How do you remain civil with someone who has broken your heart?

Cupid's Advice:

We have all been there – having to face the one person who tore out our heart. Here are some ways on how to remain civil with your past partners:

2. Smile and nod: Do not be bitter or angry towards them because that will show them that they have hurt you. Wish them well and mingle elsewhere, you do not need to have an entire conversation with them.

3. Don't react impulsively: Try to keep your cool and remember that you are better off without them. By remaining calm and collected, you are showing them that you are ready to move on.

Kristen Stewart Is Spotted in Rob Pattinson's Old T-Shirt

By Nicole Weintraub

What are some ways to show your ex-partner that you miss them?

Cupid's Advice:

Break ups are hard to endure, especially when you regret having them. Sometimes parting ways is beneficial for both parties but other times you still have feelings for them. Here are some tips on how to show your ex that you miss them:

1. Don't rebound: If you're constantly going out and about, looking for other guys then your former beau is going to get the message that you are ready to move on. Seeing you with members of the opposite sex will not make them jealous but ruin chances you have of getting back together.

2. Let them know: Be honest. If your former beau does not return the same feelings, then at least you can say that you tried and did your best. Just let them know that you still care about them.

3. Talk to them: Avoiding your ex-partner is going to do the exact opposite of what you are hoping for. By letting them know that you are still involved in their lives, they will see that they are still important to you.

How do you know if your partner is trustworthy?

Cupid's Advice:

Before you can fully put your trust in someone, it's important that they prove they deserve it. Don't just assume your partner is honest because they say they are. Cupid has some tips:

1. Open your eyes: A lot of the time we get too caught up with our feelings for someone that we miss the signs that could have warned us to be careful. When you're in love, you're typically blinded by some of the more negative attributes of your partner.

2. Their words match their actions: If you put your trust in someone that person needs to be reliable and genuine. This means that when your loved one says that he is going to do something, it gets done – no excuses. He or she respects you, your time and your feelings.

3. They have morals: A person who has integrity is probably going to be more dependable than someone with no moral values. Someone who holds responsibility and honesty to a high standard will also hold you to those standards and will be less inclined to let you down.

What are some ways to know your relationship is no longer salvageable?

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding on whether to save a relationship can prove tricky depending on the situation at hand. Here are some great ways to help you decide if you should try to make it work or call it quits:

1. Destruction of trust: A relationship cannot function without trust. If you no longer have faith in your partner's actions and choices, the relationship is not worth it.

2. Lost feelings: Some experiences in your relationship hurt so bad that you no longer feel the same way about the one you love. If your desire to remain in a relationship fades, it's time to walk away.

3. Lack of concern: Being indifferent about your relationship means that you are fed up with it. If you don't care about the success or failure of your relationship, you may want to end things.

Your partner's actions are something only they have control over, not you.

Find Out What Kristen Stewart's Body Language Reveals About Her Cheating Guilt

It seems that Kristen Stewart's shocking affair with her Snow White and the Huntsman director Rupert Sanders has marked the end of the actress' off-screen Twilight fairytale with longtime boyfriend Robert Pattinson. One body language expert even says the 22-year old showed signs of her infidelity months before the release of the photos on July 17th. What are some signs that your partner feels guilty for something they aren't sharing with you?

Cupid's Advice:

The feeling of guilt has a very negative impact on the course of a relationship. It has the potential to weaken it for days, months, or even years. Here are some signs to help show your significant other may be hiding something:

1. Avoidance: Avoiding your partner reduces the amount of guilt you would have to feel on a daily basis as opposed to being in their presence and constantly feeling guilty. Try to determine the underlying issue.

2. Unusually nice: Treating your significant other better than usual is a key sign of guilt. They figure if they're extremely nice, they can possibly make up for what they've done and even feel better about them self.

Reports Say Rob Pattinson Is Hiding Out at Reese Witherspoon's Ranch

Robert Pattinson has been MIA ever since news broke that his costar-turned-girlfriend, Kristen Stewart, cheated on him with Rupert Sanders, director of her flick Snow White and the Huntsman. Although Pattinson can run, he couldn't hide for long. Pattinson is now known to be at Reese Witherspoon's ranch. To help him escape the media, Witherspoon was kind enough to offer up her $7 million ranch in Ojai, Calif. However, we all know how Stewart feels after she made a very sincere and public apology.

