How do you show someone you’re interested without being overbearing?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s always good to show interest in someone you could see yourself in a relationship with, but don't overdo it. Cupid has some tips:

1. Be funny: People are attracted to those who are fun to be around. Break the ice by telling a joke.

2. Exude confidence: You may be pining over the new hottie, but keep in mind you're pretty desirable yourself.

3. Leave an out: Sometimes, it just doesn't work out with the person you're crushing on, and it's okay. It's best to try and fail than to have never tried at all.

Rumor: Is Adam Levine and Anne V's Relationship On the Rocks?

If the reported relationship woes are true, then Adam Levine will have to find someone else to serenade. UsMagazine.com reports that the Maroon 5 frontman and Victoria's Secret model Anne V's relationship may be over after two years. A source says that the duo got into a fight, and she dumped him. The source also said that the reason behind the arguing is that V doesn't think "he treats her well." To add to that case, Levine did not have his date with him at the Golden Globes. Despite this, Levine's rep struck down the rumor as "100 percent not true."

What do you do if your partner doesn't treat you well?

Cupid's Advice:

Nobody should be with someone who treats them unfairly. Cupid has a few tips on what to do if you feel this way:

1. Have a 'sit down': You and your partner need to be able to sit down and talk your issues out. The only way to see the relationship work is if you can talk everything out without being over emotional.

2. Stay calm: Blowing up is the last thing you want to do. You'll end up saying things you regret, and you can't take those things back. Remain calm and rational if at all possible.

3. Keep your distance: If all else fails, then walk away. This should be the last resort, but in the end you deserve to be happy and with someone who treats you well.
