

Relationship Advice: How Can You Seamlessly Welcome A New Baby?

By Dr. Jane Greer

There is no question that the announcement of a baby brother or sister is exciting. It can be a wonderful time when you are expanding your family and planning to welcome your next child into your home. Prince Harry and Meghan Markle recently told the world that they are thrilled to be expecting baby number two who will join big brother Archie. And while everyone rightfully expects this time to be joyful, it can also be stressful and harder than you might think to navigate. With the...Arrival of your newest addition, for the child who is already there it actually can be a...Rival. They may worry about what it will be like to have to share their parents' attention and may fear that they will stop being the center of their parents' world. And while the prospective parents may view it as a gain, the child can see it as a loss. So how can you make the experience less fraught and more positive?

There are certain things to keep in mind which will help make the homecoming of your new family member as smooth as it can be.

The first thing you can do is to include your child or children in the adventure of your pregnancy so they feel a part of it, and so they can get excited about being involved. Help your child look forward to the birth of their new sibling by sharing with them how the baby is developing, and how their presence will enhance the family unit and not take away from it. If you are able to illustrate how much they can contribute and be helpful to you in caring for their new brother or sister – whatever that might mean based on how old they are – they can look forward to feeling valued and needed.

Another thing to consider is how birth order will affect the dynamics of your family unit. I talk about this in my book Adult Sibling Rivalry: Understanding the Legacy of Childhood. It is fairly well accepted that we make decisions about how many children we want to have based on the structure of our family of origin. For example, if you are one of four kids, that can seem normal and comfortable, and you may want to replicate that when you begin to discuss building your own family. What isn't talked about as much is the fact that your place in your family growing up – whether you were the baby or the oldest, the middle child or an only child – can often shape how we interact with our own children. If you were the youngest and were always pampered, you may look to treat your youngest the same way. If you were the oldest and felt you were given too much responsibility, you could take that in two possible directions. The first is to offset what you thought of as negative treatment and consequently be more indulgent with your first child, thereby letting them off the hook. Or you might take the opposite approach and think if I had to do it then they should too, and therefore be more strict with them. Recognizing this in yourself can help you as you prepare for your new baby, and how you might relate to them based on your family experience.

The crux of sibling rivalry is having to share your parents love with your sisters and brothers, and worrying that you won't get your fair share. Everyone understands that. But it is possible to use this necessary sharing as a means to learn how to compromise, how to care about your siblings and develop concern for the best interest of others, how to deal with disappointments, and finally how to accept that you can't always have your way. Taking this into account, sibling rivalry can be viewed as a positive experience.

If Harry and Meghan keep these things in mind, they will likely be hands-on equipped to deal with the unknown and the sibling rivalry that is an inevitable part of an expanding family, and you can be, too.

Royal Celebrity News: Prince William Disagreed With the Palace's Misleading Comments about Meghan Markle's Labor and Birth

By Carly Silva

In royal celebrity news, Prince William disagreed with misleading comments regarding Meghan Markle's labor and birth of celebrity baby, Archie. The Duke and Dutchess of Sussex welcomed their firstborn baby into the world in 2019, but it wasn't until eight hours after Archie was born that the royal family announced that Meghan was going into labor. According to UsMagazine.com, Prince William did not approve of this misleading statement, and in turn, waited a full eight days to meet his nephew.

In royal celebrity news, Prince William isn't a fan of purposely misleading comments for the public. What are some ways to deal with a partner you've caught being dishonest?

Cupid's Advice:

Dealing with a partner who has been dishonest can be extremely tricky, but it doesn't have to mean that all hope is lost. If you're in need of some ways to deal with a partner who you have caught being dishonest, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Talk honestly with them: When someone is dishonest, it can be extremely hard to accept or move on from. Try talking honestly with your partner, as it may help you understand why they lied in the first place. Having open conversations with each other will allow you to both to maintain an honest relationship together.

Celebrity News: Prince Harry & Duchess Meghan Are Considering Moving to Canada

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, British royalty may be moving to Canada! According to UsMagazine.com, Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan are considering a move to the Great White North, where Meghan Markle used to film the Suits. The celebrity couple plan to stay in Kensington Palace for now with their celebrity baby, Archie.

In celebrity news, this royal couple is considering a move to Canada. What are some ways to compromise with your partner about where to live?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting serious in a relationship means that you will have to start making choices with and for the benefit of your partner. This may mean considering a relocation for career or family reasons. Cupid has some advice on how to help make the discussion a smoother one:

1. Listen to their reasons: You don't have to be fond of moving to another state or country. It is normal to feel this way. Changing your environment is a huge adjustment, but hear your partner out. Ask them: how will this help us or our family? Weigh the pros and cons, and try to remain reasonable.

