How do you personalize a bridal shower?

Cupid's Advice:

A bridal shower is one of the most fun events you will get to experience as you're preparing for your wedding. The shower will be the opportunity for your friends and family to plan something that will pay homage to you. Your loved ones will get to showcase your personality through gifts, games and some unique activities. Want the day of your shower to be something you'll never forget? Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Pick a theme: Your bridal shower will show some character if there's a theme involved. Do you love to watch football with your partner? Pick a sporty theme for your shower. Maybe you're more of a girly girl. Deck out your bridal shower in all pink. Are you a goofball? Ask your guests to wear silly costumes and hats.

2. Decorations: Instead of gathering a bunch of store-bought decorations, get your bridal party to help you create your own. Throw some cute cutouts around the room, like hearts, wedding bells and flowers. Fill your party favors with personal objects. Do your friends know you can't live without makeup? Pick out an assortment of lip glosses and fill bags with them. Anything that shows off your style will be the perfect gift for your guests.

3. The location: The bridal shower doesn't necessarily have to take place inside of your home. If you're considering a sporty theme, think about having your shower outside or maybe even at a bowling alley. If you're all about keeping the party mellow and casual, maybe take the girls out to a spa. No matter what you decide, throw the traditional "rules" out the door and plan the shower YOU want.

By Andrea Surujnauth

The lovebirds got engaged for the second time in November 2011. The couple are registered at Williams-Sonoma and their list contains about 70-items all adding up to over $4,000. The pair has not announced their wedding date, but their registry has

How can you decide what is the best time of year for your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

When choosing a date for your wedding, it may be difficult to find a day that will be perfect for both you and your guests. You want nice weather for your wedding and you want everyone to show up. How can you choose the perfect date? Cupid has some ideas that you should consider:

1. Important events: When choosing when to have your wedding, you should consider which days need to be off the table. You do not want your wedding on Superbowl weekend or the weekend before Christmas otherwise many of your guest will not show up. Consider what holidays and sporting events might be important to your guests because you want as many people as possible to come celebrate your big day with you!

2. Superstitious days: If you are superstitious, you may want to shy away from having your wedding on the 13th of any month. Think about the future, do you really want your anniversary to land on friday the 13th?

3. Seasons: Consider if you want a winter wonderland themed wedding, winter would be perfect for you. Do you want a hot summer weather? Flowers and breezy spring weather? Or the colorful scenery of the fall? Think of what weather would go with your wedding the best.

By Jenny Schafer for Celebrity Baby Scoop

Reality star Kristin Cavallari is “enjoying every second” of motherhood with her 6-month-old son Camden. And she’s been keeping busy amidst the late night feedings and diaper changes! The Hills alum – engaged to Camden’s dad, Chicago Bears quarterback Jay Cutler – recently launched Chinese Laundry by Kristin Cavallari, a capsule footwear collection.

Kristin opened up to Celebrity Baby Scoop about the joys of new motherhood, her “happy, sweet baby,” and how her style has “definitely been influenced” now that she’s a mom.

CBS: How are you adjusting to motherhood? What does it mean to you to be a mom?

KC: “Motherhood came very naturally to me. I’m enjoying every second. Cam is 6 months now and his personality is really starting to show. He’s such a happy, sweet baby. Every day is something new and exciting.

Being a mom means being responsible for another life and it no longer being about you. It’s the most rewarding thing in the world.”

CBS: Tell us about Chinese Laundry by Kristin Cavallari, a capsule footwear collection. What kinds of shoes will be in the collection? What’s the price range?

KC: “I loved designing my collection with Chinese Laundry. I’ve always been a huge fan of the brand and was thrilled when I was given the opportunity to launch a capsule collection. The line consists of an assortment of pumps, booties and flats, offered in classic and refreshing colorways such as blacks, nudes and pastels. The price ranges from $89.95 – $149.95.”

CBS: Now that you’re a mom, will your designs be influenced by your new lifestyle? Maybe more flats?

KC: “My style has definitely been influenced now that I’m a mom. Fashion and style is still very important, but comfort is key. I find myself wearing more flats, which can go with every outfit whether it’s a casual dress or jeans, which is why I incorporated lots of them into my Chinese Laundry by Kristin Cavallari collection.”

CBS: You had the best maternity style! Please describe your maternity style and how you enjoyed dressing your baby bump.

