

Celebrity News: Kristin Cavallari & Jay Cutler Reunite to Celebrate Halloween With Their Kids

By Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler celebrated Halloween together with their kids despite being in the midst of a divorce. According to EOnline.com, Cavallari shared an Instagram post showcasing the celebrity exes' costumes, along with those of their three children. The couple first announced their divorce in April of this year after ten years of marriage, and Cavallari has been rumored to be casually dating comedian Jeff Dye.

In celebrity news, these exes took the high road and celebrated Halloween together with their kids. Why should you come together as a family for holidays if you're not together as a couple anymore?

Cupid's Advice:

Holidays can be challenging for separated families, especially when both parents want to be present. Even though it may be difficult to come together for a holiday with your ex, it may be worth it. If you are looking for some reasons to come together as a family for the holidays, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Create new memories: Holidays are the perfect occasion for creating memories with your children. It is important not to skip out on these types of memories just because you are no longer with your partner. Looking back, both you and your children will be happy you chose to spend these days together as a family despite any differences.

2. Demonstrate healthy relationships: Spending the holidays together despite no longer being together is a great way to demonstrate healthy relationships to your children. They will learn that even if two people have a differing opinion on something, it is still possible to compromise and communicate effectively. They will also learn how to set realistic expectations and boundaries in their future relationships.

3. Relieve family stress: Whether people are showing it or not, the holidays can be stressful for everyone involved in a separated family. While you may be worrying about not being able to see your children on a specific holiday, they may be facing the same fear. By making an effort to all be in the same house, you'll be relieving stress for everyone involved.

Celebrity Couple News: Jeff Dye Appears to Reference New Romance With Kristin Cavallari in Funny Post

By Nicole Maher

In the latest celebrity news, Jeff Dye may have just referenced a new romance forming with Kristin Cavallari. According to UsMazagine.com, Dye posted a mirror selfie to his Instagram account captioned, "Some women like hot guys, some like funny guys. Don't be salty," which Cavallari liked. While the celebrity couple has not made their relationship official, they were spotted kissing during a date in Chicago this October. Cavallari has expressed not wanting a serious relationship following her recent split from husband Jay Cutler.

In celebrity couple news, Jeff Dye hasn't officially confirmed his relationship with Kristin Cavallari, but he seemingly referenced it in a recent Instagram post. What are some reasons to keep your relationship under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because you see your friends and family releasing details about their relationship does not mean you are obligated to do the same thing. If you are looking for some reasons to keep your relationship under wraps at first, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You're just starting out: When you are just beginning a new relationship and aren't sure where it's going, you may wish to keep the details to yourself. There is no shame in waiting a few weeks or months before sharing your relationship with others, especially if you are waiting to see if you're going to be with this person long-term.

Celebrity Break-Up: Kristin Cavallari Says She Thought About Divorce for Two Years Before Filing

By Carly Silva

In the latest celebrity news, Kristin Cavallari admitted that she thought about divorcing Jay Cutler every day for two years before actually filing. The celebrity exes were married for seven years, and have three children together. According to UsMagazine.com, Cavallari was open about how she knew it was time to part ways.

In celebrity break-up news, Kristin Cavallari definitely didn't take the idea of divorce lightly, and thought about it for two years before filing. How do you know your relationship is over and not saveable?

Cupid's Advice:

Ending a relationship can be an extremely difficult decision, especially if you're not totally sure. If you're wondering how to tell if your relationship is over and not savable, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. If you've tried everything: If you and your partner have ongoing issues that you have tried to resolve but just can't, then it may be time to end the relationship. If you've tried interventions, therapy, and still keep running into the same problems, then it might not be possible to salvage the relationship anymore.

Celebrity Break-Up News: Kristin Cavallari's Friends Saw 'Shady' Side to Jay Cutler Pre-Split

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Very Cavallari star Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler have filed for divorce. Fans of the celebrity couple may be surprised to hear of this split, but those closest to the reality TV star weren't always Cutler's biggest fan. According to UsMagazine.com, Cutler "would be mean to [Cavallari], embarrass her, make her feel bad, or storm off." Despite this messy situation, these celebrity exes "have nothing but love and respect for one another," according to an Instagram post.

