

Celebrity Couple News: Channing Tatum Recalls 'Cruel' Proposal Tactic

By Melissa Lee

Channing Tatum recently reflected on his plan to propose to his now wife, Jenna Dewan Tatum, which ended up being... well, pretty cruel. According to UsMagazine.com, Tatum wanted to propose in 2008 but when he thought his wife was onto him, he tried to throw her off. "I basically told her I never wanted to get married," Tatum reveals. "I told her, 'I don't believe in the institution of marriage and I don't think I ever want to get married.'" She basically broke down crying." Apparently Dewan Tatum's reaction broke his heart, because he realized he had to propose sooner than later. Thankfully, she said yes, and the celebrity couple have been married since 2009.

This celebrity couple news has us shaking our heads at Channing Tatum. What are some ways to throw your partner off the scent when you're about to propose?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're attempting to keep your proposal a secret, there are better ways to do so instead of taking your partner on an emotional rollercoaster (sorry, Channing!). Head below for some of Cupid's advice on throwing your lover off when it comes to the big proposal:

1. Stay quiet: Instead of bringing up any hints of marriage or proposing, just stay silent about the topic. This way you aren't even bringing the thought to their attention, plus it'll make it seem like you aren't even thinking about it. Don't do this for too long, though – you don't want to pull a Channing and have your partner think that you're not even interested in getting married!

2. Make it a complete surprise: Try to surprise your partner with the proposal by having them think you're doing something simple. For example, take them out on a date night and then propose at the end of the night, making it a memorable yet quaint night. You could also go on a weekend getaway and plan a romantic surprise, catching them off guard entirely.

3. Do it when they're least expecting: On the other hand, you could also propose when they're least expecting it. Make your partner breakfast in bed and pop the question just as they're done digging in. If your lover is into a more simple approach, surprise proposals would be picture perfect.

By Melissa Lee

In celebrity news, despite the drama surrounding some Hollywood exes, Carmen Electra is proving that you can stay friendly with your celebrity ex. According to EOnline.com, Electra is still friends with her ex-husband, Dave Navarro after being married for two years. "We're still really good friends," Electra says, mentioning the fact that the two recently ran into one another at a hotel. "We have a connection and it's undeniable and I'll love him forever." She added that though the pair will always remain friends, they're not meant to be married and will not get back together.

In celebrity news, Carmen Electra proves you can still be friendly with your ex! What are some ways to move toward friendship with your ex partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Staying friends with your ex can be a tricky thing to accomplish, but if you make the right moves, it can end in complete civility. Check out some of these tips from Cupid:

1. End on good terms: Break-ups can be filled with anger, sadness, and hurt, but it is always a good decision to ultimately end things on good terms. At the end of the day, this person is someone you spent some time with, were romantically attracted to, and held a place in your heart. Although ending things positively won't completely get rid of the difficulty surrounding the break-up, it will help with getting through the tough times. Plus, when the time is right, it'll open an opportunity to becoming friends again.

2. Give it time: Even if this is someone you want to remain in your life, you have to give it some time – for both parties. It's safe to assume that the break-up will be a bit tough for you and your ex, so make sure you give yourself ample time to move forward before jumping into a friendship with them. There's no pressure to immediately have things go back to normal, regardless of what the circumstances are. Taking things slowly will benefit you, your ex, and the potential of being friends.

3. Have boundaries: When you do finally reach the point where you and your former lover are able to be friends, it's definitely important to have some boundaries. For example, it would be a little odd if your ex were talking and hanging out one-on-one every day and still claiming to be just friends, right? Eliminate any possibilities of drama or mixed emotions/signals by simply creating a few limitations based off of your comfort levels.

Celebrity Workout: How to Drastically Lose Weight Like Jonah Hill

By Melissa Lee

Although this mega Hollywood actor has had his fair share of weight fluctuations throughout the years, Jonah Hill has recently been spotted looking fitter – and thinner – than ever. Hill, who has considered himself to be a victim of “yo-yo dieting”, reportedly sought help from his 21 Jump Street co-star Channing Tatum. Tatum apparently pointed him the right direction and helped him find a team of nutritionalists and personal trainers so Hill could finally lose the weight in a healthy manner. After dropping at least 50 pounds, Hill is Hollywood’s newest fitness inspiration.

Check out some of these celebrity workouts and fitness tips to shed the pounds off just like Jonah Hill!

