

Health Trend: Five Diet Tips for Surviving Thanksgiving Dinner

By Meghan Khameraj

Thanksgiving is a wonderful time to celebrate family, togetherness, and food. In fact, it wouldn't be Thanksgiving without a variety of food to feast upon with your loved ones until you pass out into a food coma. This time of year can be stressful for your body and health. You shouldn't have to miss out on the holiday festivities, but you should also be aware of the impact it has on your well-being. There are many health trends that gain popularity around the holiday season, so it can be confusing to figure out which one fits your lifestyle the best. It's important to realize that not every diet works for every type of body; it may take some trial and error to figure out which works best for you!

Skip the post-holiday guilt! In these health trends, what are some diet tips to help you make the most of the holiday?

1. Eat breakfast: It may be tempting to skip breakfast on Thanksgiving to save your calories for later. Instead of missing out on the most important meal of the day, have a small breakfast of cereal or avocado toast. If you skip breakfast, then by the time of your Thanksgiving festivities, you'll be starving and prone to overeating.

2. Get active: While Thanksgiving may be known for food and lounging around with family and friends, there are many holiday activities that will get you moving. Play a game of football or go on a fall walk to help you beat that all too familiar Thanksgiving lethargy.

3. Listen to your body: We're all familiar with the feeling of overeating. Our bodies do a pretty good job of letting us know what we should or shouldn't be doing. Once you feel full, despite still having food on your plate, you should stop eating. This will help you avoid that uncomfortable feeling we all get when we overeat.

4. Be realistic: Even if you're concerned about your health and body, that shouldn't get in the way of you enjoying the holiday. It logically makes sense that you would gain some weight on a holiday, especially one that is known for food. Don't be overly harsh or mean to yourself if you happen to overeat. You're allowed to enjoy yourself and that should be your main focus during the holiday season.

5. Exercise: If you happen to feel guilty after Thanksgiving, don't beat yourself up about it. You can always exercise to shed the extra weight you may have gained. Set a weekly exercise regime to follow until your body feels healthy!

Celebrity Interview: Leanne Ford Talks Interior Design Advice and Upcoming Projects

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Meghan Khameraj.

Leanne Ford took the interior design world by storm and made a name for herself with a now-famous 1907 schoolhouse renovation in Pittsburgh, her hometown. The home which is referred to as The Schoolhouse Project was featured in Country Living Magazine, and helped cement her career. Since then, Ford, whose designs are best described as modern, yet lived-in, continues to build a following with her signature “white on white” aesthetic. She leads design projects in Pennsylvania, New York, and Los Angeles and is a published author and HGTV staple on top of it all.

In our celebrity interview, Leanne Ford gives us valuable interior design advice and insight into her upcoming projects.

In a recent celebrity interview with CupidsPulse.com, Ford gives interior design advice and discusses her busy schedule full of new projects. She even gets personal and reveals some design details in her child's nursery.

The house and specifically the bathroom, that solidified Leanne Ford's reputation was The Schoolhouse Project. This project recognized her white and minimalist aesthetic, as the walls of the main living area were painted white, but the floor was left black for the perfect contrasting touch. In the bathroom, she knocked out the crawl space to create room for the bathtub. Though Ford's style was unique and grabbed the attention of the design world, when asked about the biggest risk she's ever taken, this was not one she would count in that category. "Honestly, everything is a risk in some form," the designer says. "If you're not making yourself nervous, you aren't doing anything special."

In addition to the time she spends on interior design projects, Ford and her brother Steve can be seen renovating old homes on their HGTV hit show, Restored By The Fords which is slated to come back for Season 3 early next year. She also recently appeared on A Very Brady Renovation and the new competition show, Rock The Block.

On A Very Brady Renovation, which premiered September 9th, the six surviving members of The Brady Bunch cast came together with current HGTV stars to renovate the San Fernando Valley house used in exterior shots on the series. Ford says, "We just knew we had to get it right...we were not accepting anything less than perfect on that place." As for Rock The Block, which premieres on October 21st, four of HGTV's brightest stars, including Leanne Ford, square off in a home renovation showdown. Ironically, Ford admits that she's "the least competitive person, probably, like ever." However, she did mention that there is a healthy competition among the other women on the show.

Although she is kept extremely busy on professional projects, Ford and her husband are focused on their family. In March they welcomed their first daughter, Ever Allen Ford. When asked if there was anything special about the baby's nursery design, Ford says that she didn't have a pre-determined vision. However, she tells us that the baby has a "Love Wall," going on to explain that this is a wall of "love letters and sweet things" that she and her husband have given to each other over the years.

Design ideas like sentimental additions to her daughter's nursery seem to come naturally for the HGTV reality star. However, to some couples, a redesign could destroy a marriage or relationship. When it comes to working through how your home will look when you are a couple, Ford gives us some healthy relationship advice, explaining how two people can come to an agreement on differing design opinions and the risks of making a big change in your home. She says compromise is the best way to keep the peace at home. It sounds like picking your battle is important. To reduce nerves when it comes to a big home renovation she says, "It doesn't mean that everything has to go away...if you want to do it, you're going to love it!"

