

Celebrity Interview with Hair Stylist Chaz Dean: “The Most Important Part is Feeling Sexy”

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Editorial by Kristin Mattern.

celebrity looks for years. An authority on hair care, Dean began developing his own natural product line called WEN in 1996. After building an A-list clientele, he started Chaz Dean Studio in Hollywood where celebs can escape the typical salon products and pestering paparazzi for a calm, rejuvenating experience. Celebrity Interview with Chaz Dean Push your bangs out of your eyes and get ready to see clearly, ladies, because this hairdresser cuts away at the salon facade to reveal the truth about hair care. The way you care for your hair is why you don't have tresses like Jennifer Aniston's, but even America's sweetheart chopped off her locks recently – and it wasn't just to be trendy. “She cut her hair short because of a bad keratin treatment,” Dean explains. Brazilian blowouts, keratin treatments, and Japanese straighteners are touted as healthy for your hair, but this stylist believes differently. “People think it's good, and it's not. It takes such a toll on your hair. Your hair is protein; protein does not need more protein.” He says that added protein makes already dry hair more brittle, causing breakage. If you really want to strengthen your hair, moisture and collagen elements are what you need.

Given his passion for this topic, it's no surprise that hair foibles were part of Dean's motivation for creating WEN. Women want soft, touchable hair that also shines with vibrant color. Looking to keep color from fading, the hair alchemist turned to herbal inspiration: “I literally went to my garden and took sage, rosemary, lavender, eucalyptus, apple, bananas, and pears and boiled them together in my kitchen,” he explains in our celebrity interview. “It smelled incredible, and when I cleansed my hair with it, the natural astringents paired with antibacterial and moisturizing properties made my hair feel clean and silky.” Dean knew he had discovered the miracle recipe he’d been seeking and wanted to get this product to his customers. After nearly five years of lab work, WEN was born in 2000.

In 2005, the hair stylist started working with QVC. “QVC has been a blessing for me because I get feedback from customers. They all have their opinions, and whether it’s good or bad, you learn and you grow from it,” the client-centered stylist says. “The most important part to me is making people’s life easier by embracing their natural hair’s texture and giving them the hair they’ve dreamed of.” On air, Dean showcases his powerful product; whether you have the kinkiest of curls or baby fine locks, WEN makes hair shiny and buttery smooth.

Hair Stylist Talks Best Celeb Hair

Celebrities enjoy WEN products at home and trust him to make their hair radiant when they visit his salon. When asked if he had a favorite famous client, Dean candidly responds, “I would say Nicole Murphy because she trusts me to give her the best look.” But when it comes to who has the best hair, he thinks Megan Fox has an enviable mane. “She was doing an interview recently, and she looked gorgeous. Gorgeous! Her hair, I believe, always looks good.” Who wears the short trend best? Isabel Lucas, whose crop he describes as adorable. Christina Aguilera’s hair doesn’t get such a glowing review from the master stylist. “If she doesn’t stop bleaching it to an inch of its life, she’s going to end up having to cut her hair off. Girl, you can have blonde, but it shouldn’t be translucent or yellow.”

Every woman, famous or not, wants beautiful hair that men find attractive. So do you go Rapunzel long or Daisy Buchanan short? “Men want hair that is soft and touchable, hair that they can run their hands through.” The stylist believes only insecure men need their women to have long hair; secure men are fine with women rocking short hair. To really impress your guy, wear a style that makes you feel sexy. If your man tells you how to wear your hair, the hairdresser says to put him in his place: “Tell him that when he grows his hair out, then you’ll do what he wants.”

A woman’s hairstyle is perhaps most important on her wedding day, and brides often wonder what ‘do is best to say “I do.” Dean suggests being yourself. “Whether you’re a sexy rocker girl, a timid and sweet curly girl, or a wavy girl, bring out that element.” For damage-free curls, the hairdresser advises rolling hair into sponge rollers, misting with WEN Replenishing Treatment Mist, and taking a shower (without getting your hair wet); by the time you’re done with your makeup, your hair will be set with amazing curls without the damage of a curling iron. Don’t wait until you get hitched to try this style; use this tip for your next night on the town with your sweetie for a sure-to-wow blowout!

