Cupid's Advice:

Besides being madly in love, couples never really need a cause to renew their vows. But, here are some fun reasons to formally profess your adoration to your partner once again:

1. It's an excuse for a vacation: Bruce and Kris Jenner renewed their vows during a family vacation to Bora Bora. If you didn't get the chance to have a destination wedding (or even if you did), renewing your vows on location can be a fun and romantic adventure.

2. You saw a wedding dress you loved: Even if you're already happily married, there's nothing like coming across the perfect wedding dress. Now that you have the right dress, all you will need is a guest list and the perfect venue to renew your vows.

3. Thanking your partner: Years and years of a happy life together are often hard to come by. Saying 'I Do' again is an opportunity to show how thankful you are for the happiness and support your partner provides.