KC: “Thanks! My style remained pretty much the same while I was pregnant. I embraced my growing bump with lots of dresses and skirts. I think it’s cute to wear tight dresses to really show off the bump. I don’t think women need to hide under baggy clothes.”

Kristin Cavallari Says Motherhood Is ‘So Much Fun!’

By Nicole Weintraub

Two months after having her son, Kristin Cavallari is back to her former self and happier than ever, according to UsMagazine.com. The former Hills star and fiancé Jay Cutler who is a quarterback for the Chicago Bears welcomed their son Camden Jack two months ago. Cavallari affectionately calls her son, "Boo Boo," and has been gushing about him nonstop. Since giving birth, the star has lost most of the baby fat by simply eating right and walking on the treadmill. With Halloween right around the corner, the couple is planning to dress their son up as a lion since he is a Leo. "Having a baby is just so much fun," gushed the star, though she admitted that she sometimes misses her alone time since she is alone with the baby most of the time while her fiancé is off at work. The duo are not planning on having any more kids for the time being, planning on focusing on their son and teaching him to walk before their big day. "I want Camden to walk down the aisle," Cavallari explained, "so we'd have to wait anyway for him to start walking."

What are some reasons to put off nuptials?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting married? There is a ton of planning that goes into a wedding, though sometimes it's best to pull the reins on the planning for just a little while. Here are a few reasons on why it may be better to wait to get married:

1. Babies: Having a baby is stressful enough without adding the whole planning of a wedding onto your plate. Plus, most women want to focus on their babies especially while they are young since they grow up so fast. In Cavallari's case, she is waiting until her son can walk so that he can be incorporated into her wedding.

2. Illness: If you, your partner or a family member is seriously ill, it may be for the best to postpone the nuptials. Everyone will be distracted and the main focus should be on that person getting better, not on your wedding.

3. Family Emergencies: If there is a family emergency such as a pending death or a death in the family, out of respect and the right thing to do it may be best to postpone the wedding. Family members will need to go through a mourning period before they can be excited about a celebration.

Celebrity Baby News: Best Announcements from Famous Couples

By Lily Rose

First comes love; then, comes marriage; then, comes a little one sitting in a baby carriage. In 2012, things may not happen exactly in that order – especially for our favorite celebrity couples. No matter the order of things, when the little bundle of joy does come, it is cause for celebration and for baby announcements. When it comes to celebrity baby news, announcements range from traditional to over-the-top.

Announcing Celebrity Baby News

Some famous couples opt to announce their baby's arrival with a simple yet heartfelt press release. Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler, who welcomed Camden Jack Cutler on Aug. 8, decided to go that route. So did Kelsey and Kayte Grammer, who welcomed daughter, Faith Evangeline Elisa Grammer, on July 13. Also taking a simplistic approach, Hilary Duff tweeted her son Luca's first photo.

But why settle for simple and heartfelt when you can do it big and make it financially lucrative? From the date the press first learns there's a celebrity pregnancy to the date the child arrives, most publications are scrambling, begging, and scheming to get their hands on the first baby pics. Some celebs, such as former reality TV star turned fashion designer, Jessica Simpson, chose to circumvent the rigmarole by simply selling the pictures. People featured the first snapshots of Simpson's daughter, Maxwell Drew. Simpson was reportedly paid $800,000 for their exclusive right to her little girl's first photos.

Simpson isn't the only one to sell the privilege of offering the public its first glimpse of her child. Former American Idol judge Jennifer Lopez and Latin crooner Marc Anthony also sold the exclusive rights to the first pictures of their twins. As far as the price goes, Lopez and Anthony didn't do too shabby either: The celebrity couple reportedly made a cool $6 million.

Famous Couple's Expensive Baby Pics

Of course, no one does it as big as Hollywood couple Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt. The public waited with bated breath to see the child produced by the genetically blessed superstars. Jolie and Pitt reportedly sold the photos of their twins, Knox and Vivienne, for more than $11 million.

Still, some famous couples chose a different but still non-traditional route to share their celebrity baby news. For example, singer, Beyonce Knowles and her rap star husband Jay-Z erected a tumblr page displaying daughter Blue Ivy's first photo shoot. The page was offered free to the public.

Some think selling your baby's first photos seems just plain wrong. Others figure, why not? It's better than the paparazzi chasing you down the street for them! Let us know your thoughts.

