Even when it comes to the royal celebrity wedding, family drama happens. What are some ways to keep family drama from affecting your big day?

Cupid’s Advice:

Even royals aren’t immune to family drama. Cupid has some tips of keeping family drama from affecting your wedding:

Talk to your parents, in-laws and everyone else about how all decisions are ultimately up to you and your partner, even though you appreciate their input.

collected in preparation for their wedding day?

Cupid's Advice:

The emotions that flow through you in the weeks leading up to your wedding day are so wonderful and exciting. But sometimes, some anxiety can creep in. Here are some ways to push those negative emotions aside and focus on the pure happiness that comes with the time leading up to the big day:

1. Eat healthy: This may seem like a weird thing to do in order to help you become less stressed for your wedding day, but think about it...Healthy food helps you to feel more energized while junk food can make you tired, lethargic, and cranky. The more energy you have, the easier it will be to plan those last minute things. Also, eating healthy will make you more happy because it will decrease the stress of you fitting into your wedding day outfit knowing that you are consuming non-fatty foods. It is a win-win situation.

Try your best to keep your mind occupied with other fun things so that you don't begin to overthink and stress about your wedding day. If you keep yourself occupied, it will help you to resist checking the predicted weather forecast for your wedding day every five minutes.

Marry

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, the Queen has spoken! According to UsMagazine.com, Queen Elizabeth II gave her formal approval for royal celebrity couple Prince Harry and Meghan Markle to tie the knot. In a formal statement on Wednesday, the Queen said: "I declare my consent to a contract of matrimony between my most dearly beloved grandson Prince Henry Charles Albert David of Wales and Rachel Meghan Markle, which I consent I am causing to be signified under the Great Seal and to be entered in the books of the Privy Council." So yeah, it's official! We are as excited as you are about this upcoming celebrity wedding.

It looks like this royal celebrity wedding has been blessed by the Queen! What are some ways to get your family on board with your choice in a partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're serious about your partner, you definitely want your fam's approval. Cupid has a few ways on how to go about that:

1. Discuss your relationship with them: Communication is always essential in any situation. And it goes both ways. Not only should you speak to your family about your partner, your relationship, and the future, but you should also listen to what they have to say in response. If you want them to consider what you're saying, then you should do the same. And remember, express yourself as clearly as possible.

2. Avoid being defensive: This isn't always easy, but not being defensive can help avoid a fight. Remain calm and grounded, even if they are being unreasonable. Why? Because you shouldn't stoop down to that level – it won't lead anywhere good. Take deep breaths if necessary. Your family should not be putting you down, and you shouldn't be putting them down either. Respond to their concerns, and don't make them feel like their opinions aren't valid.

3. Have them spend quality time with your partner: You can all part-take in activities together, especially ones your family loves. Also, make sure your partner understands how important it is for your family and them to get along. The time spent together should be respectful and fun. Give your family the chance to get to know your boyfriend or girlfriend, and vice versa.

Royal Celebrity Couple News: Meghan Markle Gets Baptized at Chapel Royal at St. James Place Prior to Celebrity Wedding

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Meghan Markle was baptized at the Chapel Royal at St. James' Palace on Tuesday, according to UsMagazine.com. We can see that the royal couple is making moves before their royal celebrity wedding. In attendance were Prince Harry, Prince Charles, Duchess Camilla, and one of Markle's friends. However, Markle's parents along with Prince William and Dutchess Kate were absent. Either way, we are cheering Markle on as she continues on the road to her royal life.

This royal celebrity couple is preparing for their big day, this time religiously. What are some ways to reconcile different religions when you're going to marry someone?

Cupid's Advice:

It's okay to have differences when in a relationship. However, certain differences take more of a toll on a couple than others. The commitment to different religions is one of them. Cupid has some tips on ways to handle a situation like this one:

1. Share your histories with one another: Besides helping you and your significant other to open up and know more about each other, sharing histories will help you see where the other is coming from. Discuss the religious and cultural pieces of your life with an open mind. Listen and share.

