There's a new celebrity couple to focus on! What are some ways to keep your relationship under wraps until you're ready to go public?

Cupid's Advice:

Keeping your new relationship secret isn't a bad thing. It gives you and your new partner privacy. And if things don't work out, you won't have to go into a big long explanation on what happened to family and friends. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep your new relationship a secret:

1. Limit social media posts: It's okay to take pictures together when you first start dating after you get serious. It's okay to enjoy dating for a while before you make the big announcement that you're in a new relationship. Save a few fun photos of yourself together and then post them online when you're ready to go public!

2. Make time for friends: Be sure to make time to spend with your friends even though spending all of your time with your partner might be tempting. It's easy to neglect other relationships when you begin a new one, so be sure to make regular dinner dates or girls nights if you want to avoid suspicion about a new relationship until you're ready to let them know.

3. Pick a neutral spot for dates: Don't go anywhere together where friends or coworkers may recognize you if you aren't

In celebrity news, Kate Beckinsale’s ex isn’t saying good things about his former love. What are some ways to keep your ex from ruining a new relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

When you decide to move on from your former relationship, an ex can get jealous or want to slander your name. Here’s some advice from Cupid on how to stop them from ruining your new one:

1. Reassure your current partner: If something your ex says about you makes your new partner question your relationship, reassure them by answering any questions they might have about your past.

2. Don't engage: Getting in contact with your ex after they say something inappropriate might make your new partner suspicious of why you're contacting them in the first place. Not talking to them while they try to cause trouble is the better thing to do.

3. Think of your new partner first: Putting their needs and wants above that of your ex is more important than caring about what the other person says to you. Celebrity Break-Up: Demi

Lovato Splits from Fashion Designer Henri Levy

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity break-up news, Demi Lovato has called it quits with fashion designer Henri Levy, according to UsMagazine.com. Both sober, the two met years ago in rehab and became friends. They sparked news of their celebrity relationship after they were spotted in early November 2018 enjoying a dinner date at Matsuhisa restaurant in Beverly Hills. Neither has commented on their split.

This celebrity break-up comes after only four months of dating. What are some ways to know your relationship has long-term potential?

Cupid's Advice:

All new relationships have a honeymoon stage. Whether you decide to stick with your partner after a rough time or not is the true test of a relationship. Cupid has some advice on how to know when a relationship has long-term potential:

1. You feel like yourself with them: You're okay with letting them see you limp in the morning because you tripped while walking the dog. You don't care if your partner sees you with bed-head. You let them see you worrying because your paycheck wasn't as large as you thought it would be. While all of these may be examples, it's important to be yourself around your partner. If you have to fake who you are to impress the person you're with to avoid judgment, then the relationship will not last.

2. You know what your partner needs: They know how you like your coffee, and they can tell when you're about to have an emotional breakdown days before it happens. When your partner instinctively knows what you need, then they just may be the one you're meant to live your life with – and it's not just from their side. When you know that your partner needs something without them saying anything, then it means that you have reached the point where you're both in a solid partnership.

3. You're physically intimate: A relationship with long-term potential isn't about the sex. You can both be virgins up until marriage if that is something you both value before making a life-long commitment. Holding hands, innocent kisses, and hugs are a sign that you are both comfortable. And if you aren't waiting until marriage, the time between the sheets will help build a stronger connection as long as you both understand that it's a way for you both to show how much you love each other.

Fitness Trend: Isometric Strength Training

By Mara Miller

Isometric strength training is a fitness trend that involves exercising in place. It focuses on the way the muscles are supposed to move with no crazy movements like tossing a tire or bouncing around. Find out more about this fitness trend!

If you find these fitness tips are working, you can do some research online to find more exercises to add to your regimen. Yoga, for example, is a type of isometric strength training. Here are a few poses you can try if you're interested in isometric strength training:

1. High Plank: Get into the top of a push-up position and hold. Be careful not to put your butt up too high or too low. Hold it for as long as you can. This is a great exercise that works out your core and back muscles.