What are some ways to stay away from friends and family after a cheating scandal?

Cupid's Advice:

A cheating scandal is hard to escape. Not only does it haunt your mind, but you also get hassled by the outside world. Here are some ways to handle all of the pressure:

1. Exercise: The best way to get out of your house and simultaneously clear your mind is to exercise. Go for a nice long jog, or lift some weights to get all of your anger out. Either way, exercise will help you feel healthy and in control of at least one aspect of your life, even if your relationship is struggling.

2. Take a weekend road trip by yourself: When your mind is racing, talking to friends and family can often only make you feel worse. Hitting the road and blasting your music will make you feel like nothing can touch you, letting you reflect on your situation during the alone time.

3. Retail therapy: A cheating catastrophe will make you feel terrible about yourself, whether you're the cheater or your partner was. When feeling down on the inside, a little physical change can be uplifting. Go shopping for some new clothes and spend some of your money on things that will make you happy.

Kristen Stewart Publicly Apologizes for Cheating on Robert Pattinson

Twilight's perfect celebrity couple, Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart, appear to be not so perfect any longer. According to People, although two weeks ago the two were spotted together and seemed happy at a Comic-Con, last week, Stewart's hidden relationship with Snow White and the Huntsman's director Rupert Sanders was revealed to the world. The actress released a public apology for the pain she has caused her boyfriend of three years on Wednesday. She said, "I'm deeply sorry for the hurt and embarrassment I've caused...This momentary indiscretion has jeopardized the most important thing in my life, the person I love and respect the most, Rob." Stewart apparently had hit it off almost immediately with 41-year old Sanders four years ago when they began filming Twilight. What are some ways to make a sincere apology to your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone makes mistakes now and then, so it's important to know how to say you're sorry. There are certain ways to do so that ensure your partner will know how much you truly care. Here are some ways to make a sincere apology to your loved one:s

1. Write them a letter: Some people are just not good at communicating in person. If that's the case with you and your beau, try writing a letter. A note can be polished and reworked so you can make sure you are putting in all your effort and saying all the right things.

2. Tell them how much they mean to you: The problem with some relationships is that one person feels unappreciated. Show them how much they mean to you by telling them. Even if you're sure your partner knows this inside, it's good to remind them every once in a while.

3. Show your romantic side: Romance doesn't necessarily have to be a candlelit dinner. Take this time to take your partner to that show they've been talking about or on a vacation they've been wanting. It will also allow some one-on-one time for you both to talk things out while rekindling the love.

Kristen Stewart Calls Robert Pattinson's Dog a Baby

With her upcoming roll in Snow White and the Huntsman, it looks like Kristen Stewart is like the Disney Princess in more ways than one. Not only does the actress have an 8-year-old cat named Max, but she also helps care for her boyfriend, Robert Pattinson's, dog Bear, according to People. When asked which animal loved her more, Stewart said, "They both love me in very different ways. Bear is literally a child." In reference to her cat Max, she stated, with an unpleasant face, "I mean, we live together. He's like my roommate." In 2010, the actress even said, "I'm going to be a crazy cat lady one day, I'm sure."

How can caring for a pet together bring you closer as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Caring for an animal with your beau can really bring you together as a couple. Here's how:

1. It enables you to watch your partner in action: How your mate treats an animal is a strong indication of how he will treat you and your potential future family. If he couldn't care less if the dog has enough food or water, or locks it up in a cage all day, chances are he will become a self-centered father and husband.

2. It is a symbol of commitment: Adopting an animal together is a serious thing. It shows that you are willing to form an emotional bond together revolving around another life. It shows that you are not intending on leaving anytime soon.

3. You are responsible for a life together: Caring for an animal the two of you both love is the first step to being accountable to someone other than each other. This can be the first step in deciding whether or not you want a family with this person.

Kissing On Screen: Do Celebrities Get Jealous?