1. Alcohol hurts: Before his weight loss journey began, Jonah Hill was no stranger to binge drinking, beer being his favorite beverage of all. After meeting with a nutritionalist and attempting to find a way to drink beer and still lose weight, he ultimately saw the effects it was having on his body. “It’s so annoying because if I don’t drink beer, I get really, really thin. Then when I drink beer, I get a little bigger,” Hill says. The lesson here? Either learn to indulge in alcohol every now and then, or ditch the empty calories altogether.

2. Say goodbye to those nasty cigarettes: As if anyone needed anymore reasons to dislike cigarettes, here’s another one: you can gain anywhere from five to ten pounds from quitting. People tend to substitute food with the lack of nicotine they’re receiving, but you’re better off altogether by quitting, despite the reported weight gain. Treat your body with respect and finally say goodbye to any remaining packs you may have.

3. End the battle with yo-yo dieting: Hill himself has expressed his frustration with yo-yo dieting – otherwise known as losing weight quickly and then gaining it all back. A recent study in the International Journal of Obesity reported that yo-yo dieting can serve some severe damage to your cardiovascular system, along with potentially increasing your risk of diabetes and heart disease.

4. Plan your grocery trips: Food shopping can tend to be an intimidating activity when you're trying to lose weight, but here's a way to help make the process a little bit easier. Make a list of items that you need (and be sure to stick to it!), and go food shopping after you've eaten a healthy breakfast. This way, you aren't particularly hungry while shopping, which should prevent you from stocking up on unnecessary snacks.

5. Chew: While this tip may sound a little ridiculous, trust us when we say it's not! Try your best to chew each bite at least 40 times when eating a meal. In a recent study, it was found that people that chewed their food more than twelve times ate less than those that didn't. It's even believed that chewing longer can lead to a more satisfied feeling.

Celebrity Couple News: Bethenny Frankel & Dennis Shields Are Back Together and 'Having Fun'

By Melissa Lee

Though this NYC couple split back in May, it seems as though fate has brought the two back together! Bethenny Frankel and Dennis Shields have been spotted alongside one another multiple times this summer in the Hamptons, and Shields even accompanied Frankel to Bravo's Watch What Happens

Live. According to EOnline.com, Frankel and Shields started dating back in 2015, and even though Frankel has been since romantically linked to business owner Russ Theriot, it seems like nothing could tear this celebrity couple apart.

This celebrity couple news proves that exes can rekindle their relationship! What are some factors to consider before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Before you bite the bullet and start dating your former ex-partner, there are a few things you should be considering. If you're in the same position as Bethenny or Dennis, check out Cupid's advice to help you make the right choice:

1. So, why'd you break up in the first place?: It's important to reflect on the former relationship as a whole and weigh the pros and cons. More importantly, why did you break up before? Is the issue something that has been solved, or is it still on-going? Everyone understands how tough break-ups can be (and how, in some cases, you may just want to skip it altogether and start dating again) but you should definitely make sure that the problems from the first relationship aren't going to continue.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby: 'Bachelor in Paradise' Stars Jade Roper & Tanner Tolbert Reveal Baby Girl's Name

2. Right reasons: Ask yourself this – are you getting back together for the right reasons? Is it because you're sad and you miss having a partner, or is it because you're deeply in love with this person and you believe you belong together?

Don't misinterpret sadness or hurt as reasoning to begin dating again.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Robin Thicke & Paula Patton End Custody Battle Amidst News of His GF's Pregnancy

3. Is it what you truly, really want?: The most crucial factor to remember – and reflect on – is if this is really what you want. When getting back together with someone, you have to have the upmost trust that this time it will work. If you don't feel that this will be a lasting relationship due to occurring issues from the last time, then maybe it isn't right. As cheesy as it may be sound, listen to your instincts and go with your gut.

Celebrity Exes: Katy Perry Discusses Rekindled Romance with Orlando Bloom

By Melissa Lee

After spending a night out at Ed Sheeran's concert in California, Katy Perry discussed the potential of a rekindled romance with ex Orlando Bloom. The celebrity couple dated for 10 months before splitting back in February. According to UsMagazine.com, Perry explained that "it's nice to keep people you love around you." She also mentioned that due to their busy schedules, she doesn't necessarily feel the need to label their relationship. "I'm really busy," Perry says. "And you know what, I'm about to go on tour for another year."