2. Prayer Pose: If you do yoga, you probably know of this pose. You stand still and place your hands together like you're praying. Beauty Trend: Glitters, Shimmers, and Pastel Eyeshadow

By Mara Miller

A fun eyeshadow look is hard to resist. 2019 beauty trends have included stained lips, powder nails, and yoga skin. We've got three types of eyeshadows to check out that can help you stay on-trend this year.

Beauty Trend: Glitters, Shimmers, and Pastel Eyeshadow

Glitter and shimmer eyeshadows can seem a bit confusing when you're trying to find an eyeshadow palette to buy so you can make a ton of new eyeshadow looks. Shimmery eyeshadow has glitter in it but has a more metallic shine. Glitter eyeshadows have chunks of glitter in them. Pastels are pretty and can be layered all over the eye or look great alone. And if you're lucky, you may find some of these types of glitters together in a palette!

1. Glitter shadow: When you want all the shine, glitter shadows are a must for a decent eyeshadow palette. Glittery green or purple are great for a look at night. They're lighter than a shimmer but still help your eye pop. Be sure to look into a glitter glue or to use water so this glitter will have less fallout during application.

2. Shimmer shadow: These shadows have a metallic cast with finer glitter inside, like a bright gold or shiny brown. They work well all over the lid or on the outer corner of your eye to help define its shape. Shimmers do fallout, but they aren't as bad as glitters.

Related Link: Beauty Trend: Lip Tints Are The Latest Trend That You Need For Your Next Date Night

3. Pastel shadow: Pastels are awesome. They can be shimmery, glittery, or matte. They work well in the corner of the eye, the middle of the eye, or all over. Light pinks, purples, and blues help your eyes stand out, depending on the color of your iris.

Glimmer, shimmer, and pastel shadows are trending in 2019 beauty. What are some of the best palettes you've come across so far? Let us know in the comments below!

Food Trend: Probiotic Products

By Mara Miller

Taking probiotics is a growing food trend you don't want to ignore. In this food advice, we'll talk about products you can use to introduce probiotics to your body. Gut health can affect everything from your sleep to what kind of foods you can tolerate. It isn't fun to think about the bacteria that live inside of our bodies, but it's important to take care of the good bacteria living in our guts so we can continue to be healthy.

Food Trend: Probiotic Products

1. Olives: Wait, what? Olives are considered a probiotic? Look for naturally cured olives. It's better if you can get olives of a Spanish variety. Not only are they a tasty snack, but eating about five is a great way to get your daily dose of probiotics—just be careful not to eat too many. Olives are packed with salt.

2. Apple cider vinegar: The benefits of using apple cider vinegar are endless. It can be used for a lot of things, from skin care to cleaning. For some people, apple cider vinegar even helps heartburn. Drizzling a little on top of your salad doesn't hurt either since it's packed with probiotics and amino acids.

3. Tempeh: Less known than tofu, tempeh is a soybean meat alternative for vegans and vegetarians who want to get more probiotics into their diet. It is made with fermented soybeans. It holds its shape better than tofu so it can be used in dishes like stir fry and grilled skewers.

4. Probiotic Shots: This might not sound particularly appetizing, but probiotic shots are packed with the good bacteria you need for your gut. They can either be mixed in a morning smoothie or swallowed down like a shot of whiskey...only they're a lot healthier for your body.

5. Supplements: Supplements are the next obvious choice in a probiotic product you can use to introduce good bacteria into your body if gut shots or probiotic foods seem unappetizing. Taking a supplement is a simpler solution, giving you the probiotics you're missing in your diet.

Probiotic products are everywhere because of this food trend. Have you learned of any that are beneficial to gut health? Let us know in the comments below!

This celebrity couple wasn't ready to call it quits altogether. What are some reasons to give your ex another chance?

Cupid's Advice:

A split from your partner is a heartbreaking process, especially when neither one of you wanted one in the first place. Cupid has some solid reasons to give your ex a second chance:

1. You both want the same things: Splitting for a couple can be a good thing. It allows you some time away to reconsider what you really want—like kids and marriage. If you take some time apart and still want the same things after, then you should think about giving your ex a second chance.