Continuing to expand his popular line, WEN products are for the whole family – even Fido! WEN has a pet line that cleanses while repelling ticks and fleas. The kid’s line, nicknamed WEN Sensitive, is allergen-free and perfect for anyone with whey, wheat, gluten, menthol, soy, or nut allergies. The line eventually expanded to include WEN for babies and seasonal varieties like summer honey peach, which Dean calls “heaven in a bottle.” Plus, WEN Men will soon be hitting shelves to address men’s unique hair issues.

WEN will you and your’s be ready to wear amazing hair?

Since the birth of their son Noah, the couple has been making efforts to stay out of the public eye, People reports. Despite their best attempts, Green and his son were both photographed while taking a walk through SoHo.

What are some reasons to keep your baby out of the public eye?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're a celebrity, or someone easily recognized by the general public, there will always be someone wanting to capture your daily life. They will be most intrigued by your baby, wanting to capture your new family together. Cupid offers some tips to avoid being in the public eye:

1. Privacy: When you and your husband are recognizable figures, people will want to photograph you with your children. This however, does not allow you much freedom. Everywhere you go, you will have to worry about what you're doing and saying. Nothing will ever be private and your family will never be left alone. Avoid the paparazzi as much as you can in order to raise your children in a normal environment.

2. Avoid rumors: Your husband is always the one who takes your baby for a stroll in the park every morning. When people don't see you two together, they automatically assume you are split up. Avoid the rumors by mixing up your daily walk locations. You will get some privacy and avoid being in the public eye.

3. Safety: Sometimes, paparazzi can get violent when trying to get a photograph. They will cross over space boundaries and invade your family's privacy. Your baby will get scared of the flashes and strange people surrounding him/her. Stay out of the public's eye as much as you can while your children are young.

Top 5 Hot Hair Tips You Should Be Taking from Celebrities

By Dixie Somers

Many celebrities are known for having great hair. It's no surprise that people want to recreate their styles for themselves ... and their partners. Here are five hot celebrity hair tips that can easily get you that fresh look for your next hot date:

Blunt Bangs

Have you just gone through a rough break up and you're looking to spice up your look? Go with the blunt bangs. Celebrities like Jessica Biel and Olivia Wilde often wear blunt bangs. It's a simple style to have done at a hair salon (or at home with the right experience). To get this look, hair will be combed forward, in front of the face. Then it will be cut straight across to the desired length. An easy way to maintain it is to simply use a flat iron on low heat, or use a round brush and blow dryer.

French Braids

Going on a hike or a fishing trip with your man? It's time to try out the French braids. Rihanna and Anne Hathaway have been spotted many times with this look. It takes only minutes to achieve. Simply choose the desired location of the braid(s) and separate dry hair from that area into three equal sections. Then braid those sections and tie the end. Straight hair is easier to braid and looks neater, so a flat iron can be used for curly or frizzy hair.

Soft Wave Curls

Going out for a night on the town with your girls? Hit the club like a celebrity with the soft wave curls. Beyonce and Megan Fox frequently dawn soft wave curls. It's one of the most versatile hairstyles that look great on almost everyone. This look is simple to achieve, all that is needed is hairspray and a curling iron. The first step is to separate dry hair into small sections. The next step is to grab each section, one at a time (holding the hair at the ends), and lightly spray each section. Last, with a medium sized curling iron on low heat, wrap each section around the barrel for about ten seconds.

Sleek and Straight

If you've got a fancy dinner date with your boyfriend, the sleek and straight is a classy look you can't go wrong with. Mila Kunis and Jennifer Aniston love this look and it only takes two products to get the same results. All that is required is a flat iron and a protective heat spray. First, lightly apply the spray (it will protect hair from excessive heat damage and also add shine). Then, flat iron dry hair by grabbing one small piece at a time. Using a flat iron that is one to two inches is recommended.

Slicked Back

Want to go for something a little different, but still classy? Show your boyfriend you've got the guts to do something new with your hair. The slicked back look is fresh and sexy, so it will turn heads. Jennifer Lawrence and Hayden Panettiere regularly wear this style casually and on the red carpet. It can be worn in two ways. One way is the wet look. To get this style, simply apply hair gel and comb hair in a backward direction. Another way is the soft look. It's the same procedure, just replace the hair gel with hairspray. It may seem simple, but it's in style right now.

