

Eddie Cibrian's Ex Brandi Glanville is Dating A-List Actor Gerard Butler

It looks like Brandi Glanville has moved on! Eddie Cibrian's ex was spotted on August 27th at a beach party, getting hot and frisky with A-list actor Gerald Butler, according to Hollyscoop. Glanville has a spot on Bravo's 'The Real Housewives of Beverly hills' and has traded her TV actor ex for a movie star. It's not too bad for a girl who got cheated on and dumped.

How do you make it clear to your ex that you've moved on?

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to show your ex that you have moved on when a relationship ends. We're not talking about busting his car windows in or posting shameless pictures of you making out with random guys on Facebook. Cupid has some classy ways to go about it:

1. Change your relationship status: If social networking is your thing, than make it known on Facebook or with a quick Twitter post that you are now a single lady. Note: This should be the last post about you and your ex left behind in the cyber world.

2. Take a hint from Brandi Glanville: If you're not ready to date, why not have a little fun? A fling or make out session with a hot guy says you've moved on and are focusing on you.

3. Get a new look: Get a new haircut, wardrobe or hobby; celebrities do it all the time! It's time to let loose and have some fun.

LeAnn Rimes' Ex Dean Sheremet Is Married

LeAnn Rimes isn't the only happily remarried half of her broken marriage to Dean Sheremet. Now, Sheremet has tied the knot with photographer Sarah Silver, according to People. The pair became engaged in November of last year. After being married by a City Clerk, the proud husband posted a video of he and his bride stepping out of the office. He was wearing a gray suit with no tie and his new wife was wearing a short one-shoulder red dress while holding a bouquet of flowers. Congratulations to the newlyweds!

How do you know when you're ready to move on after a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Dean Sheremet and LeAnn Rimes were married for seven years before calling it quits. Now, both of them seem happy in new marriages. Cupid has some tell-tale signs that it's time to move on:

1. You're smiling: Perhaps you don't have a smile on your face all the time, but it's important that you've recovered from your past relationship enough that you're able to let loose and have a good time. No one wants to date a frowny-face.

2. You've established independence: When you get out of a long relationship, it's important to come into yourself again and regain all of the things that make you, you. Once you've done that, it's much more likely you're ready for a new and healthy relationship.

3. You've tied up loose ends: "She has a lot of baggage" is not something you want to hear about yourself. Make sure you've gotten close on your past relationship before you attempt to bring someone new into your life.

Eddie Cibrian Defends Criticism Over Wife LeAnn Rimes' Body

LeAnn Rimes is getting hit with the criticism that her weight loss may be the result of an eating disorder, even though she tweets every time she eats. “LOVE Thin Mint Cookies!” she said in one such tweet, according to Hollyscoop. However, health expert Dr. Farid Zarif said that her weight drop could be due to stress. Regardless, her new hubby, Playboy actor Eddie Cibrian, defended her honor by calling her body “perfect.” “I think she looks wonderful,” he said. “She is very healthy, and to me—perfect.”

How do you know when to defend your partner’s decisions?

Cupid’s Advice:

Not all the time is everyone going to be estactic about a choice his or her partner makes. However, most of the time, we expect the ones we love to support us no matter what. But when is it OK to stick up for your significant other? Cupid has some thoughts:

1. Health conscious: Are you sure your partner’s decisions will leave his or her health in good shape? As long as your mates decision aren’t affecting his or her well-being, you probably shouldn't step in.

2. The long run: Though it isn't always fun to think about the effects that decisions have long-term, you may as well get it over with sooner rather than later. It's the only way to know if a decision is truly a good one.

3. Eternal smile: Will this decision truly make your partner happy? If his or her smile will only be temporary as a result of this decision and will then turn to a permanent frown, then think a little harder about it.

Celebrity Breakups: Who Burned Who?

