

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Paula Patton, Miley Cyrus and Catherine Zeta-Jones

By Shoshi

For this week's celebrity couple predictions, I want to consider three duos who have been plagued with breakup rumors – some of which have been confirmed.

Related Link: Paula Patton Says "Passion" Is Key to a Successful Relationship

Paula Patton and Robin Thicke: These two have been one of the most interesting couples to watch lately – who knew they could be so entertaining? Fans have been waiting for Patton to get upset with her husband for being racy with Miley Cyrus on stage at MTV's Video Music Awards.

From a clairvoyant point of view, they are a couple with a lot of layers. Thicke was recently quoted as saying that his marriage was “the most dysfunctional functional relationship in Hollywood.” That’s actually a fair assessment; the thing that keeps them solid is trust.

The famous pair are doing quite well in their relationship despite all of the shenanigans. The actress doesn’t freak out when he checks out another woman, and she knows, at the end of the day, Thicke is coming home to her. Don’t expect any separation or divorce headlines. In fact, in less than a year, they’ll be pregnant again.

Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth: Speaking of Cyrus, it’s no surprise that her rep confirmed her engagement was over on Monday. As recent as last weekend, she stopped following her alleged beau on Twitter, but this relationship hit “hot mess status” months ago. Hemsworth tried to hang in there, and it’s time for him to officially move on.

When looking at their energy, what kept these two together was sex; they weren’t destined for anything more than hot nooky. The pop star’s energy is all over the place, and she isn’t focused on love, which will make it difficult for anyone trying to have a serious relationship with her.

As for what’s next for these two, Cyrus will have a few flings. Once she’s finished trying to be the next Lady Gaga with a splash of Madonna from the 80s, she’ll be ready for a relationship that has meaning. Hemsworth, on the other hand, will end up with a dark-haired actress on his arm.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Predictions: Katy Perry, Kate Middleton and Fergie

Catherine Zeta-Jones and Michael Douglas: When it was announced that this married pair separated, the only surprise was that it hadn’t happened years ago. Their 13-year marriage lasted longer than most people predicted, as many critics gave it only 5 years. There are many theories on why their relationship fell apart, but it's all speculation; instead of paying attention to the tabloids, I decided to take an in-depth look at their love. I have no doubt that they'll divorce. The actress is a bit lost at the moment; it's important to note that her bipolar disorder is not that main cause for her detachment in their relationship. She is seeking something that she's not getting in her marriage.

They signed a pre-nup when they first got hitched, but the brunette beauty will want a different settlement. Let's just say she thinks that she deserves more money. After a lot of nasty back-and-forth, Douglas will give her what she wants to get rid of her.

After the smoke clears and they're divorced, Zeta-Jones will end up with someone younger who will help her learn to live again. She is known for having an appetite for older men, so this will be new ground for her. Expect her to become known as a full-fledged cougar. Douglas will be fine, as he has a new outlook on life. If he does look for love again, it'll be with someone closer to his age.

How do you know when to go public with your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you first begin dating someone new, it's a good idea to keep things under wraps for awhile until you figure out if the relationship is going to last. Spilling the beans on your love life too soon can cause some tension between you and your new boo, especially if he/she isn't quite prepared to deal with your friends or loved ones. Do you think it's the right time to go public with your partner? Cupid has some tips:

1. Family matters: Has your significant other been asking questions about your family or friends lately? If he/she seems genuinely interesting in your family life, then it's time to go public with the relationship. Don't just break the news to everyone at once using social media applications like Facebook. If your love hasn't met the parents yet, invite your family over for dinner and let them get to know each other. If all goes well, gradually introduce a few of your friends to your boo.

2. You're in love: The obvious sign that it's time to go public with your relationship is if you're in love! You can't imagine being with anyone else and you spend all your time with your new partner. It's time to tell all of your loved ones who you're sharing your life with.

3. Enough time has passed: If the two of you have been a couple for several months now and things seem to be going well, then it's time to let the people you love know what's going on. There's a difference between keeping your love life private and keeping your relationship a complete secret. If you continue to shut your loved ones out of your private life, your partner might think you're ashamed of being with him/her.