2. You believe their apologies: It can be easy to give someone a shallow, “sorry!” to try to move on with your day. If you want to compete with your lover, you can rent two jet skis or if you want to get cozy, rent one to share. Either way, you'll be able to venture further out into the ocean than you have ever before.

You can purchase snorkeling equipment at many sporting goods or department stores, and from there, all you'll need is your ability to swim! Underneath the pier is a great place to snorkel, as a lot of sea critters gather there. You can also bring your snorkel right offshore where you'd normally swim and take a gander at what's lurking around your feet.

Fashion Tips: How to Wear Layers Without Looking Chunky

By Mara Miller

Layering your clothes can be fun, but it can look awkward if you don't do it right. Why would anyone want to look like a huge marshmallow? We've got some fashion tips and fashion advice on how to layer to stay warm without looking chunky!

Fashion Tips: How to Wear Layers Without Looking Chunky

1. Start with the thin layers first: Start with a cami or tank top first. The idea with this is to end with the thickest layer so that you can easily take it off later. Neutral colors that will look good under whatever you layer with are best.

2. Turtlenecks: Turtlenecks give you the warmth of a sweater without the added bulk. The extra fabric around your neck will keep you from freezing before you put on your next layer.

3. Coats: Think a contoured coat that goes more with your shape than, say, a puffer coat, if you're worried about looking chunky. Or try a trench coat, which can be cinched at the waist and will elongate your figure.

4. Fleece leggings: Leggings are great since they conform to your shape without the extra bulk. They can double as long johns and you can put a pair of jeans over them, or style them with a sweater dress and boots for a trendier look.

5. Knitted scarf: This is a must, especially in colder weather. A scarf will help your turtleneck keep you warmer and you can use it to add in some fun pops of color. Scarves can also be the bulkiest part of the outfit without making you look bigger.

6. Boots and socks: If you really need to, double up with your socks. No one is going to see how many pairs you're wearing. Use knee-high or thigh-high boots to trap in some warmth around your legs.

7. Accessorize: Use whatever you want to top off the look. A watch, some bracelets, a knitted hat that will fit under the hood of your coat. And these are only a few samples! Play around with the items in your closet to see which layered look is best for you.

Layering can be a lot of fun but no one wants to look chunky. What layering fashion tips do you have? Let us know in the comments below!

Father's Day Date Idea: Gone Fishing

By Amanda Boyer and Mara Miller

Instead of celebrating Father's Day with just you and your pops, consider this dating and relationship advice, and make plans with your partner and his dad, too. To make this special day even more memorable, plan a fun day doing something you know your fathers will love: fishing!

Take Your Dads Fishing on This Fun Date Idea

On this weekend date idea, enjoy the beautiful summer weather while you hang out at a nearby pond, river, or lake. Be sure to make preparations ahead of time: Rent a boat or other equipment you may need; fill your tackle box with all of the necessities (or buy a pre-packed box if you don't have one in the garage), and grab those fishing rods. Be sure to pack a picnic lunch too! Load up the car, and on your drive, play some music that you know your dads will enjoy. If it's still early in the day, pick up some coffee and bagels for breakfast.

If you've never been fishing before or don't remember the tips you were taught as a child, this date idea is the perfect time to learn from both your partner and your dad. Let them show you how to bait your hook (don't get squeamish!) and cast your line. Don't be afraid to ask questions too; they'll enjoy your interest in one of their hobbies.

Once you get the hang of it, have a competition between you and your dad and your partner and his old man. Ready, set, fish! See who can catch the most fish before lunch. If the fish are slow to bite, see who can hook the biggest fish instead. Take pictures to document your best catches. You can even pick a prize too, like losers have to pack up the gear at the end of the day and buy dinner.

While we're fans of catch and release fishing spots, if you want to keep your fish to eat later, they're sure to make a great Father's Day meal. On the way home, stop at the grocery store to pick up some seasonings and sides. Grab your dad's favorite kind of beers too! Light up the grill and reminisce about your day as you enjoy the results of your hard work.