By Tanni Deb

Celebrities might seem like they have it all – a successful career, beautiful looks and a significant other who everyone runs after. Though their lives may appear perfect, don't be fooled by the glitz and glamour of Hollywood's shine. We all know that some romances don't last, and the following pairs are no exception. Here are five celebrities who were bitten by the cheating bug – and then burned by their former flame:

1. Britney Spears and Justin Timberlake: Timberlake admitted to falling in love with Spears when they first met on the set of The Mickey Mouse Club in 1993. "I was infatuated with her from the moment I saw her," he told CBS News. The couple started dating five years later, but ended their relationship in 2002 when Spears allegedly cheated on Timberlake with choreographer Wade Robson. Shortly after their split, Timberlake released 'Cry Me A River,' a revenge song for Spears. However, the N'Sync singer later told MTV, "The song is not about her. The video is about me."

2. Meg Ryan and Dennis Quaid: This actor pair divorced after she was caught cheating with Russell Crowe while filming Proof of Life in 2000. She used Quaid's infidelity to explain her own actions and accused him of adultery throughout their marriage. Quaid fought back and said, "It was eight years ago, and I find it unbelievable that Meg continues publicly to rehash and rewrite the story of our relationship." Although Quaid and Crowe both have new loves in their lives, the You've Got Mail star remains single.

3. Valerie Bertinelli and Eddie Van Halen: Bertinelli revealed to Oprah Winfrey in 2008 that she and her ex-husband cheated on each other. "He claims to this day that I cheated first, but I don't know," she said. "I don't know about the timing." Although their 25-year marriage ended in 2006, they remain friends. Bertinelli even attended Van Halen's wedding to Janie Liszewski in 2009.

4. Elizabeth Edwards and John Edwards: When John Edwards admitted to having an affair, his wife Elizabeth Edwards got the ultimate revenge. In her will, which was released on January 2011, she left all of her possessions to her children. Well, can you really blame her? After all, who bothers leaving something to their cheating spouse?

5. LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian: This couple is a double whammy. Rimes not only ruined her own marriage, but also Cibrian's, as the couple cheated on their spouses with each other while filming Northern Lights. They eventually tied the knot this year, despite rumors about Cibrian cheating on Rimes with his estranged wife. The saying "once a cheater, always a cheater" comes to mind in this situation.

LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian Pack On the PDA At Bash

LeAnn Rimes and new husband Eddie Cibrian were anything, but shy at an NBC upfront bash at Del Posto in NYC last week.

According to UsMagazine.com, the newlyweds were indulging in some major PDA at the party. They were apparently “making out in the middle of [everything],” said a source. The source explained by saying that Rimes was “making a compete scene and holding up her camera as they are making out so she [could] take pictures of them making out – it was unreal.”

Is there such a thing as too much PDA?

Cupid’s Advice:

Everyone has a different opinion on what is an acceptable amount of affection to reveal to the public. Cupid has some general guidelines to follow when you’re unsure:

1. Think about another couple: If you saw a random couple in public, would it gross you out to watch them make out in front of you? If the answer is “yes,” then you probably should refrain from doing the same thing with your partner. As the old adage says, treat those around you as you’d want to be treated.

2. Decide if it's necessary: It's always a good thing to ensure that your partner feels loved and cared for at all times, and that includes when you're out in public. That said, think about whether showing excessive affection in front of people is truly needed. The answer is, probably not.

3. Analyze your reasoning: Are you just showing affection in front of people to make someone jealous? Are you simply trying to reassure yourself that the relationship is solid? Either way, those are probably not good reasons to do it. Sometimes the reasoning behind our actions reveal deeper truths.

LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian Prepared the Kids for Their Wedding

LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian sat down and had a very important conversation with Cibrian's young sons three days before their wedding, according to People. Because it's Cibrian's second marriage, he wanted mason, 7, and Jake, 4, to know exactly what to expect on the big day. "The kids have known we were getting married since we got engaged," said Rimes. "We explained that they were going to have two families." Cibrian chimed in, saying, "The kids come first in everything we do. We wanted to make sure LeAnn and my wedding was not only ours, but their party too. They were beyond excited to celebrate us all coming together as a family."