Kristin Cavallari Can't Wait to Put on Heels Post-Birth

By Nicole Weintraub

Former reality star Kristin Cavallari has decided to take on designing a shoe collection with the brand Chinese Laundry. According to People, the new mom has toned down her wardrobe since welcoming her son with Jay Cutler. She stopped wearing

What are some ways to feel attractive after having a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby is a huge ordeal, as caring for a newborn is a lot of responsibility and pressure. Here are some tips on how to feel more attractive after having a baby:

1. Go out: Just because you have a baby, doesn't mean you can't enjoy a night out on the town. Have a date night with your partner or a girls' night out to raise your spirits and give you something for which to look forward. The more fun you're having, the less you'll feel self-conscious. Having a baby does not change your identity – you're still the same beautiful person you were before your pregnancy.

2. Pamper yourself: You feel your best when you look your best. If you've been feeling a little low, treat yourself. Perhaps go for a nice relaxing massage or go for that pedicure you've been putting off because you can't find the time. Schedule some alone time in so that you can enjoy a little relaxation time. You deserve to indulge every now and then.

3. Be productive: Sometimes we feel unattractive when we feel unproductive and have nothing to do. Go to the gym, put the baby in the stroller and go for a walk around the park. A little movement and change of scenery does a lot, especially if you've been stuck in the house between the later stages of pregnancy and caring for a new baby.

Cavallari showed her support by retweeting his message.

What do you do if those around you aren't happy about your pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

It's your pregnancy so don't worry about what everybody else has to say. Cupid has some tips to keep your cool when you're getting too much heat from outsiders:

1. Be polite: It can be easy to lash out on people sticking their noses where they don't belong, so instead politely ask them to be respectful of your situation, and if they can't be happy for you, to leave you alone.

2. Understanding: If it's someone close to you who's acting negatively, take the time to hear their side. Then let them hear yours, and ask for their understanding and support. Babies typically bring families and friends together in the end.

3. Keep private: Leave all the thoughts and decision-making about your pregnancy between you and your partner. Getting other people's perspective and comments in the mix can make things messy and lead to unnecessary arguing.

How do you deal with the embarrassment stemming from a broken engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

After telling all of your friends, gloating over the exciting news, hearing congratulations from every nook and corner and then hearing it’s all over, how do you cope? Cupid has some advice:

1. That’s what friends and family are for: Those close to you are there to hear you out. They wouldn’t (or at least shouldn’t) point at you and make embarrassment worse. Allow your friends to be there when you grieve you cry.

2. Understand: Though embarrassment can be unbearable, angrily acting out will solve nothing. Therefore, the best thing to do is try to understand why your partner did what he or she did. Your ex-partner is probably suffering from embarrassment as well. Talk to your partner about the reasoning behind it all for some closure.

3. Don't dwell: It's easier said than done. But honestly, what is dwelling going to do besides make you crazy? You might as well try your hardest to move on.

If you're lucky, you may spot your favorite duo while you're taking an ocean dip.

Here are a few of the celebrity beach bum couples that we'd love to join at the beach:

1. Kim Kardashian and Kris Humphries: This newly engaged couple has been all over the media lately and one of the last trips they made caused a huge splash. The duo traveled to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico in late May, and by looking at the pictures of them, it seemed like they had a blast together.

The couple played in the ocean and embraced on the beach – talk about summer lovin'.

2. Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez: The teenage royalty twosome hit Maui in May and turned heads when they were spotted smooching in the sand. Things have gotten serious for the young lovebirds as Gomez was even seen visiting Bieber's family in Canada this spring. We wonder if they love her as much as we do.

3. Ice-T and Coco: The hip-hop couple showed their overwhelming love for each other on the hot beach of Miami in February. Rapper Ice-T kept it cool while his wife, former Playboy model Coco, showed off her sexy beach body in an itty-bitty bikini. The couple, who have been married for five years, now have their own reality show, Ice Loves Coco, every Sunday night on E.

She also recently spoke of let loose some exciting wedding details! “I’m trying to decide between a really small, intimate wedding or a huge, blowout party-type wedding,” Cavallari told People. “If I have a big wedding, then yes, some (cast mates) will be invited,” she says. “If I have a small, intimate wedding, it will probably just be family and really close friends.” Cavallari decided on a Monique Lhuillier gown and takes ideas from wedding magazines. She will meet with planners within the next few weeks. The former reality TV star may or not be customizing her own shoes. She and her NFL quarterback fiancé will wed at home in Chicago, Illinois, since it’s closest to their families.