>Related Link: Relationship Advice: Talking Through the Tough Times

2. Let them know your concerns: If you feel that you won't get enough money in the location being discussed for work, tell them this! Also, share your thoughts on cost of living, school systems, and transportation (if needed). Work on focusing on common ground. Show them what you are looking for in a place you want to call your home.

Related Link: Date Idea: Hometown Tourism

3. Take a trip there: The only way you'll know if you like a new location is if you go there in person. Cruise around and go sightseeing. This will help you become more accustomed to the area. Let your partner show you the city they love through a different perspective.

Celebrity Couple News: Duchess Meghan Comments On Her Relationship with Prince Harry to Pharrell

By Bonnie Griffin

In the latest celebrity couple news, Duchess Meghan Markle opened up to singer, Pharell, about the difficulties of having her relationship always in the spotlight. According to UsMagazine.com, Meghan said “They don’t make it easy,” seemingly referring to the constant public scrutiny her and Prince Harry’s relationship is always under. Every relationship has its own complicated parts, and this celebrity couple clearly states that having all of your personal life on display for the world to talk about isn’t easy.

In celebrity couple news, Duchess Meghan was honest about having a relationship in the spotlight. What are some ways to handle scrutiny of your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Whether your relationship is constantly in the public eye like the Duchess and Prince, or you find your family and friends nitpicking your every move, it's no fun being scrutinized by others. Cupid has some advice on how to handle the scrutiny of your relationship:

1. Ignore it: The number one thing to do is just ignore what others have to say about your relationship. If they are not a part of your relationship, then their scrutiny does not have to hold any bearing on how you and your partner feel for each other.

Related Link: Celebrity Marriage: Find Out More About Miley Cyrus' Marriage to Liam Hemsworth

2. Openly communicate with your partner: What is most important is that you and your partner are openly communicating with one another. # Royal Celebrity Parents: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry Are 'Enjoying Each Day' with Baby Archie

By Katie Sotack

Royals Meghan Markle and Prince Harry are stowed away in Windsor and “enjoying each day” with their eight week old celebrity baby, Archie. According to People.com, the celebrity parents are focused on giving Archie a peaceful start to life, hence the escape to a private cottage. A royal source says they are “basking in the glow and enjoying each day”. Like all new parents, the royal couple are living soulfully in their new baby’s needs and wants, discovering his newness every day that they spend with him.

These royal celebrity parents are enjoying the time with their infant son. What are some ways to bond as a couple in the face of parenthood?

Cupid's Advice:

New parenthood is filled with as many challenges as it is joys. Making time for your partner when this new life has become your world can feel impossible. Here are relationship tips for parents looking to bond outside of their baby:

1. Make time for one another: With your new baby becoming the center of your world, it's difficult to make time for each other. However, having one-on-one time is essential to a sturdy relationship and ultimately the growth of your baby. Go on a date together or just sit and talk after the baby's gone to bed.

Celebrity Interview: 'Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal' Actor Noah Huntley Talks Career, Charity & Relationships

Interview by Courtney Shapiro. Written by Courtney Shapiro

Notorious for his roles in dramas and fantastical films, including The Royals, The Chronicles of Narnia, and Snow White and the Huntsman, it is no surprise that London native Noah Huntley was cast in the new and exciting TV movie, Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal.

In our exclusive celebrity interview, we chat with Huntley about how his childhood helped shape his career path, what he really thinks about the Royals, as well as his charity work and the projects he's excited to take on in the future.

Celebrity Interview with Noah Huntley: Early Career Path, Real Thoughts on the Royals, and Future Endeavors

Huntley came from humble beginnings, as he grew up with seven siblings and had to carve out individual opportunities for himself. "It was slightly by happenstance because my parents had three sets of twins. You kind of thought to make your own rules," explains Huntley. He and his siblings went through a mix of private schools, home education, and state schools, until age 11 when the Sussex native attended a less expensive stage school for a year and a half to save his parents money. "I didn't really think I was cut out for such an overtly theatrical life; I wasn't going to be a tap dancer," he explains. But, that didn't stop him from finding a passion in acting while there. From that point on, he was hooked. "I got an agent and I kept working basically until I was 19 or 20, and I did a series in England called Emmerdale for two years, and that got me started."

