

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Bachelor Winter Games' Star Lesley Murphy Breaks Silence After Split from Dean Unglert

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, The Bachelor Winter Games star Lesley Murphy and Dean Unglert have posted on their Instagram accounts in such a way that makes it seem as if they went through a celebrity break-up with each other. The former celebrity couple were spotted together at the Sundance Film Festival in January, and that's when we knew they were dating. Yet, Murphy wrote in an Instagram caption two days ago stating, "All we need is that same energy reciprocated, and despite how open and loving you attempt to be, people can only meet you as deeply as they've met themselves. Don't be afraid to be the one that loved the most and give everything you had, because you've got to find people who love like you do and who are ready." She also goes on to state that she is "out with the old, in with the TRUE." This definitely seems like the two went through a break-up. To add to the speculation, Unglert also wrote on Instagram, "As I've gotten older, I've learned that although everyone DESERVES love, it's not something we're entitled to. Love takes work. Love is compromise. Love is earned. I still have a lot of work to do on myself, a lot to prove to myself, before I'm ready for something like that." To conclude, a source informed EOnline.com that the pair did indeed break up recently. The aspects of distance and traveling are said to have had some effect on their relationship. The two plan to continue as friends.

This Bachelor Winter Games celebrity break-up wasn't really unexpected, but Lesley had some things to say about it. What are some benefits to getting your side of a break-up story out to your family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

When you and your partner break-up, speculation can occur. If you feel comfortable, the best thing to do is get your side of the break-up out to your family and friends. Here is why:

- 1. They will know the truth: You definitely want your closest friends and family to know the truth about why your break-up occurred. Fill them in on how you feel about it so that they are not left in the dust to wonder how you are doing. Your ex-partner may have a different side of the story, and that is okay. Both of you guys can expose your thoughts and feelings on the matter in order to make for a healthy, transparent split.

2. They will support you: During this time of a break-up, it is usually beneficial to have the support of your friends and family. How are they going to know to support you if you don't let them in on what is going on? Be open with them. This will help to both get your feelings out and inform the ones closest to you.

3. They will try to understand: Even though no one can ever feel the exact same way you do, people can at least try to understand. By doing something like posting an Instagram post detailing your feelings, it helps for your friends and family to see where you are coming from. The more they understand, the easier it is for them to continue to love and support you.

There simply isn’t truth to many of the rumors about Channing and Jenna’s recent celebrity break-up. What are some ways to communicate your break-up to family and friends?

Fortunately, it is your closest friends and family, so they will understand that this is the right decision for you and respect that. Here are some ways to break the break-up news:

1. Social media: If the majority of your friends and family use social media on a daily basis, this may be the quickest, most efficient way to get the word out. You can do something similarly to what Channing and Jenna did and thoroughly explain that there are no hard feelings in order to decrease the potential spreading of rumors.

3. Take time to tell everyone personally: If you are feeling up to it, it may be beneficial for you to take the time to call each individual person that you need to break the news to. But, if you notice any of these signs, sit down with your partner and have a mature conversation about the thoughts you are having. Here are some signs that indicate that your partner may be cheating:

1. Intimacy has halted: It is normal during long-time relationships that the intimacy between you two may slow down at points. If it has completely stopped and when you try to get close to your partner they back away constantly, then that is a red flag.

The reason behind the split was recently discussed on Iaconetti's iHeartRadio podcast. She said, "It sounds a little harsh, but it's just that lack of – there's magic. We get along very well, it's just there's a little something missing and you can't really pinpoint what it is. That's just how I feel." Wendt confirmed, saying, "I feel like that's normal and I feel like you get those connections all the time where if you take away our outside world and just put Ashley and me on an island together, we'd probably get along really well. And that's what Vermont was."

This celebrity break-up happened after a very short relationship. What are some ways to know your relationship doesn't have longevity early on?

Cupid's Advice:

For the most part, we want the relationships we enter to last. Sometimes there are signs to look out for to tell if the relationship is most likely going to hit a dead end down the line. Cupid has a few red flags to share, get ready for some relationship advice:

1. Lack of trust: Trust is built overtime, but if there is no amount of trust, then the relationship will likely end soon. Trust is essential and can make or break a relationship. Consider the following: do you not trust them because of your own issues or actually because of them? Sometimes we have trouble trusting people, not because of what they do or the way they are, but because of what we've been through before them. This is something to consider before you go crazy over not trusting them, and thinking your relationship won't last. However, at the end, you need to learn to trust those who have earned it.

2. You can't agree on anything: There are certain things you should be agreeing on. It's okay to have differences in opinion, but if you can't agree on things like goals and the future, then this is a red flag. There should be some similarities when it comes to the important stuff. To add on, when disagreeing on things, the situation shouldn't get out of hand. You should be able to approach and get through the conversation calmly, not always ending in a fight— so this is something else to also look out for.

3. Commitment issues: The inability to fully commit to you and the relationship is an obvious red flag. But that is not the only thing we mean when we say commitment issues. There are other things to look out for. If you notice that your partner in general has an inability to commit to things, then that's a possible red flag that you guys won't work out. In a successful relationship, we need consistency and devotion. If your partner isn't dedicated, responsible, or is unable to pull through with their obligations, then it's a definite bad sign. We need someone we can count on at the end of the day.

Because Gomez's relationship with Mommy Dearest was affected after she got back with Bieber, there is tons of pressure and negativity in the air. "It's been hard for her because she is super close with her mom. Her mom was her rock when she was having her health complications," the source added. "Justin and Selena decided to take a break to give her family some more time to heal and take in the idea of her and Justin being a couple again." As if that's not enough, Bieber "doesn't care about anyone but himself," another source said. "The second she saw it, she walked away, especially now with her health. She knows she doesn't need him." Let's see what happens in this messy situation.

This celebrity break-up is said to be sparked by Selena's mom. What are some ways to deal with a parent who doesn't like your significant other?

Cupid's Advice:

Being with and loving someone who your fam does not approve of can be stressful and just plain hard. Cupid has some love advice on things to consider and how to deal with a parent not liking your partner:

1. Consider if your partner is worth the fight: This may sound harsh, but if you're close to your family, you have to evaluate this. Is this person for right now or are you guys both thinking long-term? You have to assess the seriousness of your relationship before you go jumping through hoops for a person that may not be there in the not-so-distant future.

2. Communicate with your family and partner: If you're serious about your partner, then you have to talk with both parties about the situation. First talk to your fam. Express to them your feelings about the person and relationship, and don't forget to include how the disapproval is affecting you. Do the same with your partner –discuss your feelings about them and your family, along with the way their disapproval of them is affecting you and your relationship. Sometimes it will take more than communicating, but communicating constantly is important.

3. Take some time apart if needed: This may not work for everyone, but it may work for Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber, we'll see. Taking a break isn't ideal for every relationship, so you must know if it is something that is convenient and can help yours. Taking time apart may show your family that you really care about their opinions and it can even show them how you are affected by not being with your partner. This should not be taken as a sign of submission, but as a way to cope in the meantime.

Best of luck to any of you facing this issue! Share your stories below!