In this celebrity break-up news, Kristin Cavallari's friends saw the writing on the wall before her split from Jay Cutler. What do you do if your friends are voicing warnings about your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

In a perfect world, your friends would all adore your significant other as much as you do. Unfortunately, there are many times when your friends might not see eye to eye with your new partner. If you're not sure how to handle a friend's worries about your new relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Think about your friendship: Consider if you have a healthy relationship with your friend. Are they one of your closest friends? Do you trust their judgment? Unfortunately, not all your friendships are perfect, but you'll be able to tell if your friend has your best intentions at heart.

Celebrity Break-Up: Kristin Cavallari & Jay Cutler Reach Temporary Child Custody Agreement

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler's divorce grows more complicated by the day. The pair announced their split last week after being together for over a decade. According to EOnline.com, Cavallari was blindsided by the divorce filings even though the pair have reportedly been having issues in recent months. They have now reached a temporary custody agreement which allows them both time with their three children. We hope these two can work it out and go their separate ways!

In celebrity break-up news, Kristin and Jay have at least agreed temporarily on how to take care of their children amid their split. What are some ways to compromise when it comes to your kids in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Once you become a parent, having to put your children's needs in front of your own is a must. If you're looking for ways to do that while maintaining a healthy relationship, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Set up a plan: In order to keep your relationship strong while trying to parent, it's important that you are always communicating. Having open and honest lines of communication with each other will allow you to work as a team. Set up a plan to establish what is happening for the weeks or months ahead. By doing this you'll be able to see what kinds of scheduling conflicts or personal events are taking place and who needs to cover what. Organization is key! Not only will this eliminate stress, but you will feel more connected to your family unit.

2. Think of your partner: If there's something coming up that your partner has really been looking forward to, be sure you are listening to them and acknowledging their desires. Make a compromise and offer to take care of the kids so they are able to do their thing. In the future, your partner will definitely offer to do the same. Even if it means that you're missing something you may have wanted, it's important to think of your relationship.

3. Respect their decisions: Before having children, think about some of the awesome experiences you'd like to check off your bucket list with your partner. Once children enter your life you'll be compromising a lot of time and money for years to come. Take this into consideration when family planning and try enjoying yourself for a little longer! Once you welcome children into your lives, make a plan with your partner for a vacation a few years ahead. Setting up a timeline will give you both something wonderful to look forward to with your kids.

Celebrity Parenting: Kristin Cavallari Says Jay Cutler Is the 'Stricter Parent'

By Megan McIntosh

Though no one would argue that celebrity parents Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler aren't a team, they do have slightly different parenting styles. According to UsMagazine.com, Cavallari is a more laid-back parent. Though she's insistent that she doesn't let the kids run wild, she admits, "I'm more along the lines of let kids be kids and make a mess..." Husband Jay Cutler, on the other hand, likes to be a little stricter than his wife and can do without the mess.

Even celebrity parents have to discipline their children. What are some tips to keep in mind for disciplining your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Disciplining your kids is never a fun time, but it's a necessary evil when it comes to helping your kids grow up the right way. Cupid has some tips:

1. Keep it positive: Don't focus on what they're doing wrong. Keep the focus on the positives. If they washed their face and didn't brush their teeth, emphasize how good it was that they washed their face. Give them a high five or words of affirmation. They will associate good behavior with good feelings.

2. Give them individual attention: Rather than waiting for your child to misbehave, give them attention. This proactive approach, gives positive attention to the child so that they strive to emulate positive behavior that they see mommy or daddy do.

3. Have clear rules with tangible punishments: There should be a clear direction or even written paper that dictates to your child what rules they are expected to follow. If they know that not doing homework means no dessert, they are not punished after the fact. Your kids already know what will happen if they don't do their homework. But make sure you're consistent with what you expect from your child.