Before landing some of his larger roles, the actor also spent time in the fashion world as a model. Expanding upon how he got into it, Huntley says, "My mother was doing a degree in textiles, so that was always there in the background. I came out of a soap and very much focused on film and theater for the next 10 years really. Then, I was in LA and I was broke, probably about 10 years ago, and did a little bit of modeling just to earn some money, and I thought nobody would see it, but it went really well." Huntley partnered with big names like Annie Leibovitz and L'Oreal, and his time modeling allowed him to put money in the bank as he continued to pursue his passion in acting.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Duchess Meghan Has Been 'Very Emotional' Since Welcoming Baby Boy

Over the years, Huntley has played many different types of characters. To prepare for various roles, he says "it's usually about finding something in your own life or in your own character or personality that you can apply to a character that you're playing." Huntley also adds that certain character's voices immediately get in your head. "It suddenly clicks and you go, oh, that's the voice that the tone comes to me. Directors maybe see a different version of it, but to me, it's the voice, and when you get that voice, then it sort of embodies a lot of the character and very often that's key to unlocking the character you're playing."

Speaking of characters, Huntley's most recent role is that of Caspian in the new Lifetime TV movie, Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal. In the movie, Caspian is one of the co-hosts on the fictional broadcast program, Good Day U. K., who often describes his disdain for Meghan and her romance with the Prince. The actor admits, "It's a really fun character to play. It's kind of the voice of the public in terms of media and how easily that partly represents the questions of the public, but it's also very invasive, and to some extent has an agenda on getting the sensational scoop for a story." On the other hand, his co-star, Louise Bond, who plays the other host on the broadcast, is the voice of reason and passion. "I'm really the yang to her yin in that respect," Huntley explains.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Royal Drama Has 'Put Pressure' on Prince Harry & Meghan Markle's Relationship

However, Huntley's real life views on the royal celebrity couple don't align with his character Caspian's. "There is an element of celebrity that goes along with being part of the royal family. It talks about the political demands and expectations of the royals and then the other side of it, which is there should be no political agenda," the actor elaborates. "So, I think that's a fascinating argument. My character Caspian is kind of exploring the underside of that rather than getting caught up on the fashion and the glossy cozy fairy tale that is the royal family."

The fact is, Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan are mostly portrayed in the media as having a fairy tale romance. In contrast, Huntley's love life is far from that. When asked about what he looks for in a significant other, Huntley jokingly confesses, "Oh God, don't ask me! I seem to just fail at it miserably, and I think three years was my longest relationship.” However, the Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal star does point to selflessness as one of the keys to a successful relationship. He adds, “I think that fairy tale in terms of love, is almost transcendental. It’s something that’s bigger than the sum of its parts.”

Huntley may not be fulfilling selflessness in a current relationship, but he certainly applies it in his philanthropic endeavors. During the filming of The Chronicles of Narnia, Huntley was cast, but told he wouldn’t be receiving payment for the role. He would only be earning residuals from the film, so he decided, “I’ll do it for free, and you can donate more money to my my nominated charity and that’s the way I prefer it to be rather than take any any money for it.” Huntley supports Greenpeace, Bloodwise and The Actors Benevolent Fund, among other charitable organizations.

Aside from filming Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal, and taking a passionate step into charity, Huntley is currently working on a new show called Pandora that will air on the CW coming out this July. The actor confesses, “I’ve wanted to do sci-fi for a long time.” In the show, Huntley plays the head of a military training academy, who he admits “is potentially a bully.” Huntley is greatly looking forward to this project, which is unlike anything he’s starred in previously.

You can watch Noah Huntley as Caspian in ‘Harry and Meghan: Becoming Royal’ on Lifetime, premiering May 27th. You can also follow Noah on Instagram and Twitter.

Celebrity News: Duchess Kate & Duchess Meghan Are 'Bonding Over Motherhood'

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity news, the arrival of the royal celebrity couple Duchess Meghan and Prince Harry's royal celebrity baby, Archie Harrison Mountbatten-Winsor, means the Duchess will be spending more time with her celebrity royal sister-in-law, Duchess Kate. According to UsMagazine.com, an insider received this information from the palace, saying, "Meghan and Kate will be spending a lot more time together. Now that they're bonding over motherhood, they've become closer than ever." Aw! It's great to see that these royal sisters-in-law are putting aside their differences to bond as mothers of the next generation of the royal family.

In celebrity news, the alleged rivalry may be over between the two Duchesses, in favor of bonding over motherhood. What are some ways being parents can bring you and your partner closer together?

