away, really get to know yourself. Though it has an incredibly high population, New York can be a very lonely city. Don't be afraid to be alone. Take this time to focus on hobbies or your career. Who knows? You could end up meeting your next partner that way.

3. Explore new places: Even in a city with countless things to do, it's very easy to get stuck in the same routine and going to the same places week after week. Explore a different part of the city for once, even if it means having to take an extra subway ride. You are never going to meet anyone new if you don't branch out.