What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Perhaps nothing disproves the old saying, “Sticks and stones can break my bones but words can never hurt me” quite like the impact that rumors can have on a relationship. Cupid has some advice to help get you and your partner through it:

1. Get away: Running from your troubles is never a long-term solution but in this case it might be beneficial if you and your beau take some for just each other. Rent out a rustic cabin or check into a bed and breakfast and reaffirm your love for each other.

2. Talk about it: There's only one way to differentiate between rumors and truth: ask! Maintain an open line of communication with your partner and make sure that you are both comfortable addressing the gossip circulation about you two.

3. Clear the air: Confrontation may not be fun but sometimes it's necessary. Go ahead and address those who are spreading rumors about your relationship and set the record straight. As long as you're calm and respectful, there should be no problem.

Amanda Bynes Tweets Her Crush on Liam Hemsworth

By Petra Halbur

Amanda Bynes took to Twitter on June 4th to gush about her latest celebrity crushes. “Liam Helmsworth is the most gorgeous man on the face of the earth other than Tanz Watson. FYi!” Bynes tweeted, misspelling the Hunger Games actor’s last name. According to UsMagazine.com, Bynes has a bit of history with Hemsworth, as the two were spotted together at a nightclub back in 2011.

How do you let your crush know you’re into him or her?

Cupid’s Advice:

When it comes to confronting your crush about your feelings, there is very fine line between being too passive and being too direct. Cupid is here to help you find a middle ground:

1. Drop hints: Incorporate the topic of romance into a conversation and see how your crush responds. Subtly is absolutely key here, but this is a simple, non-confrontational tactic to determine whether or not your relationship has any future.

2. Use non-verbal communication: Try sitting a little closer to your crush during your next conversation, or maintaining eye contact a little longer than usual and see if your crush reciprocates these mild advances or not. Once again, subtly is important here as too much body language can come across as either embarrassing or creepy.

3. Be honest: Unless you want to end up like Eponine from Les Misérables, you're eventually going to have to take a leap of faith and confess your feelings. It may be scary but if you don't, then your relationship will never be anything more than a fantasy.

Celebrity News: Miley Cyrus Says It 'Feels Right' to Wear Engagement Ring and Be Committed

By Andrea Surujnauth

Miley Cyrus recently opened up to Elle UK about her engagement to Liam Hemsworth. The couple got engaged a year ago. “We have a house together and dogs. It just seems right to be wearing this ring and to be committed,” Cyrus said. “But we keep our relationship low-key and don’t talk about it any more.” According to UsMagazine, Cyrus has decided to keep her personal life and relationship to herself and away from the spotlight. “We were too nice to the world and gave them too much insight – into my life and my puppies and my house – and I just don’t feel they get that privilege any more,” Cyrus explained. “Like on my Twitter, I’m much more . . . not conservative, but you don’t see a picture of my dogs. You don’t get that personal stuff any more.”

How do you know when you’re ready to get engaged?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting engaged is a huge step in a relationship. You love the person you are with, but how do you know whether or not you’re ready for that step? Cupid is here with some ways to help you decide:

1. You enjoy every moment: If you enjoy the ups and the downs with your beau then you are ready for the long haul. Marriage is not always exciting and fun so you know you are ready for an engagement if you are happy with your partner no matter if you are having a bad, boring, or sad moment together.

2. No more dating: If you are ready to burn that little black book of yours, then you are ready to be tied down. If you feel that your honey is the only one for you and no one else could make you happier, then you are ready for that step towards holy matrimony.

3. Future plans: If the two of you are already planning for a future together, you are ready for that proposal. You two see a future together and are making plans together so you are both serious enough about the relationship to take this step.

Celebrity News: Liam Hemsworth Hangs in Australia While Miley Cyrus Parties Without Engagement Ring

What are some ways to keep rumors and gossip from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to dating, all of your friends seem to be overly curious about your relationship. This curiosity often leads to false truths and rumors about you and your partner. Cupid offers some advice on how to save the relationship from the lies:

1. Talk it through: A nasty rumor is going around that you and your boyfriend might break up; confront him about it first. Address the rumor and find out why it started. It may have started because you two were arguing in front of your friends. If your disputes are causing people to think there's a problem in your relationship, make sure there aren't any. Talking out your problems will create a solution for both of you, and will put an end to the rumors of a breakup.

