

Celebrity Divorce: Mandy Moore Reflects on 'Sad' and 'Lonely' Marriage to Ryan Adams

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity divorce news, Mandy Moore opened up about her seven-year roller-coaster marriage to singer-songwriter Ryan Adams, according to UsMagazine.com. The celebrity exes met when Moore was 23, and she became smitten with him. They married a year later. Things fell apart in Moore's immediate family when her mother left her father and so she thought, "I'll create my own family," Moore admitted on the "WTF with Marc Maron" podcast. She explained that her career quieted down soon after the marriage. "I couldn't do my job because there was just a constant stream of trying to pay attention to this person who needed me and wouldn't let me do anything else." Moore and Adams divorced in June of 2015. She is now happily married to Dawes frontman Taylor Goldsmith.

This celebrity divorce ended up being a blessing in the end. What do you do if you find yourself in a marriage that's bad for you?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're truly being abused by your partner, the best thing you can do is get out of the relationship. Call this domestic abuse hotline if you ever need it: 1-800-SAFE (7233). Local women's shelters and community-based services may be able to provide help as well.

When you're in a bad marriage, it can be a tough call to decide whether you should leave or stay. But, you have to think about yourself and your children (if you have any) before you think about the longevity of your marriage to someone who makes you unhappy. Cupid has some tips:

1. Stop making excuses: It's easy to make excuses if you're in an unhealthy marriage. They're working too hard for you and your family, or they had a bad day at work, so that's why they insulted you, especially when it happens constantly. Stop this. You're letting your spouse get away with treating you badly. It's easy to find yourself in a loop of reasons why it's okay to let your spouse treat you this way. Remember this: the only person that can get you out of this situation is yourself.

Was 'Psychologically Abusive'

2. Take a good, hard look at your role in the relationship:

Does the house fall apart when you aren't home no matter how many times you've asked for help? Do they expect you to hold a full-time job and do all of the housework? Take care of the kids by yourself? If every single thing falls on you and they aren't trying to help, or they try to make you feel awful when you haven't gotten everything done, then it might be time to get out.

3. Reach out to friends and family: It can be easy to lose touch with friends and family when you're busy. This is normal. But one of the first signs of being abused is for the abuser to start isolating their partner so they can't reach out for help. Being in a relationship that requires an occasional venting session with your bestie is one thing, but feeling completely isolated with no way out is another beast entirely.

Adams released a statement denying the claims made by his ex-wife, saying that “the picture that this article paints is upsettingly inaccurate.”

Mandy Moore found herself in an abusive relationship with her celebrity ex. What are some types of abuse you need to protect yourself from?

Cupid's Advice:

Abusive relationships are unfortunately very common, they happen when one person wants to maintain power or control over their partner. Here are some types of abuse that you need to protect yourself from in a relationship:

1. Physical abuse: This can be any type of hitting, punching, or scratching brought on by your partner. Even if this type of abuse doesn't leave a bruise, it's not healthy and needs to be addressed.

5 of the Sweetest Movie Moments

By Tanni Deb

Whether we admit it or not, we all enjoy a good love story – the ones that make our hearts beat, our pulses race, and the tears flow. We love getting caught up in the magical moments and gushing over romantic scenes. You probably have your own top Sweetest Movie Moments, but join us as we count down some of ours:

5. A Walk to Remember: If you're a hopeless romantic, this movie and its leading characters, Landon Carter (Shane West) and Jamie Sullivan (Mandy Moore), will leave you sobbing at the end. After a dangerous dare goes badly wrong, rebellious Landon is made to do community service, where he seeks help from bookish and religious Jamie – the girl he eventually learns to love. When he discovers the secret she's been carrying for two years, he plans a date at night to star gaze. He asks her to search for a specific star, and when she questions him about it, he says he had it named after her. The scene is sealed with a kiss.

4. 50 First Dates: When Henry Roth (Adam Sandler) meets Lucy Whitmore (Drew Barrymore) in a café, they decide to meet again the following day. However, when Henry returns, Lucy doesn't have a memory of him, or their previous meeting. When he's told that since the day she got into a car accident she's been unable to retain new information, he devises new ways to meet her every day, hoping that one day she'll remember him and will return his feelings. The sweetest – and most powerful – scene in the film comes when Henry discovers that Lucy has been singing, and she might remember who he is. He runs to the hospital and asks her if she recognizes him. She says "no," but explains that she has been dreaming of him every day. When she leads him into her studio, it is filled with paintings she drew of him! Believing that this is proof of their love, they reunite.