Related Link: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry to Face Danger on Their Wedding Day

2. Respect each others beliefs: It is important that respect takes place always. Whether you agree with someone's religious views or not, you should show respect. The minute disrespecting takes place, a new problem is created beside the original one of difference in religion. Showing respect can even sometimes fix the problem, because you both feel safe and not attacked.

3. Face all issues that may arise: Do not just ignore any issues that develop due to different religious views. It is better to nip things in the butt before they get worse. Many religious people are serious about their beliefs, so it is best to face obstacles right on. Communicate effectively always. Listen to your partner, and discuss your point of view clearly as well.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry to Face Danger on Their Wedding Day

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, royal celebrity couple Meghan Markle and Prince Harry face a potential danger: being a target. According to EOnline.com, former Head of Royal Protection and Chief Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police Service Dai Davies said: “History has a habit of repeating itself. In the last thousand years, there hasn’t been a King or Queen that someone hasn’t tried to murder.” In addition, it cost $33 million to protect Prince William and Kate Middleton at their celebrity wedding in 2011 – one of the most pricey security operations. Undercover police, investigations to avoid terrorist attacks, snipers, and an extensive search for explosives hiding in any place you can think of were all part of that price. Harry and Meghan’s protection plan for their big day could possibly cost more than William and Kate’s – yikes! What makes them a bigger target is Harry’s active military status in Afghanistan, plus the hate letter containing anthrax (an infectious disease caused by the bacteria Bacillus anthracis) aimed at Meghan. As we can see, the royal fam needs all that protection. We wish this beautiful couple the best of luck!

Royals have a dangerous element to their celebrity weddings. What are some ways to keep drama from infecting your wedding day?

Cupid's Advice:

We all want our wedding day to be perfect, or at least close enough to it. We plan ahead to try to create this perfect day, but there's more to it. Cupid has some ideas on how to keep your wedding day as stress and drama free as possible.

1. Stay organized and delegate when needed: If you plan ahead, like most of us do for our wedding day, then you're off to a good start. But maintaining everything organized is the tough part if things don't go accordingly. And let's face it, many times things don't go according to plan. And don't be a total control freak either. It is your wedding day, but you need to learn to pass down tasks when necessary. Communicate properly and trust in your close friends and fam to help you get the wedding you deserve.

2. Adjust your guest list and seating arrangements properly: This may not be the case for everyone, but sometimes we need to take more consideration in who will be on the guest list and who will be seated with who for more than just the typical reasons. Do certain people not get along or have drama with one another? Then make sure they are seated far away from each other! And take any other actions necessary to keep drama from going down on your big day.

3. Meditate: On your wedding day, you should meditate. It's an exciting day, but also stressful because you obviously want it to be magical. Try meditating one to three times that day to keep you calm and grounded. We know you don't have tons of time, so five to 10 minutes each time should do the trick. It's worth it!

Look to Your Favorite Celebrity Couples for Valentine's Day Inspiration

1. Beyoncé and Jay-Z: This Valentine's Day, we want you and your partner to spend it Crazy in Love. We want you to forget all of your 99 Problems and put your Love on Top. Yes, those puns mean what you think they do: a Valentine's date idea inspired by the iconic duo Beyoncé and Jay-Z. This celebrity couple has been together for over 15 years. They've written dozens of songs together and now have three beautiful children – who wouldn't want to spend a day emulating them?

Why not go to a concert for Valentine's Day? It doesn't have to be a big one; it could be a small band that you and your loved one both enjoy. Singing and listening to music with your partner on such a romantic day is sure to hit some right notes. Or, if you want something more low-key, a karaoke bar could be great. Enjoying music together is perfect for couples who already have a passion for the industry –and obviously, a shared musical interest has served Beyoncé and Jay-Z well.