Celebrity News: Find Out Why Kristin Cavallari Keeps Finances Separate from Jay Cutler

By Courtney Shapiro

In celebrity news, Kristin Cavallari shared that she has a separate bank account from her husband Jay Cutler. She shares relationship advice saying that women should learn to be independent with their finances, and be with their partner because they love them, not because they need to be supported. According to UsMagazine.com, Cavallari said, "I have my own bank account ... I just think it's important for the woman to have a little independence."

In celebrity news, Kristin Cavallari keeps her own bank account to retain some independence. What are some reasons keeping separate finances from your significant other is a good idea?

Cupid's Advice:

How is having separate finances from your significant other a good idea? Cupid has some thoughts:

1. You want to buy things with the money you make: You should be able to make your own purchases with the money you earned yourself. You don't have to share every single small purchase you make with your partner.

Celebrity Couple News: Kristin Cavallari Says Her Marriage to Jay Cutler 'Isn't Perfect'

By Marissa Donovan

Kristin Cavallari understands the hardships that come with marriage. The Laguna Beach alum is the mother of three children, and the wife to an NFL quarterback. According to UsMagazine.com, Jay Cutler has recently left his position for the Chicago Bears to pursue NFL commentating. Their family has relocated to Nashville for his new job. It has been a difficult adjustment for the celebrity parents, but the celebrity couple manages to work out their problems through the techniques they have learned in couples therapy.

This celebrity couple doesn't claim to have it all figured out! What are some ways looking at your relationship realistically can help?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it's hard to communicate your problems as a couple with your partner. Here are some tips for keeping your relationship on the same page:

1. Couples therapy: Like Cavallari and Cutler, try couples therapy and figure out your problems. A therapist can hear what each of your problems are in the relationship in an unbiased way and can help you both find a solution for communicating those problems to each other.

Celebrity News: Find Out What Kristin Cavallari's First Impression of Jay Cutler Was

By Kayla Garritano

A little Googling never hurt anybody. Kristin Cavallari revealed that she searched the web and looked up some pictures before meeting her husband Jay Cutler back in 2010. According to UsMagazine.com, the Chicago Bears football player originally reached out to her publicist to set up a date in 2009. At first she denied, but then the following year, when she was in Chicago, her rep got Cavallari passes to meet Cutler after one of his games. "My cousin was a huge Bears fan, and he was like, 'You have to meet him.' I didn't think anything was going to come of it for me. I thought I was going to make my cousin's life," she said. "I had Googled pictures of him, and I was like, 'Eh, you know, whatever.' He walked in, and I was like, 'Whoa, he's so much cuter in person.' He's almost six-four, big, manly." They've been a celebrity couple ever since and have three kids together!

This celebrity news has us wondering about first impressions. What are some ways to make a good impression on your crush?

Cupid's Advice:

Impressing your crush isn't an easy task, especially if you get all nervous talking to them! Just take a deep breath, because Cupid is here to help you make a good first impression on your crush with this dating advice:

1. Be yourself: What's the point of impressing your crush if you're not being true to who you are? Your crush should like you for who you are, not someone you're pretending to be. Just do your thing, let your crush get to know the real you, and once they do, they'll get to see the amazing person you are!

Celebrity News: Kristin Cavallari Reveals Her Third Wedding Anniversary Celebration With Jay Cutler

By Cortney Moore

Time sure does fly by! It's only been three years since former

Laguna Beach and The Hills reality TV star, Kristin Cavallari, tied the knot with Chicago Bears quarterback Jay Cutler in a celebrity wedding! In a celebrity interview with The Knot, Cavallari opened up about her third wedding anniversary with the NFL player. “We went to dinner at one of our favorite spots in Chicago called Blackbird, we had a four-course meal and a bottle of wine. I was a happy girl,” Cavallari said. Evidence of the joyous occasion was shown on Instagram, where Cavallari posted a photo of herself blowing a kiss at Cutler, captioned, “Happy anniversary to my man!”

This happy celebrity news has us realizing that reality TV star Kristin Cavallari and Chicago Bears quarterback Jay Cutler know how to make a long-lasting relationship work. Cupid discusses below.