Rimes and Cibrian took the kids' role in their future marriage very seriously, as they even went to therapy to learn the best way to communicate with them.

How do you explain a second marriage to your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

It's not always easy to make children feel comfortable when it comes to one of their parents remarrying. Cupid has some advice on how to handle the situation:

1. Attend therapy: Take a cue from LeAnn Rime and Eddie Cibrian. If you're not quite sure how to explain a second marriage to your kids or how they may react, attending therapy as a family is a great idea. Everyone will be able to talk about their feelings in a safe environment.

2. Make it fun: A great way to get through to your kids may be to turn the situation into a game or fairy tale. Have a family game night where the kids are most comfortable and casually explain the situation. This way the children are calm and more receptive to the news.

3. Be honest: Simply be up front and explain to the kids how you two truly love each other and just because you're getting married, it doesn't mean you'll love them any less. Explain that a second marriage may be different, but different in a good way.

Cupid's Advice:

When you're part of a couple, holidays change completely. Cupid has some insights on what to expect:

1. Share time: After you get married, for better or worse, you'll get to know your in-laws well. When a big holiday rolls around, you may find yourself splitting time between your mate's family and your own.

2. Split holidays: Some couples divide up holidays so that you spend Christmas with one family and Easter with another, for example. Decide with your partner what works best.

3. Get more presents: When you have a spouse, your family doubles! Now you'll have more people to cook and shop for ... but the more the merrier, right?

- 2. They help make the marriage yours: Other than the venue, guests, clothing and theme, a couple doesn't have much say in the sacred process of marriage. The same speech is given at every wedding in order to make it official, but by exchanging your own vows, you put a personal spin on the proceedings.
- 3. They help make the day unforgettable: Personal vows help make your wedding even more unforgettable. When the going gets tough in your marriage, you'll always have your vows to look back on to get you through a difficult time.

LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian Party With Cibrian's Ex Brandi Glanville

Apparently kids really do bring people together! LeAnn Rimes and fiance Eddie Cibrian were seen socializing with Brandi Glanville, Cibrian's ex-wife, for Cibrian and Glanville's son Jake's 4th birthday party at Chuck E. Cheese's over the weekend. According to UsMagazine.com, the three have been rivals ever since Eddie Cibrian cheated on wife, Gianville with Rimes in 2009. That said, last month they decided to call a Twitter truce with Rimes tweeting, "As a collective unit, Brandi and I would like all negativity to cease toward one another. Please for our families' sake stop the hate now and let us live our lives."

What changes do you have to make to put jealousy in the past?

Cupid's Advice:

There comes a time in all of our lives where we have to move on and put certain things behind us. Cupid has some advice on changes to make in your life to put the green-eyed monster in the past:

1. Live in the moment: As hard as it is to forgive and forget, the only way for you to move along with your life is to live for today, and let go of things in the past.

2. Focus on the good: Jealousy comes from our constant need to look at what others in our lives have that we don't. Start focusing on what you do have, and you'll begin to see that there's more to be thankful for than you originally thought.

3. Avoid questions: If you know that you have a tendency to be an envious person, try not to ask about past relationships or things that other people have that may trigger your jealousy.

LeAnn Rimes Plans to Argue Naked for Successful Marriage

LeAnn Rimes has a theory about ensuring a successful marriage.

She tweeted, “A good friend just told me that the key to a successful marriage was to argue naked! I’m gonna do that from now on, when that rarely happens.” What guy can continue an argument in a situation like that? Luckily, according to Rimes, everything is flowing smoothly between her and Cibrian.

She told UsMagazine.com that Cibrian has been an active participant in the wedding planning process and things have been pretty “chill.”

What are ways to keep conflict from escalating in a relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting naked is just one unconventional way to prevent conflicts from escalating in a relationship. Cupid has some other tips:

1. Communication: Discuss things that bother you before allowing them to snowball into something that can end up causing a major rift between you and your significant other.

