

Celebrity Baby News: Surprise! Kylie Jenner Gives Birth to Baby Girl with Travis Scott

By Jessica Gomez

Congratulations to celebrity couple Kylie Jenner and Travis Scott on officially becoming parents to a new baby! In celebrity news, Jenner gave birth to a baby girl this past week, according to EOnline.com. At that time, Mom Kris Jenner and sister Kim Kardashian were seen at the hospital along with Travis Scott and Kylie's best friend Jordyn Woods. The celebrity baby has not yet been named. As the world knows, Jenner kept her pregnancy on the down low, making this news even more relevant. "I'm sorry for keeping you in the dark through all the assumptions. I understand you're used to me bringing you along on all my journeys," Kylie said via Instagram on Sunday. "My pregnancy was one I chose not to do in front of the world. I knew for myself I needed to prepare for this role of a lifetime in the most positive, stress free, and healthy way I knew how. There was no gotcha moment, no big paid reveal I had planned. I knew my baby would feel every stress and every emotion so I chose to do it this way for my little life and our happiness," she explained. "Pregnancy has been the most beautiful, empowering, and life-changing experience I've had in my entire life and I'm actually going to miss it. I appreciate my friends and especially my family for helping me make this special moment as private as we could. My beautiful and healthy baby girl arrived February 1st and I just couldn't wait to share this blessing. I've never felt love and happiness like this I could burst! Thank you for understanding."

Well, this celebrity baby news wasn't just a rumor! What are some reasons to keep your baby news to yourself for a while?

Cupid's Advice:

There are a few reasons that you may want to keep your pregnancy under wraps for a while, just like Kylie Jenner and many others. Cupid has some reasons as to why:

1. You have a stressful pregnancy: You just don't need nor want the stress. If you have a sensitive pregnancy where your health and the one of your baby depends on you taking it easy, then hiding your pregnancy could be an option for you. If we feel like outside factors can cause us stress during a critical time, then as mothers-to be we must cut out those factors. Sometimes people can become over bearing when it comes to receiving baby news – so if you're around those kind of peeps, you know what it is.

2. You're superstitious and don't want to jinx it: This may not be logical to everyone. However, if it's logical to the mother-to be, then that's enough – it's her body and her baby. Sometimes certain people find reassurance and comfort in not telling people right away due to fear of a miscarriage or something going wrong. At the end of the day, as long as the baby news is delivered later rather than never, it should be enough.

3. Judgy peers: Whether these peers are at school or work, or are your neighbors, friends, or fam, sometimes they're just not the easiest people to deal with. At times, we may be surrounded by people who judge or gossip, and that can lead to you wanting to keep your pregnancy low-key. During pregnancy, drama should be avoided, so there's no shame in doing what you have to do.

These are just a few reasons why you someone may hide their pregnancy. What are some reasons you or someone you know hid a pregnancy? Comment below!

Although the former celebrity couple had their happy moments, it's safe to say they have both moved on.

There won't be any happy reunion for these celebrity exes! How do you know when it's best to leave a past relationship in the past?

Cupid's Advice:

Reflecting on a past relationship is something you may catch yourself doing when thinking about an ex. Here are some ways to know it's best to return to an old relationship:

1. You're already dating other people: If you are already dating or have a connection with someone else, there's no need to go back to your ex. There's plenty of other people you could be having a fresh start with! Returning to an ex will only waste your time in the long run.

2. You can remember the bad times: Like Tyga, if you can remember when things were really bad, you can imagine your life becoming bad again. If a relationship felt toxic or made you feel unhappy, a reunion has no guarantee on making things better.

3. You haven't spoken since the break-up: Sometimes break-ups can keep things silent between you and your ex. You could also be on speaking terms as well. If you have not had a full conversation with each other, then is a good way of knowing you and your ex have no desire to return to the past.

While it doesn't seem that any woman from the Kardashian/Jenner family is currently dating French Montana, never say never. Falling for the ex-flame or current crush of a friend or sibling tends cause issues, but in some cases can't be helped. Before you go falling for the same person as a friend or sibling, think about it:

1. This relationship will hurt your friend/sibling: Even when a friend or sibling plays it cool about you crushing on the same person they are or have in the past, they're most likely not okay with it. If you're crushing on the same person, chances are your jealous and competitive sides will be on full display. Think about the importance of your relationship with your friend or sibling, and realize that pursuing this romantic relationship will hurt the relationship you already have with your them. Chances are the crush isn't worth it.

This celebrity news comes amidst a lot of Rob Kardashian happenings lately. How do you know whether you can be friends with your family member's ex or not?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a dicey situation when it comes to your family and their exes. If you're on the fence about whether it's okay for you to keep a connection with your family member's ex, Cupid has some tips:

1. Time since the split: If it's been a long time since the break-up occurred, your family member has probably had plenty of a chance to cope. The best way to find out if that coping period is over is to simply ask. You probably know your family member well enough to detect if there's any hesitation in his or her answer whatsoever. If they seem okay about it, then go for it.

2. The reason for the break-up: If the reason for the break-up is that the relationship simply ran its course and it was a mutual parting, you're probably more okay keeping contact with your family member's ex than if something horrific happened at the end of the relationship, like a cheating scandal. Definitely consider the facts before making a decision.

3. How "over it" your family member is: It's not necessarily all about time. Your family member may have good reason to be completely and utterly over the relationship he or she was in. It may have only been a month, but your brother or sister has already moved on to greener pastures. If they're over it, they shouldn't have an issue with you continuing to remain friends with their ex.