A Broken Engagement

Prior to the 2013 wedding between Cavallari and Cutler, the celebrity couple faced their own set of challenges. The couple got engaged in April 2011, but broke it off three months later. However, their split didn’t last long seeing as they were back together in December of that year. Cavallari detailed the reasons for their split in her book Balancing in Heels, stating, “I always go after what I want in life, with men or otherwise, and I never settle,” she went on to add, “If something doesn’t feel right, I act on it. It’s just who I’ve always been.” Though being apart from the love of her life was difficult, Cavallari was adamant that things “needed to change,” and that Cutler would only take her seriously if she ended the relationship. After months of couple's therapy, which she states, "opened up our eyes to the other person's perspective," Cavallari and Cutler were able to get right back on track.

A Baby On the Way

A month following their reunion, Cavallari and Cutler announced that they were expecting their first child! Cavallari went on to give birth to their son, Camden Jack, in August 2012. In a statement to People, Cavallari said, "We definitely weren't ready to get married then and so we put everything on hold and we ended up having the baby before." Despite being a busy mother of one at the time, the celebrity couple made their union official on June 7, 2013 and were wed in Nashville, where they had a "not huge" and intimate ceremony the following day. Cavallari and Cutler went on to celebrate their honeymoon in Italy and traveled along the world-famous Amalfi Coast. According to The Knot, Cavallari's favorite honeymoon memory took place in Tuscany, "we went for a hot air balloon ride early one morning," Cavallari said, "and it was the most beautiful and exhilarating experience I've ever had."

Celebrity Baby News: Bristol Palin Reveals Baby Name is Same as Kristin Cavallari's New Daughter

By Kyanah Murphy

Celebrities put a lot of thought into naming their celebrity babies, but sometimes there are still repeats! According to UsMagazine.com, the latest celebrity baby news is at that Bristol Palin is naming her daughter Sailor, which also happens to be the name of Kristin Cavallari's celebrity baby, only spelled Saylor. In fact, it was mere hours after Cavallari revealed her celebrity baby's name that Palin revealed hers. Was it mere coincidence or the sign of a copy cat?

These celebrity babies are going to have something in common! What are some ways to be sure your baby's name is unique?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrities love to name their celebrity babies odd names like

Apple, Bandit, Blue Ivy, and now Saylor/Sailor (and these are only a couple of examples!). Of course celebrities aren't the only ones who want to make sure their babies have unique names; you might want a unique name for your child, too. Cupid has some tips:

1. Choose a unique spelling: Look at the name 'Kyanah' – it's a different spelling of 'Kiana'. There's also 'Saylor' as opposed to 'Sailor', 'Geoff' instead of Jeff ... honestly, the list is endless. If you want your baby to have a unique twist on a name, consider alternative phonetic spelling.

2. Pick a name that hasn't been used in awhile: If you're thinking of naming your future daughter 'Katniss', don't do it. Every new mother and their mothers are going to be naming their girls 'Katniss' to give their kid an edgy and unique name. Because it's a practice to name your child after a cool character, if one is incredibly popular like 'Katniss', your baby's name won't be unique at all. Try choosing a name that hasn't been done in awhile.

3. Do some research: If you do your homework, it's entirely possible to find a name that is unique and captures the style you want associated with your child's name. 'Caelum' (Kay-lum) is from the Latin meaning of 'sky' and 'Orion' is a constellation (much like 'Sirius'). Or, you can be completely out there and go the celebrity and video game route and name your child something completely different, like Lightning.

Celebrity Vacations: Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler Get Cozy in Pool Pics

By Jessica DeRubbo

Since the Chicago Bears didn't make the NFL playoffs, it looks like quarterback Jay Cutler is using his free time to indulge in some fun in the sun with The Hills alum and wife Kristin Cavallari, according to UsMagazine.com. Celebrity vacations are almost always enviable, and this one is no exception. Though we aren't sure where the attractive duo are indulging in their celebrity getaway, we do know it involves warmth and a beach. Recently, Cutler has been feeling the heat after a less than stellar performance this season for the Chicago Bears. He no doubt needs some veg time to regroup!