2. Verify the lies: Sometimes, you hear rumors about your partner and wonder if they're true or not. Before worrying if your boyfriend actually cheated on you, tell him about the rumor. This way, you are not getting your facts from unreliable sources. If the rumor is not true, he will probably laugh at how ridiculous it all sounds. If you choose not to bring it to his attention, you will always be wondering if it is the truth—which may drive you a little crazy.

3. Remember the good: In any relationship, there are good qualities and bad ones as well. People tend to only see the bad ones, and let them stick out in their minds. If you tell your friends your partner snores in his sleep and has gross toenails, that's all they will talk about, making the situation sound a lot worse. Little nuisances such as these are no reason to end the relationship. Keep in mind all of the reasons you fell in love with your man—you already accepted his flaws, don't let your friend's opinions get to you now.

ABCNews states that the couple have very different personalities, which make the relationship challenging, however, the love is present which is all that matters. People reports that the two are working out their problems while planning for their wedding.

How do you keep rumors from ruining your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are hard in the first place, and then rumors are thrown into the equation. It is bound to get messy. Depending on how close you and your partner are, you may have to work harder to prevent rumors from wedging their way into your relationship. Social media stirs up this rumor-relationship pot even more, sometimes making it bubble over. Cupid has some advice on how to keep rumors out:

1. Truth: Truth is essential to have when you are in a relationship, especially if rumors are present. For example, say your partner saw a member of the opposite sex text you. This could be a no-big-deal, so your mate asks you if 'Jamie' texted you, you say no. This then erupts into a spiral of accusations, yelling, and a whole lot of mess. Even if it is a serious matter and you don't wish to tell your beau, tell them anyways. Truth will always triumph.

2. Communication: You know what people say, communication is key? Well they are more than right. It is necessary to communicate sharply with your partner. If rumors are present, it is even more important that you both talk about everything going on. Doing this will wash the rumors out, and leave you both with a loving and happy relationship. If you don't communicate, and let all your emotions bottle up inside, they will inevitably explode out and cause catastrophe.

3. Respect: You need to respect your partner, and your partner needs to respect you. If you or they don't, leave the relationship as soon as possible. With respect, even if you don't believe what your mate is saying, you need to go by them. If they say it is true, and the rumors are false, respect their honesty in confronting them and push the rumors away. Respect is the easiest way to get rid of the rumors for good.

Find Out How Miley Cyrus Ranks Husband-to-Be Liam Hemsworth

By Jessica

Conigliaro

Miley Cyrus holds her relationship with fiancé Liam Hemsworth very close to her heart. She has found the person she wants to spend the rest of her life with, and is now happier than ever. People reports her saying, “Number one is my relationship with Liam. That’s what I feel the most confident in.”

What are some signs that your partner is “the one”?

Cupids Advice:

In order for a relationship to last, you need to fully understand the person you are with and what their expectations are. Knowing you have met the right person can be tricky to figure out. Here are some things to pay attention to when deciding if you found the person for you:

1. You deal with conflict well: Arguments in relationships are unavoidable. How you act toward each other during disputes can give out signs to you, either good or bad; if you are expressing how you feel without being purposely disrespectful to your partner, the relationship is in good standing. Apologizing during arguments when stepping out of line, and learning from every fight can strengthen your connection with one another. However, if you and your significant other pick fights in order to hurt each other's feelings, this could mean that things aren't going so well.

2. Similar life goals: It is important to want the same things out of life as your partner does. For instance, if you want to get married and have kids one day, and the person your dating hates kids, you probably have not found the person for you. Choose to be with someone who has aspirations that match your own. This will give you a better shot at getting the lifestyle you have always dreamed of (with the right person to share it with).

3. Know what makes them happy: When you get upset, you should be able to rely on your partner to make you feel better. If they know just what to say or do to uplift your mood, you have met someone who should stick around in your life. In return, you should be able to make them feel better as well. If either of you struggles to cheer one another up, you might not have found your perfect match. Find someone who understands what you want and need.