Megan Fox Says Reese
Witherspoon Helped Her
Deliver in Secret

By Jennifer Ross

After giving birth on Sept. 27, Megan Fox and husband Brian Austin Green have yet to release a photo of baby Noah. However, Fox is willing to give us a visual image. In an interview on the Ellen DeGeneres Show, Fox says, “He looks, I would say, 70 percent like Brian... recently he’s been getting chubbier and everyone’s like, ‘Oh, he’s so chubby – now he looks like you.” Jokingly, she can’t decide if that is a compliment. According to UsMagazine.com, Fox then claims that she has Reese Witherspoon to thank for indirectly helping her to deliver in secrecy. “She went into labor the day before I did, and all of the paparazzi followed her to Santa Monica. So when I went into labor, I went to Cedars [Sinai Medical Center in L.A.], and nobody cared or knew I was there. So I got in and out. I left the next day and nobody knew. It was a big secret for three weeks.” The word got out when Fox posted a comment about baby Noah on Facebook. “We are humbled to have the opportunity to call ourselves the parents of this beautiful soul.”

What are some reasons to keep your labor under wraps?

Cupid’s Advice:

Going into labor is one of the most wonderful experiences in life that you may want to share with your family. On the other hand, you and your partner may want to keep the delivery a secret. Can’t decide whether to notify or not? Here are a few valid reasons when to keep your labor a secret:

1. Negativity: You may decide not to tell anyone when you are in labor if you might receive negative reactions from friends or family. Unfortunately, sometimes there are people that just don’t want to see you happy.

2. Personal moment: Another acceptable reason to not share the labor news is when you and your mate want to experience the delivery with the least amount of distractions or stress. This is especially the case when the mother-to-be had a difficult pregnancy.

3. Adoption: Should you decide that you are giving your baby up for adoption, it is understandable that you won’t tell anyone when the delivery starts. Going through this alone can be traumatic. Therefore, be sure to at least talk with someone afterwards.

5 Reasons Why Men Are Attracted to Celeb Bad Girls

By Joshua Pompey

There is just something about a bad girl that men can't seem to resist. We know they are bad for us, but that sure doesn't stop us from feeling the way that we do, especially when it comes to the celebs who we crush on. Look no further than the overwhelming attention paid to stars like Megan Fox, Angelina Jolie, and Lindsay Lohan during the heights of their popularity. Don't forget: It wasn't that long ago when Jolie's celebrity news was focused on her carrying a vile of blood around her tattoo-laced body and lip locking with her brother on national television!

Why Celeb Bad Girls

Take a trip a little further down memory lane, and you may recall a time when bad girl Britney Spears dressed up as a schoolgirl and crushed the competition (like good girls Mandy Moore and Jessica Simpson). When it comes down to it, the allure of a bad girl makes a lot of sense. Here are a few reasons why men can't resist these types of women:

Related Link: What Attracts Us to Bad Boys?

1. The promise of sexuality: When men see a bad girl, the look and the attitude conjures images of a woman who is free with her sexuality. Women such as Fox ooze sexuality, making us believe that a night with her will be different from any experiences we've ever had. This is enough to make any man weak at the knees when contemplating the sexual revolution that could enter his life.

2. The excitement a bad girl brings to the table: Life can be boring sometimes. Many of us fall into the same day-to-day routines, week after week, month after month. But not with a bad girl. With a bad girl like celeb Lohan, we know we will be in for one heck of a ride, full of exotic trips, random adventures, and potential trouble. This trouble may not be good for relationships and love, but it sure is exciting.

3. The promise of a chase: Men will always want what they can't have. When men chase after bad girls, they know they may be setting themselves up for mistreatment, frustration, and neglect, but the allure of that chase is enough to outweigh the negatives. Deep down, we all want to be the ones to conquer the Jennifer Lopez's of the world and get them to settle down.

4. The look: Pull up pictures of some of the most notorious bad girl, and you will find one common thread: All of them look and dress incredibly sexy. Men are extremely visual creatures. We become excited by the over-sexualized visuals a bad girl presents. When choosing between the pretty girl in the turtleneck and the bad girl who shows off what she has, our primal sides want the bad girl that stimulates us visually.