2. Victoria and David Beckham: When you think of inspirational celebrity couples, who comes to mind? If it's not Victoria and David Beckham, then you've had a lapse in memory because no couple is more #goals than them! These two are the textbook definition of class, and we heard that, if you look up "posh" in the dictionary, you'll find a picture of the two of them surrounded by their four children. We're joking, of course, but this celebrity couple is the inspiration for our next Valentine's Day date idea: a swanky dinner.

Going to a posh, new restaurant with your significant other is a classic idea and a tried-and-true Valentine's Day date. So throw in a David Beckham-twist, and head to a sports game or bar before the two of you dress up for your five-star meal. It may be a fun way to release some nerves before your dinner plans.

3. Kristen Bell and Dax Shepard: Two of the most underrated people in Hollywood also happen to be happily married and have a relationship that shows that shared humor is a blessing. Kristen Bell and Dax Shepard have proven that a love for comedy leads to the purest of partnerships and makes for some great laughs that help you and your loved one grow even closer. Taking inspiration from these two, go to a comedy club or an underground stand-up night. Take your partner to a place where you both can laugh and enjoy a fun time that's bound to be memorable.

4. Rose Leslie and Kit Harington: You and your partner have a solid relationship, and you guys aren't the going out type. The two of you have no plans for Valentine's Day, except that Chinese takeout you want to order, and you're not really sure what to watch. Take a cue from stars Rose Leslie and Kit Harington, who fell in love while on set together for Game of Thrones. Find shows and films where the couples are married in real life, and watch their romance blossom on-screen, all the while knowing that they're still in love off-camera. Start by rewatching (or watching for the first time!) those early episodes of GoT where Jon and Ygritte fall in love, and don't miss the true magic that is being filmed between these two soulmates!

5. Rita Wilson and Tom Hanks: Another date night idea that doesn't involve going out and dealing with the madness that is Valentine's Day takes inspiration from power couple Rita

Wilson and Tom Hanks. These two have been happily married for almost 30 years and have two sons together, but as a couple, they're probably best-known for their ability to keep to themselves. They've managed to stay under the radar when it comes to paparazzi, and that's because they're both as down-to-earth as celebrities can get. They prove that you don't have to be glitz and glam to enjoy being with your loved one.

Take inspiration from them and stay home and make dinner together. Spend a low-key night bonding with each other and with your family rather than making a big scene. Their love has proven that it's not about what you do; it's about who you do it with.

6. Sarah Jessica Parker and Matthew Broderick: Valentine's Day doesn't strictly mean that you and your partner have to spend time alone together. It's a day about love, but it doesn't have to be spent isolated from your closest friends. This Valentine's Day, take inspiration from Sarah Jessica Parker and Matthew Broderick and host a group dinner at home. This celebrity couple is known for their incredible group of friends; they know how to be loving with their spouse while also maintaining a healthy social life. So why not have a Valentine's Day dinner party and avoid the hassle of making plans at a fully-booked restaurant? Afterwards, you all can play cute couple games and end the night on a fun note.

7. Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher: Mila Kunis shared that her first kiss ever was on the set of That 70's Show with her future husband Ashton Kutcher. If that isn't one of the cutest stories ever, we don't know what is! The two of them have two children together and are always pictured smiling ear-to-ear at basketball and baseball games together.

That's why our next date idea was easy: Take your loved one to a sporting event. Watching sports together makes for some great moments – from the pre-game tailgate to the first minutes after a big win, a game is bound to make the two of you feel closer. Plus, this celebrity couple seems to really enjoy watching the game together, so if it works for them, it can't hurt to try it with your significant other.

8. Jada Pinkett-Smith and Will Smith: The next inspiration for a Valentine's Day date idea comes from a famous couple that exemplifies trendy. Jada Pinkett-Smith and Will Smith have been together for nearly 21 years and have two children who have both thrived in the artsy-alternative community. This is a family of trendsetters and artists, so a date inspired by them needs to be on the same thread.