Celebrity Couples Who Have Turned Over a New Leaf

By Courtney Allen

Hollywood just may be the one place where the phrase “love is a battlefield” is an understatement. The land of fortune and fame is the forefront for some of the most scandalous relationships and splits we’ve ever witnessed.

But finding love is not the problem for these celebs; it’s keeping it. For many, passionate romances and ‘I do’s’ end as suddenly and tragically as their last. But luckily, every love story has a different ending... and some endings turn into new beginnings. These four celebrity couples came armed the second time around on the battlefield of love and came out on top:

1. Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick: Kourt and Scott's relationship has been public since the debut of Keeping up with the Kardashians in 2007. Their relationship proved to be the most entertaining in the E! hit reality show thanks to Kourtney's headstrong, sarcastic personality and Scott's wacky, drunken behavior. The couple was known for their rocky relationship, the majority of the blame being placed on Scott's infidelity and immature lifestyle. Kourt pulled the plug on Scott multiple times during their relationship as well as her pregnancy with their first child, Mason. By this point, we all thought Scott had crashed and burned for the last time. Scott finally straightened up his act after Kourtney banned him from seeing Mason. And now seven seasons later, the two are going stronger than ever with the recent birth of their second child, Penelope. If this couple can bounce back, there's hope for us all.

2. Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth: The relationship between Miley and Liam is nothing but a match made in heaven. The grown-up Hannah Montana star met the blue-eyed Aussie in 2009 while filming The Last Song, where they played the roles of young adults who fell in love over summer break. As it so happens, their love story transferred off the big-screen into real life... taking both the good and bad. In the movie, the couple actually breaks up, much like they way they did in 2010. The exact reason may not be known, but the two just couldn't stay away from each other. Cyrus and Hemsworth gave it another try in 2011. The actor popped the question to the singer earlier this year and have been engaged for nearly six months. If there was ever a sequel to "The Last Song," this would be it!

3. Sammi Giancola and Ronnie Magro: If you've ever seen Jersey Shore, you know all about Sweetheart Sammi and Ronnie the Guido. The only thing their relationship was known for was extreme inconsistency and drama. Ronnie's unfaithfulness led us to believe their relationship was practically doomed. Sammi and Ronnie's relationship was without doubt unhealthy, opening doors to verbal and what appeared close to physical abuse. After breaking up countless times throughout multiple seasons, we all anticipated when their rocky romance would end for good. We now know the answer to that: apparently never. The couple is still together today. The good news is that they seem to actually be in a functioning relationship these days. Their love has proved strong enough to overcome their seemingly irreparable past.

4. Audrina Patridge and Corey Bohan: Audrina Patridge is known for her role on The Hills but her relationship with BMX biker Corey Bohan was displayed on her VHL reality show Audrina. Her Aussie beau was prince charming until the show revealed one of his less favorable qualities: possessiveness. Throughout the season, Audrina struggled with her controlling boyfriend who proved to also have a bit of a temper. By the end of the season, Patridge dumped Bohan with the support of her mom. But little did we know that the couple would rekindle their flame a couple months later. Since the show's end, we haven't heard much on their relationship besides the occasional romantic getaway or public event, but everything seems to be in the clear. They have been going steady since the summer of 2011.

What are three ways to enjoy the engagement period before you start planning a wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Engaged? Next comes the wedding with all of the appointments and decisions and research that has to be done – it can be a nightmare. Though, here are some tips on how to enjoy the engagement before starting the stress of planning a wedding:

1. Discuss long-term goals: Instead of jumping right into wedding talk, which can take up an entire engagement period, hold the reigns on that for now. Instead, why not focus on the future that goes beyond the wedding day. If the two of you have not moved in together yet, focus on that aspect.

2. Have an engagement party: Nothing says enjoyment and relaxation like a celebration. Perhaps a few friends will throw an engagement party for you or if you're the do it yourself person, plan a small one for yourself. Don't go overboard though – that's for the wedding.

3. Spend time together: Engaged couples can become so caught up with wedding and marriage talk that they forget who they are as a couple. Don't become lost in all of the future aspects of an engagement and be sure to embrace the here and now.

Miley Cyrus Pays for the Bill with Liam Hemsworth and Friends

How do you know when to let your partner pay for a date?