A busy schedule won't stop Leanne Ford! On top of her numerous design gigs and being a mother, Ford has no plans to slow down anytime soon. Check out Leanne Ford on Rock the Block, premiering October 21st on HGTV.

Cassie Randolph and Colton Underwood are enjoying their time together. Despite countless questions about marriage, this celebrity couple is happy to be on the same page. If you're also dealing with outside pressure to get married, Cupid has some relationship advice to help you out:

1. Talk it out with your partner: The easiest way to get through excessive outside pressure to get married is to talk about it with your partner. Discuss if you're comfortable where you're at in the relationship or if you're ready to take the next step. Once you and your partner are on the same page it will be easier to deal with the pressure.

2. Address the pressure publically: Tell the people who are pressuring you where you stand in your relationship. If it's family and friends who are pressuring you then it's best to sit down and talk to them. However, if you're being pressured by a large group of people then a social post should suffice.

things to consider before taking a “break” from your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Kylie Jenner and Travis Scott have called quits on their celebrity relationship. Jenner and Scott may get back together, but for now, they’ve decided it’s best for both of them to be apart. Cupid has some factors to consider before taking a break:

1. What you want: Consider what you actually want from the break. If you just want to hook up with new people perhaps you should actually break up with your partner. If you need time to rethink or rebalance then communicate with your partner that a break would be the best solution.

2. What the break means: We’ve all seen Friends and no one wants to be the Ross of the breakup. Clearly communicate with your partner exactly what the break will entail. Establish if you’re comfortable with each other sleeping with other people. Basically, don’t do what Ross did to Rachel.

3. How long it will be: How long you need for the break may change as time goes on. However, you and your partner should agree on the approximate length of the break. If it exceeds six months you should consider ending the relationship.

Beauty Trend: Eyebrows With Some Fluff!

By Meghan Khameraj

Eyebrows have been through some serious ups and downs the past few years. From super thin and highly arched brows to too-thick bold brows, the versatile eyebrows never go out of style. In the latest beauty news, fluffy brows are the newest beauty trend. Our beauty tips will help you achieve this new look!

Eyebrow beauty trends have changed a lot through the years. Fluffy brows are the newest trend to sweep the beauty world. Cupid has some advice to help you get this new look.

The perfect eyebrow look is the key piece to every beauty trend. Although eyebrow trends are constantly changing, it is still fairly easy to change your eyebrow shape. In the latest beauty news, fuzzy eyebrows are the hottest trend. Here is our beauty advice on how to get this cool new eyebrow shape:

1. Grow out brows: Fluff is the key part to fluffy brows and the only way to get it is by growing out your brows. It may take a few weeks depending on how quickly your hair grows, but once you have bushy enough brows, then you can truly attain the fluffy look.

Related Link: Beauty Trend: Neon Eyeshadow

2. Get the right tools: You're going to need some tools to get that perfect fluffy brow look. Stock up on a spoolie, angled brush, brow pencil, and brow gel. You'll need these products once you're ready to groom your eyebrows.

3. Groom, groom, groom: Now your eyebrows should be pretty wild and bushy and could definitely go for some grooming. Use the tools mentioned above to trim and groom your brows so they look bushy, yet tamed. Don't over-groom them since we still want them to look fluffy.

4. Fill in: Use the brow pencil to fill in your brows to your liking; however, brows that are more lightly filled tend to look more natural. Then, use the eyebrow gel and angled brush to move the hairs around, crafting the exact style you want. Crossing your hairs across each other can help get a naturally messy look. Clean up the look to get the exact fluffy eyebrow you were looking for!

According to EOnline.com, the pair stepped out in coordinated black ensembles. Cyrus wore black slacks, a blazer, and a crop top while Carter donned a black leather miniskirt, a blazer, and a blouse. A source for EOnline.com reports that this celebrity relationship is getting more serious, "Kaitlynn has been a huge support system for Miley and they haven't left each other's sides. Their relationship is getting more serious."

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus and Kaitlynn Carter wore matching outfits for their date night. What are some cute ways to coordinate your clothes for date night?

Cupid's Advice:

Miley Cyrus and Kaitlynn Carter looked super cute in their matching black outfits. However, it's easy to go from cute to corny when it comes to matching outfits. Luckily, Cupid has some advice that will help you and your significant other look coordinated and cute instead of tacky:

1. Wear dark colors: Just like Cyrus and Carter, stick to dark colors for a classy matching ensemble. You want to highlight that you're matching with your partner while also making it look natural. Bright colors will distract from the coordination and look as though it's forced.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Brody Jenner is 'Happy' for Miley Cyrus & Ex Kaitlynn Carter

2. Pick a vibe: If you want to go for a more subtle approach to matching with your partner an easy way to do so is to pick a vibe or an aesthetic. Are you trying to channel high fashion or a look from a certain era? You don't necessarily have to match colors or specific articles of clothing, but as long as you both go for the same general idea you'll both look chic!

3. Keep it simple: Simply, don't overdo it. We've all seen those pictures of celebrity couples in the early 2000s coordinating outrageous outfits. You don't want to follow in their steps. If matching outfits scare you, try to coordinate accessories instead of entire ensembles and work your way up.