By Che Blackwood

In the real world, most couples are uncomfortable with the idea of their partner locking lips with a co-worker. Since infidelity is one of the leading causes of divorce and emotional cheating is grounds for a split, it's hard to imagine anyone condoning an out-of-relationship make out session; that is, unless you're in Hollywood. Stars have contractual obligations to kiss their co-stars, and their partners have to be understanding in order for their relationship to work. To avoid jealous outbursts and maintain healthy and loving relationships, celebrity couples make sure to follow these simple tips:

1. They work together: Whether they met on or off screen, famous couples like Kristen Stewart & Rob Pattinson and Olivia Wilde & Jason Sudeikis have managed to share the silver screen with their real life partners. Getting paid to kiss your romantic interest is a sure fire way to keep the jealousy tamed.

2. They visit each other on set: While stars can often be away from their honeys for months at a time, the truly devoted grab every possible opportunity to see one another. Loving couples, like Shia LaBeouf and Karolyn Pho, know that absence can make the heart grow fonder ... at first. But too much time apart is a relationship killer.

Related: Four Ways to Make Your Long Distance Relationship Work

3. They're supportive: You don't have to understand your partner's career, but the couples that last know that you do have to be supportive. By rehearsing together and staying connected through the ups and downs of stardom, Tinsletown twosomes are able to keep their love strong, regardless of occupation.

4. They vacation together: Couples that play together, stay together. After long stints of work, lasting duos like Prince William and Kate Middleton know the best way to keep the fire burning is to get away from whatever was blowing it out.

5. They communicate: By far one of the most important parts of a relationship is communication (or the lack thereof), and it can make or break a relationship. Kris Humphries and Kim Kardashian prove that without a healthy dose of conversation, busy and stressed stars won't get far in their quest for love. By staying open about their feelings with one another, the rich and famous can get rid of jealousy altogether. In the end, when you're with the right person, no amount of on-screen kissing will break your bond apart.

Hollywood Relationships: Celebrities Who Found Romance On Set

By Megan McIntosh

Everyone remembers the moment they met the love of their life, whether it be at a park, a coffee shop or at the office. For many celebrity couples, the setting of the beginning of their love story was the work place. While some pairs couldn't keep the torch in their love life burning, the following Hollywood relationships turned "just a normal day at the office" into unforgettable romances that tabloids and fans constantly follow and discuss:

Hollywood Relationships On- And Off-Screen

1. Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie: This famous couple has to be one of the most unforgettable set of co-stars to have met on set (they were filming Mr. and Mrs. Smith). Pitt divorced his then-wife Jennifer Aniston in 2004 and later got together with Jolie. The duo has a total of six children together – three biological and three adopted.

Despite a relationship that spans nearly four decades, the couple has no plans to marry.

First The Movie, Then The Celebrity Wedding

3. Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner: This dynamic duo met while on the set of Daredevil in 2002 and celebrated their celebrity wedding in 2005. The Hollywood couple has maintained a relatively low-profile relationship, unlike Affleck's previous relationship with another Jennifer, Jennifer Lopez. Affleck and Garner have three children together.

difficulty in choosing Jacob or Edward on-screen, but Stewart is Team Edward all the way! Both Pattinson and Stewart will star in the last film of the series Breaking Dawn Part II later this year.

5. Jessica Alba and Cash Warren: These lovebirds had a slightly different matchmaking experience. Though not an actor himself, Warren met Alba while she was filming Fantastic Four in 2004, and the two were married in 2008. The couple have two daughters together.

Five 'Down-to-Earth' Celebrity Couples

By Melissa Caballero

It's hard to deny how infatuated our society is with the lives of our favorite celebrities and their relationships. We sit with our friends and gossip about each of them on a first name basis as though they're our best buds. We fawn over their fame, fortune and good looks. But it's the rich and famous stars who handle their popularity with a dose of humility that give us a real reason to love them. Having it all and making top headlines in the media is one thing, but the way they act off screen or outside of the studio is what really exemplifies who they are as people. So, let's put aside the celebs with an attitude and stuck up demeanor, and give credit to the ones who have their feet planted right here on Earth.

1. Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner. This pair has seen and done it all. But, starring in box-office hits and walking the red carpet doesn't seem to change them. They find happiness simply by being together, spending time with their two daughters (with a third one on the way) and laughing.