Cupid's Advice:

The rules of chivalry traditionally place the man responsible for paying for a date. However, the rules of economy have changed, making the playing field even in terms of paying the bill. Here's a few tips on when to let your partner pay for a date, and when to cover it yourself:

1. They offer: There's a big difference between your honey reaching for the bill out of courtesy but allowing you to pay and having them actually offer to pay. If your beau is willing to pay the bill, let them, and be sure to offer to pay next time.

2. They want to split: There's nothing wrong with you and your sweetheart paying for your own meals. If they suggest splitting the check 50/50, that's a good way for both of you to save money and not feel guilty about that $130 check.

3. You're not alone: If you're out with friends, as Cyrus and Hemsworth were, the rules can be different than if it's just a date. For instance, if your partner wants to pay for the entire table out of appreciation for everyone, you can allow him the gesture. Still, be sure to pay them back with something special later.

How do you know your relationship has what it takes to go the distance?

Cupid's Advice:

In any relationship, it's tough to "know" when things are right. Here are some ways to know your relationship has what it takes to go the distance:

- 1. You're willing to make the effort: Every relationship is tough, but if you're willing to work hard for your love, it's bound to be worth it.
- 2. You see a future: Do you envision things in the long term with your sweetheart? If you don't see it lasting more than a week, it likely won't, so try to picture things a year from now and see where you want to be.
- 3. You're happy: The most important part about being in a couple is being happy. Don't stay with your partner if you're not satisfied.

The Hunger Games has sparked a fan battle between Team Gale and Team Peeta. Liam Hemsworth, who plays Gale, stands behind his character 100-percent, but what about his fiancé Miley Cyrus? The newly engaged couple want children quickly and if Cyrus continues to support Hemsworth's career, the duo are sure to make a great little team of their own.

What are some ways to support your partner's passion?

Cupid's Advice:

In a relationship support is a key factor to keeping each partner happy. If your partner doesn't support you in your solo endeavors and vice-versa, it can create tension. Here are some ways to support your mate's passions:

- 1. Show interest: You don't have to always take part in what your partner enjoys, but show interest every now and then. Try asking them about it at least once a day.
- 2. Show up: Actions speak louder than words. Be your partner's date at important events. Staying at home isn't a supportive decision.
- 3. Show equality: Just because you support your partner doesn't mean you need to forget about your own passions. Invite your partner to learn about your endeavors. Support goes two ways.

Sources Say Miley Cyrus Wants a Baby 'Quickly'

After getting engaged just last month, power couple Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth are already talking babies. After being highly criticized for their premature engagement, a Cyrus family source tells UsMagazine.com that “Miley and Liam really want to have a baby quickly.” The rush to start a family may have been sparked by Hemsworth’s brother Chris Hemsworth, who just had a baby girl named India in May. Hemsworth, 22, and Cyrus, 19, were dating on and off for three years before he popped the question.

How do you know when it’s time to have children?

Cupid’s Advice:

Everyone dreams of starting a family, but the appropriate timing may not always be clear. Here are some surefire ways to know you’re that you’re ready to have a baby:

1. You’ve had enough alone time: Many people get married and try to start their family right away. However, this can sometimes be a mistake. Be sure to enjoy some romantic alone time in your marriage before you get ready for a larger family.

2. Your friends are having children: There’s no better way to experience parenthood than along with your friends. Since being a parent is a learning process, getting advice from people you trust who are going through it too can be helpful.

3. You're financially secure: Having children can be a dream come true, but don't let your excitement hinder reality. If you don't have the money to support a family, don't try to start one. You want your child to have the life they deserve, so if you aren't able to make that, it's best to wait.

How would you decide when it's the right time to have kids? Tell us below.

How do you keep your independence while in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes when you're in a relationship, it can be hard to keep yourself from getting completely wrapped up in your partner. Here are a few ways to stay independent:

1. Make sure to keep your friends: A relationship can be time consuming, because you always want to spend time with each other. The most important things are to keep your friends and to continue living your life normally. Once you lose your friends, you rely on solely each other for happiness and completely lose that independence.

2. Reserve at least one night a week with your friends: Have one night of the week which remains a guys/girls night out without each other. This will make sure you're still doing stuff for yourselves.