Celebrity vacations are usually extravagant, and we don't all have that kind of money to spend. What are three budget-friendly beach vacations you can take with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

The latest celebrity gossip surrounding Jay Cutler and Kristin Cavallari makes us dream of some warmth and relaxation, especially in January. That being said, money can sometimes be an issue. Cupid has some cost-friendly beach vacations to consider:

1. Florida Panhandle: Instead of heading to Miami Beach, consider a vacation in the Florida Panhandle. Because the area has been somewhat depressed since the 2010 BP oil spill, it's now rebounding and the sandy beaches are back to being gorgeous. Check out Panama City, Pensacola, South Walton or other popular area beaches.

Kristin Cavallari Says Jay Cutler Is a Sexy Dad

By Ann Luther

Kristin Cavallari is a mommy again to her second son, Jax. From the day Cavallari and husband, Jay Cutler, brought their new baby home, Cavallari says that Cutler has been “incredibly hands-on.” Jax, born in May, is now 3-months-old and just starting to smile. Their first son, Camden Jack, is 2-years-old. Cavallari said, “Camden takes a nap at one o’clock, so when Camden’s going down, Jax is just waking up to eat and play, so there’s literally no time.” However, Cavallari is not alone in juggling her two boys. She spoke of her hubby to UsMagazine.com saying, “it’s so sweet seeing him with Camden and Jax, and there’s nothing sexier than seeing your husband as a great dad. I couldn’t ask for a better partner in this situation.” Best of luck to the burgeoning family!

What are some ways to support your partner in parenthood?

Cupid’s Advice:

1. Be loose with your schedule: You never know when your partner is going to need a break. Be willing to take this diaper change even if it's not "your turn." A few extra moments of peace go a long way, especially with new parents.

By April Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, former Hills star Kristin Cavallari showed off her second baby bump via Instagram Jan. 18. “Gym selfie...baby bump getting big!” she captioned the photo. Cavallari married Jay Cutler last June. The couple are already parents to son Camden, 17 months.

How do you prepare for a new addition to your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Congratulations on your growing baby bump! Family is important. Adding to something that already means so much to you is a special thing. You're ready to include a new life in your already amazing family, but how do you get them to feel the same way? Cupid is here to help:

1. Communicate with your child/children: One of the first things you should do when you find out you're expecting another baby is share the news with the child/children you already have. If they're old enough to understand what it means to be a big sister or brother, just let them know when you let the rest of your family know. If they're too young to full grasp the meaning, keep reassuring your love for them and get them excited about the new baby. Let them help pick out toys, clothing, etc. When the newborn finally does arrive, allow them to help out with small things involving their new younger sibling as well.

2. Budget: How much money you're spending on your family now versus how much you'll have to spend when the baby comes will differ greatly. Be prepared for a new budget. A new child also comes with new responsibilities and a bigger family means higher expenses.

3. Look through old baby items: Before you go out and buy unnecessary baby items, look through some of the things you already have from your previous pregnancies. Depending on the sex of your newborn, any of the old clothing you have will do just fine until your child grows out of it. You can choose to update other items such as a crib, stroller and toys, but if you'd rather save your money for the things you can't reuse (diapers), your loved ones and your newborn baby won't hold it against you.

Sizzle to Fizzle: Brody Jenner and Bryana Holly

By April Littleton

A source confirmed to UsMagazine.com that the Keeping Up with the Kardashians star has broken up with his model girlfriend of four months, Bryana Holly. “It just fizzled out,” the insider said about the break up. The former flames went public with their relationship July 6 in Malibu, California. Prior to sizzling up with Holly, Brody Jenner was linked to Avril Lavigne, Lauren Conrad and Kristin Cavallari, who just announced her second pregnancy with husband Jay Cutler.

How do you know when to call it quits on a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up with someone you once cared for is never an easy thing to do. How do you know if you're making the right decision? Are the problems you and your companion have something that can be fixed? Cupid is here to help:

1. Lack of communication: There's no use in trying to save a dying relationship when you and your partner stop talking to each other completely. Communication is key to any sizzling relationship. If you can't fully express the way you feel and the problems you and your significant other seem to be having are just getting worse, it may be time to call it quits.