2. Compromise: Relationships are all about working together and making the effort to show the other person you care. If certain things bother you, it's best to try to compromise so the little things don't turn into big conflicts.

3. Choose your battles: Sometimes it's best that you let your partner win an argument every once in a while because there are most likely bigger things to worry about than the typical everyday issues couples face.

LeAnn Rimes and Brandi Glanville End Feud Over Eddie Cibrian

The ongoing internet feud between country crooner LeAnn Rimes and her fiancé Eddie Cibrian's ex wife Brandi Glanville is over, reports UsMagazine.com. "We have communicated and have a direct understanding that we are only ourselves on Twitter and have no other accounts that try to destroy one another," Rimes tweeted.

Should you be concerned about your partner's ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Your partner is with you for a reason. Always remember, you were chosen over everyone else:

1. Underlying issues: If you're self-conscious about your love life for some reason or you began to date your partner while he was still connected to an ex, this can cause issues. Sometimes you should just ignore the past and focus on the present.

2. Over the line: Does your partner's ex continuously step over the line? If the ex in question continues to make themselves known in an unwanted situation, speak up and tell him or her how you feel.

3. You're naïve: If your partner's ex is still around because your partner is keeping them around, perhaps you should look into this. Is your partner being 100% honest with you about letting his ex down slowly and carefully? A breakup takes one conversation, not three weeks.

What are benefits of staying out of the public eye as a couple?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re a celebrity couple, you belong to the public. However, even celebrities should be entitled to a private life:

- 1. Quiet time: Everyone needs a little peace and quiet, and when you stay out of the public eye, couples can enjoy quiet moments together.
- 2. Having a private life: Staying out of the public eye makes it that much easier to have a private life.
- 3. Skip the scrutiny: Being private about your relationship keeps you and your partner away from the often cruel and unnecessary scrutiny of the public.

How do you have a date night with kids?

Cupid's Advice:

While many feel that romance becomes much harder to maintain after children enter into the equation, many others have found this sentiment to be untrue. Here are a few ways to have a date night (even with kids):

1. Put your trust in technology: While video games, television and computers take away from study time, they can also keep your children occupied. Try renting a movie or a new video game for your children to play with while you and your partner enjoy some quality time together.

2. Take the kids with you: There are many restaurants that are family friendly. Experiment with a few, and you may find that both you and your children are happy with the experience.

3. Hire a babysitter: If you yearn for a date night without the kids, hire a babysitter. Trusted babysitters are lifesavers for couples in need of a night out, and most come at the reasonable price of about $10 per hour.

Did Reese Witherspoon and LeAnn Rimes' Men Pay for their Rings?

With new celebrity engagements comes speculation over the rings. The debate gets heated when A-listers pair with relatively unknown individuals because people question how the future groom can afford his bride's massive diamond. Jeweler Johnny Brookheart explained to E! Online how men like Jim Toth and Eddie Cibrian purchase rings for their fiancées (Reese Witherspoon and LeAnn Rimes, respectively). Brookheart explained, "For celebrity clients I typically ask for half the value down and generously finance the rest for a long term...We keep a team of experts on retainer who can help us value and collateralize almost everything under the sun. Houses, horses, art, watches, etc. We'll either help them secure a loan with their assets, or we may just make a trade." If further financial help is needed, Brookheart explains that his jewelers present the grooms with discounts, though the generosity of the discount is measured by "... how willing the star is to assist in crediting the jeweler after the proposal...It's always a negotiation, but this is where being A-list really pays off."

What do you do if your partner can't afford a nice engagement ring?

