Holidays are a great time to be with the people that you love most, and for a lot of people that means being with their partner, but not everyone feels the same way. If you are debating if you should spend holidays with your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Share the intimate moments: Since there is no work or school on national holidays, there's nothing else for you to do besides enjoy the holiday and be with the people you love. Instead of running around like you would on a regular day, you can not only be with your partner, but be present with your partner. You can cherish those long lasting memories that you make on holidays together.

together. What are some benefits to missing your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Every couple needs space, some more than others. It really all depends on who the people are. Missing someone can actually be a good thing though. Cupid has some benefits to missing your other half:

1. Distance does make the heart grow fonder: When you miss someone, you get that warm feeling inside that makes you think about how much you love them. This can stir up some cute and/or sexy texts, phone calls, or video chats. Embrace the distance instead of completely hating it. And when you see each other again, it's on, let the in-person loving resume.

2. You'll have more to talk about: Don't get us wrong, when the right people are together, they never run out of things to discuss. However, when you're away from the other person, you obviously have more to tell. This is a good opportunity to also work on your story-telling skills!

You can also come back and bring something new to the table after you both go out and do things because technically you guys are “covering more ground.”

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to say the right things to your friend or family member who has been cheated on. You don't want to say anything that will upset them and you truly want to comfort them because it pains you that they are going through this. Here are some tips on how you can help in this occurrence:

1. Be more positive than negative: Try not to say things like "once a cheater, always a cheater" because who knows if the two will get back together. Instead of focusing on the bad, focus on the good. Remind your pal that they are so strong, you guys are going to get through this together, and you will support them no matter what.

What a celebration!

In celebrity baby news, Khloe

enjoyed a baby shower while also celebrating her partner's birthday. What are some ways to balance celebrations in your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrating two events in a day can create some very busy energy, but that doesn't make it any less fun! Cupid has some ideas on ways to maintain the balance between both family celebrations:

1. Plan ahead and thoroughly: One event takes time to plan, so imagine two. You don't want to stress yourself out. Ask for help planning if needed. There are many things to consider when planning, so make an agenda and get started when possible. When planning both events side by side, you are more likely to keep them balanced as well.

Related Link: Rachel McAdams Is Pregnant With Her First Child

2. Make the events equal in size: Of course this depends on what type of events you are coordinating, but if you want to create two balanced ones on the same day, without one event outshining the other, it could be a good idea to make them the same size. When thinking of size, you should consider guest lists, themes, decorations, amount of food, etc. Again, this depends on the type of events.

Related Link: Meghan Markle Gets Baptized at Chapel Royal at St. James Place Prior to Celebrity Wedding

3. Schedule properly: Time management is important. One event should be during the day and the other in the evening, ideally. Plan accordingly by scheduling the events at specific times for specific time periods, with enough room to change clothes if necessary and traveling. There should be a reasonable gap in between, so in order to consider this properly, the events should be on a somewhat tight schedule for the best, stress free results.

Celebrity Baby News: Surprise! Kylie Jenner Gives Birth to Baby Girl with Travis Scott

By Jessica Gomez

Congratulations to celebrity couple Kylie Jenner and Travis Scott on officially becoming parents to a new baby! In celebrity news, Jenner gave birth to a baby girl this past week, according to EOnline.com. At that time, Mom Kris Jenner and sister Kim Kardashian were seen at the hospital along with Travis Scott and Kylie's best friend Jordyn Woods. The celebrity baby has not yet been named. As the world knows, Jenner kept her pregnancy on the down low, making this news even more relevant. "I'm sorry for keeping you in the dark through all the assumptions. I understand you're used to me bringing you along on all my journeys," Kylie said via Instagram on Sunday. "My pregnancy was one I chose not to do in front of the world. I knew for myself I needed to prepare for this role of a lifetime in the most positive, stress free, and healthy way I knew how. There was no gotcha moment, no big paid reveal I had planned. I knew my baby would feel every stress and every emotion so I chose to do it this way for my little life and our happiness," she explained. "Pregnancy has been the most beautiful, empowering, and life-changing experience I've had in my entire life and I'm actually going to miss it. I appreciate my friends and especially my family for helping me make this special moment as private as we could. My beautiful and healthy baby girl arrived February 1st and I just couldn't wait to share this blessing. I've never felt love and happiness like this I could burst! Thank you for understanding."