2. Wondering eyes: The heat in your relationship may not be as intense as it used to be if you find yourself interested in another person. The same goes for your honey. You and your boyfriend/girlfriend should only have eyes for each other. Talk to your partner about the status of your relationship if someone else is making you smile and weak in the knees.

3. The love is gone: Don't be with someone you no longer have feelings for. If you've fallen out of love and it's obvious that your girlfriend/boyfriend doesn't feel the same way about you anymore, let each other go. Continuing on with a relationship the both of you don't want to be in anymore will only make matters fizzle out more. You never know, the two of you might just be better off as friends.

Kristin Cavallari Confirms Second Pregnancy with Jay Cutler

By Gabby Robles

Exciting news! According to UsMagazine.com, Kristin Cavallari and her husband Jay Cutler have confirmed that they are expecting their second child. The couple already welcomed son Camden Jack in 2012. In September, Cavallari spilled that she would “love to have a little girl...But if I had another boy, that would be great, too.” So cute!

How do you prepare for baby #2 differently than #1?

Cupid's Advice:

You might think you're a professional after having Baby #1, but there's some more tricks you have to learn before you know everything! Are you expecting to share your world with another bundle of joy? Cupid has some advice:

1. Get more stuff: It might seem like you have everything because of your first baby, but you don't. You could always use new and more stuff – especially if your babies are close in age. Reusing clothes is okay, but things such as car seats only last six years, so you might want to upgrade.

2. Make sure Baby #1 knows what's going on: Even if your first child is at the stage of not talking, they still need to be explained to what is going on. When you get Baby #1 on board, they'll be wary at first. You must prepare them for the changes that are about to ensue, but also make them feel secure and safe.

3. Share some loving with your man: Once Baby #2 comes you're both about to be SUPER busy. Take this time to have some date nights and use as much alone time as you can get! So hire that babysitter and make a reservation because now's the time for some romance!

Kristin Cavallari Says She's Trying for a Second Child

By Kerri Sheehan

Kristin Cavallari is already looking to give her 14-month-old son Camden a sibling! She revealed this weekend that her and her Chicago Bears quarterback hubby Jay Cutler, are doing all of the necessary things to get pregnant. Cavallari dished to UsMagazine.com back in September 2013, saying, "I would love to have a little girl, but if I had another boy, that would be great too."

What are some factors to consider when you're deciding whether to have a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a child is a big decision. Here are some things to consider:

- 1. Finances: Having children costs money. Make sure you're financially stable before you decide to add an addition to your family.
- 2. Your significant other: Before making the decision to conceive you have to make sure you and your partner are on the same page. You're both in this together so you both have to be gung-ho about the idea.

3. Other children: If you decide to have another child then you have to prepare your other kids for the new family member. Make sure they know what you having another child means so they're not blindsided.

Kristin Cavallari Says Baby Before Marriage 'Worked for Us'

By April Littleton

According to People, the former The Hills star is perfectly happy with the way her life turned out. Cavallari found out she was pregnant right after she announced her re-engagement to Jay Cutler. “We definitely weren’t ready to get married then and so we put everything on hold and we ended up having the baby before. I think that when we did get married, we were absolutely ready,” she said. The happily married couple are now parents to son Camden Jack, 13 months and tied the knot in June.

How do you decide when you’re ready for children?

Cupid’s Advice:

Parenthood is one of life’s greatest joys, but you have to be 100 percent ready for it. Are you and your partner thinking about expanding your family? Cupid has some tips:

1. In a good place: If you and your significant other can provide a stable living environment and you can afford to add another person into the mix, then go for it! Babies are expensive. Wait a little while longer if you're not sure if you're financially ready to keep up with the demands of a newborn. Make sure things are going well between you and your honey as well. You don't want to bring an innocent child into this world when there's obvious tension or unresolved problems between the two of you.