Don't forget to tell your dad how much you love them and thank them for being such great fathers. Talk about your favorite childhood memories and the most important lessons you learned from them. Happy Father's Day!

Date Idea: Finders Keepers

By Sarah Batcheller and Mara Miller

The beach is exciting and romantic no matter what, but if you've ever wanted to add an additional air of adventure to your trip, follow this date idea and try using a metal detector! You and your lover may find some hidden treasures while out and about...or, at the very least, find some less valuable trinkets to laugh about. Metal detecting is something we usually only see on movies and television shows, but in actuality, it's a beloved pastime for a lot of people, many of whom have found it to be very lucrative.

Dating Advice for Your Next Trip to the Beach

If you are a frequent beach-goer, it's likely you have a routine down every time you visit the shore: Spread out the towel, lather on the sunscreen, hit the water, and then return to sunbathe. Why not add a bit of exploring to your next day at the beach? The level of anticipation will allow you and your honey to grow closer as the excitement grows too.

Related Link: Date Idea: All's Fair in Love

For this weekend date idea, you'll want to make sure you know how to use your equipment before you go searching in the sand. Talk to someone at the sporting goods or department store before going wild with your metal detector – you'll need to know all its features in order to achieve optimal results. Researching metal detecting tips beforehand will not only be fun for you and your sweetie, but it'll allow you to enjoy your day even more.

It's important that you pick a proper location when considering this dating advice. Head to a beach that is known to be crowded at times, but go during off-hours. That way, there will be more opportunity for precious metals to be lost, but you won't have to weave in and out of the crowd to find them. Whichever beach you choose, consider speaking with the locals before digging in; they'll have more knowledge on where people have found impressive items in the past.

Related Link: Date Idea: Get in the Game

To make this date idea even more exciting, have a competition with your loved one to see who can find the most valuable or more ridiculous items. You can even compete to see who can bring back the best gifts for each other. If you really want to make a day out of it, invite other couples to join you in your treasure hunt.

Date Idea: Mid-Year Resolutions

By Amanda Boyer and Mara Miller

It's hard to believe that the year is already halfway over! If you follow this date idea, you and your partner can read over your New Year's resolutions and recommit yourself to those goals. Maybe you have some mid-year resolutions to add to your list for the remainder of 2019, too.

Follow This Love Advice and Set Goals for the Remainder of the Year!

First, rewrite your list by dividing it into two categories: those resolutions you've already completed and those you still need to do. Maybe you've lost those stubborn 10 pounds that you gained during the holiday season (go you!), but you're still not exercising enough. Follow this love advice and talk to your sweetheart about how you can each achieve your individual goals together. For instance, you can meet at the gym after work at least three days each week. Having a plan in place will help you check these remaining resolutions off of your list.

Related Link: Love Tips & Romantic DIY Gift Ideas for Your Sweetheart

With this date idea, you can even start accomplishing your objectives right now. If you feel like you need an extra boost to get yourself to workout, download a fun, fast-paced playlist to listen to while you're running. If you prefer to use a treadmill, you can even purchase a season pass of your favorite show on iTunes. Then, only allow yourself to watch Grey's Anatomy or Modern Family while you're getting your cardio done. If a gym membership is too pricey for you, order a few new Jillian Michaels DVDs from Amazon.

Now that you're on track to finish your January resolutions, it's time to make some new ones, specifically ones to improve your relationship and love! Get creative and think outside of the box. If you're both into amusement park rides, plan to ride every roller coaster at your local park before the summer ends. If you're scared of heights, this weekend date idea is a great way to conquer your fear with your sweetheart by your side.

Perhaps you have a more serious resolution in mind. If you need to add more money to your savings account each month, brainstorm ways to cut back. Promise to only eat out once or twice each month and think off ways to spend less at the grocery store. You can also come up with a list of cheap date ideas, like playing with puppies at a nearby animal shelter or throwing the frisbee and enjoying a picnic in the park. If your mid-year resolutions allow you and your significant other to spend more time together, that's even better!

By Sunday evening, try to accomplish just one item on your list. That'll motivate you to keep the momentum going for the rest of the year!