2. Kristen Stewart and Rob Pattinson. Despite all their vampire fame, this duo has yet to sink their teeth into the unfortunate attitudes that Hollywood is known to bring out.

Staying true to themselves and their values, Stewart and Pattinson just want to be treated like everyone else. Even after bringing in the big bucks, we see no change in what they choose to wear on the red carpet, and they always show genuine appreciation towards their fans.

3. John Krasinski and Emily Blunt. There's no denying that this tandem is adorable. It is so refreshing to see a pair who truly loves one another, without all the drama in Hollywood. This couple seems to fly under the radar and in fact, they seem a bit camera shy. Krasinski and Blunt didn't even feel the need to broadcast their nuptials; instead, they had a private, romantic ceremony in Italy. It isn't about the glitz and glamour for this normal, down-to-earth love struck team.

4. Hilary Duff and Mike Comrie. Simple but sweet, their relationship is on the way to an everlasting love. Staying in, cooking together and hanging out are on the top of their list of date night activities. As one of the youngest items in Tinsel Town, we embrace their normalcy and realistic outlook. With the struggles of being in a long distance relationship, these two leave the drama at the door and take advantage of the time they have together. We hope they enjoy this alone time, as a soon-to-be new addition will undoubtedly stir things up.

5. Ellen DeGeneres and Portia De Rossi. These two made their love official in 2008 and can be viewed as a great role model for other homosexual couples. They don't feel that there's anything to hide about their relationship, and it's very clear how they feel about each other. However, they never over do it and never let public criticism get the best of their relationship.

Celebrity Couples Who Shy Away From the Spotlight

By Whitney Baker

Some celebrity couples flaunt their relationship for the entire world to see, posing for the paparazzi as if they're at a photo shoot (hello, Kardashian sisters!). Other couples, regardless of whether they've just begun dating or have been married for years, choose to hide from the spotlight and stay mum about the details of their love. Below are five Tinseltown two-somes who are keeping their lips sealed when it comes to romance:

1. Kristen Stewart and Robert Pattinson: Although this cute duo has refused to officially confirm they're a couple, they did come close to doing so on Oprah in 2010. The two jokingly referred to Kristen Stewart's "baby" when asked if they were dating. Also, an Oprah insider insists that Pattinson and Stewart revealed their relationship to the queen of talk shows before the taping. More recently, Stewart casually mentioned her "English boyfriend" in an interview for British GQ. Even so, don't expect too much PDA from this couple – despite their intense love scenes in Twilight's latest installment.

In a recent interview with Self, Gellar calls her daughter Charlotte "my best friend" and says that she values time with her family above all else.

3. Gwyneth Paltrow and Chris Martin: The Oscar winner and Coldplay frontman have been married for over eight years, but have been tightlipped about their relationship and are rarely photographed together. That's not to say that they don't realize how lucky in love they remain. As Martin recently told CBS Sunday Morning, “From being a loser to going out with an Oscar winner? It’s a giant leap. Let’s face it: It’s like winning the lottery.”

Rob Pattinson Thinks Kristen Stewart Looks "Amazing" as a Bride

Aside from the Royal Wedding and Kim Kardashian's fairy tale nuptials, the Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn Part I is due to premiere in just a couple of days with one of the most anticipated "I do's" of the year. To the building anticipation to see Kristen Stewart make her way down the aisle, Rob Pattinson had this to say: "It's a white dress," he joked. "But it's beautiful, it's an incredible dress. She looks amazing." Not only did Pattinson enjoy seeing his on-and-off-screen girlfriend all glammed up in her wedding dress, but he also gained a new appreciation for real-life nuptials, according to People. As the on-screen groom, he realized that his role in the wedding was minuscule compared to Stewart's. "She had to deal with all the nerves, all the heavy lifting in the scene," said Pattinson. "You suddenly realize that the role of a man, the role of a groom in a wedding, is that of a prop."

What are three ways that a man can best contribute to the planning of his wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Weddings can be stressful and exciting at the same time. Don't let your man miss out on all the hard work or the fun. Here are some ways to have him contribute:

1. Taste tester: Men love any excuse to eat, so take them along to taste all the possible flavors for your wedding cake and dinner meal. Along with the joy of sitting next to his bride-to-be, a satisfied belly can only add to the happiness. Also, if alcohol is being served at the reception, make sure his favorites are on the menu.