Cupid's Advice:

While it's always nice to receive a pleasant shock when coming face -to-face with a giant diamond ring for the first time, this expectation is not always realistic. If your partner can't afford a nice engagement ring, here are some options:

- 1. Pay together: Try splitting the cost of the ring to make the burden easier on the both of you. This way, you'll be able to get the ring you really want without making your partner worry.
- 2. Get a temporary ring: Try wearing a thin golden band instead of a diamond ring. When a time comes when you and your partner are both more financially capable, then buy a bigger engagement ring. Plus, then you'll have two rings with sentimental value!
- 3. Go without a ring: There is not a law requiring engagement rings. If you have your heart set on a diamond, then buy a more affordable necklace or bracelet. If you don't care for jewelry, celebrate by going on a small vacation, or save the money for the future.

LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian Barred from New Year's Eve A- List Party

Online, "They tried to get on the list, but he said no because of his allegiance to Eddie's ex-wife." It's time for Plan B! The newly engaged couple spent the night at Pink Kitty nightclub in Cabo.

What are ways to overcome animosity from ex partners?

Cupid's Advice:

Going separate ways is unfortunately not always a pleasant experience, but don't let the past keep you from moving forward. Cupid has a few tips on overcoming ill will from an ex:

1. Take the higher road: In the words of Sandra Bullock, “Whoever established the high road and how high it should be should be fired.” Yet Bullock still maintains grace and poise by refusing to allow her ex to bring her down – as should you!

2. Let it go: Holding a grudge requires retaining a lot of negativity. Instead, focus not only forgiving your ex partner, but yourself as well. Move on.

3. Settle your differences: Forgiveness goes a long way, especially when you can both come forward and apologize for the past. Everyone makes mistakes!

What are reasons to involve your family in your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

An engagement is one of the happiest moments of your life, and who better to share it with than the people who have seen you through it all? Cupid has some reasons to involve your family in your engagement plans:

1. Approval: Even though they have probably met your partner before, introducing someone as your fiance is totally different. Make sure the people who know you best approve of this decision.

2. Respect: Your parents and family are the ones that have raised you and been with you through it all. Include them in the engagement proceedings out of respect.

3. To share your happiness: Because your engagement is one of the happiest times in your life, sharing that joy with your family makes it even happier.

Gwyneth Paltrow Slams Celebrity Couples Who Teach Important Relationship Lessons

By Jessica DeRubbo

Recent Glee guest Gwyneth Paltrow is making headlines lately. Even though she's part of a high-profile celebrity relationship herself, she is speaking out against "unnecessary" celebrity couples. In fact, she went so far as to tell CNN, "It's just unnecessary to be a public couple, and to have your couple-dom or whatever be its own entity. It doesn't make sense to have that in the public world."

Alright, Gwyneth, I see your point. There are definitely famous couples who live for the spotlight, which is pathetic. One obvious example is former Hills stars Heidi Montag and Spencer Pratt.

I don't know about you, but I'm under the impression that their every move is to garnish media coverage. And then there's LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian. Has anyone else noticed their everyday presence in tabloids lately? They cheated on their respective spouses with each other and then they spend months defending their indiscretion to the media. Is that necessary?

Even Taylor Swift is becoming a constant presence in the celebrity relationship world. While she doesn't currently have an 'other-half,' I'd be shocked to see someone who doesn't know that Taylor Swift is single and loving it. I've read at least three interviews in the last month where she refers to her singleness. Okay, we get it already!

Yes, I see Gwyneth Paltrow's point. She even refers to her own relationship, saying, "When I see high-profile relationships now, I think, 'Oh my God' even though I'm technically in one. But we sort of don't do anything public, we try to keep it behind the scenes as possible (sic).

Because it just generates more interest...it just undermines the quality of your life." That being said, there's certainly a lot to learn from those high-profile pairs that Gwyneth Paltrow speaks about. Celebrity couples can teach us about our own personal relationships. Consider the following:

1. Heidi Montag and Spencer Pratt: You may roll your eyes at their publicity stunts, but through that negativity you realize that you want to avoid being like them in your own life. They convince you that it's probably best not to discuss every detail of your relationship to anyone who will listen.

2. LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian: This singer and actor duo made the mistake of cheating on their significant others and then defended their decision to do so, even though many would agree that infidelity is morally wrong. LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian help you realize that if you find yourself falling in love with someone who isn't your current partner, you should call it quits and come clean about any wrong doings.

Apologize and move on. And whatever you do, don't rehash the past in public!

3. Taylor Swift: She's not only been linked to John Mayer, Taylor Lautner, Joe Jonas and Jake Gyllenhaal, but she's turned around and written songs about it. And right now, Taylor Swift is embracing the single life, calling it “wonderful.” What have we learned from her? Being single is okay! Dating is okay! Instead of sulking in a dark corner and lamenting your current solo status, enjoy the experience while it lasts. If Taylor Swift can do it, so can you.

Gwyneth Paltrow may make a valid point in her rant on high-profile celebrity couples, but I highly doubt those who crave the limelight will leave the tabloids anytime soon. As long as they exist, we can use these stories to gain insight into the multifaceted world of dating and relationships.

LeAnn Rimes Congratulates Ex-Husband, Dean Sheremet on Engagement

After finding out that ex-husband Dean Sheremet was engaged, country superstar LeAnn Rimes tweeted her congratulations, People reports. “Congrats to @deansheremet and @sarah_silver on your engagement! A little birdie told me the happy news last night. Wishes for a life full of happiness.” LeAnn Rimes made headlines last year when she admitted to cheating on her husband with actor Eddie Cibrian, who was also married at the time.

How do you cope when your ex moves on?

Cupid’s Advice:

When your ex-husband moves on without a backward glance, it can really hurt. Cupid has some advice on how to cope:

1. Remember why it didn’t work: When your ex gets serious with someone new, you may think, “Why her and not me?” But don’t forget – you ended things for a reason.

2. Stay busy: The more you dwell on the situation, the worse you’ll feel. Go out, and try to have fun.

3. It's your turn: If your ex-husband can move on, so can you! It might be just the push you need to get your act together and find your own Mr. or Ms. Right.

LeAnn Rimes Has No Regrets About Affair with Eddie Cibrian

After meeting on the set of the Lifetime movie Northern Lights last year, LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian began an off-camera affair when they were both still married to other people. In a recent article in US Weekly, the country queen revealed that what happened with Eddie Cibrian is not who she is, but she refuses to live with regrets. “It happens every day to so many people,” said LeAnn Rimes. “And if I take away my album sales, my words ... you have just another couple. You had two couples whose marriages didn’t work who really stumbled upon each other and fell in love.”

Is an affair okay if it’s in the name of love?

Cupid’s Advice:

Though some couples are able to work it out after an affair, most of the time an affair marks the end of a relationship. Though you have every right to fall in love with someone else, try to be fair to your partner and end your current relationship before you start a new one. Here are some things to consider:

- 1. Honesty is the best policy: If you have true feelings for someone else that are starting to prevail over the feelings you have for your current partner, it’s time to end the relationship before someone gets hurt.
- 2. Forbidden love: The secrecy that is often behind an affair can add some much-missed excitement to your love life. Make sure you have true feelings for your new lover and aren’t just getting caught up in the excitement of it all.
- 3. We all make mistakes: It’s only human to follow your heart instead of your mind, especially when it comes to love. If you do slip up, don’t be too hard on yourself, but make sure to come clean to those you care about.

Eddie Cibrian Gives LeAnn Rimes Birthday Bling

LeAnn Rimes' live-in boyfriend, Eddie Cibrian, may not have popped the question during her relaxing 28th birthday celebration last week in Mexico; however, he did give her some expensive rose gold bangles that she adores. Rimes raved to People about how beautiful the bracelets were and how very sweet it was of her boyfriend to pick them out for her. The country singer recently went from living on her own to sharing her home with Cibrian and his two children, which he has joint custody of with his ex, Brandi Glanville. Does jewelry always make the perfect gift?