5. The attitude: The way a female carries herself can work wonders for her appeal. An average looking woman can become extremely attractive by walking, talking, and acting as if she has it going on. Bad girls such as Jolie give off a vibe of living in their own world, and everyone else is just in their orbit. This attitude of complete confidence can be liberating to men who feel constrained by society. There is something very sexy about a woman that marches to the beat of her own drum.

Megan Fox and Brian Austin
Green Welcome Son Noah

Shannon

By Nicole Weintraub

New parents Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green welcomed their son Noah Shannon into the world, according to UsMagazine.com. Born on September 27, the new mother gushed, "We are humbled to have the opportunity to call ourselves the parents of this beautiful soul." The couple has had a quiet few weeks at home, which are a blessing according to Fox. The couple began dating back in 2004 where they met on the set of Hope & Faith. The pair split in 2009 after a two-year engagement, but reunited in June of 2010. The two were wed on June 24, 2010 and this is the first child for the couple. Green has one son from a previous relationship who is now ten years old. The couple expects to have more children, though since Fox confessed, "I've always been maternal."

How can having a child change your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Welcoming a new bundle of joy into your family can alter your relationship with your partner. Here are some ways in which having a child would change your relationship:

1. More responsibility: Having a child together adds an immense amount of responsibility to your lives. Now, you are not only responsible for yourselves, but another human being. The two of you will need to be mature and wise in your decisions regarding your child.

2. Deeper connection: The connection that you share with your partner will be deepened automatically by having a child together. Between bonding over parenting, the two of you will be experiencing new concepts and creating new memories together. Be sure to document them with plenty of video and pictures!

3. Fewer date nights: While adding a new addition to your family is a wonderful experience, there is less time for one on one alone time with your partner. There will be fewer date nights and more family activities.

Multiple Sources Confirm Megan Fox Is Pregnant

Not too long ago, Megan Fox opened up about her private life to Cosmopolitan and revealed her desire to be a mother. She said, "I want at least two, probably three [kids], I've always been maternal." It looks like those dreams are now finally coming true. Fox and her husband Brian Austin Green are expecting their first child together, as confirmed by several sources to UsMagazine.com. Fox has been seen around L.A. with a baby bump, doing little to conceal her pregnancy.

How will having your first child affect your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby can add beauty to you and your partner's lives, but it also can be straining. Here are some ways to find a balance between the two so that you can maintain a healthy relationship:

1. Baby comes first: Before having a child, your partner was your whole world. Once you have your first child together, your baby becomes your first priority and then some. However, don't make the baby the only thing you care about. Be sure to share your love with both your baby and your partner.

2. Less time for romance: When you have a baby, you won't have much time to sleep, let alone have a romantic date night. Don't get too caught up in the stress. After all, you still deserve time with your partner. Trade in your lavish dinner outings for quiet movie nights. These can be equally as romantic and intimate, without keeping you far from your child.

3. Money strains: Money can cause major problems in any relationship, and having another person to care for means these stresses are only going to grow. Babies need cribs, toys and the like, and their costs can add up very quickly. Make sure you and your partner make a solid financial plan and begin setting aside money before the baby is even born.

Five Celebrity Couples Who Had a Low Profile Wedding

By Creshawna Parker

Planning a wedding is hard work. You have to pick a date, send out invites, take engagement photos, find the perfect dress, choose the hall, get a caterer – actually, the planning really doesn't end until the big day. And if you're a celebrity, add trying to shun paparazzi and other camera toting individuals to your to-do list and this task can become even more stressful. Contrary to this belief, thanks to reality TV and celebrity magazine contracts, some celebrities [insert Kim Kardashian here] have the pleasure of publicizing their exchanging of vows for millions of Hollywood enthused fans to see on TV in trade of cashing a multi-million dollar check. While, this gives off a semblance of an easy pay day for celebrities, these Tinseltown twosomes traded in the cameras and the public access to celebrate their intimate moment with family and close friends:

1. Beyonce Knowles and Shawn 'Jay-Z' Carter: This power couple started dating back in 2002 and after years of speculation, the duo officially tied the knot on April 4, 2008. The ceremony was followed by a lavish party thrown at the rapper's New York Tribeca apartment and was decorated with 50,000 to 60,000 white orchid blooms from Thailand. In attendance was the couple's closest family and friends including the singer's parents and sister Solange, former Destiny's Child members Kelly Rowland and Michelle Williams and actress Gwyneth Paltrow. Normally a private person about her love life, the new mom stated in People back in January 2006, "I never pictured myself as a bride, but after my sister's wedding, I did start thinking about what kind of wedding I want. I don't think I want a big one."

