

Celebrity Couple Kylie Jenner & Tyga: Is Fighting Good or Bad?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Current celebrity couple Kylie Jenner and Tyga recently revealed that they enjoy focusing on the fun things in life and “don’t really fight” in their relationship. They admit to disagreements occasionally, but not all-out fights. One of the ways they do this, they said, is by ignoring negativity. While this can create a very enjoyable and pleasant relationship in the moment, if it means brushing disputes under the rug for fear of where they might lead, it is possible it can create difficulty down the road.

It is important for all couples to address any concerns or differences of opinions so they can learn to work through conflict together. Here's some relationship advice.

Focus on points of contention.

Being hesitant to delve too deep might prevent people from being able to truly share their feelings and needs. With that in mind, the question becomes is fighting in a relationship good or bad? Arguing in and of itself can be very upsetting, so it isn't surprising that some people look to avoid it completely. The problem is that if you do that, you will close off an important channel of communication that can eventually lead to a better place. There are few couples who don't occasionally encounter a disagreement, feel annoyed with the other, or have concerns about something. When that happens and the issues are sidestepped and left alone, they can fester and grow into bigger problems that, if they go on long enough, can be destructive to the relationship.

Establish methods and listen.

In order to continue as a couple with a strong foundation, you need to have methods to work out the clashes that inevitably arise between you. An intense fight might not be the way to do that, but often an argument is the first attempt at addressing what is bugging you. Being able to voice your concerns in a respectful way so that your partner has a chance to hear what's on your mind and not get defensive is a good place to start. This enables you to take an important step toward listening and understanding each other so you can reach a compromise that feels fair and balanced to you both. The key is working to get beyond that first intense burst of anger when your temptation is to lash out and hurt the other person. If you get stuck there it can work against you as a couple. The real goal of an argument is to problem-solve so that you can find a better way of handling things going forward.

Related Link: 5 Celebrity Couples That Fight Dirty

Manage your anger positively.

The first step is to steer clear of name calling, blaming, criticizing, or attacking your partner. While that lets your anger out in the moment, it can leave your partner feeling wounded and wanting to retaliate against you, which shuts down your attempt to work things out. The aim is to reach a point where you feel cared about and know that what matters to you is also important to your partner, so that you can trust that your needs will be met. Another tip is to pay attention if things are getting too heated and out of control. When that happens, take a deep breath and hit the hold button. Use this skill to take a break so you can both cool off before you broach discussing the topic again. One important aspect of hitting the hold button is that you agree on a time when you will resume the conversation so it is not left hanging, giving either one of you the chance to feel resentful.

When you resolve an argument it can play an important role in helping you feel closer and more intimate with each other since you're able to get beyond it and feel understood. Although Kylie and Tyga's choice is not to argue, making room to do so could be a good choice for you.

By Mackenzie Scibetta

While Kylie Jenner and Tyga have only recently opened up about their controversial celebrity relationship, they appeared to be all smiles in a recent impromptu Q&A session. According to UsMagazine.com, the young famous couple said they avoid fighting by trying to always be optimistic and just have fun. Tyga dished some insightful love advice saying, "You gotta live for yourself and better the people around you and make an impact." The pair have been dating since earlier this year.

This celebrity relationship hasn't hit any rough patches as of yet. What are some ways to keep fighting to a minimum in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are all about keeping balance and compromise. You need two understanding, appreciative, and positive souls to prevent unnecessary arguments. Cupid is here to show you how to keep the peace in your relationship:

1. Choose your battles wisely: Petty arguments over who should do the dishes are not worth your breath. Focus on what is important and only fight if it can benefit the relationship. If you take a moment to pause and ask yourself "why am I getting angry?" you can avoid small issues.

2. Laugh about it: Kylie Jenner herself admits that when her and Tyga fight sometimes they can't help but break out and smile. Once you see how silly the issue is, you and your partner can loosen up and joke around. This is an easy fix to drifting away from any argument.

3. Admit when you're wrong: This is the part that most people struggle with but once you master the apology it will be smooth sailing afterwards. Don't play the blame game because it will just add more problems. Spend your time fighting over who is sorry the most instead.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: George Clooney, Kylie Jenner and Sandra Bullock

By Shoshi

Want the latest celebrity news and romance gossip? Then you've come to the right place! Recently, these famous couples have made headlines for their relationships and love, whether it be

George Clooney's celebrity marriage, Kylie Jenner's budding romance, or Sandra Bullock's new beau. Check out my predictions for the three celebrity couples below and find out what's next in their love lives!

The Latest Celebrity News and Celebrity Couple Predictions

George Clooney and Amal Clooney: What can one say about George and Amal? They seem to be on top of the world. As they travel the world walking hand and hand, the media cannot get enough of this celebrity couple. Since there doesn't seem to be any real drama in their relationship and love, the media is trying to stir something up. Most of the criticism is focused on Amal. Some say she dresses tacky, while others accused her law firm of giving her the high profile accounts, because she is married to George Clooney. Nevermind that she's highly qualified to take on any case thrown her way. I love Amal and think that she's great for George. I still say that from the beginning their celebrity marriage was for calculated reasons versus simply love. Those reasons may never be known to the rest of us, because it looks like they know how to keep their mouths shut. This couple is working out fine even though Clooney is starting to look much older when he stands next to his lovely wife. Let's just say Clooney met a woman who know hows to ride or die.