Cupid's Advice:

As something that is both expensive and alluring, fine jewelry always seems to be the go-to present on birthdays and holidays. Though it can bring smiles to the faces of many, it can also be a disappointing gift when the recipient was expecting something else.

1. Great expectations: It's easy to set yourself up for disappointment when you go into an occasion hoping for a marriage proposal. Try not to assume or expect a commitment from your partner, even if it means wearing a diamond solitaire around your neck instead of your finger.

2. Give a memorable gift: It's not about the gift itself, but what it stands for, such as a memory of an amazing trip you took together. Though jewelry does fit into this category, any sentimental gesture can be a romantic way of letting someone know you care.

3. The cop-out: Sometimes gift giving is difficult, no matter how well you know your partner. This could result in picking out a pretty piece of jewelry simply because you can't think of anything else. The problem, is a gift with no meaning could be worse than no gift at all. Creativity and thought almost always trumps expense!

When's the best time and the best way to move in with your flame?

Cupid's Advice:

For many couples, making the move to cohabitation is big. But is it the best option? Cupid is here with some advice before you start making up a new set of keys:

1. Look to the future: If both of you feel the time is right to make the move, go for it. However, make sure you're equally committed to the relationship, and that moving in together isn't just out of convenience.

2. Whose roof are you living under?: Whether you're renting, buying, or one partner is moving into the other's home, make sure the living arrangements are clear. For example, are both names on the lease? Who is responsible for what expenses? Take a look at some key money rules for moving in together.

3. Don't confuse the kids: As is the case with Cibrian and Rimes, there are children involved. Before you uproot the family, consider the kids. Will they be in the same school district? Will they leave friends behind? Age also matters. Teens may be mature enough to understand what is going on and the reasons behind the move, but younger children will most likely be confused, and will come to you for explanations.

LeAnn Rimes' Ex Is Moving On!

Not only is he moving on, but he's moving in! With a rising career and a new girl in his arms, Dean Sheremet is ready to make some big changes. The chef and his new girlfriend, Sarah Silver, are moving in together later this month. Sheremet confirmed the big move to US Magazine on Monday, and said, "It's true. We're moving in together and I'm really happy. Life is good." Sheremet and his ex, singer LeAnne Rimes, finalized their divorce last month, ending seven years of marriage.

Moving in with your partner is a big step – how do you know if you're ready?

Cupid's Advice:

There are many things to consider before you consider moving in with a partner. Cupid has a simple guide to make the process easier:

1. Time: It's not about how long you've been together, but about how mature you are in your relationship. A year-long relationship between 23-year-olds is different from a year-long relationship between 33-year-olds. We mature and get more secure with who we are as age. It's important to know what kind of person you are, and what kind of things you expect and want from a partner, before combining households. Consider these issues to gauge your move-in readiness.

2. Commitment level: Make sure you're both aware of each other's expectations. Some people think moving in will lead to marriage, while others view cohabitation as a way to test the waters. "This type of miscommunication is all too common," says Nina Atwood, a relationship author, who was quoted in a MyLifetime.com article. "Moving in together is usually a step toward making a decision about marriage, so it's very important to discuss this openly."

3. Money matters: This issue is one of the top argument starters for couples. Make sure you're both aware of how your finances will be taken care of.

Eddie Cibrian's Privacy Plea After Infidelity Goes Public

Now, Cibrian is requesting privacy for himself and his family, telling [E! He would like to focus on his two children from his former marriage.

What drives people to cheat?

Cupid's Advice:

The reasons behind cheating are different for everyone. See if the following ring true for you:

1. Feelings of inadequacy: Some people start feeling like they don't measure up next to their partner, whether it's in terms of salary, work position, or even within your shared inner social circle. Resentment may set in, which can be a factor in why people cheat.

2. Mixed emotions: Your relationship still has that spark, but are you still searching for something more? Figure out what's missing in your partnership that's causing you to focus your attention elsewhere.

3. Lack of self-love: Sometimes, it really is you, and not the other person. Take yourself out of the relationship to figure out what you want before you end up cheating.
