Celebrity Couple News: Selena Gomez Believes The Weekend Adds Positivity To Her Life

By Ma

rissa Donovan

Selena Gomez considers boyfriend The Weeknd to be her best friend. According to an interview with Instyle.com, the former Disney star shares that she was easily influenced before when it came to making choices about her life, but those choices were not based on who she was dating. She shares that she dates someone to add to her life, not to complete her. Over the summer, the celebrity couple has been seen at Coachella and celebrating Gomez's 25th birthday. It looks like the music loving couple are really in love!

This happy celebrity couple isn't looking to change each other! What are some ways you can support your partner choices instead of influencing them?

Cupid's Advice:

While being in a relationship, you might come across situations when your partner needs support instead of your input. It's very tricky to be both supportive and honest for your partner, but there are ways to make it work! Check out these ideas for how to be supportive instead of influencing your partner:

1. Hear them out: Your partner may want to change their career path or not want to change their plans for the day. Before responding with your thoughts, ask why and listen to what they have to say. This better your communication skills in your relationship instead of jumping to conclusion about their ideas.

Parenting Tips: See How Celebrity Moms Raise Their Children Without Gender Stereotypes

By Ma

rissa Donovan

Some celebrity parents such as Megan Fox break away from gender stereotypes and raise their children to make their own choices on what they want to wear or who they want to become. Fox has been seen letting her first son Noah wear dresses because that is what he is most comfortable in. As a parent, Fox wants her children to feel confident in the choices they make and gender stereotypes can be detrimental to a child's growth.

Check out how other celebrity moms are breaking away from gender stereotypes!

1. Jada Pickett Smith: Celebrity kids Jaden and Willow Smith has been making headlines for their actions, but Jada Pickett Smith always stands behind her children! According to Usmagazine.com, Smith claimed to be a unconventional parent for how she allows her children to make their own choices instead of telling them what she validates as okay. Many people have been surprised by Jaden fashion choices and Willow's choice to shave her head. She believes it's empowering to let her children put themselves first!

Movie Review: Award-Winning Memoir Gets Cinematic Adaptation in 'The Glass Castle'

By Ma

rissa Donovan

The life of Jeannette Walls has made it to the silver screen in The Glass Castle. Walls (Brie Larson) reflects back on her childhood struggles with poverty while handling the shame of her family's unconventional choices. She attempts to start a new chapter of her life with love interest David (Max Greenfield), but her parents (Woody Harrelson and Naomi Watts) want to keep their daughter grounded in their ways.

This drama can give us relationship advice for dealing with family problems in our own lives!

Should you see it:

Director and screenwriter Destin Daniel Cretton has already proved to audiences in his last film Short Term 12, that he can create heartfelt films that accurately depict complicated relationships. This Jeanette Walls memoir has also been put on New York's Best Seller list. This film is worth watching for those who also enjoyed Larson's performance as a troubled mother in Room.

Who to take:

This film is date night worthy for book-loving couples! Try reading the book before you watch the film, and talk about the the two bodies of work as a couple.

Cupid's Advice:

In The Glass Castle, David and Jeanette seem to come from two different lifestyles. Although David is excited to be a part of her life, Jeanette feels embarrassed by her family. As a couple, you need to respect your differences, even if that means dealing with family drama. Here are some ways you and your partner can handle family drama as a couple:

1. Provide support for family: If your family or your partner's family is in a hard place right now, help them by offering to let them live with you temporarily. You could also give them money to help them during their tough time. They may not take your offering, but at the end of the day, you'll know that you tried to help as much as you could.

2. Keep distance while still staying close: Sometimes all family members want is space. You or your partner may feel the need to distance yourself from certain family members. That's okay, but try not to cut ties with your family! It's okay to not be on speaking terms after drama happens, but still remember how important they are. Check up on how they are doing by speaking with another family member that's close with them or eventually have you and your partner speak to them.

3. See a family therapist: It's nice to sit down with your family and discuss the problems you have together. Having a family therapist can help you work out problems that have gone unresolved since childhood or new problems that have recently occurred. You and your partner should attend sessions together just to make sure everyone is on the same page. It's also okay to have more private sessions with family, but at least let each other know how you are feeling.

Celebrity Baby: Brooklyn Decker & Andy Roddick Expecting Baby No. 2

By Ma

rissa Donovan

These celebrity parents are expanding their family very soon! According to UsMagazine.com, Andy Roddick revealed his wife Brooklyn Decker is currently pregnant. The newest addition to their family will be a little sister for their son Hank. The tennis star has previously praised Decker for juggling her acting career, their marriage, and her motherhood all at the same time. The Grace and Frankie star felt empowered through her last pregnancy as a mother and an actor. Let's hope this celebrity couple can keep their lives balance with another family member!

Celebrity baby makes four! What are some ways to adjust to becoming a four-person family versus a three-person family?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a second family member come into your lives can be a big deal. Even though one more person might seem like a small adjustment, things you didn't expect to change will. Here are some tips for adjusting to a four-person family lifestyle:

1. Discuss transition with current family: Sit down with your parent and plan a way to discuss the current transition your family will make with a new baby. Find a way to share the news with your current child and what it means to be an older sibling.

2. Plan out household: If your family plans on moving, find a living space that has enough rooms that will fit your new family's needs. If you plan on staying in your household, adjust rooms based on individual needs of each family member. You will most likely want to have your children in different rooms for sleeping schedules reasons. You can also decide which room would be best for the nursery. Map out a mini blueprint with your partner and see what you can both come up with!