Celebrity exes don't always have to be on bad terms. What are some ways to keep things civil with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It seems that this former Hollywood couple are keeping things super civil, and we applaud them for that! It can be tough to stay friendly with someone you used to be romantically involved with. Check out some of Cupid's tips if this is something you find yourself struggling with:

1. Distance can do miracles: The break-up process can be lengthy, but it's essential for anyone that wants to get over their ex. Before you can even think about being civil with your former lover, it's important to distance yourself for a little bit. There's no way that you will be able to be friends right after breaking up – there is way too much sadness, anger, and hurt there!

2. Enforce boundaries: At the same time, it's crucial to have some limits when being friends with an ex. Lines can get blurred at times, especially if you're just trying to stay friends. An example of an important boundary to have is not hanging out one-on-one all the time. Base these limitations on your comfort levels with one another, and you should be good to go.

3. Make sure you have fully moved on: Before becoming BFFs with your ex-lover, make sure that you have fully and completely moved on from them. If you begin hanging out with your ex while you still have feelings for them, it can get really messy. There's even a potential for you getting even more hurt than you were before. Make sure to take care of your heart before putting yourself out there again.

Parenting Tips: Being an Adoptive Parent

By Melissa Lee

The journey that comes along with parenting is never a walk in the park, but becoming or being an adoptive parent is a completely different experience. Although it is heart-warming, kind, and a beautiful adventure, there can also be a lot of heartache, stress, and emotional trauma. Similarly to having your own biological child, there is no amount of advice that can fully prepare you for the real thing. However, if you're still in the market for some suggestions, Cupid has your back.

Check out these parenting tips if you're on the road to becoming an adoptive parent!

1. Decide between an open or closed adoption: Assuming you've done the majority of your research and have made the final decision to become an adoptive parent, choosing between an open or closed adoption is another huge aspect. Closed adoptions consist of a rather confidential relationship between your child and their birth parents, where they will have little to no contact. On the other hand, with open adoptions, the birth parent(s) are able to communicate with you or your adopted child, but the extent of contact is completely up to you.

2. Understand the finances: The money aspect of adoption is something that typically isn't talked about. Though it depends on the type of adoption you choose (domestic, international, private or independent), adopting a child can cost anywhere between $4,000 to $30,000. Given these hefty costs, there are ways to lessen the amount of money to pay, like low-interest loans offered by the National Adoption Foundation.

Related Link: Celebrity Parents Open Up About Their Best Parenting Advice

3. Use a lawyer: Adoption experts suggest hiring a lawyer, especially one that specializes in adoptions, when the process officially begins. Although this can sound scary and more legal than expect, a lawyer will ensure that there are no mistakes or loopholes when it comes down to being the adopted child's guardian. At the end of the day, you would rather be safe than sorry.

4. There can be a lot of emotional and physical damage: Experts advise to keep your expectations low regarding the adopted child. This is not meant to be crude, but rather because the child's former environment could have potentially left them in a rough state. A high percentage of adopted children were exposed to drugs or alcohol in the womb, which can have longterm effects, both physical or emotional.

5. Be open: Although the stigma surrounding adoption has mainly been lifted, it's highly important to be open about the topic, especially with your child. Focus on celebrating your family rather than acting like it's some sort of taboo subject, and be prepared to talk about the process as well.

Beauty Tips: 5 Holiday Makeup Looks to Try

By Melissa Lee

The holiday season is the best time to start experimenting with different makeup looks. Between the delicious food, family gatherings, and fun holiday parties, find some time to try out a few fun looks before heading to your next event. If you're bored of the same old glittery eye look, never fear –

Cupid's here to save the day! Check out some of these dazzling makeup tips that will have you looking like the star of the party.

Head below and find a few of Cupid's fave beauty tips for this year's holiday makeup looks!

1. Silver eyeliner: Gold and silver looks are always a holiday favorite, but why not experiment with your eyeliner? Pick up some silver liquid eyeliner and try out this wintery look by lining your lids with the metallic pigment. Keep the rest of your makeup fairly neutral so all the attention goes to your eyes.

2. Rosy cheeks: Although the freezing temperatures may be enough to add some color to your cheeks, this flushed face look is perfect for the holiday season. Not only is it simple, but it's definitely a change from the usual bronzed glow that we're used to seeing. Use your favorite cream blush or cheek tint by applying to product directly to the apples of your cheeks and blend with your fingers, creating a rosy yet natural glow.