How do you explain why you didn't invite someone to your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Weddings are expensive, and there isn't room for everyone. However, people get offended if they don't make the cut. Here are ways to nicely and honestly tell someone why you chose not to include them on your big day:

1. Keep it clear: Set standards and agree on them. For example, if you agree to include strictly family and close friends, don't invite someone you haven't seen for a really long time. It shouldn't be difficult to explain why you didn't invite someone if they've been a distant presence in your life.

2. Dates and children: Not everyone needs a date, and not everyone's kids should be there. Keep it to nieces, nephews and godchildren, but no more than extended family. This will cut the list drastically and avoid stress. You also don't want too many strangers around, so don't allow everyone to bring dates.

3. Don't bring work home: It's your wedding, and you deserve a good time. Don't feel pressured to invite every single colleague, especially if you don't have a personal relationship. Stick to the select few to whom you feel close.

Is it important to take a person's past into account pre-relationship? Cupid's Advice:

When entering into a new relationship, many of us try to look at it as a fresh start and let the past be the past. But, is it even possible to change? Cupid has some things to think about when looking into your partner's old flings:

1. How it ended: Sometimes things just don't work out, but it's important to look at why they didn't. If your partner and his or her ex ended amicably, then there may not be much to inquire about. But, if there's bad blood, you might consider finding out more details.

2. Did he learn from it?: Of course people make mistakes, and every mistake is a learning experience. One of the important things to look at when asking about a prior relationship that ended badly, is if he exhibits the same behavior that was previously an issue.

3. Level of commitment: Did your partner have a few serious relationships, or did he just jump around? Gauging his/her's level of commitment from their previous partner(s) allows you a glimpse at what to expect.

Did your partner learn from his past mistakes in order to make a fresh start? Share your story below.

Kristin Cavallari and Jay Cutler Are Engaged

Former Laguna Beach star Kristin Cavallari has found her happy ending with boyfriend Jay Cutler, People reports. Cavallari and the Chicago Bears quarterback, who have been dating since last fall, got engaged during a weekend getaway to Cabo San Lucas, Mexico. A source close to the couple says, “He surprised her with a quick trip to Cabo to ask her to marry him.”

Where are some unique locations to propose?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you feel ready to pop the question, it’s best to do it somewhere special. Cupid has some ideas on unique places to get engaged:

1. On the beach: Take your mate on a surprise trip to a tropical locale, like Jay Cutler did for Kristin Cavallari. You and your partner will never forget the sun setting on the water.

2. On a mountain: If you want to propose in a memorable location, climb to the top of a mountain. You’ll feel like you're on top of the world (literally). Plus, it'll make for a great post-engagement photo op!

3. Where you met: Whether you first laid eyes on your honey on top of the Empire State Building or in a supermarket, revisit that place to propose. It will remind you of the magic you felt when you first met.

Kristin Cavallari Dating Doug Reinhardt

The Hills star Kristin Cavallari was spotted out and about this weekend with another alum of the show, Doug Reinhardt, reports RadarOnline.com. Reinhardt was briefly featured on The Hills when he dated long-time Cavallari rival Lauren Conrad. Conrad has since left the show and is currently dating actor Kyle Howard. How do you deal when your ex dates your enemy for revenge?

Cupid's Advice:

Though Reinhardt and Conrad were not the first castmates to find love on the show, drama always seems to follow love on the MTV hit. However, the Conrad versus Cavallari rivalry was well documented in the press, so Conrad needs to be careful about any comments she makes regarding the Cavallari-Reinhardt romance. It's key to find a balance between being uninvolved but still supportive in this situation.

1. Don't butt in: Unless your ex tries to get you involved in his or her new relationship, it's important to remain aloof. If your ex is trying to send you a message by getting with your rival, getting involved only makes the situation stickier.

2. See their side: No matter how you feel about your enemy, if your ex is genuinely happy and not just looking for revenge, then keep your opinions to yourself. See how their relationship progresses before you pass judgment.

3. Concentrate on you: No matter what other drama is going on around your ex or your enemy, you need to work on yourself first. Focus on you and your relationships, and try not to let your ex put a damper on your life.