That's why we suggest that you and your soulmate go to a modern art exhibit or a jazz club – something that stimulates your minds but is visually or musically pleasing too. Afterwards, go to a cute little place for dinner for a well-rounded date. You can talk about the art or performance during your meal, so you don't have to worry about any awkward silences!

9. Sarah Michelle Gellar and Freddie Prinze Jr.: From She's All That to Cruel Intentions, Sarah Michelle Gellar and Freddie Prinze Jr. ruled the silver screen of 90's romances, and now, they have championed a new field: long-term celebrity relationships. They have been married for almost 16 years and have two children together, and there has never been a rumor of them getting a celebrity divorce or threatening to split.

A great date idea for the couple who loves a little bit of 90's romance is a night out at a retro theatre watching old rom-coms. Snack on some buttery popcorn and soda for a throwback Valentine's Day date night!

Cocktails for February Date Nights

Gin & Dubonnet

Celebrate yourself and drink like a queen. Queen Elizabeth II has a Gin & Dubonnet every day at lunch. In fact, it's part of her four-cocktails-a-day routine. It's perfect to enjoy while having some “me time.” There’s a good chance that the Queen will sip on one of these at Prince Harry and Meghan Markle’s celebrity wedding reception!

Ingredients:

- 1 1/2 oz. gin
- 3/4 oz. Dubonnet Rouge
- Lemon or orange twist for garnish

Directions:

Add all the ingredients to a glass and fill with ice. Stir. Garnish with a lemon or orange twist. Sip as you are wearing your favorite tiara.

Chocolate Martini

A chocolate martini is an aphrodisiac in a glass. Believe it or not, two Hollywood legends created this cocktail: none other than Rock Hudson and Elizabeth Taylor. They invented it one evening when they lived across the street from each other while they filmed the movie, Giant.

The following recipe uses Sean “Diddy” Combs’ Ciroc Vodka. Maybe he will make one for his long-time love Cassie – or she will make one for him. After all, it’s the perfect cocktail for lovers on a February date night.

Ingredients:

- 1/2 oz. Ciroc Vodka
- Dash of Madagascar vanilla extract
- 1 1/2 oz. Godiva Chocolate Liqueur
- 2 1/2 oz. half-and-half
- 1 oz. Kahlua
- Ice
- Shaved chocolate and/or fresh strawberries for garnish if desired

Directions:

Add all of the ingredients to a cocktail shaker and shake. Pour into a chilled cocktail glass that is rimmed with chocolate syrup. Garnish with dark chocolate and/or strawberries.

Flirtini

February would not be complete without a Flirtini. Most people remember the Cosmo being a big part of Sex and The City, but the Flirtini was also in the mix. All it takes is three ingredients. Enjoy with your girl squad while binging on the show.

Ingredients:

- 1 oz. vodka
- 2 oz. champagne
- 2 oz. pineapple juice

Directions:

Combine vodka, champagne, and pineapple juice in a highball or collins glass filled with ice. If you are making it for a viewing soiree, multiply the recipe by six, and mix it up in a pitcher.

This royal celebrity wedding has an official wedding date we can all anticipate! What are some ways to decide what time of year to tie the knot?

Cupid's Advice:

Picking your big wedding date is a very important detail to figure out! If you're having trouble deciding when you want to celebrate your big day, see what Cupid has to say:

1. If the season fits: It may seem like a no-brainer, but picking a season is an easy way to narrow down your options. Maybe you prefer cold weather rather than warm – you've already crossed all the months in the summer seasons out! Pick what's best for you and your partner is the key here.

3. Singling out the days that don't work: If all else fails and you're still in a bind, start crossing out the days on the calendar that are absolute no-no's. If you're a busy professional, then your busiest month probably isn't the best choice for you. Big holidays might be other dates to avoid – unless you can get your save-the-dates out well enough in advance.