3. Berry stain: This look is a step up from the classic dark lip, so if you're looking to vamp it up this December – pay attention! Try a glossy berry toned lip stain and concentrate it in the center of your lips. Carefully blend out the color by desaturating the outer edges of your lips. This '90s look is perfect, especially since you won't have to worry about fixing your lipstick all night.

4. Colorful underliner: If the silver eyeliner look was too much for you, try this out instead. Pick up a colorful or metallic pencil eyeliner and smudge it through your waterline. Pair this daring flash of color with a neutral, natural eye shadow look so your eyeliner is the attention-grabber.

5. Smoky eyes: The smoky eye is an oldie but a goodie – and perhaps one of the most difficult makeup looks to master. Instead of grabbing your favorite neutral eye shadow palette and attempting to create a smoky eye, try this gunmetal look instead. Using a black smudgeable non-waterproof eyeliner, trace the pencil into your crease, along the bottom lash line, and smear. Use your fingers to blend this baby out before gradually retracing the messy lines to make it darker. Swipe on your favorite mascara and you're good to go!

Author Interview: Ashley Papa Shares Relationship Advice & Discusses New Book, 'Vixen Investigations: The Mayoral Affairs'

By Melissa Lee

As a journalist and expert on all things romance, Ashley Papa is a relationship columnist that writes about sex, love, dating, and marriage. She is the author of a news blog, SEXTRA! SEXTRA!, which covers love and sex headlines. In addition to writing articles about the current dating scene, Papa has recently published her first book, Vixen Investigations: The Mayoral Affairs. The fiction novel is about a young woman that has launched her own business with the purpose of solving infidelity crimes. As a victim of cheating herself, Paige Turner is hired to take on a case surrounding the mayor and his wife that gets intense when she finds enough evidence to take down the entire administration. Paige eventually finds herself falling in love with a man while she's undercover, resulting in the challenge of revealing who she really is.

Ashley Papa Spills Details on Vixen Investigations: The Mayoral Affairs

The novel, which focuses on bringing justice to the broken-hearted, was completely inspired by the writer's own experiences. She frequently interviews relationship experts, so she used their expertise and translated it both to the book and the main character. "I created Paige as a heroine that encompasses this CIA-type coolness," Papa shares in our author interview. "I still wanted to make her relatable though." The relatable aspect of Paige is certainly not missing: Though described as a headstrong woman, Papa made sure to include Paige's experiences with unhealthy relationships and infidelities as well.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Kevin Hart & Eniko Hart Vacation Together Following Cheating Rumors

Although Paige is this incredibly strong-willed character, her downfall in the novel is when she finds herself falling in love. Papa explains that she wanted there to be an intense conflict in the book, especially since Paige's business is something that she typically keeps low-key. The author lends a bit of relationship advice when she touches on the importance of honesty, something that Paige struggles with when she doesn't want her identity to be found. "When you're not truthful from the start, it can start to snowball," Papa advises.

Author Dishes Important Relationship Advice That Everyone Should Hear

Papa's novel begins when Paige decides that she's had enough of being taken advantage of in the dating world. With such a powerful backstory, it almost seems criminal not to ask the journalist about her tips for getting over a tough relationship. "We all have different ways of coping, but you need to identify what you deserve," she explains, placing a heavy emphasis on self-worth. "We all deserve good relationships and respect, but if we're not finding that, it might be best to take a step back from dating and be by yourself until you realize what you need."

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: 'Famously Single' Dating Coach Dr. Darcy Sterling on Relationships, Communication & Her Own Marriage

In terms of trust issues, Papa is no stranger to learning to put your faith in someone again, especially after writing an entire novel on it. "Focus on yourself," she explains in our author interview. "It comes with taking things slow – you don't want to jump right into a relationship despite how confident you may feel." She also takes a cue from Vixen Investigations: The Mayoral Affairs by encouraging troubled individuals to be their own investigators, though she urges those to trust their instincts at the end of the day.

And if you're in a similar position as Paige, it's important to understand that although you are the victim of cheating, it won't be impossible to trust again. "Identify the fact that you deserve better, and make sure you fully understand that," the author says. "You don't want to get stuck feeling like everyone you date is going to cheat on you."

Journalist Reveals Personal Details & What She's Learned in Author Interview

The main message of her book, Papa discloses, comes from a caring place and completely depends on one's self-worth: "Everyone deserves a good relationship and to be loved. You don't need to put up with cheating just for the sake of being in a relationship."