Well, this celebrity baby news wasn't just a rumor! What are some reasons to keep your baby news to yourself for a while?

Cupid's Advice:

There are a few reasons that you may want to keep your pregnancy under wraps for a while, just like Kylie Jenner and many others. Cupid has some reasons as to why:

1. You have a stressful pregnancy: You just don't need nor want the stress. If you have a sensitive pregnancy where your health and the one of your baby depends on you taking it easy, then hiding your pregnancy could be an option for you. If we feel like outside factors can cause us stress during a critical time, then as mothers-to be we must cut out those factors. Sometimes people can become over bearing when it comes to receiving baby news – so if you're around those kind of peeps, you know what it is.

Related Link: Khloe Kardashian Reveals How She Hid Her Pregnancy & How She Told Tristan

2. You're superstitious and don't want to jinx it: This may not be logical to everyone. However, if it's logical to the mother-to be, then that's enough – it's her body and her baby. Sometimes certain people find reassurance and comfort in not telling people right away due to fear of a miscarriage or something going wrong. At the end of the day, as long as the baby news is delivered later rather than never, it should be enough.

Related Link: Kim Kardashian Is a 'Very Hands-On Mom' with New Celebrity Baby Chicago

3. Judgy peers: Whether these peers are at school or work, or are your neighbors, friends, or fam, sometimes they're just not the easiest people to deal with. At times, we may be surrounded by people who judge or gossip, and that can lead to you wanting to keep your pregnancy low-key. During pregnancy, drama should be avoided, so there's no shame in doing what you have to do.

These celebrity exes have nothing but kind words for one another. How do you keep things amicable with # your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Break up and make up! Moving on from an ex doesn't necessarily mean you never see or hear from them again, it is possible to eventually become friends:

1. Exit gracefully: When the break up comes, make sure that you go out as peacefully as possible. Creating extra drama or arguments will only make the post break up more stressful. The aftermath can be a time of coexistence and growth, be sure that you are not the one to hinder that.

2. Work together: Counseling can do nothing but help. Be a team even if things are not working. You can come to a resolution even if it means a separation, together. Seeking outside help is a good thing, but make sure to stick to professionals and keep the conversation between you and your ex open and honest.

Bruce Jenner Attends Ex-Wife Kris' Annual Christmas Eve Party

By Katie Gray

It's the most wonderful time of the year! On December 24th, former Olympian Bruce Jenner joined his daughters Kylie and Kendall at his ex-wife Kris Jenner's annual Christmas Eve party. The Jenner/Kardashian clan partied the night away, and they even had festive photobooth fun. According to UsMagazine.com, Kris Jenner said of their divorce, "You just have to be grown-ups. And say, 'We're better apart than we are together.' At the same time, we have children together, and we have memories and holidays and traditions. I don't want to give that up. I don't want him to take that away from me, and I don't want to take that away from him."

What are some ways to remain amicable with your ex around the holidays?

Cupid's Advice:

Remaining civil with an ex is always a challenge, but it becomes even more important when you have kids and are set on making the holidays a happy time. Cupid has some tips:

1. Negotiate: It's extremely important to remain amicable with your ex around the holidays if there are children involved. It's a special time for family to come together, and even if you're separated, you are still connected through your family. This means it's a good idea to learn how to enjoy the company of one another during holiday celebrations. You don't have to spend a ton of time with your ex, but you should at least tolerate being around them for the sake of everyone else involved. Plus, it's not good to be bitter and hold onto negativity. You will be much happier when you forgive and are at peace.

2. Set an example: Traditions are a crucial part of the festivities this time of the year. Whether it's making a gingerbread house, seeing the lights, attending midnight mass, decorating the Christmas tree, or visiting Santa, you should keep these traditions alive! Your kids want to be surrounded by you both, so don't make them choose and don't suffer by being alone. Put your differences aside.