2. Let him manage the budget: If he has good math skills, let him handle the money side of things. This way he will feel in charge, while you still have the opportunity to pick the theme and create the wedding of your dreams ... without going broke.

3. Help make the lists: There are two important lists that contribute to a wedding's success: the invitation list and the DJ's playlist. Sit down and write the them together. It'll be a good way to get even more excited about the big day together.

On November 18th, Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn Part 1 will bring Jacob (Taylor Lautner) and Edward (Robert Pattinson) fans together for a drama packed finale. On top of that, Bella becomes pregnant with a half human half vampire baby that poses threats to both the wolf pack and Cullen vampire family. Get excited!

How do you know when it's time to say "yes" to a marriage proposal?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be tough to really know when you're ready to marry someone you've been dating. The step between partners and spouses is a big one. Cupid has some things to consider:

1. Are you in love?: If you're truly in love with your partner, it may be time to make it official. If you have doubts, it's probably best to wait it out a while.

2. Why not?: If you're not getting married because of a reason like financial issues, chances are you're not ready. Go with both your gut and your heart.

3. It's just a ring: Saying "yes" to a proposal doesn't mean you'll be signing a wedding certificate the next day. If the love is there, say "yes" and continue working on your relationship. If you change your mind, call the wedding off. It's not preferable, but at least the option is there.

What are some ways to get out and meet potential partners?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all of us can land a career as an actor, so us "normal" folk have to use other methods. Cupid has some advice:

1. Join a class: Enroll in a class that appeals mainly to the opposite sex. For instance, take a cooking class if you're a guy or boxing lessons if you're a woman.

2. Online dating: They might not be for everyone, but you'll never know unless you try it. You might even end up finding The One on a dating site.

3. Socialize: Attend parties or join an organization. Going out in the world and communicating is the best way to find a partner.

Rumor: Rob Pattinson Is 'Desperate for Affection' From Kristen Stewart

The forbidden love story within the Twilight Saga has become a phenomenon, as audiences watch mortal Bella Swan (Kristen Stewart) fall deeply and helplessly in love with vampire Edward Cullen (Robert Pattinson). There seems to be no limit to the dangers Bella will put herself in as she pursues her relationship with Edward, and her biggest fear is having to live without him. The on-set romance has flourished into a two-and-a-half-year real-life relationship, but when it comes to reality, the movie stars' roles have reversed. Insiders told UsMagazine.com that Pattinson is "desperate for affection" from Stewart. The actor, 25, is eager to settle down, but Stewart, 21, isn't quite ready for him to put a ring on it. "He's always worried about her leaving him. She will blow him off, and it makes him crazy," said the source.

What do you do if your partner doesn't show enough affection?

Cupid's Advice:

Although affection cannot be directly taught, if you're partner was raised in a family that rarely showed affection, then it's up to you to show them how it's done. Here are some tips:

1. Create rituals: If your partner has a hard time expressing their feelings for you, put little signs of affection into your daily routine. Kiss each other hello and goodbye. Whenever you see one another or hang up the phone, say "I love you." Also, make sure to call each other every day when you both have a break in your schedule.

2. Be respectful: Not everyone is into PDA, so you have to be respectful of your partner's comfort level. Communicate with each other about what you like and don't like, and then you'll have a better understanding of what to expect. Just because you can't show affection one way doesn't mean there's not a better alternative.

3. Take the lead: Maybe your partner is afraid to be affectionate because they lack confidence. Next time you're walking down the street, take their hand first, kiss them in a public place (keep it classy), or spontaneously tell them you love them. Show your partner that you're comfortable displaying how much you like them, and hopefully they return the feeling.