Cupid's Advice:

A new baby in the family is an exciting time for you and your partner. Here are a few ways that being new parents can bring you closer together:

1. You'll learn to lean on each other more: Sleepless nights with a crying baby, frustration over breastfeeding, learning to cope with new feelings that come along with having a new baby... All of these things will lead to you and your partner learning to lean on each other in ways you didn't before. You have a new little person who needs you and it won't work if you don't learn how to lean on each other.

According to an exclusive source from UsMagazine.com, Duchess Meghan has been very emotional since welcoming her new bundle of joy! “This is definitely my first birth,” Prince Harry said. “I am so incredibly proud of my wife and as every father and parent would ever say, your baby is absolutely amazing, but this little thing is absolutely to die for, so I’m just over the moon.”

In royal celebrity baby news, Duchess Meghan was ‘very emotional’ after welcoming her son into the world. What are some ways to support your partner’s emotions

after the birth of your child?

Cupid's Advice:

Emotions can be all over the place after you go through the birth of a child, and it's important that your partner supports you. Cupid has some tips:

1. Let her cry or get emotional: Don't try to fix it. If she needs to cry, let her cry. Comforting her is the most important thing you can do. She needs time to process what happened during the birth and her feelings over becoming a Mom.

Top 2019 Fitness & Wellness Trends to Watch

By Mara Miller

Wellness and fitness trends are ever-changing. Unfortunately, we do have busy lives, so even though we want to brave a class at a Metaformer studio, it might be better for us to do a simpler workout with an online class. You may also be thinking more about brain health as well. We've gathered several trends for you to keep an eye on if you're looking to shed a few pounds!

Top 2019 Fitness & Wellness Trends to Watch

1. Isometric strength training: This fitness trend involves working out in place. The idea behind it is to focus on the way muscles supposed to move rather than some of the intense workouts like throwing a tire. A yoga plank, for example, is considered an isometric strength training.

Related Link: Fitness Trend: Isometric Strength Training

2. The brain: Language and math skills aren't the only things you need to work on if you want to keep your brain in tip-top shape. This year, more people are focusing on brain health—more specifically, your cognitive skills. Apps like Lumosity are geared toward brain wellness to help you keep your brain challenged.

Related Link: Fitness Tips: 7 Ways to Speed Up Weight Loss

3. Megaformer workouts: Celebrities like Meghan Markle and Kim Kardashian love this machine, which appears intimidating at first sight. Megaformer studios are popping up across the country. The workout with the Megaformer is meant to challenge the body while doing Pilates.

4. Online Workouts: Workouts that involve being able to access instructor-led online classes have been gaining popularity lately. Online classes mean you can do the workout wherever you want, be it at your home-office, during your lunch break at work, or on your weekend getaway with your honey. It's also great if you have an erratic schedule and can't commit to classes on a set time block.

5. Wearable Technology: Our smartwatches, if you are willing to spend the money, can do everything from reminding you to stand during the day to monitoring your heart rate. Smartwatches can help not only with our workouts but also wellness since they can monitor your sleep. Some people have even found heart conditions by wearing a smartwatch. So if you've been eyeing the latest Apple Watch or Fitbit, you may be justified in your purchase.

Kensington Palace is worried about online bullying against the royal celebrity couples, Kate Middleton and Prince William, and Meghan Markle and Prince Harry. In the latest celebrity news, according to People.com. Kensington Palace staff have spent countless hours monitoring negative comments aimed toward the royal sisters-in-law. These comments often try to pit Duchesses Middleton and Markle against each other, with fans of both taking sides and arguing among themselves. In some rare cases, there have even been serious threats of harm. The cyber bullying isn't just toward both women: Kate and Meghan fans often turn against, and threaten, each other.

The Royal Celebrity Couples are facing terrible comments on social media and, in response, Kensington Palace is making a peace movement.

What are ways can adults cultivate a positive experience online?

Cupid's Advice:

Kensington Palace has been locking down the comments on social media about the royal family. While it might be easy to act thoughtlessly online without caring about another person's feelings, bullying has serious emotional repercussions that have, in some cases, led to suicide when an online social interaction is not as easily monitored. We should all strive for a positive online experience. Here are some ways to achieve it.

1. Remember the Golden Rule: Remember the saying, "If you can't say anything nice, don't say anything at all?" Apply this logic to any future comments you might make online in a public forum. Realize the comments you are making are about real people, too. It's easy to get into shipping wars when we adore our royalty and our celebrities, but they have feelings and busy lives just like we do. Would you want to hurt your favorite celebrity because you've said something terrible about one of their family members when they're trying to work out their personal differences?