2. Mariah Carey and Nick Cannon: These two lovebirds started dating in March of 2008 after Cannon appeared in the singer's music video "Bye Bye." After dating for only a few weeks, the couple said "I do" on April 30, 2008 in front of a dozen of their closest family and friends at Carey's Bahamian ocean-side estate while enjoying live Maine lobster and Dom Perignon that was flown in for the special occasion. Not only did the couple seal the deal in just a few weeks, they also marked the event with permanent ink. "We got tattoos," Carey told People. "His is on one shoulder to the other and it says 'Mariah.' [Mine is] on my lower back and it says 'Mrs. Cannon.' "

3. Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green: It took two engagements before this Hollywood pair tied the knot in Hawaii on June 24, 2010. The couple, who met in 2004 on the set of the sitcom "Hope & Faith," wed at the Four Seasons Hotel resort in a private ceremony while vacationing on the island. Before calling off their first engagement, Green described his ideal wedding to People. "Originally we were talking elopement and now we might have a few people there," he said. Obviously a man to get what he wants, the two reportedly exchanged vows in front of a half dozen guests including Green's son, Kassius.

4. Jessica Alba and Cash Warren: When it comes to low-profile weddings, this actress and producer take the cake. Opting out of having a glamorous Hollywood wedding, these two tied the knot May 19, 2008 at the Beverly Hills courthouse's ceremony room under an arch of green silk foliage and white flowers, with Alba dressed in a long blue gown and her hair in a ponytail. Although the pair considered having a fall wedding, they were evidently satisfied with keeping their nuptials low-key.

5. Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck: There was nothing gaudy about this couple's wedding. Married on beautiful Parrot Cay of the Turks and Caicos Islands, a makeup-less Garner, wearing her hair in a loose ponytail wed Affleck on June 29, 2005, in a private ceremony with no family-including their parents- or friends in attendance. "They didn't need or want a crowd. They just wanted each other," Affleck's pal, director Kevin Smith, told People. Perhaps, the secluded time away from the Hollywood glam and cameras made for the best wedding gift for the couple. "They're in it for one another, not for anyone else," Smith said.

Brian Austin Green Avoids Megan Fox Pregnancy Rumors

Actress Megan Fox and husband Brian Austin Green will be celebrating their two-year anniversary in Hawaii where they tied the knot back in June 2010. The two are open about their plans to reinvent the same atmosphere they had on their wedding day, but they're more hush-hush about the pregnancy rumors that have been floating around. "They've been saying that every three months ever since we got married, and it's sort of one of those things that they love to say," Green said according to People. "I think it's interesting. I think there is a part of Megan that people really love that is, at 18 she found a relationship and she stuck with it, and we've been together for coming on eight years now."

How do you keep your pregnancy under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

There are three people that really matter during your pregnancy – you, your partner, and your baby. Cupid has some tips to help you keep things quiet:

1. Keep it personal: Only tell the people that are close to you like your parents and your best friends. If you start telling too many people, it will get around to everyone you're surrounded by very quickly.

2. Demand your privacy: Once people find out that you're going to have a baby, they're all going to want to put in their suggestions about how to go about everything. Make sure to demand your privacy so you can do things the way you want to do them.

3. Keep it a secret: Obviously you can't keep your pregnancy hidden forever, but it might be fun to keep it a secret until your baggy clothes or your anticipation can't hide it anymore!

If you're currently living in the middle of a sitting in a loft apartment and you don't feel that's the type of atmosphere in which you want to raise a child, wait until you're somewhere you feel your family life is meant to be.

3. Ready: Make sure you and your spouse are ready to start a family and take care of all the responsibilities that come with it. If you have doubt, don't go through with having kids quite yet.

Shia LaBeouf and Megan Fox: Kissing Co-Stars?

According to UsMagazine.com, Transformers costars Meghan Fox and Shia LaBeouf hooked up on the set of the first and second Transformers movies. Though a source clarified that Fox was not with her present husband at the time, when LaBeouf was asked if Fox and her husband were together at the time, he stuttered and said, "I don't know" 12 times. Director Michael Bay allegedly put a damper on their fling when he fired Fox off of the set. "Believe me," said Bay, "that was an unhappy set. I think they were drawn together because it was so ugly working on that film."