Related Link: Relationship Advice: From Cheater to Keeper – How to Make Amends

She further opens up about the learning process she experienced when writing The Vixen Investigations: The Mayoral Affairs. When pulling inspiration from real life occurrences, it seems like it would be necessary to go through a great deal of self-reflecting. "Looking back at past relationships, I saw I didn't require the guys to respect me and be very truthful," Papa reveals. Right after she finished writing the first draft, she swore she was done dating dishonest and untrustworthy men – and shortly after, she ended up meeting her current boyfriend, whom she has been dating for the past two years.

Beauty Advice: DIY Hair Treatments for Pool Hair

By Melissa Lee

After spending the summer doing laps in the pool, you've probably noticed the severe damage it's done to your hair. It's no secret that chlorine can be super harmful to your hair, resulting in split ends, dry hair, or even a change in color! (That's right – chlorine can actually turn your hair green!) If you're looking to solve your post-pool hair problems, look no further and try out some of these DIY treatments.

Check out this beauty advice for DIY hair treatments for your damaged pool hair!

1. Aspirin: Here's a home remedy that almost everyone has the ingredients for. In order to prevent your hair from turning that gross green color, dissolve between six and eight aspirin tablets in a glass of warm water and run the mixture through your hair. Leave it in for 10 – 15 minutes for rinsing out.

2. DIY Detangling Spray: Mix together two tablespoons of conditioner, warm water, and five drops of rosemary essential oil. Spray this concoction in your hair and then comb it through before jumping in the pool. This detangling spray will help prevent your hair from getting dry.

3. Olive Oil Treatment: Apply olive oil to your hair and then put on a swimmer's cap. The oil will essentially repel the water and chlorine from your hair, repairing some of the damage from the day. It's also designed to soften your locks.

4. Apple Cider Vinegar: Try doing an apple cider vinegar rinse in order to remove any lingering chlorine after a long day at the pool. It apparently will remove any dead skin cells, along with unclogging hair follicles. Sounds promising!

5. Baking Soda Remedy: Mix together two tablespoons of baking soda, 1/4 cup of lemon juice and one teaspoon of shampoo. Wet your hair and massage this through, then cover your hair with a cap or plastic bag for 30 minutes. This hair mask will help repair damage from harsh chemicals.

By Melissa Lee

In Bachelorette news, Rachel has been picking between her last three suitors, Peter, Eric and Bryan. UsMagazine.com reported that the men met her family, each having a completely different experience. Peter, who openly expressed his objection with proposing to Rachel at the end of the series, found respect from her family, but the episode took a turn when the two were on their date. They found that they couldn't agree on common ground in terms of commitment, causing Rachel to shed some tears. However, when Eric met Rachel's family, he asked her mother for her blessing to propose – and she reluctantly said yes. Eric ended up sweet-talking Rachel on their date, claiming that she was everything he wanted in a wife, and she invited him to the Fantasy Suite that night. Celebrity Parents Who Keep Their Kids Out of the Spotlight

By Melissa Lee

With living in a world absolutely obsessed with pop culture and celebrities, you can only wonder – what does the media love more than stars? The answer to that is unsurprising and comes in the form of little ones... celebrity families! Not only does our society idolize celebs, but we also have a fascination with famous families like the Kardashians. This obsession has caused celebrity parents to make the executive decision to keep their children out of the spotlight – and we can't exactly blame them!

Check out these celebrity parents and their kids, who have managed to stay out of the limelight!

1. Sandra Bullock: Bullock adopted two children, Louis Bardo in 2010, and Laila in 2015. Although the paparazzi are always dying to catch candid photos of the single mom with her kids, Bullock has expressed her need for privacy on multiple occasions. "Most foster children are in foster care because they were taken from their birth homes under tragic circumstances," she says. "The last thing I wanted was to bring more harm to her because of the nature of my job."

2. Adele: Adele and husband Simon Konecki had their son in October 2012, and have kept him out of the spotlight to the best of their abilities. "We need to have some privacy," Adele explained. "I think it's really hard being a famous person's child." The couple even went as far as suing paparazzi in 2013 for taking photos of their son on a private family outing.

3. Jennifer Garner: When it comes to this celeb mom, her main concern was how aggressive the paparazzi were toward her three kids, Violet, Seraphina, and Samuel. She says that her kids were constantly uncomfortable with the paparazzi, and didn't want them to know what they looked like. "They don't want this at all, and I don't want it for them," Garner said.