2. Talk it out: The only sure way of knowing if you're ready to have children or not is by talking it over with your companion. It takes two people to make a baby, so both parties involved need to be sure it's what they want. If one of you even has the slightest hesitation, then hold off on baby plans and revisit the idea in a few months when you and your partner have had more time to think.

3. Sacrifice: Taking care of another human being requires a lot of sacrifice. Certain aspects of your life will have to change if you plan on being a parent. You can forget about going to late-night parties during the first few years of raising your child. The money you saved up for those brand new shoes you had your eye on at the mall will have to go toward a pack of diapers. It may seem like a lot to give up, but if you're really invested in being someone's parent – it'll be worth it.

Celebrity Couples That Reunited

By Whitney Johnson

There are no set rules in the game of love, and it's easy to question if you're dating Mr. Right or Mr. Right Now. Such doubt often leads to broken hearts, but as many Hollywood pairs have proven, time apart may be just what the doctor ordered during the search for happily ever after. Here are five celebrity couples that reunited after a breakup and found lasting love (for now at least):

Katy Perry and John Mayer: This musically-talented twosome is keeping us all guessing! The couple was first seen together during the summer of 2012; they split briefly in August and then reunited, even spending the holidays together. However, in March 2013, they broke up again. Addressing the split, Mayer reportedly said, "I'm on the same journey as everyone else. Coupling is a tricky thing." Even so, as recently as June 2013, they were seen together with pals at Chateau

Marmont in West Hollywood.

Jessica Biel and Justin Timberlake: Biel and Timberlake first dated for over four years (a lifetime in Hollywood!) before splitting in March 2011. However, they were together again by fall, and in December, Timberlake proposed in the mountains of Jackson Hole, Wyoming. The star-powered duo married in a top-secret ceremony in Italy on October 19, 2012.

Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler: This Chicago-based pair first began dating in fall 2010 and confirmed their engagement in April 2011. However, the Chicago Bears quarterback called things off just a few months later. The couple reunited in November 2011 and announced the Laguna Beach star's pregnancy in January 2012. They took the next step in their relationship, tying the knot in Nashville on June 7, 2013.

Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber: It's hard to know if these two songbirds are on-again or off-again. The twosome split in November 2012, but always stayed in touch. In April 2013, they confirmed their renewed relationship when the Spring Breakers actress flew to Norway to be with her ex-beau. Keeping the romance alive, the couple appears to be going strong at the start of summer.

Pink and Carey Hart: Pop singer Pink proposed to motocross racer Hart in June 2005, and the couple married soon after in Costa Rica. After two years of marriage, the couple separated in February 2008. However, they remained friends – Hart even appeared in Pink's video for her song "So What!" – and sought marriage counseling in hopes of reconciling. They reunited two years later, and the tattooed twosome have been happily together ever since.

Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler Tie the Knot in Nashville

By Petra Halbur

Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler were married over the weekend in Nashville, Tenn. The Hills star and Chicago Bears quarterback quietly tied the knot at the Davidson Country

Clerk's office in Nashville on Friday and celebrated with a ceremony the following day on June 8. The ceremony took place at Woodmont Christian Church, which was listed #1 on Martha Stewart's "Wedding Ceremony Locations in the South." Despite the impressive location, however, it was an intimate affair. "It's going to be about 150 people, so not huge," Cavallari told UsMagazine.com back in May. "I was never the girl who dreamt about my wedding or any of that stuff, but the wedding how we're planning is exactly what I wanted. I think it's going to be perfect for what we're doing."

How do you decide who to invite to your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

The guest list is, perhaps, the most stressful part of planning a wedding. Cupid is here to help:

1. Choose the wedding size: Before anything else, you and your partner need to decide how large you want your wedding to be. Once you've picked a guest count, then you can start prioritizing potential invitees.

2. Consider obligations: It may be tempting to exclude everyone you don't like from the guest list, but consider your familial and relational obligations to the people in your life. In some respects, a wedding is for the friends and family as much as it is for the bride and groom.

3. Don't do it for the gifts: Unless you're planning a wedding for thousands, don't invite that wealthy friend-of-a-friend-of-a-friend. It's shallow and transparently materialistic.