Kylie Jenner and Tyga: This relationship has disaster written all over it. Are they in love? It looks more like lust than love to me. At this point it's hard to know who's using who. Tyga is getting a boost in his career from being with a Jenner, while who knows exactly what Jenner is getting from being with him. It all seems like a carefully orchestrated relationship put together by the puppetmaster, Kris Jenner. Don't believe the engagement rumors. This relationship is going to run its course and end as dramatically as it began. Right now, what remains to be seen is who will get tired of who first. Right now, my money is on Jenner because she has the upper-hand.

Sandra Bullock and Bryan Randall: There are rumors flying everywhere that Sandra Bullock is dating model and photographer, Bryan Randall. Before you get all excited about this news, hold on a minute, When did a dinner date start to mean that someone is in a relationship? I would love to see Bullock find love, but it's time to stop assuming she's in a relationship with every single man she talks to. That being said, Randall has a bit of a criminal past and we all know how Bullock loves bad boys. I don't see a romance with Randall having any staying power. Right now, she is just dipping her toe back into the dating scene. The main concern on her mind is having a good influence around for her son, Louis. Randall is a "meh" choice for Bullock. He's fine for testing out her flirting moves, but she should definitely keep her options open. Bullock needs to take dating tips from some of the other women in Hollywood.

Is Tyga Feuding with Celebrity Ex Blac Chyna Over Kylie Jenner's Ferrari?

By Kyanah Murphy

Could you imagine feuding with your ex over luxurious cars while flaunting said cars over Instagram? That's exactly what's happening with Tyga and his celebrity ex Blac Chyna! According to UsMagazine.com, this fiery, flashy feud began with Tyga and his ex celebrity love when Tyga posted an image of himself on Instagram and Blac Chyna's best friend, Amber Rose responded with a picture of her pink Ferrari! This, in turn, prompted Tyga to post an image of his own flashy car, a black and gold Bentley. Apparently the heated exchange began due to the fact that Tyga believes Blac Chyna is involved with spreading the rumor that Tyga is leasing Kylie Jenner's Ferrari rather than having bought it outright.

These celebrity exes aren't happy with each other. What are some ways to keep drama with your ex at bay?

Cupid's Advice:

While you may not be feuding over Ferraris like these celebrity exes, you will probably run into your own drama with your ex. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Know yourself and what will get under your skin: your ex knows what will bother you so hopefully you will too. Your ex may bait you in with things that'll bother you to start a fight. When you know what bothers you and winds you up, you can better avoid the bait they may lay out for you. Be the bigger person.

2. Set communication boundaries: depending on your situation, you may not be able to cut your ex entirely out of your life. If that's the case, set yourself boundaries. Don't answer phone calls from them (let it go to voice mail) and give your ex and yourself a time frame of when to respond when it's important for you to respond (like if you have kids and it's about your kids).

3. Give yourself space: really you shouldn't be talking to your ex unless absolutely necessary (i.e. kids). They shouldn't exist in your world anymore. So stick to that – they aren't around. Don't talk to them and don't fall for bait. Surround yourself by positive things and busy yourself so the temptation isn't there.

What are some ways to remain amicable with your ex around the holidays?

Cupid's Advice:

Remaining civil with an ex is always a challenge, but it becomes even more important when you have kids and are set on making the holidays a happy time. Cupid has some tips:

1. Negotiate: It's extremely important to remain amicable with your ex around the holidays if there are children involved. It's a special time for family to come together, and even if you're separated, you are still connected through your family. This means it's a good idea to learn how to enjoy the company of one another during holiday celebrations. You don't have to spend a ton of time with your ex, but you should at least tolerate being around them for the sake of everyone else involved. Plus, it's not good to be bitter and hold onto negativity. You will be much happier when you forgive and are at peace.

2. Set an example: Traditions are a crucial part of the festivities this time of the year. Whether it's making a gingerbread house, seeing the lights, attending midnight mass, decorating the Christmas tree, or visiting Santa, you should keep these traditions alive! Your kids want to be surrounded by you both, so don't make them choose and don't suffer by being alone. Put your differences aside.

3. Just smile: Don't worry; be happy. No matter how you may be feeling, push through it and stay strong for your family. Put on a happy face because your kids and family want to see you that way. It will not only make them feel better, but it will help you as well. This is the time of year when we are thankful for our blessings and are grateful for the relationships we have with loved ones. Look around and see how fortunate you are. There is so much to smile about in life!