It will not only make them feel better, but it will help you as well. This is the time of year when we are thankful for our blessings and are grateful for the relationships we have with loved ones. Look around and see how fortunate you are. There is so much to smile about in life!

Kendall Jenner Says Parent's Split 'Sucked'

By Amanda Boyer

According to USMagazine.com, Kendall Jenner opened up to Nightline's Juju Chang recently about how fame affected her during her parents' split this past year, and how she's learned to deal with the media. She stated how "it sucked" and how she tries to think of it as not the worst thing that could have happened in her life. Although the split has affected her, she still has two stable and close bonds with both her parents and says nothing really has changed outside of her Dad moving.

What are some ways to keep your split from negatively affecting your children?

Cupid's Advice:

A divorce is never easy to deal with, but making it easier on your kids should always be the goal. Cupid has some tips:

1. Feelings: Someone's feelings are always going to get hurt in this situation. However, if you do not sway your kids to thinking one way or the other about your partner, they will be able to form their own opinion with less emotional connections involved.

2. Messengers: Do not treat your kids as messengers between you and your partner. Not putting them in the middle is best.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Kris Jenner, Neil Patrick Harris and Rachel Bilson

By Shoshi

For today's celebrity couple predictions, we're looking at three very different but seemingly happy couples. One pair of new lovers is all wrapped up in each other despite receiving their fair share of speculation from the public; another duo is thriving in their marriage and family; and the last couple is celebrating the recent birth of their first child.

Kris Jenner and Corey Gamble: Raise your hand if you believe that this is a real relationship. From the moment I saw these two together, the word "staged" came into my psychic radar. In fact, the best way to summarize this relationship is "staging with benefits." Don't get me wrong: Jenner is an attractive woman and still has it going on. Of course, she could cougar it up better than anyone – I even expect that from her at this point! There just seems to be calculation around this so-called relationship. All we really know about Gamble so far is that he works with Justin Bieber's manager, Scooter Braun.

Do not be surprised if you find out that Gamble is about to drop an album or he wants to start his own management firm. Better yet, he could partner with Jenner's empire. Either way, he wins because he is not only getting the attention he wants but has a sugar mama to play with until this hot mess is done.

Neil Patrick Harris and David Burtka: I might be biased because I love the former How I Met Your Mother star and adore his relationship with Burtka. They seem to really love and respect each other, though I always wondered how Burtka felt about giving up his career – or shall I say changing his career – to accommodate Harris, who was more successful.

In case you didn't know, the couple got married in September and then moved to New York City with their two adorable twins. They are being open about the fact that Burtka was rather miserable in Los Angeles. Now in NYC, he's feeling like his happy self again.

These two are stronger than ever. Both will be able to have an identity, something Burtka struggled with in LA. Burtka will do a lot of theater, while Harris, of course, will host the Oscars. I also see that Harris will be on a television show that's based in NYC. Money is not an issue for them anymore, so they will be able to work or not work when they choose. Their family will remain a priority. The twins will flourish in NYC as well. All is moving in the right direction for the Harris-Burtka family!

Rachel Bilson and Hayden Christensen: These two actors just welcomed their daughter Briar Rose into the world. This little bundle of joy should turn out to be quite a cutie considering that both of her parents are lookers! But what is really going on with this couple? They're not married but have been together longer than many celebrity couples. They started dating in 2007, got engaged in 2008, broke up in 2010, and got back together only three months later. Now, they have a baby, which is a game changer.

I predict that Bilson and Christensen will get married and that we will be the last to know about it. They'll invite some family and close friends to brunch or a party, and then a minister will drop in to officiate their wedding. I can see Bilson casually mentioning on a talk show that she's married. Parenthood will change this couple for the better, making them stronger. The Hart of Dixie actress is always going to be the breadwinner between the two of them, thanks to her successful TV career and being a spokesperson for numerous products.
