Rumors are stirring about a potential celebrity break-up. What are some ways to decrease break-up speculation?

Cupid's Advice:

People have a tendency to be nosy. They may begin to assume things in regards to your relationship if there are notable changes on social media, or in person. Whether these changes have any truth to them, it can be annoying to have people constantly discussing these rumors. Luckily, Cupid is here with some advice on how to decrease this talk:

1. Be honest: If you don't mind people knowing the truth, then share your break-up right after it occurs. This will stop people from formulating their own conclusions as to if you and your partner have broken up and why. Let people know about your break-up, and give them an explanation to the extent at which you feel comfortable so that further rumors don't begin to arise regarding the reasons why.

2. Delete social media: After your break-up, you may want to take a break from social media anyway. Also, if you temporarily delete your social media during this time, it will decrease speculation that can form from people analyzing who you are following, who is liking your pictures, and such.

Sometimes it's nice to take a break from it all.

3. Be yourself: The number one reason why break-up speculation arises is because people notice changes in individual's personalities. If you and your partner actually did not break-up but you are just going through some other personal changes, let your friends and family know so that they don't assume otherwise. If you and your partner did break-up but you don't want people to know yet, try your best to still act like yourself so speculation doesn't occur.

Cupid's Advice:

It is definitely not beneficial to be on guard all the time about if your partner is cheating on you, but it isn't bad to be aware that it could happen. Here are some signs that may indicate that there is some infidelity occurring in your relationship:

1. Less time together: If your partner randomly begins to have less time for you, they may be spending time with someone else. Obviously if your partner just got a new job or is dealing with some occurrence, they might have less time to spend with you because of that. Talk to your partner and ask why your time together has decreased.

2. Emotional distance: You may begin to notice that something in your relationship just doesn't feel the same. You're not connecting on that emotional level anymore. That may just be because you have gotten very comfortable in your relationship, or it may indicate that the emotional energy that your partner used to put into you is now going towards someone else. Be open and bring this emotional distance to your partner's attention.

3. They guard their phone: Your partner should be relatively open with their phones around you if they have nothing to hide.