4. Ryan Gosling and Eva Mendes: These celebrity parents are notorious for keeping things under wraps. In fact, the majority of their six-year long relationship has been extremely private! The couple have two daughters together, Esmeralda and Amada. "I find the media's 'bump watch' obsession to be both intrusive and stressful," says Mendes. "So I made the decision to eject myself from it completely."

5. Tyra Banks: Tyra welcomed her son, York, into the world just last year, and has made a great effort to keep his life relatively low-key. "I don't think that my son has ever asked to be seen, so I'm very, very conservative when it comes to showing him," said Banks.

'Famously Single' Dating
Coach Dr. Darcy Sterling on Relationships, Communication
& Her Own Marriage

Written By Melissa Lee. Interview by Lori Bizzoco.

Relationship expert and dating coach Dr. Darcy Sterling is no stranger to training individuals on their communication skills. As the mentor on E!'s Famously Single and the co-owner of a group practice, Dr. Darcy has spent the past 21 years counseling those on their relationship skills. Famously Single is only a sneak peek into the type of work Dr. Darcy does on a daily basis as a dating coach. As a clinical social worker, Dr. Darcy strives to help individuals open up and communicate in order to receive the most fulfilling romantic relationships possible. In our recent celebrity interview, Dr. Darcy revealed some of the drama that went down on this season, key relationship issues, and how her show has helped her own marriage.

Dr. Darcy Spills Some Drama on Season 2 of Famously Single in Celebrity Interview

Since the show essentially revolves around relationships, it's not a surprise that several co-stars ended up dating both during and after filming. Former Jersey Shore star Ronnie Ortiz-Magro and DASH Dolls alum Malika Haqq did not shy away from sharing details on their relationship on social media, but broke up shortly after filming ended. "I think they needed to learn how to have a fight. They had different communication styles, they needed to learn how to resolve conflict, and they needed to learn how to communicate effectively," Dr. Darcy says. She even confessed that her and wife Stephanie Koncicki offered to coach them after the show had ended, but Ronnie wasn't interested.

Bachelorette contestant Chad Johnson soon ended up revealing his love with model Zoe Baron. When asked whether or not Dr. Darcy thinks Chad has learned much from the show, she informed us that the couple had very recently broken up! "They broke up two nights ago, so you tell me," she says.

And when it comes down to Calum Best, who was also on the show last season, Dr. Darcy explained that it was much easier to get deep down and solve his relationship conflicts. "The amazing thing with Calum is that I got to go so much deeper with him because I already had a relationship established with him, so I didn't have to earn trust or build a foundation of a relationship," Dr. Darcy says. "I'm a little rough on Calum this season."

The Advice Dr. Darcy Gives Is As Real As It Gets

As a licensed psychologist, Dr. Darcy also has her own group practice in addition to an advice column. At times, it can be up for debate whether or not the advice she gives is the same she'd give to her private clients – but she quickly shuts that down. “You have to start with the basic skills – communication skills, conflict skills, how to have a fight. Those are the biggest issues.”

She explains that regardless of whether she's counseling in private or in the public eye on television, it is of great importance that individuals are working on their communication and conflict resolution. “We need them with all of our relationships. I need them with my friends, family, even my clients.”

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: 'Famously Single' Stars Ronnie Magro & Malika Haqq Have Split

Dr. Darcy further emphasized the fact that feelings get hurt in relationships, and it's somehow inevitable. “We need to know how to have a fight, and how to communicate when someone's hurt our feelings because in relationships, we hurt each other's feelings,” she says. “Everyone does it.”

Famously Single Improved Her Marriage

Dr. Darcy married her partner, Stephanie, in 2009. She mentioned that Stephanie also does relationship counseling, but coaches couples together, whereas Dr. Darcy prefers one-on-one. “We teach relationship skills all the time. We're incredibly mindful of practicing what we preach, and it's really enhanced our relationship,” Dr. Darcy disclosed.

The two even have an online course together called "Relationship Skills Bootcamp." The workshop is designed to teach participants to improve skills within their relationship, similarly to the way their face-to-face counseling is.

It turns out that hosting Famously Single has actually been a huge positive influence on her marriage. "We're much better to each other, we're more careful, we're on our toes with each other," she says. "How many people say getting a television show actually enhanced the relationship?"