Kendall and Kylie Jenner Make Celebrity Gossip Headlines Cozying Up to Chris Brown and Trey Songz at Party

By Laura Seaman

In the latest celebrity gossip, Kendall and Kylie Jenner were spotted getting friendly with rappers Chris Brown and Trey Songz. In a photo on Songz's Instagram, the Jenner girls were cozy with the two at a house party. It's a scandalous combination, with the girls being only 16 and 18 and the men being 25 and 29. Not only that, but Brown is a convicted felon who just got out of jail in June after violated his probation in the Rihanna domestic abuse case. According to UsMagazine.com, mother Kris Jenner might not be too happy about her daughters' new friends. Only time will tell if these new celebrity couples are the real deal!

New celebrity couples can be seriously scandalous. What do you do if your friends are dating someone you don't approve of?

Cupid's Advice:

We love our friends, but sometimes, they just make really stupid decisions. They may date absolutely terrible people that we don't approve of, and yet, they insist that we "just don't get it." As much as you just want to knock some sense into these people, hold on and take a step back. Here are some ways to give your friend dating advice if they're seeing someone you don't approve of:

1. Gang up on them: Go full-out intervention style and have a group of friends around when you talk about this issue. They're more likely to listen to a group of people than just one person. And if you can't find other people who don't approve of this relationship and love, maybe it's a sign you need to rethink your position.

Related Link: 5 Celebrity Couples Who Started Off as Friends

2. Bring up specific examples: It's really easy to just brush off comments like "he's so rude" or "she's really obnoxious" if you can't name times when these things were true. To drive your point home, name some specific instances when your friend's partner did something you thought was a red flag.

Related Link: Kendall Jenner Says She and Harry Styles Are 'Cool'

3. Give them your support, no matter what: Don't use ultimatums like "either you break up with them, or we're not friends anymore". That just shows a huge lack of support, and you can't guarantee they'll even choose you. Just let your friend know that while you think the relationship is a really bad idea, you'll support them no matter what. It's what a real friend would do.

5 Cutest Teen Celebrity Couples

By Whitney Johnson

Lately, it seems like the heavyweights in Hollywood are getting younger and younger. After all, it was just last year that Jennifer Lawrence won her first Academy Award for Best Actress Oscar at only 22 years old. Given their full-time jobs and big paychecks, these stars often grow up a bit faster than your average youngster – which means they also experience love and heartbreak earlier in their lives. With this thought in mind, we developed a list of our five favorite teen celebrity couples:

1. Bella Thorne and Tristan Klier: The 16-year-old star of Disney’s popular show Shake It Up has been dating her blonde-haired boyfriend since 2012. When we caught up with the actress earlier this year, she revealed her favorite date night with her beau: “Just to sit on the couch and watch Netflix!”

2. Britney Spears and Justin Timberlake: Will there ever be a teen couple as adorable as these two pop stars? The pair, who met on the set of The New Mickey Mouse Club, were only 18 years old when they started dating and split after 3 years together. Recently, Spears even confirmed that Timberlake was her first kiss. Aw!

3. Gigi Hadid and Cody Simpson: The Sports Illustrated model and Australian singer, ages 18 and 17 respectively, were spotted at the Vanity Fair Oscars Party, looking every bit like a teenage dream. The lovebirds maintain a long-distance relationship – Hadid is at New York University, while Simpson lives in Los Angeles – but we hope to see the blonde beauty cheering her man on from the audience of Dancing with the Stars.

4. Kylie Jenner and Jaden Smith: While this duo hasn't confirmed their relationship status, they've been spotted around New York City, London, and Los Angeles. Plus, the so-called "best friends" have exhibited PDA on multiple occasions. Only time will tell if these teens have found true love!

5. Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber: Even though the problem-plagued pop star exited his teen years on March 1st and his on-again, off-again girlfriend is already a year into her 20s, we couldn't help but include this duo on our list. While Bieber may be trying to prove his age with his recent antics, his fans are still primarily tweens and teens, making his love life of utmost importance to this age group.

Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Bring Baby North to Funeral

By Kerri Sheehan

Since giving birth two months ago, reality star Kim Kardashian has rarely been spotted outside of her nest. However, this weekend she and her baby daddy, Kanye West stepped out with the daughter, North. The new family jetted out to Oklahoma for a somber reason, due to the death of the rapper's grandfather, Portwood Williams Sr. A source confirmed to People, "That's why they weren't at [sister] Kylie's birthday." What are some ways to involve your child in important family functions?

Cupid's Advice:

It's hard to decide when you should begin including your child in more adult family events. Let Cupid help you weigh your options.

1. Start early: Depending on the type of parent you are coddling your child may seem silly to you. Therefore, involving your kids in family functions from the get go is perfectly fine.

2. Play it by year: With something as heartbreaking as a death, it may be best to leave your child at home. Kids are fragile and being exposed to death so young might not leave them with happy memories.

3. Ask them: Once your offspring gets to an age where they can make decisions, let them. If your child wants to be involved in the adult affairs of your family then there's no reason why you should shield them from that.