Royal Celebrity Couple News: William & Kate Will Host Harry & Meghan for the Holidays

By Rachel Sparks

With all this holiday cheer and celebrity wedding planing fun, what's more exciting than this royal celebrity news? According to UsMagazine.com, Prince Harry and Meghan Markle have a family-filled Christmas holiday. They'll start Christmas Eve with Queen Elizabeth II at her Sandringham House, then spend the rest of the holiday with Prince William and Duchess Kate as their official house guests. Slated with plans, they'll spend brunch-time at St. Mary Magdalene Church and enjoy a massive feast with two turkeys, a third bird being sent up to the nursery for the royal children.

Even celebrity couples celebrate the holidays with family. What are some ways to keep the drama out of your family reunion?

Cupid's Advice:

Let's be honest, not everyone likes their family. Holidays pressure us to spend time with our more distant relatives, but that only adds more stress. Snide comments, little jabs, and passing judgements end up hurting a lot of feelings and causes drama. Our relationship advice will get you through this holiday season with as little family drama as possible:

1. Be grateful: Not everyone can visit their families, so realize that, despite the drama, there are people who are envious of you and your family. No, your family isn't perfect. There's fights and screaming children and disappointed parents, but families are messy. Revel in the fact you have so many people around you who, at the end of the day, love you. That's a lot to appreciate.

2. Anticipate triggers: It's hard to remain cheerful when you know your brother is going to comment on your weight. Expecting these snide comments can help alleviate some of the frustration and anger when they do occur. You may be able to ignore these comments and just have a good time, and that is something that will drive your family crazy if they're wanting to push your buttons. Set a new trend: ignore jabs and experience joy.

3. Banish black-and-white thinking: We all want the holidays to be magnificent. We want our kids to have the same joyful memories we did, full of magic. We want to genuinely enjoy seeing our family and reconnecting with them. People don't always meet these expectations, accidents happen, fights break out, kids cry, and that holiday cheer you pictured isn't what's playing out. Put aside expectations and realize setbacks happen, but that doesn't mean the whole holiday is ruined. Don't dwell on the problems; instead, enjoy every moment for what it is.

2. Pick your date: Picking the date of your big day is another determining factor when deciding where your wedding will be. There should be some synchrony between the two! Royal Celebrity Wedding: Prince Harry Asked Meghan Markle's Mom for Permission Before Engagement

By Rachel Sparks

The royal family is all about tradition, and Prince Harry is no exception. According to People.com, Prince Harry asked his fiancé's mother, Doria Ragland, her permission to marry Meghan Markle. Markle is very close to her mother, saying that she is both nurturing and fun. Prince Harry knew that Ragland's answer would have a huge impact on Markle. We're excited to see this celebrity wedding in a few months!

This royal celebrity wedding engagement came only after permission was granted. What are some benefits to asking your partner's parent for permission before an engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Popping the question is full of nerves and excitement. There's the pressure to do everything right and make sure it's perfect because it sets the tone for your future as a couple for the rest of your lives. However you plan your engagement and wedding speaks to who you are as a couple, so sometimes we may want to forgo traditions. There are benefits to sticking with the old practices. Here's Cupid's relationship advice to guide you through your wedding season:

1. Respect: You may not be all that traditional, but sometimes it's worth considering how others may feel. If you don't ask your partner's parents for permission, will they be upset? A wedding is about you and your soon-to-be-spouse, but it's also a representation of your marriage, consisting of compromise, family, and respect. You may not care about traditions, but your partner's family (and maybe even your partner) could care. Show you respect them by sticking with the tradition. It sets a great tone and relationship for the rest of your life with your partner's family.

2. Support: No, you don't ask for permission with the hopes of having financial support during the wedding. Sometimes parents can't help pay for things. Including them in the process from the beginning opens up the doors to opportunities for support. They may have ideas, may help decrease the stress, might have money or a space for the wedding. Whatever it is, parents often do want to support their families, so make sure you don't distance your future in-laws by forgetting about them in the very beginning. Ask them for permission and you might get rewarded.

3. Sense of belonging: Ultimately, marriage is about family.

Not everyone has a huge family or a close one, but at the end of the day, family is the group of people you're stuck with. Asking permission before proposing creates a respectful, open, and vulnerable relationship with your new family members. It's nerve-wracking but worth the new love and support you'll receive.

