Dating Advice: 3 Ways to Master the Art of the First Impression

By Josh Ringer

You know, there is an obvious thing about first impressions:

You only have one shot at them. A first impression can create one of the newest celebrity couples, or it can ruin your chance love. Many times, we hear of movie stars falling in love on the set, while we also hear about those who just didn't make the most of their premier opportunity. If you're looking to be the next Picasso of the first impression art collection, follow our pieces of dating advice below. With time and some practice, you can easily master the skills necessary to make a killer first impression!

These pieces of dating advice will help you master date nights and make the best first impression possible!

1. Make the situation comfortable: If you want to make a good first impression, you need to first choose the right time and place. If you met the person online and they already know something about you, this could be easy right off the bat. If you suddenly find yourself in conversation at the bar or smooth sailing on a date night, you'll be fine. However, a good piece of dating advice is to keep the conversation comfortable and high level at first. Talking about politics, marriage, or children is probably not the best start right out of the gate. Celebrity couples are great at making their first dates comfortable, even though they have the paparazzi following them around constantly. Take their lead!

2. Use body language: Consider using your body to your advantage. We're not talking about the R rated kind of way, either. Show you're interested in the conversation by keeping eye contact. Simply giving one slight touch may show your prospective partner that you're interested. You want to look like you are open to a conversation, and not too shy or reserved. Be sure to loosen up before the date night, and be prepared to start talking with confidence. Use your body, facial expressions, and emotional instincts to your benefit to start things off right.

3. Be genuine: Don't be afraid to be yourself! That should be the first thing on your mind. If you weren't the starting quarterback, a national champion dancer, or an academic stud, he/she probably won't mind. Try to have a good sense of humor, and make light of the things you may not be comfortable with. The other person will appreciate an honest and open person over someone who lies about who they are. "Honesty is the best policy" is not just a thing parents say to their children; it is an important step to making a great first impression.

What Your Favorite Summer Song Says About Your Relationship Style

By Melissa Tierney and Molly Jacob

Almost everyone has a song that reminds them of summer.

Whether it's a tune you jam to in the car, or a melody repeating on your iPod, summer anthems represent a piece of who you are and how you think, particularly when it comes to love. That's why we've taken a look at this summer's hottest hits and analyzed what we think they mean about your relationship style.

Check out what we've come up with below:

1. 'Sugar' by Maroon 5: If you crank up the volume when this song starts playing, then you're probably in a passionate and dependent relationship. You crave your significant other like sugar, and you just "need a little sweetness" in your life. You may be in desperate need of attention from your partner; when all else goes wrong in your life, you just need "one little taste" of their love.

2. 'I Can't Feel My Face' by The Weeknd: If you're into this summer hit, you're a tragic lover. You love being in a whirlwind romance and think that "misery is necessary when we're deep in love." Your significant other is more than just your baby, they're the "death" of you. Dating advice: don't take dating so seriously; it can be fun, too!

3. 'Cheerleader' by OMI: This fun song has been playing over the radios nonstop this summer and if you find yourself grooving along, you're in a great relationship. You've found someone who is there to support you and to give you "love and affection"! Dating advice: keep your "cheerleader" close to you well past the end of the summer.

4. Shut Up and Dance With Me' by Walk The Moon: Obsessed with this song? If so, you've probably been dancin' the summer away! This upbeat song is all about letting go of your troubles and hesitations, and enjoying the moment. Perhaps you're hitting the town in your "backless dress and some beat up sneakers" or you're just grooving with your baby, but no matter what, you're just enjoying summer as it comes. Love advice: keep enjoying yourself, but know when to settle down and get serious with someone!

5. 'Honey I'm Good' by Andy Grammer: This song is all about someone enjoying their night out on the town and avoiding the temptation of "those long, long legs." But if you're into this song, you're all about being faithful in relationships and love. You're all about being devoted to the person you have waiting for you back at home!