2. Report Threatening Behavior: If you're on a forum like Facebook or Twitter, you can report any threats toward someone who is getting bullied. Often, there is the option to block a specific user. Never make any threats yourself. While there are no exact laws against cyber bullying, it is still a form of harassment and there can be legal ramifications if you're caught.

3. Just Walk Away: The best thing to do is ignore it, even when you might really want to make that comment to try to make an internet troll go away. Bullying can take away the enjoyment of the video or article you're trying to read and put you in a horrible mood when you could have just ignored someone else's childish behavior.

Celebrity Baby: Meghan Markle Reveals Due Date

By Mara Miller

In the latest royal celebrity baby news, Meghan Markle revealed her due date during a walkabout in Hamilton Square with Prince Harry, according to EOnline.com. Markle is currently six months pregnant; the celebrity couple is expecting their first baby between April and May. The Duchess and Prince have decided to wait to find out the gender of their baby. This is the closest confirmation of her due date available since Kensington Palace previously announced the baby is expected in Spring 2019.

Meghan Markle and Prince Harry are about to have their first celebrity baby. What are some ways of announcing your due date to the world?

Cupid's Advice:

Announcing your due date isn't something you need to keep a secret if you don't want to. What are some ways you can tell your family and friends your exciting news?

1. Photographs: You could do a mini photo shoot with the ultrasound picture and baby shoes. If you have an older child or a pet, include them in the announcement photo. You could have your older child standing next to a chalkboard with something that says, "Big (sister or brother) starting (insert due date)". For your pet, you could do something like taking a picture of their paws next to baby shoes. Have fun and get creative!

2. Announce to immediate family: Announcing your pregnancy and due date is an exciting time for you and your partner, as well as for your family and friend. If you don't want to immediately let everyone on social media know before your close circle does, plan unique announcements for each group! Don't let the pressure of sharing your due date stress you out; it doesn't have to be extravagant. A phone call to your mother (instead of texting) means more because it's personal. Or maybe a cup that says, "World's Best Grandma/Grandpa/Uncle/Aunt" and a picture of the ultrasound with the due date will be more memorable for years to come.

3. Make something special (or have something special) made to celebrate: You can go beyond having a cup made when you announce your due date. If you're creative with programs like Photoshop, you could create a movie poster with the due date or make a small trailer with a video editing program (like iMovie or Windows Movie Maker). If you create the movie poster, you could put it in the baby's room once they're born.

Celebrity News: Prince Harry
'Feels Powerless' Amidst
Meghan Markle Royal Drama

By Courtney Shapiro

In celebrity news, Prince Harry is feeling pressure with the negativity surrounding his wife Meghan Markle. There has been a bit of a strain on the celebrity relationship because Prince Harry is “very frustrated with how little can be done” in regards to the harm around the Duchess. According to UsMagazine.com, reports have surfaced that Meghan Markle has been feuding with her sister-in-law as well as her private secretary, yet there was no drama with either party. Overall, Prince Harry just wants to be there for his wife.

In celebrity news, Prince Harry is feeling the pressure of the drama # surrounding his bride Meghan Markle. What are some ways to support your partner through a hard time?

Cupid's Advice:

How can you support your partner through a hard time? Cupid has some thoughts:

1. Remind them it is only temporary: The hard time your partner is going through isn't going to last forever. Be positive with your partner and reassure them that they can get through the rough patches.

Related Link: Prince Harry & Duchess Meghan Did Not Attend Priyanka Chopra & Nick Jonas' Wedding

2. Don't add anymore negativity: Your partner might be going through something, and it's best you encourage them rather than put them down. Be gentle, your partner will notice that you're being supportive, and hopefully the rough time will end quickly.

Celebrity Baby News: Prince Charles Teases Baby Names for Duchess Meghan & Prince Harry

By Ivana Jarmon

Prince Charles has jokes! In celebrity news, the Prince teased the moniker on baby names for son Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan's upcoming arrival. "My son Harry tells me that during their recent tour of Australia he and his wife were offered countless thoughtful suggestions for the naming of their forthcoming baby," Charles told a crowd at the Australia House in London. He continued, "Just between us, I suspect that Kylie and Shane may possibly make the short list. But ladies and gentlemen, I would not hold your breath for Edna or Les.” The celebrity couple married earlier this year in May and announced their pregnancy in October, UsMagazine.com reports.