'Twilight' Star Kristen Stewart Talks Love and Relationships

Actress Kristen Stewart has had a lot of experience with love, playing half of one of the most tumultuous on-screen relationships in the movie saga, Twilight, and being in love with her co-star, Robert Pattinson. UsMagazine.com reports that her advice on relationships was pretty simple. "Don't be an a-hole. Don't be mean. Don't take s-t. Don't settle," she said. The star continued on to say, "Good relationship advice for me tends to being honest and knowing yourself." Although Stewart is very into all things Twilight, she reveals her boyfriend does not have the same appreciation. "Me and Taylor [Lautner] are actual Twilight fans, so we can sit there and be so totally into it! Whereas I sit there with Rob...He likes it, but he has just such a different energy."

How do you know when you're settling for a mediocre relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When settling in a relationship, your mind may be saying, "yes," but your heart is definitely saying, "no". Be sure to take notice of the signs that you're not happy in your relationship:

- 1. No conversation: Communication is key in every relationship. If you and your partner's conversations are rare, take this as a warning that maybe you aren't clicking like you should be.
- 2. People take notice: If others can see the tension and awkwardness in your relationship, then you probably should take some time to analyze your connection.
- 3. No feelings: If you feel nothing for your significant other when you kiss, touch or even look at them, you're most likely settling. It's probably best to move on.

5 Celebrity Couples That Are Playing It Safe In The Sun

By Melissa Tierney

Whether it's running through Central Park or hitting the beach, celebrities everywhere are embracing the summertime and loving their naturally sun-kissed or porcelain skin. But despite the fact that it's now August the cast of Jersey Shore is getting their "GTL" on, these five celebrity couples are determined to love the skin they are in without fake and baking at a tanning salon. If you think you're pale and were considering getting a faux glow, think again! Take a look at these five celebrity couples, because they're sure to make you feel comfortable and confident in the skin you're in!

1. Kristen Stewart and Robert Pattinson: Having pale skin isn't just perfectly acceptable in Stephanie Meyer's Twilight world, but in Hollywood as well. Stars like these vamped up hotties are embracing the sun, but in a healthy way. While traveling the world to promote their upcoming movie, Breaking Dawn Part I, Stewart and Pattinson have kept to their porcelain roots even though the bronze trend is becoming a huge sensation.

2. Natalie Portman and Benjamin Millepied: This adorable couple has that new parents glow after welcoming their baby boy into the world this month. Portman, who is known for her light skin, looks ravishing everywhere she goes without having that orange tint that so many celebrities are after this season. Maybe it's time for us to take a tip from Portman and realize a natural glow is much better than a fake one. Fiance and baby daddy, Benjamin Millepied, seems to agree, as he's adored Portman ever since they met on the set of their film, Black Swan.

3. Nicole Kidman and Keith Urban: It looks like this couple knows just how to play it safe in the sun! The two Aussie's are no strangers to the sun, but when they hit the clear waters and beaches of Sydney, like they did for their 2006 wedding ceremony in North Sydney, they are careful to put on some SPF and cute shades. What better way can these two love birds embrace their culture, than in a conscious and healthy way?

4. Dita Von Teese and Louis-Marie de Castelbajac: The sexy pin up girl and French aristocrat have caused quite a stir since they started dating in 2010, but one thing these two don't have to worry about is damage from the sun's harmful rays. Being the ex of vampire-esque Marilyn Manson may have rubbed off on Von Teese, and she'd rather be fair-skinned than brown, which we love. Who knows – maybe this is the season to give pale skin a shot.

5. Cate Blanchett and Andrew Upton: The Hollywood starlet is certainly gorgeous and breathtaking, and one of her claims to fame is her porcelain-like complexion. While having healthy skin is most certainly in, knowing how to carry it makes all the difference. Blanchett's clear complexion makes her a stand out on the red carpet, and husband Andrew Upton definitely seems to approve.

What are the benefits of a double date?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes a double date has more going for it than a one-on-one outing. Cupid has some ideas as to why that may be:

- 1. They're less intimidating: Double dates takes the pressure off. They reduce the pressure to be entertaining and interesting, because there's always another couple to pick up the slack. No awkward silences!
- 2. They're fun: Sometimes it great to go out with a group of people and forget you're even on a date. Dates are a way to get to know one another, after all, and seeing how your potential significant other acts in a group is a big part of who he or she is as a person.
- 3. They help form friendships: Going on a double date helps lay down the foundation for future friendships. One-on-one dates are a good time in their own way, but it's important to have friends as a couple as well.