3. You've Got Mail: If you think you can't find love online, then this is the movie to watch. Joe Fox (Tom Hanks) and Kathleen Kelly (Meg Ryan) are business rivals who began writing emails back and forth, without knowing each other's identities. Over time, romantic feelings develop, and Joe later realizes that the person he's been writing to the entire time has been Kathleen. At the end, they decide to meet, and Kathleen is not only shocked, but also excited to know that her cyber friend was him all along. She admits that she was hoping it was him, and the two passionately kiss.

2. The Notebook: This love story is one you'll watch repeatedly with a box of Kleenex next to you. It's the tale of small-town boy, Noah Calhoun (Ryan Gosling), who falls in love with rich and beautiful Allie Hamilton (Rachel McAdams). Even after Allie is diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease and fails to recognize her family, or him, he never leaves her side. Instead, he decides to grow old with her in a nursing home and attempts to bring her memories back. Sure, this romantic film has many sweet moments, but perhaps the scene that makes you realize how much he truly loves her is when, many years later, his children ask him to leave the rest home and return home with them. He says, "Look guys, that's my sweetheart in there. I'm not leaving her. This is my home now. Your mother is my home." Quick, pass me one of those Kleenexes.

1. The Wedding Singer: This is another romantic comedy film, once again teaming Adam Sandler and Drew Barrymore together, who always manage to create some of the most romantic movie scenes. In this film, Sandler is a wedding singer who falls in love with Barrymore – a waitress. When he discovers that her fiancé is cheating on her and doesn't plan on stopping after marriage, he attempts to pursue her. There are plenty of sweet moments in this movie, but the one that will make your heart melt is at the end, when Sandler sings a song for Barrymore on an airplane. Who wouldn't fall for a man like that?

If one of your favorite sweetest movie moments didn't make it onto our list, let us know in a comment below! In the meantime, make sure to check out the movies mentioned above and let us know what you thought about them.

Love Wedding Marriage featuring Mandy Moore, Kellan Lutz and Jessica Szohr

A marriage counselor, Ava (Mandy Moore) is thrown for a loop when her parents decide to get a divorce in Love, Wedding,

Marriage, which hits theatres June 3rd. Ava, who has recently married Charlie (Kellan Lutz), is now questioning everything for which her marriage stands. To counter that feeling, she decides to get her parents back together by moving her father in with her and her new husband, much to Charlie's dismay.

Through laughs and tears, this family finds a way to make it work despite all the emotional struggles they're going through.

What are the benefits of marriage counseling?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage counseling does not guarantee a lack of divorce, but there are definitely benefits to the process even if it doesn't work:

1. Communication: The main thing that counseling does is provide a place to air all of your grievances. You can tell your partner all of the things you've been holding in. That way, everything you need to work on is on the table ready to be tackled.

2. Solutions: Whether the solution ends up being a divorce or getting back together, a decision is definitely necessary when you're at odds with your spouse. Marriage counseling provides a neutral place to decide.

3. Last shot: Marriage counseling comes before a split so that if there's any chance whatsoever that you may be able to work out your issues, you can do it. It's the last stop shop before making the decision to call it quits.

Mandy Moore Discusses Happy Ending with Husband Ryan Adams

It looks like there's at least one celebrity couple we can count on. After two years of marriage to musician Ryan Adams, Mandy Moore is still very much in love. The actress and singer recently told People, "I feel very supported and loved and at peace ... I got my own little happy ending." And for Moore, happiness is found in the little things. After mentioning how "nerdily obsessed" she and her hubby are with their two cats and dog, the actress added, "We're big homebodies ... We never want to leave [the house]." How do you have fun staying in for the night?

Cupid's Advice:

Going out on the town can be exciting, but sometimes you just need to chill out at home. Here's how to make the most of staying in:

- 1. Be romantic: Just because you're staying home doesn't mean you have to forgo romance. Cook an extravagant dinner for your partner, and then snuggle while you watch a corny movie.
- 2. Go old school: Dust off that old game of Chutes & Ladders or Monopoly and go wild. A retro game night will help you bond.
- 3. Get close: Are you usually too busy or too tired to get quality intimate time with your partner? Use this opportunity to try new things in (and out) of the bedroom.