How do you act normal at work when you know that you're hooking up with a colleague?

Cupid's Advice:

Having flirtatious eyes and a pumping heart for a special someone at your job is perfectly fine. It might even make you want to come extra early or clock in some more hours. But how do you keep your amorous conversations away from your job's listening ears? Cupid has some advice:

1. Cut it: Keep flirting to a minimum. Do nothing that would suggest any kind of overly friendly relationship. It's best to save these things for your lunch break and for when you're off the clock. This way, you will never have to worry about word getting back to your boss. This cute guy or girl is not worth the loss of your job.

2. Shrug it off: Don't take anything too personally. Nine times out of 10, your partner will have to speak at length to other people on the job. Keep the jealousy at bay.

3. Focus: Don't get too caught up with watching him or her from afar. Remember, you still have work to do. Above all, maturity and responsibility will always be expected on the work site.

Megan Fox & Brian Austin Green Settle Into Married Life

After a private wedding and luxurious honeymoon in Hawaii, Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green have returned home quietly. They were spotted at a local grocery store picking up last minute Fourth of July items in Glendale, Calif. While People discusses the ups and downs throughout the couple's two-year relationship, it appears that they are in it for the long haul.

What can you do to keep the spark alive in a marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

After you've taken the leap to marriage, you may be wondering how to keep the fire going. Cupid has some ideas to get you started:

- 1. Keep dating: Just because your partnership is legal doesn't mean you give up making regular plans to go out and celebrate each other. Aim for date nights once a month, if not more.
- 2. Talk over issues: Every relationship has its troubles. By keeping lines of communication open, you're more likely to resolve them together, and come up with a solution you can both agree to.
- 3. Be wary of advice: If people in your respective lives offer assistance – whether you want it or not – just listen. Afterward, discuss all of your options with your partner before taking any recommended guidance.

Megan Fox & Brian Austin Green's Intimate Wedding!

That was fast! Cupid found out recently that actors Megan Fox, 24, and Brian Austin Green, 36, re-engaged after a brief break. It turns out that the couple married at the Fours Seasons Resort on the Big Island of Hawaii last week, which Green's rep confirmed Monday to TMZ. The ceremony was intimate, with less than a dozen guests in attendance. This is the first marriage for both Fox and Green.

How can you keep your wedding small and intimate?

Cupid's Advice:

With shows like Platinum Wedding and My Fair Wedding all the rage, the pressure is on to have a big and extravagant wedding. However, a smaller and more personal ceremony can be just as – if not more – special. Here are some of Cupid's tips on keeping your plans to a minimum:

1. Don't invite everyone and their mom: This may be the hardest thing to do, since you'll want to share this day with everyone (and loved ones may feel left out if they're not invited), but this is a surefire way to keep your ceremony under control.

2. Go away: Take a note from Fox and Green and plan a destination wedding that many people won't be able to attend. Sounds harsh, but it's a way to have potential guests weed themselves off the list without you having to lift a finger.

3. Set a budget – and stick to it: A budget will keep you from spending too much, whether it's on food, flowers, or the cake. If you can't (or don't want) to pay for extra guests, you don't need to.

Megan Fox & Brian Austin Green are “Re-Engaged”

Maybe there is some truth to the old cliché, the second time's a charm. At the premiere of her latest movie, "Jonah Hex," Megan Fox told People magazine, "I'm more in love with him (fiancé Brian Austin Green) than I was in the beginning." The couple – who were first engaged in 2006 and called it off last February – re-engaged this month.

How can you prevent the break-up/make-up syndrome from happening in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it takes a little distance to find out if two people are meant to be together before they walk down the aisle. Cupid has some suggestions to help keep your relationship on track without all the drama:

- 1. Take it slow: Far too often couples rush into a serious relationship, only to have it end badly. If you slow down the courtship and get to know one another, you'll have a better chance at being together for the long haul.
- 2. Be honest: If something is bothering you, it's important to share your feelings with your partner immediately. Keeping things inside will only cause resentment, and can often lead to a break-up.
- 3. The test of time: Sometimes the only way to know if a relationship will sustain is to see how things go after being together for a few years.