With all of these decisions, have you decided what time of year to celebrate the special occasion? Here's Cupid's relationship advice to help you plan your future wedding:

1. Your favorite season as a couple: Did the two of you meet in the spring and every blooming blossom reminds you of your love for each other? 2. Wedding photographs: Great photographs are all about lighting. When you think about what time of year to plan your wedding, think about how light changes throughout the year. If you're in the north wanting a winter wedding, besides the cold, you should consider that the sun sets very early compared to the rest of the year. Natural lighting is the best kind of lighting for photographs, so if you want the best pictures to remember the day by, take special consideration into when your wedding will be.

3. Invitation accommodations: When you're planning to have a lot of people come to your wedding, you have to consider other people's schedules. Consider the people you're inviting; if you want a lot of people to come then you need to choose a time most convenient for as many invitees as possible.

photo is referencing. For the most fun, pick a variety of precious photos from different milestones in your relationship, like the day you met, your first date, the day you moved in together, the day you said I love you, etc. This is a great way to get your guests talking and reminiscing about their favorite memories of you as a couple and get to know each other in the process too!

2. Toast each other: Many weddings feature toasts from the maid of honor or best man, but it's rare that the bride or groom step up to the mic themselves. For a tear-jerking moment where all eyes are on you, take some time during your reception to share a special toast dedicated to your partner, and let your significant other and new spouse do the same for you as well. While you'll have already made some beautiful promises to each other in the vows, this is the perfect time to share a funny story about when you knew they were "the one" or explain all the beautiful things you know are waiting in the future for you two!

Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle Arrives in London for Pippa Middleton's Wedding

By Noelle Downey

It looks like things are getting really serious in Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's celebrity relationship! According to EOnline.com, Markle recently arrived in London and made an appearance at Kensington Palace just days before she and Prince Harry are set to attend Pippa Middleton's celebrity wedding together. This is big news for the celebrity couple, as Markle has never attended an event with Prince Harry's family before, or been photographed meeting them. Could it be this is Markle and Prince Harry's "meet the parents" moment when it comes their Hollywood relationship? It's hard to say, but either way, attending a wedding together, particularly one as high-profile as this with the rest of the royal family in attendance, is a major deal, especially given how private the pair has been up to this point. Although their relationship was confirmed last November, the two only made their first public appearance together this month, when Markle was spotted cheering Prince Harry on at a his charity polo match, and later stealing a discreet kiss in the parking lot.

This celebrity wedding marks Meghan Markle's first public interaction with Prince Harry's family. What are some ways to know you're ready to involve your family in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt about it, taking your partner to meet your family can be stressful! Here are the top three ways to know you and your sweetie are ready for that big step:

- 1. You feel secure in the relationship: You don't want to bring someone home who you're pretty sure won't be in your life by next month. If you're introducing your special someone to your parents and siblings, make sure that's just what they are; special. If you're secure in your relationship you can be sure that no matter how it goes with your family that your

S.O. will do their best to be well-liked by people who are so important to you and that your family will recognize how amazing and special your partner is.

2. Marriage is a possibility: If you feel like the one you're dating might just be the one, then you should definitely consider introducing them to your family. Even if such a big commitment could be months or years down the road for you two lovebirds, establishing a relationship with your family as a couple will only make your bond stronger and help your family adjust to the idea of an eventual addition to their inner circle.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Source Says Prince Harry Is 'More Serious' About Meghan Markle 'Than He Ever Has Been' Before

3. You've met their family: If you've already met your significant other's family, why not introduce them to your own? While taking your partner to meet your family can be scary and hard, especially if you have a complicated relationship with them, it may put a damper on your relationship if your partner feels they've been open and shared their family life with you and you haven't reciprocated. Show your partner that you trust and appreciate them by taking down your walls and allowing them to see behind the scenes of your life and upbringing.