In celebrity baby news, Prince Harry and Duchess Meghan are growing closer to their due date. What are some ways to decide on baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

The name you choose for your baby will be a defining piece of his or her identity forever. Whether you want to go with a traditional, trendy or totally unique selecting an ideal name for your newborn can be pretty hard. Cupid has some ways to decide on baby names:

1. Uniqueness: Many parents want the child to have a unique name that will separate their child from all the Janes and Johns. But sometimes an unusual name can bring your child unwanted attention. When naming your child think about mispronunciation to make sure your child won't be subjected to a lifetime of correcting others

The Exciting World of Celebrity Engagements and Weddings

Members of the general public are fascinated by the love lives of their favorite celebrities. They adore hearing about movie stars and their engagements. They love getting news about musicians, athletes, models and media personalities who are planning glitzy wedding festivities, too. Famous people are often stealthy and protective about their love lives at first. They don't want the media finding out about their plans and perhaps even ruining them. They like to hold on to the small amounts of privacy they can manage.

Many different components go into celebrity romances in the modern age. Find out more!

Some celebrities take to social media platforms to inform the public of their engagements. Other celebrities choose to take a more mysterious route. People often hear about massive celebrity weddings after the fact. It isn't unusual to hear about film stars who elope in different nations. It isn't uncommon to hear about television stars who get married in lavish ceremonies on the beach, in the mountains, all the way across the ocean in Italy and perhaps even at city hall with no one around.

Rings are a big part of the culture of a celebrity marriage. This isn't a surprise. It can be fascinating to stare at engagement rings. It can be just as riveting to look at wedding rings. People can't wait to see the enormous "rocks" on celebrity fingers. These rings often cost celebrities pretty pennies, too. People who look online and in magazines often see close-up pictures showcasing these rings from every angle possible. It doesn't matter if it's a chic black engagement ring with diamonds; it doesn't matter if it's contemporary or classic. People want to see the ring that Pete Davidson got for Ariana Grande. They want to see what Prince Harry and Meghan Markle have.

Engaged couples of all kinds regularly hire professional wedding planners to assist them with their big days. Celebrity weddings are often high-end affairs with impressive guest lists, stunning surroundings, and high-end design components. That's the reason that it makes complete sense for celebrities to recruit professional assistance. It's not exactly a small feat to put together a successful wedding for an individual who is in the public eye. It can be particularly tough to orchestrate a strong wedding for two famous people. Celebrities tend to work with wedding planners who have amazing track records and well-known client bases. These professionals are often based in large cities like Los Angeles, New York, Chicago, and London.

Wedding planners for celebrities often have difficult jobs on their plates. They have to select the ideal venues, first and foremost. Celebrities are like anyone else in that they can be rather fussy about the venue selection process. Some celebrities prefer the idea of venues that are comparatively intimate and small. Others like the concept of venues that are larger than life. Celebrity wedding planners have to strike a delicate balance. They have to be able to locate venues that are simultaneously “deluxe” and private. Fortunately, there are venues all over the planet that fit this description. Some celebrity couples tie the knot inside of rustic farmhouses that are located in picturesque New England. Others kick off married life in five-star hotels situated in the heart of energetic Manhattan. There are always many interesting choices accessible to diligent wedding planners.

Food is a major part of any wedding. Wedding planners for celebrities naturally have to make arrangements that pertain to menus. There are quite a few credible and widely known catering businesses that are suitable for five-star weddings. They specialize in all kinds of cuisines, too. A celebrity affair may include main dishes from France, Italy, Mexico, India or Japan. It may include appetizers from Thailand, Sweden, Peru, and Germany, as well. Highly regarded event catering businesses serve everything from Cajun to Chinese delights.

Peace is a rare thing for many people who are in the public eye. That’s the reason that some of the most prominent celebrities are so protective about their engagement and wedding plans. Some celebrities refuse to reveal their plans with regard to their honeymoons. People often have to speculate about their trips. The media made a lot of guesses that related to the honeymoon schedule for Prince Harry and Meghan. They didn’t depart for their honeymoon immediately after marrying.

Planning a beautiful and private celebrity wedding does take a lot of arranging, but when planned correctly, it is an amazing time for them and a time for the rest of us to dream about their special day.

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, it looks like the relationship between Meghan Markle and her dad may not be repairable. According to UsMagazine.com, during a celebrity interview, Thomas Markle had a lot to say about the royal wedding. Although there was a lot of celebrity gossip going around about Markle, in the interview he cleared things up. Markle was upset because he did not receive a formal invitation nor was he allowed to make a small speech congratulating the new celebrity couple. As much as Duchess Meghan would like to fix her now famous relationship with her father, it looks like it will be a long time before that happens.

