How do you deal with your partner's busy work schedule?

Cupid's Advice:

You and your partner can't get enough of one another. So how do you handle their busy schedule? You want to be able to see them as much as possible so how do you pull that off if they are always busy? Cupid is here with some advice for you:

1. Communicate: If you can't physically be there with your partner, show them you are thinking of each other by sending each other flirtatious text messages throughout your day. This way, although apart, you will know that you are on each other's minds.

2. Free time: When the two of you finally do have free time to spend together, make the most of it. Do not spend your time sitting on the couch. Get up and do something together. Have fun with your sweetie and make each other feel special during this time.

3. Eliminate distractions: While spending time with your love, make sure you give each other all your complete attention. Put away the cell phones and refrain from answering any work related calls and emails. Enjoy being together without all of the work stuff.

How can you keep a busy family schedule on track?

Cupid’s Advice:

Many families today juggle responsibilities beyond the parents’ jobs and kids going to school. How do you keep it together? Cupid has some ideas:

1. Keep a calendar: Create a calendar that allows you to manage multiple schedules in one place. Hang a wipe off board in a central location, like the kitchen. This will make it easy to view and add new information as needed.

2. Periodic Family Meetings: Gather regularly to discuss upcoming activities and scheduling conflicts, so the family as a whole can find workable solutions (i.e., carpooling with the neighbors) in advance.

3. Mistakes are OK: When trying to handle many events that occur simultaneously, there's always the possibility of double booking something, or forgetting to add an activity on the list. Realize that everyone slips up sometimes – including you! Discuss ways to keep one another informed and help one other stay on track.