3. Don't change your dreams for anyone: If there is something you've wanted to do your entire life, don't let anyone change that. You shouldn't have to give something up that once meant so much to you just because you're in a relationship.

Celebrity stars shine so bright and we look up to them. Yet often we are puzzled when they fall, so Shrink Wrap is here to shed light on it all. Is there any love so pure and optimistic as the first? Is Miley too young to be planning her wedding?

Media coverage of the pair is dripping with doubts over the everlasting nature of their romance. But Miley is no naïve little girl. She's faced scrutiny before for her brazen and mature moves, moves that pushed the boundaries of 'age appropriate' (or just plain appropriate). Consider her 2008 photo shoot with Annie Leibovitz. The Vanity Fair spread caused weeks of media uproar for printing images of Miley, then 15, gazing subtly over her shoulder draped in nothing but a satin sheet. Just last week, tabloids were gawking over photos of Miley in her notorious short shorts.

But through it all, Miley has maintained the scrubbed up rep, stemming from her Disney days. Though bold and provocative, she's managed to avoid the club scene scandals that plague other tweens-turned-starlets. She's close with her family and boasts 6 million (yes, million) Twitter followers. Miley's been ranked several times among Forbes top Celebrity 100. She must be doing something right.

Even if youthful naïveté and the pressures of public scrutiny were removed from the equation, there is still a lot the couple has to deal with. But at the end of the day, Miley and Liam are two adults managing mega careers as well as an intimate relationship—no small feat. Most importantly, they are happy and ready to tackle whatever it takes to launch their new marriage. So here's to lending them support and congratulating them on their engagement.

Have you had a loved one marry when you thought they were too young? How did you handle it?

Celebrity Couples Who Have Worn Out Their Welcome

By Whitney Baker

There are some celebrity couples that we love to hate. Sure, they annoy us, but we can't help but wonder what they'll do next. And then there are those couples that we want to go away. They're constantly in the news – and often, for the wrong reasons. Thanks to their outlandish behavior, we've forgotten why they're famous in the first place.

From their frisky displays of public affection to their willingness to do anything for attention, these five Hollywood pairs have us wishing that they'd break up already:

1. Heidi Montag and Spencer Pratt: This couple first met when Lauren Conrad introduced them on The Hills, and we've been following their rocky romance ever since. After their reality show ended, the couple strived to stay in the spotlight with their alleged divorce, Montag's multiple plastic surgeries and her fledgling singing career. Most recently, Speidi has attracted attention by contacting their former – and estranged – co-stars through Twitter. These messages were ignored, making us wonder why we don't do the same.

2. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: Although this new couple hasn't yet confirmed their relationship, they're certainly not keeping their feelings for each other under wraps. Taking their love from coast to coast, they've been spotted getting cozy at a restaurant opening in New York City as well as a Los Angeles Lakers game. Kardashian's even made a romantic fashion statement for her new man, sporting 'KW' earrings at numerous public appearances. Given Kardashian's romantic track record, here's to hoping this relationship doesn't surpass the 72-day mark.

3. LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian: Their relationship had a memorable start: the couple met when they co-starred in the Lifetime movie Northern Lights, and they instantly fell for each other; although, both were married at the time. Rimes and Cibrian have never been shy about their relationship, even going on public dates during their extramarital affair. From Rimes' revealing tweets to their constant PDA, it's time for this couple to get a room.

From the instant The Shankman told People that on the first day of shooting, Cyrus and Hemsworth kissed for the first time, and he and his co-producer Jennifer Gibgot could tell that the two had amazing chemistry. Now the two actors are engaged, meaning that their on-screen chemistry was real. This comes from not only their similar values, but their very different personalities, Shankman claims. "I'll tell you what's so great," he said. "That thing about opposites attract."