In celebrity news, additional details are coming out about Duchess Meghan's dad's involvement in the royal wedding. What are some ways to keep family drama out of your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

As exciting as your big day is, planning it can often be stressful because of family drama. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep family drama out of your big day:

1. Plan smart: The most proactive way to eliminate any possible problems on your big day is to plan ahead. If Uncle Louie doesn't like his ex wife, don't have them sit near each other. While you can't control who will sit near who during the ceremony, the reception is easily where you have more of a handle on what happens. Although it is your big day and you want to enjoy it the way you want, sometimes you have to bite the bullet and compromise on some things. It's safe to say you rather get to have a wedding with family rather than a wedding turned WWE Smackdown match.

2. Set everyone straight: An aggressive yet proactive way to deal with family drama spilling onto your big day is to simply address it. Let your family know that you will not tolerate any issues on your big day. With emotions running high during a day like a wedding, it is important to speak to anybody who may pose a threat to your big day. Remember keep it short, sweet and respectful. Sometimes people need to be reminded that it's YOUR day and not theirs.

3. Be prepared: Not only mentally, but physically prepare yourself. It may sound negative but depending how much drama you have, you may need to prepare for the worst. As funny as it sounds, it may help to even ask a few trustworthy people to help out incase any unforeseen issues arise. It is your big day and sometimes there are those few that don't remember that. With this, you can keep it mostly to yourself and be able to deal with it without interrupting your festivities.

Why Celebrity Couple Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Are Ignoring Royal Rules

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, royal celebrity couple Prince Harry and Meghan Markle are apparently ignoring some big royal rules. A source told People that Meghan “has found certain rules in the royal household difficult to understand, like the fact that the Queen prefers women in dresses or skirts rather than trouser suits, and is often asking Harry why things have to be done a certain way. I think she finds it a little frustrating at times, but this is her new life, and she has to deal with it.” It appears Meghan is willing to challenge some of the rules of the monarchy, such as public displays of affection. According to EOnline.com, Meghan held on tightly to Harry when they made their first public appearance at the 2017 Invictus Games. Meghan has also made it clear she’s not afraid to voice her political opinions, proclaiming that she is proud to be a woman and a feminist on her page of the official British monarchy website. She also voiced her opinions at the first-ever Royal Foundation Forum this past winter, “I hear a lot of people speaking about girls’ empowerment and women’s empowerment; you will hear people saying they are helping women find their voices. I fundamentally disagree with that because women don't need to find their voices, they need to be empowered to use it and people need to be urged to listen. I think right now in the climate we're seeing with so many campaigns, with #MeToo and Time's Up, there's no better time than to really continue to shine a light on women feeling empowered and people really helping to support them—men included in that." Meghan also hasn't shied away from more modest clothing, opting to bear a sliver of her shoulder at her Trooping of Colour debut in June and often wearing suits instead of only wearing the traditional attire of a skirt or dress. Meghan and Harry also chose to make personal decisions regarding their wedding in May. The couple personalized their wedding vows, had a lemon elderflower cake instead of a traditional fruitcake and chose Reverend Michael Bruce Curry, a Chicago native and the first black presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church, to deliver a sermon on their special day.

This royal celebrity couple isn't all about the royal rules. What are some ways to define your own path as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Want to define your own path as a couple with your partner? Cupid has some tips on how to do it:

1. Stick to your morals: Just like Meghan, it's important that you hold on to your morals even while being in a relationship with someone. Don't be afraid to voice your opinions and be proud of what you value.

are some ways to show the world you're over your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes people say they are over their ex when they religiously still check their social media or drive past their ex's house. Whether you miss your former partner or not, Cupid has some advice on some ways to show the world you're over your ex:

1. No pettiness: This is probably the hardest one. While you may or may not be over your ex, either way, the worst thing you can do is be petty and do something out of spite. Cupid believes in karma and that whatever you do can very well come back to bite you in the butt. No matter what kind of emotional pain you are in, it won't be worth going out of your way to do something means-spirited. You can't show the world that you still care. Just remember, they don't say karma is always nice.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Heal a Broken Heart

2. Go out: Enjoy yourself! Don't worry about jumping into the next relationship or taking the next step because you see an ex doing it. Everything will work out for you; don't worry. Enjoy your "me time" and have fun. Laugh and live more with the people who love you. If your ex is lurking, they will definitely see your glow and feel some type of way. Your smile will be your biggest act of revenge.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Working Through Your Heartbreak