What are some things that a kiss can tell you about a potential relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It's been scientifically proven: kissing is a biological way for people to tell whether or not someone will make a good mate. However, even if you don't use the specifics of science, you can still tell a lot about the state of your relationship based on how you and your partner kiss. Here are some things to look for:

- 1. Responsibility: When you kiss your partner, it's easy to check for things like bad breath, lip moisture and the presence of food. A person who takes good care of their mouth before kissing is likely to be attentive and accountable in other areas as well, while someone who is sloppy and messy often will be lacking responsibility elsewhere.
- 2. Nervousness: Does your partner kiss you with confidence and poise, or are they shaky and uncertain? A nervous kisser may be nervous about other aspects of your relationship.
- 3. How you feel afterwards: Don't discount your feelings, even if you're unsure of where they come from. If you feel happy and passionate after a kiss, chances are your relationship is going well. However, if you wind up confused or concerned, it's likely that you'll have a lot to consider about where you and your partner stand.

6 Couture Designers Dying to Design Miley Cryus' Wedding Gown

It's only natural for young girls to begin dreaming up wedding gowns and flower arrangements in their tender years, and for singing superstar Miley Cyrus, that time wasn't too long ago. This week, the 19-year-old pop sensation announced her engagement to actor Liam Hemsworth and it's created a lot of buzz. Whether the actual ceremony is in their near future or not, couture designers Val Stefani, Ines Di Santo, Anne Barge and others immediately started sketching a one-of-a-kind dress for Miley.

Here's what the amazing designers have in mind for the bride-to-be:

Val Stefani: "This gown that I created complements the more whimsical, and bohemian style while matching her casual-country aesthetic. I mixed in elements like cut-outs and lace that reflect the more sophisticated style she has lately been rocking on the red carpet."

Anne Barge: "Miley has a personal approach to fashion which is bold and I wanted to reflect that. She has transitioned into a beautiful young woman and this silhouette is perfect for her. The vintage style of the beadwork, paired with the modern application of the skirt, gives the gown a youthful yet romantic tone."

Mariana Aguirre of Agua Dulce: "Miley Cyrus' style has evolved and we have seen her grow on the red carpet. We were inspired by her new sophisticated confidence. We think she'll want to continue her sexy style, but with classic touches. Peplums are huge right now. This silhouette is borrowed from the couture runways, they add structure and shape to the dress."

Junko Yoshioka: "Miley is so fresh and young with a bubbly personality. This gown will highlight her curves, yet give her a modern air of sophistication and elegance on her wedding day."

Ines Di Santo: "Miley has always chosen elegant and classic gowns for her red carpet appearances. I see her choosing a style that expresses her personal style and fashionable taste, but still keeping it elegant and tasteful."

Angel Rivera: "Since Miley is a young bride, I can see her wanting a fairytale ball gown dress. The look I sketched for her is bold and extravagant, leaving no detail overlooked."

How do you know when you’re ready for marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

Marriage is a wonderful and beautiful thing. But how do you know if you’re really ready for a lifetime with your partner?

Here are some things to consider:

1. You’ve planned for a marriage, not just a wedding day: Before getting married, you should make sure you’re both aware of each other’s expectations for the future. Questions like whether you’re going to have a family, where you’ll live, what to do with your bank account and the like should all be discussed before the big day.

2. You understand that people change: We're not saying that after the honeymoon your new spouse is going to morph into some type of animal, but people's goals and expectations for their life often do change. They may want to switch occupations or live somewhere else, as may you. You have to be willing to accept them both for who they are and for who they may become, flaws and all.

3. You have complete trust in each other: With the rapid growth in technology, trusting your partner is even more important today than it was in the past. From Facebook to texting, there's no longer just one face-to-face world. You may not know where your spouse is at all times, but if you communicate with each other and remain honest, you can rest assured that your marriage will stay strong.

How do you combat engagement rumors when they're not true?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors are inevitable, but when they're about your relationship, they aren't always easy to deal with. Cupid has some tips:

1. Prove them wrong: Instead of letting everyone continue to assume that you and your partner are engaged, let them know you're not at the level in your relationship yet by confirming it yourself.

2. Shrug it off: If you don't mind people speculating that you and your lover are engaged, or you simply feel as though you don't owe an explanation, take the higher road and overlook the gossip.

3. Don't encourage it: Sometimes, when people see a ring on your finger, they automatically assume they hear wedding bells. If you've tried the following steps and are still annoyed with the rumors, the least you can do is choose not to give them something to talk about.