3. Love yourself: This is a very important, especially if you are still having a rough time. Splits are never easy and it will get better with time. Until then, you can put all that love you have into yourself. Treat yourself to a spa day, or go hang out with friends. You only need positive vibes around you at this time. Once you are around loved ones, you will feel so much better and you can help use that love to guide you back to loving yourself and begin to heal. Loving yourself is allowing to not only love yourself, but to embrace the love of others.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry & Meghan Markle 'Snuck Off' Before Reception Ended

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, hours after the royal couple said, “I do,” they were seen leaving their reception early. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple, Meghan Markle and Prince Harry, were exhausted after a long, 17 hour day and left their reception at the Frogmore House before it ended. “They let themselves have a few drinks, then they were ready to get back for some rest,” an insider said. Before leaving, the Duke and Duchess enjoyed dancing the evening away with friends and family. The anticipation alone must have made this celebrity wedding tiring.

This royal couple snuck off before the official end of their celebrity wedding. What are some ways to keep fatigue at bay on your big day?

Cupid’s Advice:

Preparations alone can leave you tired before your big day. Cupid has some advice on how to keep fatigue at bay on your big day:

1. Rest up: Try to pace yourself the week before your big day. If you get enough rest throughout the week, you should be well rested and ready to enjoy your day. Maybe if you are lucky, you can sneak in a quick nap, but how likely is that?

Related Link: ‘Married at First Sight’ Relationship Expert Dr. Joseph Cilona Says, “Each Day Is A New Learning Experience”

2. Have a schedule set: Make a schedule to organize your day. While anything could happen, it will help to have everything written out so you can mentally prepare yourself. It can be simple, like, “bridal party photos at 11.” Sometimes anticipating things puts the mind at ease, and you are a little more relaxed.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Compromise on Your Nuptials

3. Eat: One of the most important things is to make sure you eat something. We all know how we get when we don’t eat, so don’t do it to yourself. Light snacks like nuts or apples will keep you energized and still have you looking good in your dress. Nobody wants to pass out on their big day, so just remember to keep it light and you will be fine.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry & Duchess Meghan Tie the Knot & Release Official Photos

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, the anticipated royal wedding has come and gone. The celebrity couple had their wedding this past weekend as millions tuned in to witness the royal union between Prince Harry and Meghan Markle. According to UsMagazine.com, the portraits of the Prince and Duchess have been released. As anticipated as this wedding was, media outlets are still buzzing about the celebrity wedding.

This royal celebrity wedding was highly anticipated and watched by millions. What are some ways to cope with your anticipation of your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is one of the most anticipated days of your life. Typically people count down from months, to years before their big day. Cupid has some advice to cope with the anticipation of your big day:

1. Celebrate: This is a huge step in your life and is definitely a time to celebrate. With the drama and stress that surrounds weddings, you need time to relax and let loose. Besides the bachelor/bachelorette parties, maybe have a night where everyone can come together and relax together.

Related Link: 8 Things Your Wedding Can Do Without

2. Anticipate: Now, this may sound negative, but it can be a very effective tool to use. It's simple; if you anticipate drama and mistakes with the thought, "What's the worst that could happen?" you will get through the weeks leading up to the big day. It's almost like reverse psychology. You will mentally be prepared for anything thrown at you.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Compromise on Planning Your Nuptials

3. Reminders: Sometimes you need to remind yourself that it is one day in your life. Mentally preparing yourself is often a great tool when dealing with stressful situations. Remind yourself that you and everyone else are only human and nothing is perfect. You can only do the best that you can and that, itself, will be good enough.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle Asks Prince Charles to Walk Her Down the Aisle In Dad's Absence

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, Saturday is the big day for celebrity couple Megan Markle and Prince Harry. According to UsMagazine.com, it looks like the bride to be will be escorting down the aisle by her future father in law, Prince Charles. Just this past week, we have heard stories from her father selling pictures to the tabloids to family members sharing and exposing family issues. Fortunately, since Markle's father will not be in attendance, it seems that she won't have to walk down the aisle by herself. "Ms. Meghan Markle has asked His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales to accompany her down the aisle of the quire of St. George's Chapel on her wedding day." Looks like Prince Charles will save the day for the celebrity wedding!

This royal celebrity drama has been solved by Prince Charles stepping in. What are some ways to keep family drama from affecting your big day?

Cupid's Advice:

Your wedding day is the day you will never forget. With that being said, unfortunately, drama is inevitable on the big day. Cupid has some tips to keep family drama from affecting your big day:

1. Remain calm: The most basic yet hardest thing to do. You have to remember that things happen and while it is your day, you cannot control the actions of others. Take this cliché advice because, remember, it is a day you will never forget.
